AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to enacting the roomers' rights protection act

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "roomers' 2 rights protection act".
- 3 § 2. The real property law is amended by adding a new section 231-b to read as follows:
- § 231-b. Utility services for residential rooming leases. 1. Every landlord that apportions a residence and leases individual rooms to 7 roomers where utility services, including, but not limited to, heat, 8 electricity, and water are shared and are not individually measured, 9 shall:
- 10 a. place all utility meters in the landlord's name;
- 11 b. enter into an individual lease with each roomer; and
- 12 c. provide on the lease the name and contact information for each 13 utility service provider providing services to the roomer's premises.
- 2. Where services are shared, a landlord shall not require a roomer to 14 list the meter for such services in his or her name and the cost of such 15 16 utilities shall be deemed to be included in the rent.
- 17 3. a. A tenant shall not be required by lease, other document or oral 18 agreement to waive his or her right to a trial by jury or any other
- 19 legal rights that he or she would be entitled to as a tenant in the
- state of New York in the event the tenant becomes involved with a hous-20
- ing proceeding against the landlord based on a violation of the
- 22 provisions of this section or any other law, rule or regulation govern-
- 23 ing landlord-tenant disputes.
