IN ASSEMBLY

February 4, 2020

- Introduced by M. of A. ABINANTI, JEAN-PIERRE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Banks -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee
- AN ACT to amend the banking law, the state finance law and the general municipal law, in relation to establishing the "New York public bank-ing act"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "New York public banking act".

§ 2. It is the intent of the legislature that this act (i) authorizes 3 4 the lending of public credit to public banks and authorizes public 5 ownership of stock in public banks for the purpose of achieving cost savings, strengthening local economies, supporting community economic б 7 development, and addressing infrastructure and housing needs for locali-8 ties; and (ii) codifies the common law interpretation of the New York 9 state constitution that cities, counties, and other municipalities may 10 own stock in and lend money to private corporations so long as such actions are pursuant to a public purpose. 11

S 3. Subdivisions 1 and 11 of section 2 of the banking law, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 684 of the laws of 1938 and subdivision 11 as amended by chapter 154 of the laws of 2007, are amended to read as follows:

16 1. Bank. The term, "bank," when used in this chapter, unless a differ-17 ent meaning appears from the context, means any corporation, other than 18 a trust company, organized under or subject to the provisions of article 19 three or three-C of this chapter.

11. Banking organizations. The term, "banking organizations," when used in this chapter, means and includes all banks, trust companies, private bankers, savings banks, safe deposit companies, savings and loan associations, credit unions, public banks organized under article three-C of this chapter, and investment companies.

25 § 4. The banking law is amended by adding a new article 3-C to read as 26 follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1	of the sponsor, any rights to elect or choose the board or any voting
2	rights whatsoever.
3	3. Passive members or passive shareholders shall be allowed to invest
4	capital into a public bank so long as such passive members or passive
5	shareholders are approved by the sponsor and the sponsor maintains the
6	right to direct the public bank to purchase the interests of any passive
7	members or shareholders at a market price determined by an independent
8	third party selected by the sponsor at any time.
9	4. The sponsor shall owe no fiduciary duty nor any other duty to
10	passive investors. No passive investor may pursue legal action against
11	the sponsor for any reason other than failure to distribute funds
12	required to be distributed pursuant to governing documents of the public
13	bank.
14	§ 156-b. Governance. 1. The public bank shall be governed by a board.
15	Such board shall be composed of no fewer than five directors and no more
16	than eleven directors. Each director shall live within the jurisdic-
17	tional boundaries of the sponsor.
18	2. The sponsor shall determine the public bank's initial board, the
19	term of the board, the qualifications of the board and the method for
20	replacing the board.
21	3. A majority of the board shall be composed of independent directors
22	who are not government employees. The chair of the board must be an
23	independent director.
24	4. The board shall set policy for the public bank; provided that
25	neither the board nor any director shall be involved in day to day deci-
26	sions regarding particular instruments. Management decisions shall be
27	made independently by bank management who shall be appointed by the
28	board consistent with bank policy.
29	5. The board may establish one or more committees to manage the public
30	bank.
31	6. The board shall adhere to all reporting requirements under this
32	chapter regarding the public bank's financial condition.
33	7. A public bank shall form one or more advisory boards in order to
34	provide advice and carry out any other duties, as determined by the
35	public bank, including the following:
36	(a) provide input to the board regarding ways to accomplish its
37	mission;
38	(b) ensure that the board follows strict ethical standards as deter-
39	mined by the sponsor in the public bank's governing documents, through
40	the approval of bylaws to govern the board's management;
41	(c) provide technical advice as needed; and
42	(d) provide an annual report to the public and the sponsor evaluating
43	the public bank's performance in relation to its mission, its ethical
44	standards and its financial soundness.
45	8. The sponsor will determine the initial advisory board membership,
46	the term of its members, the qualifications of members and the method
47	for replacing its members, provided that a majority of each advisory
48	board is made up of independent members who are not governmental employ-
49	ees. The advisory board shall be composed of no fewer than five and no
50	more than eleven members. Any advisory board member shall live within
51	the jurisdictional boundary of the public bank's sponsor or its members
52	or shareholders.
53	9. Any action required or permitted by this chapter to be taken by the
54	board or an advisory board may be taken at a duly called meeting of such
55	board in accordance with its governing documents or without a meeting if
56	the action taken is evidenced by one or more written consents describing

