6. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, it shall be unlawful for any person to import into or export from this state, horseflesh where such person knows or should know that such horseflesh is intended 3 for human consumption.

- 7. As used in this section, the term "horse" includes all members of the equine family, including horses, ponies, donkeys, mules, asses and burros; and the term "horseflesh" means the flesh of a dead horse, including the animal's viscera, skin, hair, hide, hooves, and bones; the term "person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, trust, association or other legal entity.
- 8. A violation of this section is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by both. In lieu of criminal prosecution, a violation of this section shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to one thousand dollars for an individual and up to five thousand dollars for a corporation for the first violation. Any subsequent violation shall be punishable by a civil penalty of up to twenty-five thousand
- 19 9. Any civil penalties collected pursuant to this section of law shall 20 be payable to the animal population control fund established pursuant to 21 section ninety-seven-xx of the state finance law.
- 10. The provisions of this section are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other laws protecting animal welfare. This section may not be 23 construed to limit any state law or rules protecting the welfare of 24 25 animals or to prevent a local governing body from adopting and enforcing its own animal welfare laws and regulations.
- 27 11. If any provision of this section, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid or unconstitutional, that 28 29 invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect other provisions or 30 applications of this section that can be given effect without the inval-31 id or unconstitutional provision or application, and to this end the 32 provisions of this section are severable.
- 33 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 34 it shall have become a law.
