27 PART J

28 Section 1. The real property tax law is amended by adding a new 29 section 485-u to read as follows:

30 § 485-u. Class one reassessment exemption. 1. Applicability. A special 31 assessing unit that is not a city may, by local law, opt to provide a 32 class one reassessment exemption as provided in this section. Such 33 exemption shall apply in the same manner and to the same extent to coun-34 ty, town, special district and school district taxes levied on the 35 assessment roll prepared by such special assessing unit.

36 2. Eligibility. The assessor shall, for the two thousand twenty--two 37 thousand twenty-one assessment roll and for the subsequent four years, 38 apply an exemption as provided in this section to each property classi-39 fied in class one pursuant to article eighteen of this chapter.

40 3. Exemption calculation. (a) (i) The assessor shall calculate the 41 exemption as a percentage of the exemption base. The exemption base 42 shall be the amount by which the assessment of a property on the two 43 thousand twenty--two-thousand twenty-one assessment roll exceeds the 44 equalized assessment for the two thousand nineteen--two thousand twenty 45 tax year. The assessor shall determine the equalized assessment for the 46 two thousand nineteen--two thousand twenty tax year by multiplying the 47 property's effective full value for the two thousand nineteen--two thou-48 sand twenty tax year by the class one level of assessment on the two 49 thousand twenty--two thousand twenty-one assessment roll. The assessor 50 shall determine a property's effective full value for the two thousand 51 nineteen--two thousand twenty tax year by dividing the assessment on the 52 two thousand nineteen--two thousand twenty assessment roll by the class 53 one level of assessment on the two thousand nineteen--two thousand twen-54 ty assessment roll. Such exemption base shall not include assessment

1 increases due to a physical improvement or a removal or reduction of an 2 exemption on property.

3 (ii) Any increase in the assessment of a property due to an increase 4 in a property's full value or physical changes subsequent to the two 5 thousand twenty--two thousand twenty-one tax year assessment roll shall 6 not be eligible for the exemption. If any portion of a property is fully 7 or partially removed from the assessment roll subsequent to the two 8 thousand twenty--two thousand twenty-one tax year by reason of fire, 9 demolition, destruction or new exemption, the assessor shall reduce the 10 exemption for any remaining portion in the same proportion the assess-11 ment is reduced for such fire, demolition, destruction or new exemption.
12 If a property's assessment is reduced pursuant to title one-a of article 13 five or title one or one-a of article seven of this chapter, or as a 14 result of a reduction in full value compared to the full value on the 15 two thousand twenty--two thousand twenty-one assessment roll, the asses-16 sor shall recalculate the exemption base accordingly.

17 (b) The exemption shall be eighty per centum of the exemption base in 18 the two thousand twenty--two thousand twenty-one tax year, sixty per 19 centum of the exemption base in the two thousand twenty-one--two thou-20 sand twenty-two tax year, forty per centum of the exemption base in the 21 two thousand twenty-two--two thousand twenty-three tax year, twenty per 22 centum of the exemption base in the two thousand twenty-three--two thou-23 sand twenty-four tax year and zero per centum of the exemption base in 24 the two thousand twenty-four--two thousand twenty-five tax year.

25 4. Entering of exemption on assessment roll. The assessor shall enter 26 in a separate column on the assessment roll the value of any exemption 27 provided by this section.

28 § 2. Severability. If any provision of this act or if any application 29 thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of 30 this act and the application of the provision to other persons and 31 circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

32 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

3 § 3. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section
4 440.47 to read as follows:

5 § 440.47 Motion for resentence; domestic violence cases.

6 1. (a) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of law, any person 7 confined in an institution operated by the department of correction and 8 community supervision serving a sentence with a minimum or determinate 9 term of eight years or more for an offense committed prior to the effec-10 tive date of this section and eligible for an alternative sentence 11 pursuant to section 60.12 of the penal law may, on or after such effec-12 tive date, submit to the judge or justice who imposed the original 13 sentence upon such person a request to apply for resentencing in accord-14 ance with section 60.12 of the penal law. Such person must include in 15 his or her request documentation proving that she or he is confined in 16 an institution operated by the department of corrections and community 17 supervision serving a sentence with a minimum or determinate term of 18 eight years or more for an offense committed prior to the effective date 19 of this section and that she or he is serving such sentence for any 20 offense eligible for an alternative sentence under section 60.12 of the 21 penal law.

22 (b) If, at the time of such person's request to apply for resentencing 23 pursuant to this section, the original sentencing judge or justice is a 24 judge or justice of a court of competent jurisdiction, but such court is 25 not the court in which the original sentence was imposed, then the 26 request shall be randomly assigned to another judge or justice of the 27 court in which the original sentence was imposed. If the original 28 sentencing judge is no longer a judge or justice of a court of competent 29 jurisdiction, then the request shall be randomly assigned to another 30 judge or justice of the court.

31 (c) If the court finds that such person has met the requirements to 32 apply for resentencing in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the court 33 shall notify such person that he or she may submit an application for 34 resentencing. Upon such notification, the person may request that the 35 court assign him or her an attorney for the preparation of and 36 proceedings on the application for resentencing pursuant to this 37 section. The attorney shall be assigned in accordance with the 38 provisions of subdivision one of section seven hundred seventeen and 39 subdivision four of section seven hundred twenty-two of the county law
40 and the related provisions of article eighteen-A of such law.

41 (d) If the court finds that such person has not met the requirements 42 to apply for resentencing in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of this 43 section, the court shall notify such person and dismiss his or her 44 request without prejudice.

45 2. (a) Upon the court's receipt of an application for resentencing, 46 the court shall promptly notify the appropriate district attorney and 47 provide such district attorney with a copy of the application.

48 (b) If the judge or justice that received the application is not the 49 original sentencing judge or justice, the application may be referred to 50 the original sentencing judge or justice provided that he or she is a 51 judge or justice of a court of competent jurisdiction and that the 52 applicant and the district attorney agree that the application should be 53 referred.

54 (c) An application for resentencing pursuant to this section must 55 include at least two pieces of evidence corroborating the applicant's 56 claim that he or she was, at the time of the offense, a victim of domes-

1 tic violence subjected to substantial physical, sexual or psychological 2 abuse inflicted by a member of the same family or household as the 3 applicant as such term is defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 4 of this chapter.

5 At least one piece of evidence must be either a court record, pre-sen-6 tence report, social services record, hospital record, sworn statement 7 from a witness to the domestic violence, law enforcement record, domes-8 tic incident report, or order of protection. Other evidence may 9 include, but shall not be limited to, local and state department of 10 corrections records, a showing based in part on documentation prepared 11 at or near the time of the commission of the offense or the prosecution 12 thereof tending to support the person's claim, or when there is verifi-13 cation of consultation with a licensed medical or mental health care 14 provider, employee of a court acting within the scope of his or her 15 employment, member of the clergy, attorney, social worker, or rape 16 crisis counselor as defined in section forty-five hundred ten of the 17 civil practice law and rules, or other advocate acting on behalf of an 18 agency that assists victims of domestic violence for the purpose of 19 assisting such person with domestic violence victim counseling or 20 support.

21 (d) If the court finds that the applicant has not complied with the 22 provisions of paragraph (c) of this subdivision, the court shall dismiss 23 the application without prejudice.

24 (e) If the court finds that the applicant has complied with the 25 provisions of paragraph (c) of this subdivision, the court shall conduct 26 a hearing to aid in making its determination of whether the applicant 27 should be resentenced in accordance with section 60.12 of the penal law.
28 At such hearing the court shall determine any controverted issue of fact 29 relevant to the issue of sentencing. Reliable hearsay shall be admissi-30 ble at such hearings.

31 The court may consider any fact or circumstances relevant to the impo-32 sition of a new sentence which are submitted by the applicant or the 33 district attorney and may, in addition, consider the institutional 34 record of confinement of such person, but shall not order a new pre-sen-35 tence investigation and report or entertain any matter challenging the 36 underlying basis of the subject conviction. The court's consideration of 37 the institutional record of confinement of such applicant shall include, 38 but not be limited to, such applicant's participation in or willingness 39 to participate in programming such as domestic violence, parenting and 40 substance abuse treatment while incarcerated and such applicant's disci-41 plinary history. The fact that the applicant may have been unable to 42 participate in treatment or other programming while incarcerated despite 43 such applicant's willingness to do so shall not be considered a negative 44 factor in determining a motion pursuant to this section.

45 (f) If the court determines that the applicant should not be resen-46 tenced in accordance with section 60.12 of the penal law, the court 47 shall inform such applicant of its decision and shall enter an order to 48 that effect. Any order issued by a court pursuant to this section must 49 include written findings of fact and the reasons for such order.

50 (g) If the court determines that the applicant should be resentenced 51 in accordance with section 60.12 of the penal law, the court shall noti-52 fy the applicant that, unless he or she withdraws the application or 53 appeals from such order, the court will enter an order vacating the 54 sentence originally imposed and imposing the new sentence to be imposed 55 as authorized by section 60.12 of the penal law. Any order issued by a

1 court pursuant to this section must include written findings of fact and 2 the reasons for such order.

3 3. An appeal may be taken as of right in accordance with applicable 4 provisions of this chapter: (a) from an order denying resentencing; or 5 (b) from a new sentence imposed under this provision and may be based on 6 the grounds that (i) the term of the new sentence is harsh or excessive; 7 or (ii) that the term of the new sentence is unauthorized as a matter of 8 law. An appeal in accordance with the applicable provisions of this 9 chapter may also be taken as of right by the applicant from an order 10 specifying and informing such applicant of the term of the determinate 11 sentence the court would impose upon resentencing on the ground that the 12 term of the proposed sentence is harsh or excessive; upon remand to the 13 sentencing court following such appeal the applicant shall be given an 14 opportunity to withdraw an application for resentencing before any 15 resentence is imposed. The applicant may request that the court assign 16 him or her an attorney for the preparation of and proceedings on any 17 appeals regarding his or her application for resentencing pursuant to 18 this section. The attorney shall be assigned in accordance with the 19 provisions of subdivision one of section seven hundred seventeen and 20 subdivision four of section seven hundred twenty-two of the county law
21 and the related provisions of article eighteen-A of such law.

22 4. In calculating the new term to be served by the applicant pursuant 23 to section 60.12 of the penal law, such applicant shall be credited for 24 any jail time credited towards the subject conviction as well as any 25 period of incarceration credited toward the sentence originally imposed.

26 § 4. Subdivision 1 of section 450.90 of the criminal procedure law, as 27 amended by section 10 of part AAA of chapter 56 of the laws of 2009, is 28 amended to read as follows:

29 1. Provided that a certificate granting leave to appeal is issued 30 pursuant to section 460.20, an appeal may, except as provided in subdi-

32 the people from any adverse or partially adverse order of an intermedi-

34 appellate court pursuant to section 450.10, 450.15, or 450.20, or from 35 an order granting or denying a motion to set aside an order of an inter-36 mediate appellate court on the ground of ineffective assistance or 37 wrongful deprivation of appellate counsel, or by either the defendant or 38 the people from any adverse or partially adverse order of an intermedi-39 ate appellate court entered upon an appeal taken to such intermediate 40 appellate court from an order entered pursuant to section 440.46 or 41 section 440.47 of this chapter. An order of an intermediate appellate 42 court is adverse to the party who was the appellant in such court when 43 it affirms the judgment, sentence or order appealed from, and is adverse 44 to the party who was the respondent in such court when it reverses the 45 judgment, sentence or order appealed from. An appellate court order 46 which modifies a judgment or order appealed from is partially adverse to 47 each party.

48 § 5. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 390.50 of the criminal 49 procedure law, as amended by section 5 of part 00 of chapter 56 of the 50 laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

51 (a) Not less than one court day prior to sentencing, unless such time 52 requirement is waived by the parties, the pre-sentence report or memo-53 randum shall be made available by the court for examination and for 54 copying by the defendant's attorney, the defendant himself, if he has no 55 attorney, and the prosecutor. In its discretion, the court may except 56 from disclosure a part or parts of the report or memoranda which are not relevant to a proper sentence, or a diagnostic opinion which might seriously disrupt a program of rehabilitation, or sources of information which have been obtained on a promise of confidentiality, or any other portion thereof, disclosure of which would not be in the interest of justice. In all cases where a part or parts of the report or memoranda are not disclosed, the court shall state for the record that a part or parts of the report or memoranda have been excepted and the reasons for its action. The action of the court excepting information from disclosure shall be subject to appellate review. The pre-sentence report shall be made available by the court for examination and copying in connection with any appeal in the case, including an appeal under this subdivision. Upon written request, the court shall make a copy of the presentence report, other than a part or parts of the report redacted by the court pursuant to this paragraph, available to the defendant for use before the parole board for release consideration or an appeal of a parole board determination or an application for resentencing pursuant to section 440.46 or 440.47 of this chapter. In his or her written request to the court the defendant shall affirm that he or she anticipates an appearance before the parole board or intends to file an administrative appeal of a parole board determination or meets the eligibility criteria for and intends to file a motion for resentencing pursuant to 440.46 of this chapter or has received notification from the court which received his or her request to apply for resentencing pursuant to section 440.47 of this chapter confirming that he or she is eligible to submit an application for resentencing pursuant to section 440.47 of this chapter. The court shall respond to the defendant's written request within twenty days from receipt of the defendant's written request.

