IN SENATE

January 15, 2019

Introduced by Sen. TEDISCO -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Agriculture

AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to authorizing the delivery of liquefied petroleum gas in times of emergency

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "propane 2 consumer emergency act".

3 § 2. Section 192-e of the agriculture and markets law is amended by 4 adding a new subdivision 6-a to read as follows:

5 6-a. (a) Notwithstanding any other law, rule or regulation to the 6 contrary, a person, firm, limited liability company or corporation who 7 is not the owner of a liquefied petroleum gas cylinder, container or 8 receptacle may fill, refill or otherwise deliver liquefied petroleum gas 9 into such liquefied petroleum gas cylinder, container or receptacle, 10 provided the entity has appropriate liability insurance equal to or 11 greater than one million dollars, and such cylinder, container or recep-
12 tacle and devices and associated pipelines operating off of such cylin-13 der, container, or receptacle has been inspected and certified as 14 required by law or regulation by the succeeding entity and the succeed-15 ing entity assumes all liability that may result from improper filling 16 and testing of the facility, when:

17 (i) a residential heating or electric generator consumer has acted in 18 good faith under an existing contract to procure delivery of liquefied 19 petroleum gas from the owner of a liquefied petroleum gas cylinder,
20 container or receptacle, but has not received liquefied petroleum gas 21 within twenty-four hours of an initial request; and

22 (ii) a federal, state or local state of emergency has been declared; 23 or

1 (iii) severe weather or any other similar circumstances may result in 2 individuals being placed in imminent danger of death or injury or build-3 ing structures and/or its fixtures at risk of significant damage; or

4 (iv) exigent circumstances exist when the Federal Motor Carrier Admin-
5 istration has granted a waiver in accordance with 49 CFR Sec.
6 390.23(a)(1) from Parts 390 through 399 of the Federal Motor Carrier
7 Safety Regulations, which includes New York state, from the hours of 8 service limitation rule as it affects propane deliveries; or

9 (v) The New York state department of transportation, pursuant to 17
10 NYCRR 820.6, issues a statewide or regional hours of service limitation 11 waiver for propane.

12 (b) An owner who authorizes a person to fill or refill a container 13 pursuant to this subdivision is not liable for any injury or damage that 14 results from an action of that person while that person is filling or 15 refilling that container pursuant to this subdivision.

16 (c) Any person, firm, limited liability company or corporation who 17 fills, refills or otherwise delivers liquefied petroleum gas or owns 18 such a gas cylinder, container or receptacle is not permitted to charge 19 any penalty or fee in addition to any standard filling, refilling or 20 delivery fee pursuant to this subdivision, excluding existing emergency 21 fees.

22 (d) Any person, firm, limited liability company or corporation who 23 fills, refills or otherwise delivers liquefied petroleum gas under this 24 subdivision must notify the tank owner of the name and address of the 25 residential customer, the date and quantity delivered, the pressure test 26 readings and any changes made to the system within forty-eight hours.

27 (e) Nothing in this subdivision shall be deemed to restrict the owner 28 of a liquefied petroleum gas cylinder, container or receptacle from 29 procuring liquefied petroleum gas from any seller.

30 (f) Any existing contract between the owner of the liquefied petroleum 31 gas cylinder, container or receptacle and the customer remains in force 32 and effect until the end date of the contract or until it is terminated 33 under options available to either party and under any other conditions 34 not listed in this subdivision. In all circumstances other than those 35 heretofore described, it is not permissible for any person, firm, limit-
36 ed liability company or corporation to remove or fill any liquefied
37 petroleum from a liquefied petroleum gas cylinder, container or recepta-
38 cle without the consent of the owner of such liquefied petroleum gas 39 cylinder, container or receptacle.

40 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
