

STATE OF NEW YORK

99

2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

(Prefiled)

January 9, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. PERRY -- read once and referred to the Committee on Health

AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to the removal of cases, contacts and carriers of communicable diseases who are potentially dangerous to the public health

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The public health law is amended by adding a new section 2 2120-a to read as follows:

3 § 2120-a. Removal and detention of cases, contacts and carriers who 4 are or may be a danger to public health; other orders. 1. The provisions 5 of this section shall be utilized in the event that the governor 6 declares a state of health emergency due to an epidemic of any communi-7 cable disease.

8 2. Upon determining by clear and convincing evidence that the health 9 of others is or may be endangered by a case, contact or carrier, or 10 suspected case, contact or carrier of a contagious disease that, in the 11 opinion of the governor, after consultation with the commissioner, may 12 pose an imminent and significant threat to the public health resulting 13 in severe morbidity or high mortality, the governor or his or her dele-14 gee, including, but not limited to the commissioner or the heads of 15 local health departments, may order the removal and/or detention of such 16 a person or of a group of such persons by issuing a single order, iden-17 tifying such persons either by name or by a reasonably specific 18 description of the individuals or group being detained. Such person or 19 group of persons shall be detained in a medical facility or other appro-20 priate facility or premises designated by the governor or his or her 21 delegee and complying with subdivision five of this section.

22 3. A person or group removed or detained by order of the governor or 23 his or her delegee pursuant to subdivision two of this section shall be

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD05242-01-9

1 detained for such period and in such manner as the department may direct 2 in accordance with this section.

3 4. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this section:

4 (a) A confirmed case or a carrier who is detained pursuant to subdivi-5 sion two of this section shall not continue to be detained after the 6 department determines that such person is no longer contagious.

7 (b) A suspected case or suspected carrier who is detained pursuant to 8 subdivision two of this section shall not continue to be detained after 9 the department determines, with the exercise of due diligence, that such 10 person is not infected with or has not been exposed to such a disease, 11 or if infected with or exposed to such a disease, no longer is or will 12 become contagious.

13 (c) A person who is detained pursuant to subdivision two of this 14 section as a contact of a confirmed case or a carrier shall not continue 15 to be detained after the department determines that the person is not 16 infected with the disease or that such contact no longer presents a 17 potential danger to the health of others.

18 (d) A person who is detained pursuant to subdivision two of this 19 section as a contact of a suspected case shall not continue to be 20 detained:

21 (i) after the department determines, with the exercise of due dili-22 gence, that the suspected case was not infected with such a disease, or 23 was not contagious at the time the contact was exposed to such individ-24 ual; or

25 (ii) after the department determines that the contact no longer 26 presents a potential danger to the health of others.

27 5. A person who is detained pursuant to subdivision two of this 28 section shall, as is appropriate to the circumstances:

29 (a) have his or her medical condition and needs assessed and addressed 30 on a regular basis, and

31 (b) be detained in a manner that is consistent with recognized 32 isolation and infection control principles in order to minimize the 33 likelihood of transmission of infection to such person and to others.

34 6. When a person or group is ordered to be detained pursuant to subdivi-35 vision two of this section for a period not exceeding three business 36 days, such person or member of such group shall, upon request, be 37 afforded an opportunity to be heard. If a person or group detained 38 pursuant to subdivision two of this section needs to be detained beyond 39 three business days, they shall be provided with an additional commis-40 sioner's order pursuant to subdivisions two and eight of this section.

41 7. When a person or group is ordered to be detained pursuant to subdivi-42 vision two of this section for a period exceeding three business days, 43 and such person or member of such group requests release, the governor 44 or his or her delegee shall make an application for a court order 45 authorizing such detention within three business days after such request 46 by the end of the first business day following such Saturday, Sunday, or 47 legal holiday, which application shall include a request for an exped-48 ited hearing. After any such request for release, detention shall not 49 continue for more than five business days in the absence of a court 50 order authorizing detention. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, 51 in no event shall any person be detained for more than sixty days with-52 out a court order authorizing such detention. The governor or his or her 53 delegee shall seek further court review of such detention within ninety 54 days following the initial court order authorizing detention and there-55 after within ninety days of each subsequent court review. In any court 56 proceeding to enforce an order of the governor or his or her delegee for

1 the removal or detention of a person or group issued pursuant to this 2 subdivision or for review of the continued detention of a person or 3 group, the governor or his or her delegee shall prove the particularized 4 circumstances constituting the necessity for such detention by clear and 5 convincing evidence.

