3. (a) An individual who has been the victim of a family offense as defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of the criminal procedure law or section eight hundred twelve of the family court act may make a complaint to any local law enforcement agency in the state regardless of where the act took place. Such local law enforcement agency shall take a police report of the matter, as well as a domestic incident report as defined in subdivision fifteen of section eight hundred thirty-seven of 11 this chapter. The complainant shall be provided with a copy of such 12 report free of charge. A copy of the police report and domestic incident 13 report shall be forwarded within seventy-two hours to the law enforcement agency with jurisdiction over the location where the incident is reported to occur for the purposes of further investigation.

16 (b)(i) A local law enforcement officer who has taken a report pursuant 17 to paragraph (a) of this subdivision and is required to testify in a 18 legal proceeding regarding such report, may give such testimony by elec-19 tronic appearance.

(ii) A local law enforcement officer who seeks to make an electronic 20 21 appearance shall file a petition with the court in advance of such 22 appearance and may do so by electronic means. Such petition shall set

- (i) "Electronic means" means any method of transmission of information between computers or other machines designed for the purpose of sending and receiving such transmissions, and which allows the recipient to reproduce the information transmitted in a tangible medium of expression.
- (ii) "Independent audio-visual system" means an electronic system for the transmission and receiving of audio and visual signals, encompassing encoded signals, frequency domain multiplexing or other suitable means to preclude the unauthorized reception and decoding of the signals by commercially available television receivers, channel converters, or other available receiving devices.
- 22 (iii) "Electronic appearance" means an appearance in which one or more 23 of the parties are not present in the court, but in which, by means of 24 an independent audio-visual system, all of the participants are simul25 taneously able to see and hear reproductions of the voices and images of 26 the judge, counsel, parties, witnesses, if any and other participants.
- 27 § 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 28 have become a law.