§ 6. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that sections one and two of this act shall apply to offenses committed on, after and prior to such effective date where the sentence for such offense has not yet been imposed; provided, further that sections three, four and five of this act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law.

§ 8. Section 310.80 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 1 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as follows:

After a verdict has been rendered, it must be recorded on the minutes and read to the jury, and the jurors must be collectively asked whether such is their verdict. Even though no juror makes any declaration in the negative, the jury must, if either party makes such an application, be polled and each juror separately asked whether the verdict announced by the foreman is in all respects his verdict. If upon either the collective or the separate inquiry any juror answers in the negative, the court must refuse to accept the verdict and must direct the jury to resume its deliberation. If no disagreement is expressed, the jury must be discharged from the case~~[, except as otherwise provided in section 400.27].~~

1. At any time after the entry of a judgment, the court in which the judgment was entered may, upon motion of the defendant, set aside the sentence upon the ground that it was unauthorized, illegally imposed or otherwise invalid as a matter of law. ~~[Where the judgment includes a sentence of death, the court may also set aside the sentence upon any of the grounds set forth in paragraph (b), (c), (f), (g) or (h) of subdivision one of section 440.10 as applied to a separate sentencing proceeding under section 400.27, provided, however, that to the extent the ground or grounds asserted include one or more of the aforesaid paragraphs of subdivision one of section 440.10, the court must also apply subdivisions two and three of section 440.10, other than paragraph (d) of subdivision two of such section, in determining the motion. In the event the court enters an order granting a motion to set aside a sentence of death under this section, the court must either direct a new sentencing proceeding in accordance with section 400.27 or, to the extent that the defendant cannot be resentenced to death consistent with the laws of this state or the constitution of this state or of the United States, resentence the defendant to life imprisonment without parole or to a sentence of imprisonment for the class A-I felony of murder in the first degree other than a sentence of life imprisonment without parole. Upon granting the motion upon any of the grounds set forth in the aforesaid paragraphs of subdivision one of section 440.10 and setting aside the sentence, the court must afford the people a reasonable period of time, which shall not be less than ten days, to determine whether to take an appeal from the order setting aside the sentence of death. The taking of an appeal by the people stays the effectiveness of that portion of the court's order that directs a new sentencing proceeding.]~~

§ 10. Subdivision 10 of section 450.20 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED.

§ 11. Subdivision 3 of section 460.40 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED.

~~[1.]~~ Wherever appropriate, the rules set forth in sections 470.15 and 470.20, governing the consideration and determination by intermediate

1 appellate courts of appeals thereto from judgments and orders of crimi-

7 [~~2. Whenever a sentence of death is imposed, the judgment and sentence~~ 8 ~~shall be reviewed on the record by the court of appeals. Review by the~~ 9 ~~court of appeals pursuant to subdivision one of section 450.70 may not~~ 10 ~~be waived.~~

11 ~~3. With regard to the sentence, the court shall, in addition to exer-~~ 12 ~~cising the powers and scope of review granted under subdivision one of~~ 13 ~~this section, determine:~~

14 ~~(a) whether the sentence of death was imposed under the influence of~~ 15 ~~passion, prejudice, or any other arbitrary or legally impermissible~~ 16 ~~factor including whether the imposition of the verdict or sentence was~~ 17 ~~based upon the race of the defendant or a victim of the crime for which~~ 18 ~~the defendant was convicted;~~

19 ~~(b) whether the sentence of death is excessive or disproportionate to~~ 20 ~~the penalty imposed in similar cases considering both the crime and the~~

23 ~~the sentence of death is excessive or disproportionate to the penalty~~ 24 ~~imposed in similar cases by virtue of the race of the defendant or a~~ 25 ~~victim of the crime for which the defendant was convicted; and~~

26 ~~(c) whether the decision to impose the sentence of death was against~~ 27 ~~the weight of the evidence.~~

28 ~~4. The court shall include in its decision: (a) the aggravating and~~ 29 ~~mitigating factors established in the record on appeal; and~~

30 ~~(b) those similar cases it took into consideration.~~

31 ~~5. In addition to exercising any other corrective action pursuant to~~ 32 ~~subdivision one of this section, the court, with regard to review of a~~ 33 ~~sentence of death, shall be authorized to:~~ 34 ~~(a) affirm the sentence of death; or~~

35 ~~(b) set the sentence aside and remand the case for resentencing pursu-~~ 36 ~~ant to the procedures set forth in section 400.27 for a determination as~~ 37 ~~to whether the defendant shall be sentenced to death, life imprisonment~~ 38 ~~without parole or to a term of imprisonment for the class A-I felony of~~ 39 ~~murder in the first degree other than a sentence of life imprisonment~~ 40 ~~without parole; or~~

41 ~~(c) set the sentence aside and remand the case for resentencing by the~~ 42 ~~court for a determination as to whether the defendant shall be sentenced~~ 43 ~~to life imprisonment without parole or to a term of imprisonment for the~~ 45 ~~life imprisonment without parole.]~~

Before delivering a firearm to any person, the licensee shall require him to produce either a license valid under this section to carry or possess the same, or proof of lawful authority as an exempt person pursuant to section 265.20 of this chapter and either (a) the National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS) or its successor has issued a "proceed" response to the licensee, or (b) ten business days have elapsed since the date the licensee contacted NICS to initiate a national instate criminal background check and NICS has not notified the licensee that the transfer of the firearm to such person should be denied. Records assembled or collected for purposes of inclusion in the database created pursuant to section 400.02 of this article shall not be subject to disclosure pursuant to article six of the public officers law. The record book shall be maintained on the premises mentioned and described in the license and shall be open at all reasonable hours for inspection by any peace officer, acting pursuant to his special duties, or police officer. 27 922, when such sale, exchange or disposal is conducted pursuant to that 28 person's federal firearms license or such sale, exchange or disposal is 29 between members of an immediate family. When a sale, exchange or 30 disposal is conducted pursuant to a person's federal firearms license,

42 who consents to conduct such check, and upon completion of such back-43 ground check, shall complete a document, the form of which shall be 44 approved by the superintendent of state police, that identifies and 45 confirms that such check was performed. Before a dealer who consents to 46 conduct a national instant criminal background check delivers a firearm,

48 response to the dealer, or (b) ten business days shall have elapsed 49 since the date the dealer contacted NICS to initiate a national instant 50 criminal background check and NICS has not notified the dealer that the 51 transfer of the firearm, rifle or shotgun to such person should be 52 denied.

53 § 5. This act shall take effect on the forty-fifth day after it shall 16 1. "Extreme risk protection order" means a court-issued order of 17 protection prohibiting a person from purchasing, possessing or attempt-18 ing to purchase or possess a firearm, rifle or shotgun.

40 accompanying supporting documentation, setting forth the facts and 41 circumstances justifying the issuance of an extreme risk protection 42 order. Such application and supporting documentation shall be filed in 43 the supreme court in the county in which the respondent resides. The 44 chief administrator of the courts shall adopt forms that may be used for 45 purposes of such applications and the court's consideration of such 46 applications. Such application form shall include inquiry as to whether 47 the petitioner knows, or has reason to believe, that the respondent 48 owns, possesses or has access to a firearm, rifle or shotgun and if so, 49 a request that the petitioner list or describe such firearms, rifles and 50 shotguns, and the respective locations thereof, with as much specificity 51 as possible.

52 § 6342. Issuance of a temporary extreme risk protection order. 1.

54 issue a temporary extreme risk protection order, ex parte or otherwise, 55 to prohibit the respondent from purchasing, possessing or attempting to 56 purchase or possess a firearm, rifle or shotgun, upon a finding that 1 there is probable cause to believe the respondent is likely to engage in 2 conduct that would result in serious harm to himself, herself or others, 3 as defined in paragraph one or two of subdivision (a) of section 9.39 of 4 the mental hygiene law. Such application for a temporary order shall be 5 determined in writing on the same day the application is filed.

7 protection order exist, the court shall consider any relevant factors 8 including, but not limited to, the following acts of the respondent:

10 toward self, the petitioner, or another person;

11 (b) a violation or alleged violation of an order of protection;

20 other deadly weapon or dangerous instrument, or any ammunition therefor.

21 In considering the factors under this subdivision, the court shall 22 consider the time that has elapsed since the occurrence of such act or 23 acts and the age of the person at the time of the occurrence of such act 24 or acts.

25 For the purposes of this subdivision, "recent" means within the six 26 months prior to the date the petition was filed.

27 3. The application of the petitioner and supporting documentation, if 28 any, shall set forth the factual basis for the request and probable 29 cause for issuance of a temporary order. The court may conduct an exam-30 ination under oath of the petitioner and any witness the petitioner may 31 produce.

32 4. A temporary extreme risk protection order, if warranted, shall 33 issue in writing, and shall include:

34 (a) a statement of the grounds found for the issuance of the order;

35 (b) the date and time the order expires;

37 (d) a statement to the respondent: (i) directing that the respondent 38 may not purchase, possess or attempt to purchase or possess a firearm, 39 rifle or shotgun while the order is in effect and that any firearm, 40 rifle or shotgun possessed by such respondent shall be promptly surren-41 dered to any authorized law enforcement official in the same manner as 42 set forth in subdivision five of section 530.14 of the criminal proce-

48 provided that the respondent shall be entitled to more than six days 49 upon request in order to prepare for the hearing; and (iii) informing 50 the respondent the he or she may seek the advice of an attorney and that 51 an attorney should be consulted promptly; and 52 (e) a form to be completed and executed by the respondent at the time 53 of service of the temporary extreme risk protection order which elicits 54 a list of all firearms, rifles and shotguns possessed by the respondent 55 and the particular location of each firearm, rifle or shotgun listed.

1 5. If the application for a temporary extreme risk protection order is 2 not granted, the court shall notify the petitioner and, unless the 3 application is voluntarily withdrawn by the petitioner, nonetheless 4 schedule a hearing on the application for a final extreme risk
5 protection order. Such hearing shall be scheduled to be held promptly, 6 but in any event no later than ten business days after the date on which 7 such application is served on the respondent, provided, however, that 8 the respondent may request, and the court may grant, additional time to 9 allow the respondent to prepare for the hearing. A notice of such hear-10 ing shall be prepared by the court and shall include the date and time 11 of the hearing, the address of the court, and the subject of the hear-

16 separately applied for or if a temporary extreme risk protection order 17 was not granted, the application for an extreme risk protection order, 18 any notice of hearing prepared by the court, along with any associated 19 papers including the petition and any supporting documentation, 20 provided, that the court may redact the address and contact information 21 of the petitioner from such application and papers where the court finds 22 that disclosure of such address or other contact information would pose 23 an unreasonable risk to the health or safety of the petitioner.

24 (b) The court shall provide copies of such documents to the appropri-25 ate law enforcement agency serving the jurisdiction of the respondent's 26 residence with a direction that such documents be promptly served, at no 27 cost to the petitioner, on the respondent; provided, however, that the 28 petitioner may voluntarily arrange for service of copies of such order 29 and associated papers through a third party, such as a licensed process 30 server.

31 7. (a) The court shall notify the division of state police, any other 32 law enforcement agency with jurisdiction, all applicable licensing offi-
33 cers, and the division of criminal justice services of the issuance of a 34 temporary extreme risk protection order and provide a copy of such order 35 no later than the next business day after issuing the order to such 36 persons or agencies. The court also shall promptly notify such persons 37 and agencies and provide a copy of any order amending or revoking such 38 protection order or restoring the respondent's ability to own or possess 39 firearms, rifles or shotguns no later than the next business day after 40 issuing the order to restore such right to the respondent. The court 41 also shall report such demographic data as required by the state divi-42 sion of criminal justice services at the time such order is transmitted 43 thereto. Any notice or report submitted pursuant to this subdivision 44 shall be in an electronic format, in a manner prescribed by the division 45 of criminal justice services.

46 (b) Upon receiving notice of the issuance of a temporary extreme risk 47 protection order, the division of criminal justice services shall imme-48 diately report the existence of such order to the federal bureau of 49 investigation to allow the bureau to identify persons prohibited from 50 purchasing firearms, rifles or shotguns. The division shall also imme-51 diately report to the bureau the expiration of any such protection 52 order, any court order amending or revoking such protection order or 53 restoring the respondent's ability to purchase a firearm, rifle or shot-54 gun.

55 8. A law enforcement officer serving a temporary extreme risk 56 protection order shall request that the respondent immediately surrender

1 to the officer all firearms, rifles and shotguns in the respondent's 2 possession and the officer shall conduct any search permitted by law for 3 such firearms. The law enforcement officer shall take possession of all 4 firearms, rifles and shotguns that are surrendered, that are in plain 5 sight, or that are discovered pursuant to a lawful search. As part of 6 the order, the court may also direct a police officer to search for 7 firearms, rifles and shotguns in the respondent's possession in a manner 8 consistent with the procedures of article six hundred ninety of the 9 criminal procedure law.

10 9. Upon issuance of a temporary extreme risk protection order, or upon 11 setting a hearing for a final extreme risk protection order where a 12 temporary order is denied or not requested, the court shall direct the 13 law enforcement agency having jurisdiction to conduct a background 14 investigation and report to the court and, subject to any appropriate 15 redactions to protect any person, each party regarding whether the 16 respondent:

17 (a) has any prior criminal conviction for an offense involving domes-18 tic violence, use of a weapon, or other violence;

19 (b) has any criminal charge or violation currently pending against him 20 or her;

21 (c) is currently on parole or probation;

22 (d) possesses any registered firearms, rifles or shotguns; and 23 (e) has been, or is, subject to any order of protection or has 24 violated or allegedly violated any order of protection.

25 § 6343. Issuance of a final extreme risk protection order. 1. In 26 accordance with this article, no sooner than three business days nor 27 later than six business days after service of a temporary extreme risk 28 protection order and, alternatively, no later than ten business days 29 after service of an application under this article where no temporary 30 extreme risk protection order has been issued, the supreme court shall 31 hold a hearing to determine whether to issue a final extreme risk 32 protection order and, when applicable, whether a firearm, rifle or shot-33 gun surrendered by, or removed from, the respondent should be returned 34 to the respondent. The respondent shall be entitled to more than six 35 business days if a temporary extreme risk protection order has been 36 issued and the respondent requests a reasonable period of additional 37 time to prepare for the hearing. Where no temporary order has been 38 issued, the respondent may request, and the court may grant, additional 39 time beyond the ten days to allow the respondent to prepare for the 40 hearing.

41 2. At the hearing pursuant to subdivision one of this section, the 42 petitioner shall have the burden of proving, by clear and convincing 43 evidence, that the respondent is likely to engage in conduct that would 44 result in serious harm to himself, herself or others, as defined in 45 paragraph one or two of subdivision (a) of section 9.39 of the mental 46 hygiene law. The court may consider the petition and any evidence 47 submitted by the petitioner, any evidence submitted by the respondent, 48 any testimony presented, and the report of the relevant law enforcement 49 agency submitted pursuant to subdivision nine of section sixty-three 50 hundred forty-two of this article. The court shall also consider the 51 factors set forth in subdivision two of section sixty-three hundred 52 forty-two of this article.

53 3. (a) After the hearing pursuant to subdivision one of this section, 54 the court shall issue a written order granting or denying the extreme 55 risk protection order and setting forth the reasons for such determi-56 nation. If the extreme risk protection order is granted, the court shall 1 direct service of such order in the manner and in accordance with the 2 protections for the petitioner set forth in subdivision six of section 3 sixty-three hundred forty-two of this article.

4 (b) Upon issuance of an extreme risk protection order: (i) any 5 firearm, rifle or shotgun removed pursuant to a temporary extreme risk 6 protection order or such extreme risk protection order shall be retained 7 by the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction for the duration of 8 the order, unless ownership of the firearm, rifle or shotgun is legally 9 transferred by the respondent to another individual permitted by law to 10 own and possess such firearm, rifle or shotgun; (ii) the supreme court 11 shall temporarily suspend any existing firearm license possessed by the 12 respondent and order the respondent temporarily ineligible for such a 13 license; (iii) the respondent shall be prohibited from purchasing or 14 possessing, or attempting to purchase or possess, a firearm, rifle or 15 shotgun; and (iv) the court shall direct the respondent to surrender any 16 firearm, rifle or shotgun in his or her possession in the same manner as 17 set forth in subdivision five of section 530.14 of the criminal proce-18 dure law.

19 (c) An extreme risk protection order issued in accordance with this 20 section shall extend, as specified by the court, for a period of up to 21 one year from the date of the issuance of such order; provided, however, 22 that if such order was immediately preceded by the issuance of a tempo-23 rary extreme risk protection order, then the duration of the extreme 24 risk protection order shall be measured from the date of issuance of 25 such temporary extreme risk protection order.

26 (d) A law enforcement officer serving a final extreme risk protection 27 order shall request that the respondent immediately surrender to the 28 officer all firearms, rifles and shotguns in the respondent's possession 29 and the officer shall conduct any search permitted by law for such 30 firearms. The law enforcement officer shall take possession of all 31 firearms, rifles and shotguns that are surrendered, that are in plain 32 sight, or that are discovered pursuant to a lawful search. As part of 33 the order, the court may also direct a police officer to search for 34 firearms, rifles and shotguns in a respondent's possession consistent 35 with the procedures of article six hundred ninety of the criminal proce-36 dure law.

37 4. (a) The court shall notify the division of state police, any other 38 law enforcement agency with jurisdiction, all applicable licensing offi-
39 cers, and the division of criminal justice services of the issuance of a 40 final extreme risk protection order and provide a copy of such order to 41 such persons and agencies no later than the next business day after 42 issuing the order. The court also shall promptly notify such persons and 43 agencies and provide a copy of any order amending or revoking such 44 protection order or restoring the respondent's ability to own or possess 45 firearms, rifles or shotguns no later than the next business day after 46 issuing the order to restore such right to the respondent. Any notice or 47 report submitted pursuant to this subdivision shall be in an electronic 48 format, in a manner prescribed by the division of criminal justice 49 services.

50 (b) Upon receiving notice of the issuance of a final extreme risk
51 protection order, the division of criminal justice services shall imme-52 diately report the existence of such order to the federal bureau of 53 investigation to allow the bureau to identify persons prohibited from 54 purchasing firearms, rifles or shotguns. The division shall also imme-55 diately report to the bureau the expiration of such protection order and

1 any court order amending or revoking such protection order or restoring 2 the respondent's ability to purchase a firearm, rifle or shotgun.

3 5. (a) If, in accordance with a temporary extreme risk protection 4 order, a firearm, rifle or shotgun has been surrendered by or removed 5 from the respondent, and the supreme court subsequently finds that the 6 petitioner has not met the required standard of proof, the court's find-7 ing shall include a written order, issued to all parties, directing that 8 any firearm, rifle or shotgun surrendered or removed pursuant to such 9 temporary order shall be returned to the respondent, upon a written 10 finding that there is no legal impediment to the respondent's possession 11 of such firearm, rifle or shotgun.

12 (b) If any other person demonstrates that he or she is the lawful 13 owner of any firearm, rifle or shotgun surrendered or removed pursuant 14 to a protection order issued in accordance with this article, and 15 provided that the court has made a written finding that there is no 16 legal impediment to the person's possession of a surrendered or removed 17 firearm, rifle or shotgun, the court shall direct that such firearm, 18 rifle or shotgun be returned to such lawful owner and inform such person 19 of the obligation to safely store such firearm, rifle, or shotgun in 20 accordance with section 265.45 of the penal law.

21 6. The respondent shall be notified on the record and in writing by 22 the court that he or she may submit one written request, at any time 23 during the effective period of an extreme risk protection order, for a 24 hearing setting aside any portion of such order. The request shall be 25 submitted in substantially the same form and manner as prescribed by the 26 chief administrator of the courts. Upon such request, the court shall 27 promptly hold a hearing, in accordance with this article, after provid-28 ing reasonable notice to the petitioner. The respondent shall bear the 29 burden to prove, by clear and convincing evidence, any change of circum-30 stances that may justify a change to the order.

31 § 6344. Surrender and removal of firearms, rifles and shotguns pursu-
32 ant to an extreme risk protection order. 1. When a law enforcement offi-33 cer takes any firearm, rifle or shotgun pursuant to a temporary extreme 34 risk protection order or a final extreme risk protection order, the 35 officer shall give to the person from whom such firearm, rifle or shot-36 gun is taken a receipt or voucher for the property taken, describing the 37 property in detail. In the absence of a person, the officer shall leave 38 the receipt or voucher in the place where the property was found, mail a 39 copy of the receipt or voucher, retaining proof of mailing, to the last 40 known address of the respondent and, if different, the owner of the 41 firearm, rifle or shotgun, and file a copy of such receipt or voucher 42 with the court. All firearms, rifles and shotguns in the possession of a 43 law enforcement official pursuant to this article shall be subject to 44 the provisions of applicable law, including but not limited to subdivi-45 sion six of section 400.05 of the penal law; provided, however, that any 46 such firearm, rifle or shotgun shall be retained and not disposed of by 47 the law enforcement agency for at least two years unless legally trans-48 ferred by the respondent to an individual permitted by law to own and 49 possess such firearm, rifle or shotgun.

50 2. If the location to be searched during the execution of a temporary 51 extreme risk protection order or extreme risk protection order is joint-52 ly occupied by two or more parties, and a firearm, rifle or shotgun 53 located during the execution of such order is owned by a person other 54 than the respondent, the court shall, upon a written finding that there 55 is no legal impediment to the person other than the respondent's 56 possession of such firearm, rifle or shotgun, order the return of such

1 firearm, rifle or shotgun to such lawful owner and inform such person of 2 their obligation to safely store their firearm, rifle, or shotgun in 3 accordance with section 265.45 of the penal law.

4 § 6345. Request for renewal of an extreme risk protection order. 1.
5 If a petitioner believes a person subject to an extreme risk protection 6 order continues to be likely to engage in conduct that would result in 7 serious harm to himself, herself, or others, as defined in paragraph one 8 or two of subdivision (a) of section 9.39 of the mental hygiene law, 9 such petitioner may, at any time within sixty days prior to the expira-10 tion of such existing extreme risk protection order, initiate a request 11 for a renewal of such order, setting forth the facts and circumstances 12 necessitating the request. The chief administrator of the courts shall 13 adopt forms that may be used for purposes of such applications and the 14 court's consideration of such applications. The court may issue a tempo-15 rary extreme risk protection order in accordance with section sixty-16 three hundred forty-two of this article, during the period that a 17 request for renewal of an extreme risk protection order is under consid-18 eration pursuant to this section.

19 2. A hearing held pursuant to this section shall be conducted in the 20 supreme court, in accordance with section sixty-three hundred forty-21 three of this article, to determine if a request for renewal of the 22 order shall be granted. The respondent shall be served with written 23 notice of an application for renewal a reasonable time before the hear-24 ing, and shall be afforded an opportunity to fully participate in the 25 hearing. The court shall direct service of such application and the 26 accompanying papers in the manner and in accordance with the protections 27 for the petitioner set forth in subdivision six of section sixty-three 28 hundred forty-two of this article.

29 § 6346. Expiration of an extreme risk protection order. 1. A 30 protection order issued pursuant to this article, and all records of any 31 proceedings conducted pursuant to this article, shall be sealed upon 32 expiration of such order and the clerk of the court wherein such 33 proceedings were conducted shall immediately notify the commissioner of 34 the division of criminal justice services, the heads of all appropriate 35 police departments, applicable licensing officers, and all other appro-36 priate law enforcement agencies that the order has expired and that the 37 record of such protection order shall be sealed and not be made avail-38 able to any person or public or private entity, except that such records 39 shall be made available to:

40 (a) the respondent or the respondent's designated agent;
41 (b) courts in the unified court system;
42 (c) police forces and departments having responsibility for enforce-43 ment of the general criminal laws of the state; 44 (d) any state or local officer or agency with responsibility for the 45 issuance of licenses to possess a firearm, rifle or shotgun, when the 46 respondent has made application for such a license; and 47 (e) any prospective employer of a police officer or peace officer as 48 those terms are defined in subdivisions thirty-three and thirty-four of 49 section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law, in relation to an applica-50 tion for employment as a police officer or peace officer; provided, 51 however, that every person who is an applicant for the position of 52 police officer or peace officer shall be furnished with a copy of all 53 records obtained under this subparagraph and afforded an opportunity to 54 make an explanation thereto.

55 2. Upon expiration of a protection order issued pursuant to this arti-56 cle and upon written application of the respondent who is the subject of 1 such order, with notice and opportunity to be heard to the petitioner 2 and every licensing officer responsible for issuance of a firearm 3 license to the subject of the order pursuant to article four hundred of 4 the penal law, and upon a written finding that there is no legal imped-5 iment to the respondent's possession of a surrendered firearm, rifle or 6 shotgun, the court shall order the return of a firearm, rifle or shotgun 7 not otherwise disposed of in accordance with subdivision one of section 8 sixty-three hundred forty-four of this article. When issuing such order 9 in connection with any firearm subject to a license requirement under 10 article four hundred of the penal law, if the licensing officer informs 11 the court that he or she will seek to revoke the license, the order 12 shall be stayed by the court until the conclusion of any license revoca-13 tion proceeding.

14 § 6347. Effect of findings and determinations in subsequent 15 proceedings. Notwithstanding any contrary claim based on common law or 16 a provision of any other law, no finding or determination made pursuant 17 to this article shall be interpreted as binding, or having collateral 18 estoppel or similar effect, in any other action or proceeding, or with 19 respect to any other determination or finding, in any court, forum or 20 administrative proceeding.

21 § 2. Section 265.45 of the penal law, as amended by section 3 of part 22 FF of chapter 57 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

23 § 265.45 Safe storage of rifles, shotguns, and firearms.

24 No person who owns or is custodian of a rifle, shotgun or firearm who 25 resides with an individual who such person knows or has reason to know
26 is prohibited from possessing a firearm pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 922(g) 27 (1), (4), (8) or (9), or pursuant to a temporary or final extreme risk 28 protection order issued under article sixty-three-A of the civil prac-29 tice law and rules, shall store or otherwise leave such rifle, shotgun 30 or firearm out of his or her immediate possession or control without 31 having first securely locked such rifle, shotgun or firearm in an appro-32 priate safe storage depository or rendered it incapable of being fired 33 by use of a gun locking device appropriate to that weapon. For purposes 34 of this section "safe storage depository" shall mean a safe or other 35 secure container which, when locked, is incapable of being opened with-36 out the key, combination or other unlocking mechanism and is capable of 37 preventing an unauthorized person from obtaining access to and 38 possession of the weapon contained therein. With respect to a person who 39 is prohibited from possessing a firearm pursuant to 18 USC § 922(g)(9), 40 for purposes of this section, this section applies only if such person 41 has been convicted of a crime included in subdivision one of section 42 370.15 of the criminal procedure law and such gun is possessed within 43 five years from the later of the date of conviction or completion of 44 sentence. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect, impair or 45 supersede any special or local act relating to the safe storage of 46 rifles, shotguns or firearms which impose additional requirements on the 47 owner or custodian of such weapons.

48 A violation of this section shall constitute a class A misdemeanor.

49 § 3. If any part or provision of this act is adjudged by a court of 50 competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid, such 51 judgment shall not affect or impair any other part or provision of this 52 act, but shall be confined in its operation to such part or provision.

53 § 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 54 it shall have become a law.

Section 1. This part enacts into law major components of legislation which are necessary to reform the manner in which New York state pursues justice before trial. This state, like most across the United States, has for far too long needlessly incarcerated those meant to be guaranteed a presumption of innocence simply because of an inability to pay bail and have forced those same people to choose between facing lengthy prison sentences or a speedy return to society without providing them with sufficient information regarding the case against them. This Part will usher into New York true reforms in the areas of bail, discovery, and speedy trial. Each component is wholly contained within a Subpart identified as Subparts A through C. The effective date for each particular provision contained within such Subpart is set forth in the last section of such Subpart. Any provision in any section contained within a Subpart, including the effective date of the Subpart, which makes a reference to a section "of this act", when used in connection with that particular component, shall be deemed to mean and refer to the corresponding section of the Subpart in which it is found.

SUBPART A

Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature finds and declares that there is a present need to revise New York's procedures regulating release of persons charged with criminal offenses pending trial, set forth in title P of the criminal procedure law, so that fewer presumed-innocent people are held behind bars pretrial. First, the bill requires the police to issue appearance tickets in misdemeanor and class E felony cases, with enumerated exceptions, so that fewer people spend time in jail before arraignment. Then after arraignment, the bill breaks the link between paying money and earning freedom, so that defendants are either released on their own recognizance or, failing that, released under non-monetary conditions. The bill also revises the existing process of remanding individuals in jail before trial, so that pretrial detention can be ordered only in limited cases involving high risk of flight or a current risk to the physical safety of a reasonably identifiable person or persons, and the order comports with Supreme Court jurisprudence regarding required substantive and procedural due process before detention.

§ 2. Subdivision 1 of section 150.20 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 550 of the laws of 1987, is amended to read as follows:

1. (a) Whenever a police officer is authorized pursuant to section 140.10 of this title to arrest a person without a warrant for an offense other than a class A, B, C or D felony or a violation of section 130.25, 130.40, 205.10, 205.17, 205.19 or 215.56 of the penal law, he [may] shall, except as set out in paragraph (b) of this subdivision, subject to the provisions of subdivisions three and four of section 150.40 of this title, instead issue to and serve upon such person an appearance ticket.

(b) An officer is not required to issue an appearance ticket if the person:

(i) has one or more outstanding warrants;

(ii) has a documented history of failure to appear in court proceedings;

(iii) has been given a reasonable opportunity to make their verifiable identity and a method of contact known, and has been unable or unwilling

1 to do so, so that a custodial arrest is necessary to subject the indi-2 vidual to the jurisdiction of the court;

3 (iv) is charged with a crime or offense between members of the same 4 family or household, as defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of 5 this chapter;

6 (v) is charged with a crime or offense involving sexual misconduct 7 under section 130.00 of the penal law;

8 (vi) should, in the officer's estimation, be brought before the court 9 for consideration of issuance of an order of protection, pursuant to 10 section 530.13 of this chapter, based on the facts of the crime or 11 offense that the officer has reasonable cause to believe occurred;

12 (vii) should, in the officer's estimation, be brought before the court 13 for consideration of court-ordered restrictions on operation of a motor 14 vehicle, based on the facts of the crime or offense that the officer has 15 reasonable cause to believe occurred;

16 (viii) should, in the officer's estimation, be brought before the 17 court for consideration of court ordered medical or mental health 18 assessment, based on the facts of the alleged crime or offense that the 19 officer has reasonable cause to believe occurred and the observed behav-20 ior of the individual when in contact with the police; or 21 (ix) is unlikely to return to court on the return date of an appear-22 ance ticket for reasons specific to the facts of the case that the offi-23 cer can articulate in the information or misdemeanor complaint. These 24 reasons cannot rely solely on the defendant's prior criminal history or 25 place of residence.

26 § 3. Section 150.30 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED.

27 § 4. Subdivision 1 of section 150.40 of the criminal procedure law is 28 amended to read as follows:

29 1. An appearance ticket must be made returnable at a date as soon as 30 possible, but in no event later than twenty days from the date of issu-31 ance. The appearance ticket shall be made returnable in a local criminal 32 court designated in section 100.55 of this title as one with which an 33 information for the offense in question may be filed.

34 § 5. Subdivisions 1, 2, 4, 5 and 6 of section 500.10 of the criminal 35 procedure law are amended and a new subdivision 3-a is added to read as 36 follows:

37 1. "Principal" means a defendant in a criminal action or proceeding, 38 or a person adjudged a material witness therein, or any other person so 39 involved therein that [~~he~~] the principal may by law be compelled to 40 appear before a court for the purpose of having such court exercise 41 control over [~~his~~] the principal's person to secure [~~his~~] the princi-42 pal's future attendance at the action or proceeding when required, and 43 who in fact either is before the court for such purpose or has been 44 before it and been subjected to such control.

45 2. "Release on own recognizance." A court releases a principal on 46 [~~his~~] the principal's own recognizance when, having acquired control 47 over [~~his~~] the principal's person, it permits [~~him~~] the principal to be 48 at liberty during the pendency of the criminal action or proceeding 49 involved upon condition that [~~he~~] the principal will appear thereat 50 whenever [~~his~~] the principal's attendance may be required and will at 51 all times render [~~himself~~] the principal amenable to the orders and 52 processes of the court.

53 3-a. "Release under non-monetary conditions". A court releases a prin-54 cipal under non-monetary conditions when, having acquired control over a 55 person, it permits the person to be at liberty during the pendency of 56 the criminal action under conditions set by the court, which shall be

1 the least restrictive that will reasonably assure the principal's return 2 appearance in court. Such conditions may include, among others, that the 3 principal shall be in contact with a pretrial services agency serving 4 principals in that county; that the principal shall abide by specified 5 restrictions on association or travel that are reasonably related to a 6 risk of flight from the jurisdiction; that the principal shall refrain 7 from possessing a firearm, destructive device or other dangerous weapon; 8 that the person be placed in pretrial supervision with a pretrial 9 services agency serving principals in that county; that the person be 10 monitored with an approved electronic monitoring device. A principal 11 shall not be required to pay for any part of the cost of release under 12 non-monetary conditions, including, but not limited to, electronic moni-13 toring.

14 4. "Commit to the custody of the sheriff." A court commits a principal 15 to the custody of the sheriff when, having acquired control over his 16 person, it orders that he be confined in the custody of the sheriff 17 [~~during the pendency of the criminal action or proceeding involved~~] 18 pending the outcome of a hearing under article five hundred forty-five 19 of this title, as to whether the individual shall be ordered into 20 pretrial detention.

21 5. "Securing order" means an order of a court [~~committing a principal~~ 22 ~~to the custody of the sheriff, or fixing bail, or releasing him on his~~ 23 ~~own recognizance~~] that either releases a principal under personal recog-24 nizance, or releases the principal under non-monetary conditions, all 25 with the direction that the principal return to court for future court 26 appearances and to be at all times amendable to the orders and processes 27 of the court.

28 6. [~~"Order of recognizance or bail" means a securing order releasing a~~ 29 ~~principal on his own recognizance or fixing bail~~] "Pretrial detention".
30 A county or superior court may commit a principal to pretrial detention 31 if, after a hearing and making such findings as specified in article 32 five hundred forty-five of this title, a judge so orders detention.

33 § 6. Section 510.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chap-34 ter 459 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:

35 § 510.10 Securing order; when required; alternatives available; standard 36 to be applied.

37 1. When a principal, whose future court attendance at a criminal 38 action or proceeding is or may be required, initially comes under the 39 control of a court, such court [~~must~~] shall, by a securing order[~~,r~~ 40 ~~either release him on his own recognizance, fix bail or commit him to~~ 41 ~~the custody of the sheriff.~~] release the principal pending trial on the 42 principal's personal recognizance, unless the court finds on the record 43 that release on recognizance will not reasonably assure the individual's 44 court attendance. In such instances, the court will release the individ-45 ual under non-monetary conditions, selecting the least restrictive 46 alternative that will reasonably assure the principal's court attend-47 ance. The court will support its choice of alternative on the record.

48 2. Notwithstanding the above, in cases where the people indicate that 49 they intend to move for pretrial detention as set out in article five 50 hundred forty-five of this title, the court may commit the defendant to 51 the custody of the sheriff or issue a securing order in accordance with 52 article five hundred forty-five of this title.

53 3. When a securing order is revoked or otherwise terminated in the 54 course of an uncompleted action or proceeding but the principal's future 55 court attendance still is or may be required and [~~he~~] the principal is 56 still under the control of a court, a new securing order must be issued.

1 When the court revokes or otherwise terminates a securing order which 2 committed the principal to the custody of the sheriff, the court shall 3 give written notification to the sheriff of such revocation or termi-4 nation of the securing order.

5 § 7. Section 510.20 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read
6 as follows:

7 § 510.20 [~~Application for recognizance or bail, making and determination~~ 8 ~~thereof in general~~] Application for a change in securing 9 order based on a material change of circumstances.

10 1. Upon any occasion when a court [~~is required to issue~~] has issued a 11 securing order with respect to a principal, [~~or at any time when a prin-~~ 12 ~~cipal is confined in the custody of the sheriff as a result of a previ-~~ 13 ~~ously issued securing order, he~~] the defendant or the people may make an 14 application for [~~recognizance or bail~~] a different securing order due to 15 a material change of circumstances.

16 2. Upon such application, the principal or the people must be accorded 17 an opportunity to be heard and to contend that [~~an order of recognizance~~ 18 ~~or bail~~] a different securing order must or should issue[~~, that the~~ 19 ~~court should release him on his own recognizance rather than fix bail,~~ 20 ~~and that if bail is fixed it should be in a suggested amount and form~~] 21 because, due to a material change in circumstances, the current order is 22 either too restrictive or not restrictive enough to reasonably ensure a 23 defendant's appearance in court. In acting upon such an application, 24 the court shall select the least restrictive alternative that will 25 reasonably ensure a court appearance.

26 § 8. Section 510.30 of the criminal procedure law, subparagraph (v) of 27 paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 920 of the laws of 28 1982, subparagraph (vi) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as renumbered 29 by chapter 447 of the laws of 1977, subparagraph (vii) of paragraph (a) 30 of subdivision 2 as added and subparagraphs (viii) and (ix) of paragraph 31 (a) of subdivision 2 as renumbered by section 1 of part D of chapter 491 32 of the laws of 2012, and subdivision 3 as added by chapter 788 of the 33 laws of 1981, is amended to read as follows:

34 § 510.30 Application for [~~recognizance or bail~~] securing order; rules of 35 law and criteria controlling determination.

36 [~~1. Determinations of applications for recognizance or bail are not in~~ 37 ~~all cases discretionary but are subject to rules, prescribed in article~~ 38 ~~five hundred thirty and other provisions of law relating to specific~~ 39 ~~kinds of criminal actions and proceedings, providing (a) that in some~~ 40 ~~circumstances such an application must as a matter of law be granted,~~ 41 ~~(b) that in others it must as a matter of law be denied and the princi-~~ 42 ~~pal committed to or retained in the custody of the sheriff, and (c) that~~ 43 ~~in others the granting or denial thereof is a matter of judicial~~ 44 ~~discretion.~~

45 ~~2. To the extent that the issuance of an order of recognizance or bail~~ 46 ~~and the terms thereof are matters of discretion rather than of law, an~~ 47 ~~application is determined on the basis of the following factors and~~ 48 ~~criteria:~~

49 ~~(a)]~~ With respect to any principal, the court in all cases, unless 50 otherwise provided by law, must [~~consider the~~] impose the least restric-51 tive kind and degree of control or restriction that is necessary to 52 secure [~~his~~] the principal's court attendance when required. In deter-53 mining that matter, the court must, on the basis of available informa-54 tion, consider and take into account:

55 [~~(i) The principal's character, reputation, habits and mental condi-~~ 56 ~~tion.~~

~~(ii) His employment and financial resources; and~~
~~(iii) His family ties and the length of his residence if any in the community; and~~

~~(iv) His~~ 1. information about the principal that is relevant to court appearance, including, but not limited to, the principal's activities, history and community ties;

2. if the principal is a defendant, the charges facing the principal;

3. the principal's criminal record if any; provided that the court must also consider the time that has elapsed since the occurrence of the crime or crimes and the age of the principal at the time of the occurrence of such delinquent or youthful offender conduct; [and

~~(v) His~~ 4. the principal's record of previous adjudication as a juvenile delinquent, as retained pursuant to section 354.2 of the family court act, or, of pending cases where fingerprints are retained pursuant to section 306.1 of such act, or a youthful offender, if any; provided that the court must also consider the time that has elapsed since the occurrence of the crime or crimes and the age of the principal at the time of the occurrence of such delinquent or youthful offender conduct;

~~(vi) His~~ 5. the principal's previous record if any in responding to court appearances when required or with respect to flight to avoid criminal prosecution; [and

~~(vii) Where~~ 6. where the principal is charged with a crime or crimes against a member or members of the same family or household as that term is defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this title, the following factors:

~~[(A)]~~ (i) any violation by the principal of an order of protection issued by any court for the protection of a member or members of the same family or household as that term is defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this title, whether or not such order of protection is currently in effect; and

~~[(B)]~~ (ii) the principal's history of use or possession of a firearm;
~~[and~~

~~(viii)]~~ 7. If [he] the principal is a defendant, the weight of the evidence against [him] the principal in the pending criminal action and any other factor indicating probability or improbability of conviction; or, in the case of an application for [bail or recognizance] securing order pending appeal, the merit or lack of merit of the appeal; and

~~[(ix)]~~ 8. If [he] the principal is a defendant, the sentence which may be or has been imposed upon conviction[.

~~(b) Where the principal is a defendant-appellant in a pending appeal from a judgment of conviction, the court must also consider the likelihood of ultimate reversal of the judgment. A determination that the appeal is palpably without merit alone justifies, but does not require, a denial of the application, regardless of any determination made with respect to the factors specified in paragraph (a).~~

~~3. When bail or recognizance is ordered, the court shall inform the principal, if he is a defendant charged with the commission of a felony, that the release is conditional and that the court may revoke the order of release and commit the principal to the custody of the sheriff in accordance with the provisions of subdivision two of section 530.60 of this chapter if he commits a subsequent felony while at liberty upon such order.]; and~~

9. if the principal is a defendant-appellant in a pending appeal from a judgment of conviction, the court must also consider the likelihood of ultimate reversal of the judgment. A determination that the appeal is

1 palpably without merit alone justifies, but does not require, a denial 2 of the application, regardless of any determination made with respect to 3 the factors specified in this paragraph.

4 § 9. Section 510.40 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read
5 as follows:

6 § 510.40 [~~Application for recognizance or bail, determination thereof,~~ 7 ~~form of securing order and execution thereof~~] Notification to 8 principal by court of conditions of release and penalties for 9 violations of release.

10 1. [~~An application for recognizance or bail must be determined by a~~ 11 ~~securing order which either:~~

12 ~~(a) Grants the application and releases the principal on his own~~ 13 ~~recognizance; or~~

14 ~~(b) Grants the application and fixes bail; or~~

15 ~~(c) Denies the application and commits the principal to, or retains~~ 16 ~~him in, the custody of the sheriff.~~

17 2.] Upon ordering that a principal be released on [~~his~~] the princi-18 pal's own recognizance, or released under non-monetary conditions, the 19 court must direct [~~him~~] the principal to appear in the criminal action 20 or proceeding involved whenever [~~his~~] the principal's attendance may be 21 required and to [~~render himself~~] be at all times amenable to the orders 22 and processes of the court. If the principal is a defendant, the court 23 shall also direct the defendant not to commit a crime while at liberty 24 upon the court's securing order. If such principal is in the custody of 25 the sheriff [~~or at liberty upon bail~~] at the time of the order, the 26 court must direct that [~~he~~] the principal be discharged from such custo-27 dy [~~or, as the case may be, that his bail be exonerated~~].

28 [~~3. Upon the issuance of an order fixing bail, and upon the posting~~ 29 ~~thereof, the court must examine the bail to determine whether it~~ 30 ~~complies with the order. If it does, the court must, in the absence of~~ 31 ~~some factor or circumstance which in law requires or authorizes disap-~~ 32 ~~proval thereof, approve the bail and must issue a certificate of~~ 33 ~~release, authorizing the principal to be at liberty, and, if he is in~~ 34 ~~the custody of the sheriff at the time, directing the sheriff to~~ 35 ~~discharge him therefrom. If the bail fixed is not posted, or is not~~ 36 ~~approved after being posted, the court must order that the principal be~~ 37 ~~committed to the custody of the sheriff.~~]

38 2. If the principal is released under non-monetary conditions, the 39 court shall, in the document authorizing the principal's release, notify 40 the principal of:

41 (a) any of the conditions under which the principal is subject, in 42 addition to the directions in subdivision one of this section, in a 43 manner sufficiently clear and specific to serve as a guide for the prin-44 cipal's conduct; and 45 (b) the consequences for violation of those conditions, which could 46 include revoking of the securing order, setting of a more restrictive 47 securing order, or, after a motion and a hearing prescribed in article 48 five hundred forty-five of this title, pretrial detention.

50 510.41 to read as follows:

51 § 510.41 Provisions regarding non-monetary conditions of release.

52 1. Non-monetary conditions of release shall, for each individual, 53 require the least degree of restrictions or required actions that will 54 reasonably ensure the individual's court attendance. At future court 55 appearances, the court shall consider a lessening of the conditions or

1 modification of conditions to a less burdensome form based on the prin-2 icipal's compliance with existing conditions of release.

3 2. (a) Electronic monitoring of a principal's location may be ordered 4 only if the individual is charged with a felony, or a misdemeanor crime 5 involving a person who is a member of the same household as defined in 6 subdivision one of section 530.11 of this title, and if the court finds, 7 after notice and an opportunity to be heard and an individualized deter-8 mination explained on the record or in writing, that no other non-mone-9 tary condition or sets of conditions will reasonably ensure a princi-10 pal's return to court.

11 (b) The specific method of electronic monitoring of the principal's 12 location must be approved by the court. It must be the least restrictive 13 method and procedure that will reasonably ensure the principal's return 14 to court, and unobtrusive to the greatest extent possible.

15 (c) Electronic monitoring orders shall be reviewed at least every 16 sixty days to ascertain whether they are the least restrictive means of 17 reasonably ensuring an individual's court attendance and whether there 18 are less burdensome methods of ensuring such attendance.

19 3. In the event of non compliance with the conditions of release, the 20 court, upon motion by the people and only after affording the defendant 21 and defendant's counsel notice of the alleged noncompliance and an 22 opportunity to be heard, may revoke and modify the securing order. In 23 determining whether to revoke and modify the securing order, the court 24 must consider the facts, nature, willfulness, and the seriousness of the 25 noncompliance. The court may only set a more restrictive condition or 26 conditions if it finds that such conditions are necessary to reasonably 27 ensure the defendant's appearance in court.

28 § 11. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section
29 510.43 to read as follows:

30 § 510.43 Court appearances; additional notifications.

31 The court, or, upon direction of the court, a certified pretrial 32 services agency, shall, in addition to verbal notifications during court 33 appearances, make best efforts to notify all principals released under 34 recognizance and under non-monetary conditions of all court appearances 35 in advance by text message, electronic mail, phone call or first class
36 mail. The chief administrator of the courts shall, pursuant to subdivi-37 sion one of section 10.40 of this chapter, develop a form which shall be 38 offered to the principal at the principal's initial court appearance, by 39 which the principal may select one such preferred method of notice. The 40 form shall be retained in the court file. In no instance, however, shall 41 the principal's failure to receive such additional notifications in 42 addition to verbal notification at court appearances, constitute grounds 43 to excuse the principal's failure to appear at court proceedings.

45 510.45 to read as follows:

46 § 510.45 Pretrial service agencies.

47 1. Pretrial services shall be provided by a county probation depart-48 ment or nonprofit pretrial service agency. The department or agency must 49 be approved by the division of criminal justice services and certified 50 by the office of court administration. The department or agency will 51 advise the court on a principal's release on recognizance or under non-52 monetary conditions and monitor principals released under conditions of 53 non-monetary release. The division of criminal justice services shall 54 promulgate regulations for the operation of approved pretrial agencies, 55 which shall include data collection and reporting requirements on prin-56 cipals served. The office of court administration shall maintain a listing on its public website identifying each pretrial services agency so certified in the state. A county shall be authorized to enter into a contract with another county or municipality to provide pretrial services.

2. Any criteria, instrument, or tool used to inform a pretrial service agency's recommendation to the court about pretrial conditions shall be made available to the principal and the principal's counsel. Any criteria, instrument or tool used may consider risk of failing to appear in court and shall not contain a measure of a person's general risk to public safety. Any blank form of the criteria, instrument or tool used in the county for such purpose shall be made available to any person promptly upon request. If scores are calculated to predict the risk of failure to appear, the scoring formula shall be made available. Any tool used to predict failure to appear shall be periodically validated, with validation studies available upon request.

§ 13. Section 510.50 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

§ 510.50 Enforcement of securing order.

When the attendance of a principal confined in the custody of the sheriff is required at the criminal action or proceeding at a particular time and place, the court may compel such attendance by directing the sheriff to produce ~~[him]~~ such principal at such time and place. If the principal is at liberty on ~~[his]~~ the principal's own recognizance ~~[or on bail]~~ or non-monetary conditions, ~~[his]~~ the principal's attendance may be achieved or compelled by various methods, including notification and the issuance of a bench warrant, prescribed by law in provisions governing such matters with respect to the particular kind of action or proceeding involved.

§ 14. Article 520 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED.

§ 15. The article heading of article 530 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

~~[ORDERS OF RECOGNIZANCE OR BAIL WITH RESPECT TO DEFENDANTS IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS
AND PROCEEDINGS--WHEN AND BY WHAT COURTS AUTHORIZED]~~ SECURING ORDERS WITH RESPECT TO DEFENDANTS IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS AND PROCEEDINGS - WHEN AND BY WHAT COURTS AUTHORIZED

§ 16. Section 530.10 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

§ 530.10 ~~[Order of recognizance or bail]~~ Securing orders; in general.

