1     2. Such educational opportunity centers shall be managed and super-2 vised by the state university and shall provide programs and services 3 that include, but are not limited to:

4     (a) academic programs leading to and increasing persistence in higher 5 education;

6     (b) vocational programs leading to career pathways, gainful employment 7 and self-sufficiency;

8     (c) counseling and guidance services to enhance student retention;

9     (d) targeted services for business and industry to upgrade the skill 10 levels of emerging and incumbent workers such that they support
11 increased productivity and the creation and retention of job opportu-
12 nities;

13     (e) collaboration with secondary schools to assist in the academic 14 preparation of at-risk youth;

15     (f) collaborative programs with colleges and universities to increase 16 opportunities for center graduates for advanced placement and receipt of 17 academic credits for academic work completed at such center;

18     (g) collaboration with other state and local agencies, workforce
19 development boards and charitable organizations to meet emerging state-20 wide priorities for serving the disadvantaged; and

21     (h) entrepreneurial training opportunities that may lead to community 22 economic development.

23     3. The state university shall formulate a plan and guidelines for the 24 organization, development, coordination and operation of educational 25 opportunity centers and may promulgate such rules and regulations neces-26 sary to carry out the provisions of this section. Such plan shall 27 include:

28     (a) definition of academic and economic eligibility provided, however, 29 that state residency be a minimum eligibility requirement;

30     (b) procedures for the selection of such students for admission to a 31 center;

32     (c) program objectives including coordination with the university's 33 long range mission and goals; and

34     (d) program evaluation and reporting.

35     4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the employees 36 of the educational opportunity centers operated in cooperation with the 37 city university of New York and/or a college within the city university 38 of New York shall be employees of the city university of New York and 39 shall retain their respective bargaining unit representation. Nothing 40 in this section shall be deemed to waive or impair any rights or bene-
41 fits of employees of the city university of New York that otherwise 42 would be available to them pursuant to the terms of agreements between 43 the certified representatives of such employees and the city university
44 of New York pursuant to article fourteen of the civil service law.

45     § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 46 it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amend-47 ment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implemen-48 tation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and 49 completed on or before such effective date.