6 8. (a) A copy of any detention order of the governor or his or her 7 delegee issued pursuant to subdivision two of this section shall be 8 given to each detained individual; however, if the order applies to a 9 group of individuals and it is impractical to provide individual copies, 10 it may be posted in a conspicuous place in the detention premises. Any 11 detention order of the commissioner issued pursuant to subdivision two 12 of this section shall set forth:

13 (i) the purpose of the detention and the legal authority under which 14 the order is issued, including the particular sections of this article 15 or other law or regulation;

16 (ii) a description of the circumstances and/or behavior of the 17 detained person or group constituting the basis for the issuance of the 18 order;

19 (iii) the less restrictive alternatives that were attempted and were 20 unsuccessful and/or the less restrictive alternatives that were consid-21 ered and rejected, and the reasons such alternatives were rejected;

22 (iv) a notice advising the person or group being detained that they 23 have a right to request release from detention, and including 24 instructions on how such request shall be made;

25 (v) a notice advising the person or group being detained that they 26 have a right to be represented by legal counsel and that upon request of 27 such person or group access to counsel will be facilitated to the extent 28 feasible under the circumstances; and 29 (vi) a notice advising the person or group being detained that they 30 may supply the addresses and/or telephone numbers of friends and/or 31 relatives to receive notification of the person's detention, and that 32 the department shall, at the detained person's request and to the extent 33 feasible, provide notice to a reasonable number of such people that the 34 person is being detained.

35 (b) In addition, an order issued pursuant to subdivisions two and 36 seven of this section, requiring the detention of a person or group for 37 a period exceeding three business days, shall:

38 (i) advise the person or group being detained that the detention shall 39 not continue for more than five business days after a request for 40 release has been made in the absence of a court order authorizing such 41 detention;

42 (ii) advise the person or group being detained that, whether or not 43 they request release from detention, the governor or his or her delegee 44 must obtain a court order authorizing detention within sixty days 45 following the commencement of detention and thereafter must further seek 46 court review of the detention within ninety days of such court order and 47 within ninety days of each subsequent court review; and 48 (iii) advise the person or group being detained that they have the 49 right to request that legal counsel be provided, that upon such request 50 counsel shall be provided if and to the extent possible under the 51 circumstances, and that if counsel is so provided, that such counsel 52 will be notified that the person or group has requested legal represen-53 tation.

54 9. A person who is detained in a medical facility, or other appropri-55 ate facility or premises, shall not conduct himself or herself in a

1 disorderly manner, and shall not leave or attempt to leave such facility 2 or premises until he or she is discharged pursuant to this section.

3 10. Where necessary and feasible under the circumstances, language 4 interpreters and persons skilled in communicating with vision and hear-5 ing impaired individuals shall be provided.

6 11. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the issuance of 7 orders pursuant to § 11.21 of the New York City Health Code.

8 12. In addition to the removal or detention orders referred to in 9 subdivision two of this section, and without affecting or limiting any 10 other authority that the commissioner may otherwise have, the governor 11 or his or her delegee may, in his or her discretion, issue and seek 12 enforcement of any other orders that he or she determines are necessary 13 or appropriate to prevent dissemination or transmission of contagious 14 diseases or other illnesses that may pose a threat to the public health 15 including, but not limited to, orders requiring any person or persons 16 who are not in the custody of the department to be excluded; to remain 17 isolated or quarantined at home or at a premises of such person's choice 18 that is acceptable to the department and under such conditions and for 19 such period as will prevent transmission of the contagious disease or 20 other illness; to require the testing or medical examination of persons 21 who may have been exposed to or infected by a contagious disease or who 22 may have been exposed to or contaminated with dangerous amounts of 23 radioactive materials or toxic chemicals; to require an individual who 24 has been exposed to or infected by a contagious disease to complete an 25 appropriate, prescribed course of treatment, preventive medication or 26 vaccination, including directly observed therapy to treat the disease 27 and follow infection control provisions for the disease; or to require 28 an individual who has been contaminated with dangerous amounts of radio-29 active materials or toxic chemicals such that said individual may pres-30 ent a danger to others, to undergo decontamination procedures deemed 31 necessary by the department. Such person or persons shall, upon 32 request, be afforded an opportunity to be heard, but the provisions of 33 subdivisions two through eleven of this section shall not otherwise 34 apply.

35 13. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to permit or 36 require the forcible administration of any medication without a prior 37 court order.

38 § 2. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 39 have become a law. Effective immediately the addition, amendment and/or 40 repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of 41 this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed 42 on or before such date.