A. 9665--A

1	the action taken and signed by each member of the board or advisory
2	board.
3	§ 156-c. Public bank charter requirements. 1. A proposed public bank
4	shall be chartered by the department upon submission of the public bank
5	application documents that demonstrate the following:
6	(a) the purpose of the proposed public bank is consistent with the
7	purposes required under this article;
8	(b) minimum initial capitalization is no less than ten percent of the
9	public bank's projected lending total for the first year of operation
10	after receipt of its charter;
11	(c) adequate reserves and liquidity exist to cover the public bank's
12	obligations relating to deposit withdrawals and defaulted loans;
13	(d) the qualifications of the proposed directors;
14	(e) the qualifications of the proposed chief executive officer and
15	management team;
16	(f) an organizational chart;
17	(q) procedures for obtaining fidelity insurance;
18	(h) sufficient internal audits and controls;
19	(i) a pro forma financial statement projecting assets, liabilities,
20	income and expenses for no less than a three year period;
21	(j) the impact of the public bank on the sponsor's financial condi-
22	tion;
23	(k) a plan to comply with the community reinvestment act and fair
24	lending requirements, pursuant to section two hundred ninety-six-a of
25	the executive law;
26	(1) a certificate of incorporation; and
27	(m) a narrative business plan describing the banking services to be
28	provided.
29	2. The public bank may but shall not be required to collateralize
30	deposits from the sponsor or any other governmental entity with collat-
31	eral determined by the public bank in its governing documents.
32	3. The public bank application documents are not required to provide
33	that the public bank will receive deposits in its initial three years of
34	operation, and not receiving deposits in the initial three years of
35	operation shall not be a reason for disapproval by the superintendent.
36	4. Public bank application documents are not required to include a
37	market, public convenience and advantage, competitive impact or a bank
38	premises analysis or address any other matters other than those listed
39	in subdivision one of this section.
40	5. Public bank charter applications that do not conflict with any
41	requirements expressly provided in subdivision one of this section shall
42	be liberally granted by the superintendent, and any decision by the
43	superintendent refusing to grant permission for the operation of a
44	public bank may be appealed by the sponsor to the governor within thirty
45	days from the date of such decision, and the governor shall have the
46	power to affirm, reverse, or modify such decision by the superintendent
47	in the governor's sole discretion.
48	§ 156-d. Financial and operations framework. 1. The public bank may
49	raise capital through:
50	(a) sponsor equity contributions,
51	(b) passive member or shareholder equity contributions,
52	(c) donations, if the public bank is a not-for-profit corporation,
53	(d) sale of corporate debt to sponsor,

55 (f) the receipt and leverage of deposits.

A. 9665--A

1	2. The public bank shall have all the rights and powers conferred by
2	articles three and fifteen of this chapter, which must be exercised in a
3	manner consistent with its mission.
4	3. Within the overall underwriting and financial policies of the
5	public bank, the public bank shall maximize and prioritize loans
6	supporting worker cooperatives, community land trusts, low-income and
7	affordable housing, renewable energy, infrastructure development, small
8	businesses and small farms, minority- and women-owned business enter-
9	prises, and other initiatives that fulfill the public bank's mission,
10	with a focus on serving underserved and under-banked communities.
11	4. All lending and actions of the public bank shall abide by the
12	United Nations declaration on the rights of indigenous peoples.
13	5. The sponsor may prohibit investments and loans that may benefit any
14	type of designated business including the fossil fuel industry, weapons
15	or gun manufacturers, military systems companies, private prisons, immi-
16	gration detention facilities, companies engaged in offshore tax avoid-
17	ance or exploitative business or labor practices or the tobacco indus-
18	try, all as determined by the sponsor in the public bank's governing
19	documents.
20	6. The public bank shall be exempt from state, county, and municipal
21	taxes and licenses, of any kind, including income, capital gain, real
22	estate and mortgage recording taxes.
22 23
	7. The public bank shall not be sold to or merged with another entity
24	unless such entity has a public bank charter.
25	§ 156-e. Public benefit corporations. 1. A public bank may, but is not
26	required to, incorporate as a benefit corporation under article seven-
27	teen of the business corporation law.
28	2. A public bank may, but is not required to, identify in its certif-
29	icate of incorporation a specific public benefit, consistent with the
30	provisions of article seventeen of the business corporation law. Specif-
31	ic public benefits within the meaning of this section include, but are
32	not limited to, strengthening local economies, supporting community
33	economic development, addressing infrastructure and housing needs for
34	localities, and providing banking services to unbanked or underbanked
35	communities.
36	§ 156-f. Insurance. A public bank shall obtain and maintain deposit
37	insurance consistent with section thirty-two of this chapter to the 38	extent that it accepts deposits from any third party that is not in
39	excess of two hundred fifty thousand dollars.
40	§ 156-g. Inconsistency with other laws. 1. A public bank shall comply
41	with all requirements of this chapter, the financial services law, the
42	state finance law, the local finance law, the general municipal law, the
43	not-for-profit corporation law, and all other relevant provisions of
44	state or local law, except to the extent that a requirement of any of 45	those laws is inconsistent with a provision of this article, in which
46	case the provisions of this article shall prevail.
47	2. Notwithstanding any provision of state or local law, a county or
48	other state or local authority may lend its credit to any public bank.
	3. Notwithstanding any provision of state or local law, any state or 49 50
50 E 1	local authority may invest in commercial paper, debt securities or other
51	obligations of a public bank.
52	4. Notwithstanding any provision of state or local law, a public bank
53	shall be eligible to receive state and local authority money.
54	§ 156-h. Owners not to be considered bank holding companies. For the
55	purposes of section one hundred thirty-two of this chapter, any sponsor,
56	person or entity, including a state or local authority, that owns,

1	controls,	or holds	an	ownership	interest	in	a	public	bank	is	not	a	bank holding company by reason of that ownership interest. 2 § 5. Section 98 of the state finance law is amended by adding a new 3 4 subdivision 7-a to read as follows: 5 7-a. Commercial paper, debt securities, bonds, notes, or other obligations of a public bank, as defined in article three-C of the banking 6 7 law. 8 § 6. Paragraph d of subdivision 1 of section 10 of the general munici-9 pal law, as amended by chapter 623 of the laws of 1998, is amended to 10 read as follows: d. "Bank" shall mean a bank or public bank as defined by the banking 11 12 law or a national banking association located and authorized to do busi-

13 ness in New York.

14 § 7. This act shall take effect immediately.
