

BY: Senator BROOKS

MEMORIALIZING Governor Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim
May 14, 2019, as 10th Mountain Division and Fort
Drum Day in the State of New York

WHEREAS, Fort Drum is located in Jefferson County, in Northern New York, and is the largest military installation in the Northeastern United States; and

WHEREAS, Fort Drum, previously known as Pine Camp, was renamed in honor of Lieutenant General Hugh Drum, a decorated national hero, former commander of First Army during World War II, and an early leader of the State's own volunteer militia, the New York Guard; and

WHEREAS, For 34 years, Fort Drum has been the home of the United States Army's storied 10th Mountain Division, one of the most deployed divisions in the United States Army; and

WHEREAS, The 10th Mountain Division served our nation with honor, distinction and great sacrifice as a part of Operation Enduring Freedom and other actions central to our nation's response to the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001; and

WHEREAS, Elements of the 10th Mountain Division, based on Fort Drum, were the first to be deployed in the aftermath of those attacks and the last units to return from combat duty; and

WHEREAS, In addition to Operation Enduring Freedom, 10th Mountain Division deployments have included Hurricane Andrew Relief in Florida, Operation Restore Hope in Somalia, Operation Uphold Democracy in Haiti, Task Force Eagle in Kosovo, Operation Iraqi Freedom, Operation Freedom Sentinel in Afghanistan and advise and assist operations throughout the World; and

WHEREAS, More than 300 brave men and women of the 10th Mountain Division, based on Fort Drum have given their lives to the cause of defeating global terrorism; and

WHEREAS, The distinguished service of units assigned to Fort Drum has been celebrated by Presidents, members of Congress, and members of the international community; and

WHEREAS, Four heroes serving with the 10th Mountain Division, Private First Class John D. Magrath, Sergeant First Class Jared C. Monti, Captain William D. Swenson and Staff Sergeant Travis W. Atkins have received our military's highest honor, the Medal of Honor; and

WHEREAS, During the 2018 fiscal year, Fort Drum provided training and base operations to support more than 27,000 Reservists and National Guardsmen, as well as personnel from other federal state and local agencies; and

WHEREAS, In August of 2018, the President of the United States visited Fort Drum to sign the $717 billion Fiscal 2019 National Defense Authorization Act, which included a 2.6 percent military pay increase; and

WHEREAS, In addition to its vital role in our nation's defense, Fort Drum is also the largest employer in Northern New York, and an economic engine for the state and region, with a direct impact of nearly $1.5 billion; and

WHEREAS, The bond between Fort Drum and the local civilian community is truly unique, and more than 33,000 soldiers, officers, retirees and family members of Fort Drum are an integral part of the North Country who are welcomed as neighbors, co-workers, classmates, friends and fellow New Yorkers; and

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body to salute the soldiers and officers of the 10th Mountain Division, to honor their dedication to preserving our freedom and our nation, and to recognize their individual and collective contributions to our communities and to New York State; and

WHEREAS, For the past eight years, 10th Mountain Division and Fort Drum Day has served to educate members of this Legislative Body about the sacrifices made every day by the brave men and women of our Armed Forces, as well as the importance of Fort Drum to our nation's defense and New York's economy; and

WHEREAS, Fort Drum has and will continue to play a critical role in ensuring our nation's military readiness to defend our state and nation against hostility and threats to our safety and national security; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to memorialize Governor Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim May 14, 2019, as 10th Mountain Division and Fort Drum Day in the State of New York; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to Major General Brian J. Mennes, Commanding General, 10th Mountain Division and Fort Drum.