Under circumstances prescribed in this article, a court, upon application of a defendant charged with or convicted of an offense, is ~~[required or authorized to order bail or recognizance]~~ to issue a securing order for the release or prospective release of such defendant during the pendency of either:

1. A criminal action based upon such charge; or

2. An appeal taken by the defendant from a judgment of conviction or a sentence or from an order of an intermediate appellate court affirming or modifying a judgment of conviction or a sentence.

§ 17. Subdivision 4 of section 530.11 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 186 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

4. When a person is arrested for an alleged family offense or an alleged violation of an order of protection or temporary order of protection or arrested pursuant to a warrant issued by the supreme or family court, and the supreme or family court, as applicable, is not in

1 session, such person shall be brought before a local criminal court in 2 the county of arrest or in the county in which such warrant is return-3 able pursuant to article one hundred twenty of this chapter. Such local 4 criminal court may issue any order authorized under subdivision eleven 5 of section 530.12 of this article, section one hundred fifty-four-d or 6 one hundred fifty-five of the family court act or subdivision three-b of 7 section two hundred forty or subdivision two-a of section two hundred 8 fifty-two of the domestic relations law, in addition to discharging 9 other arraignment responsibilities as set forth in this chapter. In 10 making such order, the local criminal court shall consider the [~~bail~~ 11 ~~recommendation~~] securing order, if any, made by the supreme or family 12 court as indicated on the warrant or certificate of warrant. Unless the 13 petitioner or complainant requests otherwise, the court, in addition to 14 scheduling further criminal proceedings, if any, regarding such alleged 15 family offense or violation allegation, shall make such matter return-16 able in the supreme or family court, as applicable, on the next day such 17 court is in session.

18 § 18. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 8 of section 530.13 of the criminal 19 procedure law, as added by chapter 388 of the laws of 1984, is amended
20 to read as follows:

21 (a) revoke [~~an order of recognizance or bail~~] a securing order and 22 commit the defendant to custody; or

23 § 19. The opening paragraph of subdivision 1 of section 530.13 of the 24 criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 137 of the laws of 2007, 25 is amended to read as follows:

26 When any criminal action is pending, and the court has not issued a 27 temporary order of protection pursuant to section 530.12 of this arti-28 cle, the court, in addition to the other powers conferred upon it by 29 this chapter, may for good cause shown issue a temporary order of 30 protection in conjunction with any securing order [~~committing the~~ 31 ~~defendant to the custody of the sheriff or as a condition of a pre-trial~~ 32 ~~release, or as a condition of release on bail or an adjournment in~~ 33 ~~contemplation of dismissal~~]. In addition to any other conditions, such 34 an order may require that the defendant:

35 § 20. Subdivisions 9 and 11 of section 530.12 of the criminal proce-
36 dure law, subdivision 9 as amended by section 81 of subpart B of part C 37 of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, subdivision 11 as amended by chapter 38 498 of the laws of 1993, the opening paragraph of subdivision 11 as 39 amended by chapter 597 of the laws of 1998, paragraph (a) of subdivision 40 11 as amended by chapter 222 of the laws of 1994, paragraph (d) of 41 subdivision 11 as amended by chapter 644 of the laws of 1996, are 42 amended to read as follows:

43 9. If no warrant, order or temporary order of protection has been 44 issued by the court, and an act alleged to be a family offense as 45 defined in section 530.11 of this [~~chapter~~] article is the basis of the 46 arrest, the magistrate shall permit the complainant to file a petition, 47 information or accusatory instrument and for reasonable cause shown, 48 shall thereupon hold such respondent or defendant, [~~admit to, fix or~~ 49 ~~accept bail,~~] establish a securing order or parole him or her for hear-50 ing before the family court or appropriate criminal court as the 51 complainant shall choose in accordance with the provisions of section 52 530.11 of this [~~chapter~~] article.

53 11. If a defendant is brought before the court for failure to obey any 54 lawful order issued under this section, or an order of protection issued 55 by a court of competent jurisdiction in another state, territorial or 56 tribal jurisdiction, and if, after hearing, the court is satisfied by competent proof that the defendant has willfully failed to obey any such order, the court may:

(a) revoke ~~[an order of recognizance or revoke an order of bail or order forfeiture of such bail]~~ a securing order and commit the defendant to custody; or

(b) restore the case to the calendar when there has been an adjournment in contemplation of dismissal and commit the defendant to custody; or

(c) revoke a conditional discharge in accordance with section 410.70 of this chapter and impose probation supervision or impose a sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the penal law based on the original conviction; or

(d) revoke probation in accordance with section 410.70 of this chapter and impose a sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the penal law based on the original conviction. In addition, if the act which constitutes the violation of the order of protection or temporary order of protection is a crime or a violation the defendant may be charged with and tried for that crime or violation.

§ 21. Section 530.20 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 531 of the laws of 1975, subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 218 of the laws of 1979, is amended to read as follows:

§ 530.20 ~~[Order of recognizance or bail,]~~ Securing order by local criminal court when action is pending therein.

When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, such court, upon application of a defendant, must ~~[or may order recognizance or bail]~~ issue a securing order as follows:

1. ~~[When the defendant is charged, by information, simplified information, prosecutor's information or misdemeanor complaint, with an offense or offenses of less than felony grade only, the court must order recognizance or bail.]~~ Release the principal pending trial on the principal's personal recognizance, unless the court finds on the record that release on recognizance will not reasonably assure the individual's court attendance. In such instances, the court will release the individual under non-monetary conditions, selecting the least restrictive alternative that will reasonably assure the principal's court attendance. The court will support its choice of alternative on the record.

2. ~~[When the defendant is charged, by felony complaint, with a felony, the court may, in its discretion, order recognizance or bail except as otherwise provided in this subdivision.]~~

~~(a) A city court, a town court or a village court may not order recognizance or bail when (i) the defendant is charged with a class A felony, or (ii) it appears that the defendant has two previous felony convictions;~~

~~(b)]~~ Notwithstanding the above, in cases where the people indicate that they intend to move for pretrial detention as set forth in article five hundred forty-five of this title, the court may commit the defendant to the custody of the sheriff or issue a securing order in accordance with article five hundred forty-five of this title.

3. Notwithstanding the above, in cases where the defendant is facing a charge of a class A felony, or it appears that the defendant has two previous felony convictions within the meaning of subdivision one of section 70.08 or 70.10 of the penal law; the court shall commit the defendant to the custody of the sheriff for the county or superior court to make a determination about a securing order within three days.

1 4. No local criminal court may order [~~recognizance or bail~~] a securing 2 order with respect to a defendant charged with a felony unless and 3 until[+]

4 ~~(i) The district attorney has been heard in the matter or, after know-~~ 5 ~~ledge or notice of the application and reasonable opportunity to be~~ 6 ~~heard, has failed to appear at the proceeding or has otherwise waived~~ 7 ~~his right to do so; and~~

8 ~~(ii) The~~ the court [has], and counsel for the defense, have been 9 furnished with a report of the division of criminal justice services 10 concerning the defendant's criminal record, if any, or with a police 11 department report with respect to the defendant's prior arrest and 12 conviction record, if any. If neither report is available, the court, 13 with the consent of the district attorney, may dispense with this 14 requirement; provided, however, that in an emergency, including but not 15 limited to a substantial impairment in the ability of such division or 16 police department to timely furnish such report, such consent shall not 17 be required if, for reasons stated on the record, the court deems it 18 unnecessary. [~~When the court has been furnished with any such report or~~ 19 ~~record, it shall furnish a copy thereof to counsel for the defendant or,~~ 20 ~~if the defendant is not represented by counsel, to the defendant.~~]

21 § 22. The section heading, subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 530.30 of 22 the criminal procedure law, subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 762 of 23 the laws of 1971, are amended to read as follows:

24 [~~Order of recognizance or bail, by superior court judge when action is~~ 25 ~~pending in local criminal court~~] Securing order by superior court judge 26 when action is pending in local criminal court.

27 1. When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, other 28 than one consisting of a superior court judge sitting as such, a judge 29 of a superior court holding a term thereof in the county, upon applica-30 tion of a defendant, may order [~~recognizance or bail~~] a securing order 31 when such local criminal court:

32 (a) Lacks authority to issue such an order, pursuant to [~~paragraph (a)~~ 33 ~~of~~] subdivision [~~two~~] three of section 530.20[~~, or~~

34 ~~(b) Has denied an application for recognizance or bail; or~~

35 ~~(c) Has fixed bail which is excessive;]~~ or

36 (b) Has set a securing order of release under non-monetary conditions 37 which are more restrictive than necessary to reasonably ensure court 38 attendance.

39 In such case, such superior court judge may vacate the order of such 40 local criminal court and release the defendant on [~~his own~~] recognizance 41 [~~or fix bail in a lesser amount or in a less burdensome form,~~] or under 42 release with conditions, whichever is the least restrictive alternative 43 that will reasonably assure defendant's appearance in court. The court 44 will support its choice of alternative on the record.

45 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, 46 when the defendant is charged with a felony in a local criminal court, a 47 superior court judge may not [~~order recognizance or bail~~] issue a secur-48 ing order unless and until the district attorney has had an opportunity 49 to be heard in the matter and such judge [has] and counsel for the 50 defendant have been furnished with a report as described in [~~subpara-~~ 51 ~~graph (ii) of paragraph (b) of~~] subdivision [~~two~~] four of section 52 530.20.

53 § 23. Section 530.40 of the criminal procedure law, subdivision 3 as 54 amended by chapter 264 of the laws of 2003, and subdivision 4 as amended 55 by chapter 762 of the laws of 1971, is amended to read as follows:

§ 530.40 [~~Order of recognizance or bail,~~] Securing order by superior court when action is pending therein.

When a criminal action is pending in a superior court, such court, upon application of a defendant, must [~~or may~~] order [~~recognizance or bail~~] a securing order as follows:

1. [~~When the defendant is charged with an offense or offenses of less than felony grade only, the court must order recognizance or bail.~~

2. [~~When the defendant is charged with a felony, the court may, in its discretion, order recognizance or bail. In any such case in which an indictment (a) has resulted from an order of a local criminal court holding the defendant for the action of the grand jury, or (b) was filed at a time when a felony complaint charging the same conduct was pending in a local criminal court, and in which such local criminal court or a superior court judge has issued an order of recognizance or bail which is still effective, the superior court's order may be in the form of a direction continuing the effectiveness of the previous order.~~] Release the principal pending trial on the principal's personal recognizance, unless the court finds on the record that release on recognizance will not reasonably assure the individual's court attendance. In such instances, the court will release the individual under non-monetary conditions, selecting the least restrictive alternative that will reasonably assure the principal's court attendance. The court will support its choice of alternative on the record.

2. Notwithstanding the above, in cases where the people indicate that they intend to move for pretrial detention as set out in article five hundred forty-five of this title, the court may commit the defendant to the custody of the sheriff, or issue a securing order in accordance with article five hundred forty-five of this title.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision [~~two,~~] one of this section, a superior court may not [~~order recognizance or bail~~] issue a securing order, or permit a defendant to remain at liberty pursuant to an existing order, after [~~he~~] the defendant has been convicted of either: (a) a class A felony or (b) any class B or class C felony defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed or attempted to be committed by a person eighteen years of age or older against a person less than eighteen years of age. In either case the court must commit or remand the defendant to the custody of the sheriff.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision [~~two~~] one of this section, a superior court may not [~~order recognizance or bail~~] issue a securing order when the defendant is charged with a felony unless and until the district attorney has had an opportunity to be heard in the matter and such court [~~has~~] and counsel for the defense have been furnished with a report as described in [~~subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of~~] subdivision [~~two~~] four of section 530.20 of this article.

§ 24. Subdivision 1 of section 530.45 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 264 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows:

1. When the defendant is at liberty in the course of a criminal action as a result of a prior [~~order of recognizance or bail~~] securing order and the court revokes such order and then [~~either fixes no bail or fixes bail in a greater amount or in a more burdensome form than was previously fixed and remands or commits defendant to the custody of the sheriff, a judge designated in subdivision two, upon application of the defendant following conviction of an offense other than a class A felony or a class B or class C felony offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed or attempted to be committed by a person~~

~~eighteen years of age or older against a person less than eighteen years of age, and before sentencing, may issue a securing order and either release defendant on his own recognizance, or fix bail, or fix bail in a lesser amount or~~ issues a more restrictive securing order in a less [burdensome] restrictive form than fixed by the court in which the conviction was entered.

§ 26. Title P of part 3 of the criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new article 545 to read as follows:

ARTICLE 545--PRETRIAL DETENTION

Section 545.10 Pretrial detention; when ordered.

