9141--A

IN ASSEMBLY

January 23, 2020

Introduced by M. of A. ABINANTI -- read once and referred to the Committee on Banks -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the state finance law and the education law, in relation to establishing the state financial literacy fund

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section
2	99-hh to read as follows:
3	§ 99-hh. State financial literacy fund. 1. Notwithstanding any other
4	provision of law, rule, regulation, or practice to the contrary, there
5	is hereby established in the joint custody of the state comptroller, the
6	attorney general, and commissioner of taxation and finance a fund to be
7	known as the "state financial literacy fund".
8	2. For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall have
9	the following meanings:
10	a. "Financial capability" means: (i) financial literacy and access to
11	appropriate financial products; and
12	(ii)(A) the ability to act, including knowledge, skills, confidence,
13	and motivation; and
14	(B) the opportunity to act, through access to beneficial financial
15	products and institutions.
16	b. "Financial literacy" means the ability to use knowledge and skills
17	to manage financial resources effectively for a lifetime of financial
18	well-being.
19	c. "Organization" means a state agency, state authority or an organ-
20	ization that possesses a federal tax exemption under section 501(c)(3)
21	of the United States internal revenue code.
22	d. "Unbanked" means an individual not served by an insured institution
23	in any capacity.
24	e. "Underbanked" means an individual with an account at an insured
25	institution but who has obtained alternative, nonbank, financial
00

26 services in the past twelve months.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD01592-03-0

A. 9141--A

Such fund shall consist of all moneys collected by the state from 1 3. 2 courts of the unified court system pursuant to article twenty-four of 3 the insurance law and all other moneys appropriated, credited, or trans-4 ferred thereto from any other fund or source pursuant to law. The moneys 5 in the state financial literacy fund shall be kept separate from and б shall not be commingled with any other moneys in the custody of the 7 state comptroller. 8 4. Beginning on April first, two thousand twenty-one and annually on 9 April first each year thereafter, the attorney general shall transfer a 10 sum up to one million dollars, subject to available funding, from moneys pursuant to subdivision three of this section. 11 5. Moneys of such fund shall be made available to the attorney general 12 13 shall be used for project grants to duly applying organizations to and 14 establish financial capability and financial literacy programs, products, content and/or services for at-risk populations in New York. 15 16 The attorney general shall establish the application criteria for such organizations for the purposes of the fund as defined in this section. 17 6. Moneys in such fund shall only be expended for a grant to provide 18 19 the following financial capability and financial literacy programs, 20 products, content and/or services: 21 a. to design, develop and/or offer free classroom or web based financial education content intended to help an unbanked or underbanked 22 consumer (i) achieve, identify and access lower cost financial products 23 and services; (ii) establish or improve their credit; (iii) increase 24 25 their saving or retirement funds; or (iv) lower their debt; 26 b. to provide individualized, free financial coaching to an unbanked 27 or underbanked consumer; c. to design, develop and/or offer free financial products and/or 28 29 services intended to help an unbanked or underbanked consumer (i) identify and access responsible financial products and services; (ii) estab-30 31 lish or improve their credit; (iii) increase their saving or retirement 32 funds; or (iv) lower their debt; or d. to design, develop and/or offer free classroom-based programs to be 33 implemented in the state education system to increase the financial 34 35 capability and financial education of the state's youth. 7. a. Every organization awarded a project grant pursuant to this 36 37 section shall: 38 (i) promote and enhance the economic security of consumers; 39 (ii) include an evaluation component which is designed to measure and document the extent to which such project achieved its intended outcome 40 41 and increased financial well-being of consumers who utilized such 42 project; and 43 (iii) submit an annual report to the attorney general documenting: 44 (A) the specific uses to which such funds were allocated; 45 (B) the number of individual consumers aided through the use of such 46 funds; 47 (C) the quantitative results regarding the impact of such project 48 grant; and 49 (D) any other information requested by the attorney general. b. Failure to submit a report pursuant to subparagraph (iii) of para-50 51 graph a of this subdivision shall render such organization ineligible for project grant funding during the subsequent fiscal year. 52 53 c. The attorney general shall post annually on their website a summary 54 of the annual reports received pursuant to subparagraph (iii) of para-

55 graph a of this subdivision.

A. 9141--A

1	8. The moneys shall be payable from the fund on the audit and warrant
2	of the comptroller on vouchers approved and certified by the commission-
3	er of the division of human rights.
4	§ 2. The education law is amended by adding a new section 803-c to
5	read as follows:
б	§ 803-c. Instruction relating to financial literacy. 1. The department
7	shall require that a school district incorporate into the social studies
8	curriculum for each of the grades kindergarten through eight financial
9	literacy instruction for pupils enrolled in such grades. The purpose of
10	such instruction shall be to provide students with the basic financial
11	literacy necessary for sound financial decision-making.
12	2. The instruction shall meet the requirements established by the
13	department and shall:
14	a. be appropriate to, and reflect the age and comprehension of, the
15	students enrolled in the particular grade level; and
16	b. include content associated with personal financial responsibility
17	as determined by the department.
18	3. The commissioner shall provide school districts with sample
19	instructional materials and resources that may be used to support the
20	implementation of the financial literacy instruction requirement.
21	§ 3. Section 305 of the education law is amended by adding a new
22	subdivision 57 to read as follows:
23	57. The commissioner is authorized to develop a concise course of
24	instruction in financial literacy and personal financial management and
25	require that such course be completed by students prior to graduation
26	from high school. Such course of instruction may be incorporated into
27	other class work or courses of instruction provided to such students.
28	The financial literacy course shall include content associated with
29	personal financial responsibility, financial literacy and personal
30	financial management as determined by the commissioner.
31	§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately.