IN ASSEMBLY

January 22, 2020

Introduced by M. of A. LAVINE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Election Law

AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to the timing of the annual check of registrants; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 4-117 of the election law, as separately amended by chapters 3 and 5 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

1. The board of elections, not less than [~~sixty-five~~] eighty-five days nor more than [~~seventy~~] ninety days before the primary election in each year, shall send by mail on which is endorsed such language designated by the state board of elections to ensure postal authorities do not forward such mail but return it to the board of elections with forwarding information, when it cannot be delivered as addressed and which contains a request that any such mail received for persons not residing at the address be dropped back in the mail, a communication, in a form approved by the state board of elections, to every registered voter who has been registered without a change of address since the beginning of such year, except that the board of elections shall not be required to send such communications to voters in inactive status. The communication shall notify the voter of the days and hours of the ensuing primary and general elections, the place where he or she appears by his or her registration records to be entitled to vote, the fact that voters who have moved or will have moved from the address where they were last registered must either notify the board of elections of his or her new address or vote by paper ballot at the polling place for his or her new address even if such voter has not re-registered, or otherwise notified the board of elections of the change of address. If the primary will not be held on the first Tuesday after the second Monday in September, the communication shall contain a conspicuous notice in all capital letters and bold font notifying the voter of the primary date. If the location of the polling place for the voter's election district has been moved,

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.

1 the communication shall contain the following legend in bold type: "YOUR 2 POLLING PLACE HAS BEEN CHANGED. YOU NOW VOTE AT.....". The communi-3 cation shall also indicate whether the polling place is accessible to 4 physically disabled voters, that a voter who will be out of the city or 5 county on the day of the primary or general election or a voter who is 6 ill or physically disabled may obtain an absentee ballot, that a phys-
7 ically disabled voter whose polling place is not accessible may request 8 that his registration record be moved to an election district which has 9 a polling place which is accessible, the phone number to call for appli-
10 cations to move a registration record or for absentee ballot applica-11 tions, the phone number to call for the location of registration and 12 polling places, the phone number to call to indicate that the voter is 13 willing to serve on election day as an election inspector, poll clerk, 14 interpreter or in other capacities, the phone number to call to obtain 15 an application for registration by mail, and such other information 16 concerning the elections or registration as the board may include. In 17 lieu of sending such communication to every registered voter, the board 18 of elections may send a single communication to a household containing 19 more than one registered voter, provided that the names of all such 20 voters appear as part of the address on such communication.

21 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire and be 22 deemed repealed December 31, 2020.