545.20 Eligibility for a pretrial detention hearing.

545.30 Pretrial detention hearing.

545.40 Order for pretrial detention.

545.50 Reopening of pretrial hearing.

545.60 Length of detention for defendant held under a pretrial detention order.

§ 545.10 Pretrial detention; when ordered.

A county or superior court may order, before trial, the detention of a defendant if the people seek detention of the defendant under section 545.20 of this article, and, after a hearing pursuant to section 545.30 of this article, the court finds clear and convincing evidence that the defendant poses a high risk of flight before trial, or that defendant poses a current threat to the physical safety of a reasonably identifiable person or persons, and that no conditions or combination of conditions in the community will suffice to contain the aforesaid risk or threat. There shall be a rebuttable presumption, except in the circumstances outlined in subdivision four of section 545.30 of this article that some condition or conditions in the community will reasonably contain a high risk of flight or a current threat to the physical safety of a reasonably identifiable person or persons. That presumption may only be overcome by clear and convincing evidence.

§ 545.20 Eligibility for a pretrial detention hearing.

1. The people may make a motion with the court at any time seeking the pretrial detention of a defendant:

(a) charged with a class A felony defined in the penal law;

(b) charged with offenses involving witness intimidation under section 215.15, 215.16 or 215.17 of the penal law;

(c) charged with class B or C crimes as enumerated under section 70.02 of the penal law (except burglary in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 140.25 of the penal law, or robbery in the second degree as defined in subdivision one of section 160.10 of the penal law);

(d) who, the people allege poses an immediate risk of physical harm to members of the same family or household of the defendant, as defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this title; or

(e) who has persistently and willfully failed to appear in court in the current case, and the relevant pretrial services agency certifies that the agency has made persistent efforts to assist the individual's appearance in court.

2. Upon such motion by the people, the defendant may be committed to the custody of the sheriff pending a hearing on the people's motion, or the court may issue a securing order. The court shall support its choice of an alternative on the record. If the person is at liberty, a warrant shall be issued and the defendant brought into custody of the sheriff.

§ 545.30 Pretrial detention hearing.

1 1. A hearing shall be held within three working days from the people's 2 motion. At the hearing, the defendant shall have the right to be 3 represented by counsel, and, if financially unable to obtain counsel, to 4 have counsel assigned. The defendant shall be afforded an opportunity to 5 testify, to present witnesses, to cross-examine witnesses who appear at 6 the hearing, and to present information by proffer or otherwise. The 7 rules concerning the admissibility of evidence in criminal trials do not 8 apply to the presentation and consideration of information during the 9 hearing.

10 2. (a) Within at least twenty-four hours of the hearing, the people 11 shall disclose to the defendant and permit the defendant to inspect, 12 copy or photograph all statements and reports that are in the 13 possession, custody or control of the people, or persons under the 14 people's direction and control that:

15 (i) the people rely upon to establish reasonable cause that the 16 defendant committed the alleged crime or crimes; and 17 (ii) relate to the people's basis for the pretrial detention motion 18 that either the defendant presents a high risk of flight or a current 19 threat to the physical safety of a reasonably identifiable person or 20 persons.

21 (b) In addition, the people will produce any statements that are 22 exculpatory in nature.

23 (c) Portions of materials claimed to be non-discoverable may be with-24 held pending a determination and ruling of the court under section 25 245.70 of this chapter; but the defendant shall be notified in writing 26 that such information has not been disclosed under a particular subdivi-27 sion of such section, and the discoverable portions of such materials 28 shall be disclosed if practicable.

29 3. In hearings in cases for which there is no indictment, the people 30 shall establish reasonable cause that the eligible defendant committed 31 the charged offense. The people must establish by clear and convincing 32 evidence that defendant poses a high risk of flight or a current threat 33 of physical danger to a reasonably identifiable person or persons and 34 that no conditions or combination of conditions in the community will 35 suffice to contain the aforesaid risk or threat.

36 4. There shall be a rebuttable presumption, which the defendant may 37 overcome by a preponderance of the evidence, that no conditions or 38 combination of conditions in the community will suffice to contain a 39 current threat to the physical safety of a reasonably identifiable 40 person or persons if the court finds reasonable cause that the defend-41 ant:

42 (a) committed a crime for which the defendant would be subject to a 43 term of life imprisonment;

44 (b) committed a crime involving serious physical injury or threat of 45 serious physical injury, or attempt therein, while the defendant was in 46 the community on recognizance or under non-monetary conditions for a 47 crime involving serious physical injury or the threat of serious phys-48 ical injury; or

49 (c) threatened, injured, intimidated, or attempted to threaten, injure 50 or intimidate a prospective witness or juror in an criminal investi-51 gation or judicial proceeding.

52 5. In determining whether the defendant presents a high risk of flight 53 or a current threat of physical danger to a reasonably identifiable 54 person or persons and whether no conditions or combinations of condi-55 tions in the community will suffice to contain such risk or threat, the 56 court may take into account the following information:

- 1 (a) the nature and circumstances of the charged offense;
2 (b) the weight of the evidence against the defendant, except that the 3 court may consider the admissibility of any evidence sought to be 4 excluded;
5 (c) the defendant's current and prior history of failure to appear in 6 court whether such failures to appear were willful; 7 (d) the nature and the credibility of the threat to the physical 8 danger of a reasonably identifiable person or persons, if applicable; 9 and

10 (e) whether, at the time of the current offense or arrest, the defend-11 ant was on probation, parole, or on release pending trial, sentencing or 12 completion of a sentence in this state or other jurisdictions.

13 § 545.40 Order for pretrial detention.

14 In a pretrial detention order issued pursuant to section 545.10 of 15 this article, the court shall:

16 1. include written findings of fact and a written statement of the 17 reasons for the detention; and 18 2. direct that the eligible defendant be afforded reasonable opportu-19 nity for private consultation with counsel.

20 § 545.50 Reopening of pretrial hearing.

21 A pretrial detention hearing may be opened, before or after issuance 22 of a pretrial detention order by the court, by motion of the people or 23 the defendant, at any time before trial, if the court finds either a 24 change of circumstances or that information exists that was not known to 25 the people or to the defendant at the time of the hearing, that has a 26 material bearing on the issue of whether defendant presents a high risk 27 of failure to appear or a current threat to the physical safety of a 28 reasonably identifiable person or persons and whether no conditions or 29 combination of conditions will suffice to contain such risk or threat.

30 § 545.60 Length of detention for defendant held under a pretrial 31 detention order.

32 1. If a pretrial detention order is issued, a defendant shall not 33 remain detained in jail for more than one hundred eighty days after the 34 return of the indictment, if applicable, until the start of trial. In 35 cases where no indictment is required, the defendant shall not remain 36 detained in jail for more than ninety days from the date of the pretrial 37 detention motion until the start of trial.

38 2. (a) The time within which the trial of the case commences may be 39 extended for one or more additional periods not to exceed twenty days 40 each on the basis of a motion submitted by the people and approved by 41 the court. The additional period or periods of detention may be granted 42 only on the basis of good cause shown, and shall be granted only for the 43 additional time required to prepare for the trial of the person. Good 44 cause may include, but not be limited to, the unavailability of an 45 essential witness, the necessity for forensic analysis of evidence, the 46 ability to conduct a joint trial with a co-defendant or co-defendants, 47 severance of co-defendants which permits only one trial to commence 48 within the time period, complex or major investigations, scheduling 49 conflicts which arise shortly before the trial date, the inability to 50 proceed to trial because of action taken by or at the behest of the 51 defendant, the breakdown of a plea agreement on or immediately before 52 the trial date, and allowing reasonable time to prepare for a trial 53 after the circumstances giving rise to a tolling or extension of the 54 time period no longer exists.

55 (b) In computing the one hundred eighty days from indictment, if 56 applicable, or if no indictment is required, ninety days from the date

1 of the pretrial order, to commencement of trial, the following periods 2 shall be excluded:

3 (i) any period from the filing of the notice of appeal to the issuance 4 of the mandate in an interlocutory appeal;

5 (ii) any period attributable to any examination to determine the 6 defendant's sanity or lack thereof or his or her mental or physical 7 competency to stand trial;

8 (iii) any period attributable to the inability of the defendant to 9 participate in the defendant's defense because of mental incompetency or 10 physical incapacity; and 11 (iv) any period in which the defendant is otherwise unavailable for 12 trial.

13 3. If a trial has not commenced within one hundred eighty days from 14 indictment, if applicable, or ninety days from the pretrial detention 15 order if no indictment is required, as calculated above, and the defend-16 ant remains in custody, the defendant shall be released on recognizance 17 or under non-monetary conditions of release pending trial on the under-18 lying charge, unless:

19 (a) the trial is in progress,

20 (b) the trial has been delayed by the timely filing of motions, 21 excluding motions for continuances;

22 (c) the trial has been delayed at the request of the defendant; or 23 (d) upon motion of the people, the court finds that a current substan-24 tial and unjustifiable risk to the physical safety of a reasonably iden-25 tifiable person would result from the defendant's release from custody, 26 and that no appropriate conditions for the defendant's release would 27 reasonably address that risk, and also finds that the failure to 28 commence trial in accordance with the time requirements set forth in 29 this section was not due to unreasonable delay by the people. If the 30 court makes such a finding, the court must set an additional period of 31 time, not to exceed thirty days, in which the defendant's trial must 32 commence. If the trial does not commence within this period, the defend-33 ant must be released on recognizance or under non-monetary conditions.

34 § 27. Article 68 of the insurance law is REPEALED.

35 § 28. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 9 of section 216.05 of the criminal 36 procedure law, as amended by chapter 258 of the laws of 2015, is amended
37 to read as follows:

38 (a) If at any time during the defendant's participation in the judi-39 cial diversion program, the court has reasonable grounds to believe that 40 the defendant has violated a release condition or has failed to appear 41 before the court as requested, the court shall direct the defendant to 42 appear or issue a bench warrant to a police officer or an appropriate 43 peace officer directing him or her to take the defendant into custody 44 and bring the defendant before the court without unnecessary delay; 45 provided, however, that under no circumstances shall a defendant who 46 requires treatment for opioid abuse or dependence be deemed to have 47 violated a release condition on the basis of his or her participation in 48 medically prescribed drug treatments under the care of a health care 49 professional licensed or certified under title eight of the education
50 law, acting within his or her lawful scope of practice. The provisions 51 of [~~subdivision one of~~] section [~~530.60~~] 530.10 of this chapter relating 52 to [~~revocation of recognizance or bail~~] issuance of securing orders 53 shall apply to such proceedings under this subdivision.

54 § 29. Subdivisions 2 and 3 of section 620.50 of the criminal procedure 55 law are amended to read as follows:

2. If the court is satisfied after such hearing that there is reasonable cause to believe that the prospective witness (a) possesses information material to the pending action or proceeding, and (b) will not be amenable or respond to a subpoena at a time when ~~[his]~~ the witness's attendance will be sought, it may issue a material witness order, adjudging ~~[him]~~ the individual a material witness and ~~[fixing bail to secure his]~~ releasing the individual on the individual's own recognizance unless the court finds on the record that release on recognizance will not reasonably ensure the individual's court attendance. In such instances the court will release the individual under non-monetary conditions, selecting the least restrictive alternative that will reasonably ensure the individual's future attendance.

3. [A] When a material witness order ~~[must be]~~ is executed ~~[as follows:~~

~~(a) If the bail is posted and approved by the court], the witness must[, as provided in subdivision three of section 510.40,] be released and be permitted to remain at liberty[, provided that, where the bail is posted by a person other than the witness himself, he may not be so released except upon his signed written consent thereto;~~

~~(b) If the bail is not posted, or if though posted it is not approved by the court, the witness must[, as provided in subdivision three of section 510.40, be committed to the custody of the sheriff].~~

§ 30. Section 216 of the judiciary law is amended by adding a new subdivision 5 to read as follows:

5. (a) The chief administrator of the courts shall collect data at arraignment on all pretrial release and detention decisions, including information on sex, race, criminal charge, the pretrial release decision outcome, whether the individual was detained, whether electronic monitoring was imposed, and information on any pretrial motions made, and motions granted.

(b) The office of court administration shall provide data and information to the division of criminal justice services which will prepare an annual report on pretrial release and detention outcomes, and include information on the sex, race, criminal charge, pretrial decision outcomes, the use of electronic monitoring, pretrial motions, rates of failure to appear and rates of rearrest for individuals released before trial. The report shall also include information on pretrial service agency activity.

1. Prosecution's performance of obligations. (a) The prosecution shall perform its initial discovery obligations under subdivision one of section 245.20 of this article as soon as practicable but not later than fifteen calendar days after the defendant's arraignment on an indictment, superior court information, prosecutor's information, information, or simplified information. Portions of materials claimed to be non-discoverable may be withheld pending a determination and ruling of the court under section 245.70 of this article; but the defendant shall be notified in writing that information has not been disclosed under a particular subdivision of such section, and the discoverable portions of such materials shall be disclosed if practicable. When the discoverable materials are exceptionally voluminous or, despite diligent efforts, are otherwise not in the possession, custody, or control of the prosecution, the time period in this paragraph may be stayed by up to an additional thirty calendar days without need for a motion pursuant to subdivision two of section 245.70 of this article.

(b) The prosecution shall perform its supplemental discovery obligations under subdivision three of section 245.20 of this article as soon as practicable but not later than fifteen calendar days before trial.

2. Defendant's performance of obligations. The defendant shall perform his or her discovery obligations under subdivision four of section 245.20 of this article not later than fifteen calendar days after being served with the prosecution's certificate of compliance pursuant to subdivision one of section 245.50 of this article, except that portions of materials claimed to be non-discoverable may be withheld pending a determination and ruling of the court under section 245.70 of this article; but the prosecution must be notified in writing that information has not been disclosed under a particular section and the disclosable portions of such material shall be disclosed if practicable.

1. Initial discovery for the defendant. Subject to paragraph (b) of this subdivision and section 245.70 of this article, the prosecution shall disclose to the defendant, and permit the defendant to discover, inspect, copy or photograph, each of the following items and information when it relates to the subject matter of the case and is in the possession, custody or control of the prosecution or persons known to the prosecution to be in the possession, custody or control of the prosecution's direction or control:

(a) All written or recorded statements, and the substance of all oral statements, made by the defendant or a co-defendant to a public servant engaged in law enforcement activity or to a person then acting under his or her direction or in cooperation with him or her, other than statements made in the course of the criminal transaction.

(b) All transcripts of the testimony of a person who has testified before a grand jury, including but not limited to the defendant or a co-defendant. If in the exercise of reasonable diligence, and due to the limited availability of transcription resources, a transcript is unavailable for disclosure within the time period specified in subdivi-

1 sion one of section 245.10 of this article, such time period may be 2 stayed by up to an additional thirty calendar days without need for a 3 motion pursuant to subdivision two of section 245.70 of this article; 4 except that such disclosure shall be made as soon as practicable and not 5 later than thirty calendar days before a scheduled trial date. When the 6 court is required to review grand jury transcripts, the prosecution 7 shall disclose such transcripts to the court expeditiously upon receipt 8 by the prosecutor, notwithstanding the otherwise-applicable time periods 9 for disclosure in this article.

10 (c) The names of, and addresses or adequate alternative contact infor-11 mation for, all persons other than law enforcement personnel whom the 12 prosecutor knows to have evidence or information relevant to any offense 13 charged or to a potential defense thereto, including a designation by 14 the prosecutor as to which of those persons may be called as witnesses.
15 Information under this subdivision relating to a confidential informant 16 may be withheld, and redacted from discovery materials, without need for 17 a motion pursuant to section 245.70 of this article; but the defendant 18 shall be notified in writing that such information has not been 19 disclosed, unless the court rules otherwise for good cause shown.

20 (d) The name and work affiliation of all law enforcement personnel 21 whom the prosecutor knows to have evidence or information relevant to 22 any offense charged or to a potential defense thereto, including a 23 designation by the prosecutor as to which of those persons may be called 24 as witnesses. Information under this subdivision relating to undercover 25 personnel may be withheld, and redacted from discovery materials, with-26 out need for a motion pursuant to section 245.70 of this article; but 27 the defendant shall be notified in writing that such information has not 28 been disclosed, unless the court rules otherwise for good cause shown.

29 (e) All statements, written or recorded or summarized in any writing 30 or recording, made by persons who have evidence or information relevant 31 to any offense charged or to a potential defense thereto, including all 32 police reports and law enforcement agency reports. This provision also 33 includes statements, written or recorded or summarized in any writing or 34 recording, by persons to be called as witnesses at pre-trial hearings.

35 (f) Expert opinion evidence, including the name, business address, 36 current curriculum vitae, and a list of publications of each expert 37 witness whom the prosecutor intends to call as a witness at trial or a 38 pre-trial hearing, and all reports prepared by the expert that pertain 39 to the case, or if no report is prepared, a written statement of the 40 facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a 41 summary of the grounds for each opinion. This paragraph does not alter 42 or in any way affect the procedures, obligations or rights set forth in 43 section 250.10 of this title. If in the exercise of reasonable dili-44 gence this information is unavailable for disclosure within the time 45 period specified in subdivision one of section 245.10 of this article, 46 that period shall be stayed without need for a motion pursuant to 47 subdivision two of section 245.70 of this article; except that the 48 disclosure shall be made as soon as practicable and not later than thir-49 ty calendar days before a scheduled trial date, unless an order is 50 obtained pursuant to section 245.70 of this article. When the prose-51 cution's expert witness is being called in response to disclosure of an 52 expert witness by the defendant, the court may alter a scheduled trial 53 date to allow the prosecution thirty calendar days to make the disclo-54 sure and the defendant thirty calendar days to prepare and respond to 55 the new materials.

1 (g) All tapes or other electronic recordings which the prosecution
2 intends to introduce at trial or a pre-trial hearing.

3 (h) All photographs and drawings made or completed by a public servant
4 engaged in law enforcement activity, or which were made by a person 5 whom the prosecutor intends to call as a witness at trial or a pre-trial 6 hearing, or which the prosecution intends to introduce at trial or a 7 pre-trial hearing.

8 (i) All photographs, photocopies and reproductions made by or at the 9 direction of law enforcement personnel of any property prior to its 10 release pursuant to section 450.10 of the penal law.

11 (j) All reports, documents, data, calculations or writings, including 12 but not limited to preliminary tests or screening results and bench 13 notes, concerning physical or mental examinations, or scientific tests 14 or experiments or comparisons, and analyses performed electronically, 15 relating to the criminal action or proceeding which were made by or at 16 the request or direction of a public servant engaged in law enforcement 17 activity, or which were made by a person whom the prosecutor intends to 18 call as a witness at trial or a pre-trial hearing, or which the prose-19 cution intends to introduce at trial or a pre-trial hearing.

20 (k) All evidence and information, including that which is known to 21 police or other law enforcement agencies acting on the government's 22 behalf in the case, that tends to: (i) negate the defendant's guilt as 23 to a charged offense; (ii) reduce the degree of or mitigate the defend-24 ant's culpability as to a charged offense; (iii) support a potential 25 defense to a charged offense; (iv) materially impact the credibility of 26 a testifying prosecution witness; (v) undermine evidence of the defend-27 ant's identity as a perpetrator of a charged offense; or (vi) provide a 28 basis for a motion to suppress evidence. Information under this subdi-29 vision shall be disclosed whether or not such information is recorded in 30 tangible form and irrespective of whether the prosecutor credits the 31 information. The prosecutor shall disclose the information expeditiously 32 upon its receipt and shall not delay disclosure if it is obtained earli-33 er than the time period for disclosure in subdivision one of section 34 245.10 of this article.

35 (l) A summary of all promises, rewards and inducements made to, or in 36 favor of, persons who may be called as witnesses, as well as requests 37 for consideration by persons who may be called as witnesses and copies 38 of all documents relevant to a promise, reward or inducement.

39 (m) A list of all tangible objects obtained from, or allegedly 40 possessed by, the defendant or a co-defendant. The list shall include a 41 designation by the prosecutor as to which objects were physically or 42 constructively possessed by the defendant and were recovered during a 43 search or seizure by a public servant or an agent thereof, and which 44 tangible objects were recovered by a public servant or an agent thereof
45 after allegedly being abandoned by the defendant. If the prosecution 46 intends to prove the defendant's possession of any tangible objects by 47 means of a statutory presumption of possession, it shall designate such 48 intention as to each such object. If reasonably practicable, the prose-49 cution shall also designate the location from which each tangible object 50 was recovered. There is also a right to inspect or copy or photograph 51 the listed tangible objects.

52 (n) Whether a search warrant has been executed and all documents 53 relating thereto, including but not limited to the warrant, the warrant 54 application, supporting affidavits, a police inventory of all property 55 seized under the warrant, and a transcript of all testimony or other 56 oral communications offered in support of the warrant application.

1 (o) All tangible property that the prosecution intends to introduce in 2 its case-in-chief at trial or a pre-trial hearing. If in the exercise of 3 reasonable diligence the prosecutor has not formed an intention within 4 the time period specified in subdivision one of section 245.10 of this 5 article that an item under this subdivision will be introduced at trial 6 or a pre-trial hearing, such time period shall be stayed without need 7 for a motion pursuant to subdivision two of section 245.70 of this arti-
8 cle; but the disclosure shall be made as soon as practicable and subject 9 to the continuing duty to disclose in section 245.60 of this article.

10 (p) A record of judgment of conviction for all defendants and all 11 persons designated as potential prosecution witnesses pursuant to para-12 graph (c) of this subdivision, other than those witnesses who are 13 experts.

14 (q) When it is known to the prosecution, the existence of any pending 15 criminal action against all persons designated as potential prosecution 16 witnesses pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subdivision.

17 (r) The approximate date, time and place of the offense or offenses 18 charged and of the defendant's seizure and arrest.

19 (s) In any prosecution alleging a violation of the vehicle and traffic 20 law, where the defendant is charged by indictment, superior court infor-21 mation, prosecutor's information, information, or simplified informa-22 tion, the most recent record of inspection, calibration and repair of 23 machines and instruments utilized to perform any scientific tests and 24 experiments and the certification certificate, if any, held by the oper-25 ator of the machine or instrument, and all other disclosures required 26 under this article.

27 (t) In any prosecution alleging a violation of section 156.05 or 28 156.10 of the penal law, the time, place and manner such violation 29 occurred.

30 2. Discovery by the prosecution. The prosecutor shall make a dili-31 gent, good faith effort to ascertain the existence of material or infor-32 mation discoverable under subdivision one of this section and to cause 33 such material or information to be made available for discovery where 34 it exists but is not within the prosecutor's possession, custody or 35 control; provided that the prosecutor shall not be required to obtain by 36 subpoena duces tecum material or information which the defendant may 37 thereby obtain. This provision shall not require the prosecutor to 38 ascertain the existence of witnesses not known to police or another law 39 enforcement agency, or the written or recorded statements thereof, under 40 paragraph (c) or (e) of subdivision one of this section.

41 3. Supplemental discovery for the defendant. The prosecution shall 42 disclose to the defendant a list of all misconduct and criminal acts of 43 the defendant not charged in the indictment, superior court information, 44 prosecutor's information, information, or simplified information, which 45 the prosecution intends to use at trial for purposes of (a) impeaching 46 the credibility of the defendant, or (b) as substantive proof of any 47 material issue in the case.

48 4. Reciprocal discovery for the prosecution. (a) The defendant shall, 49 subject to constitutional limitations, disclose to the prosecution, and 50 permit the prosecution to discover, inspect, copy or photograph, any 51 material and relevant evidence within the defendant's or counsel for the 52 defendant's possession or control that is discoverable under paragraphs 53 (f), (g), (h), (j), (l) and (o) of subdivision one of this section, 54 which the defendant intends to offer at trial or a pre-trial hearing, 55 and the names, addresses, birth dates, and all statements, written or 56 recorded or summarized in any writing or recording, of those persons

1 other than the defendant whom the defendant intends to call as witnesses 2 at trial or a pre-trial hearing.

3 (b) Disclosure of the name, address, birth date, and all statements, 4 written or recorded or summarized in any writing or recording, of a 5 person whom the defendant intends to call as a witness for the sole 6 purpose of impeaching a prosecution witness is not required until after 7 the prosecution witness has testified at trial.

8 (c) If in the exercise of reasonable diligence the reciprocally 9 discoverable information under paragraph (f) or (o) of subdivision one 10 of this section is unavailable for disclosure within the time period 11 specified in subdivision two of section 245.10 of this article, such 12 time period shall be stayed without need for a motion pursuant to subdi-13 vision two of section 245.70 of this article; but the disclosure shall 14 be made as soon as practicable and subject to the continuing duty to 15 disclose in section 245.60 of this article.

16 5. Stay of automatic discovery; remedies and sanctions. If in the 17 judgment of either party good cause exists for declining to make any of 18 the disclosures set forth above, such party may move for a protective 19 order pursuant to section 245.70 of this article and production of the 20 item shall be stayed pending a ruling by the court. The opposing party 21 shall be notified in writing that information has not been disclosed 22 under a particular section. When some parts of material or information 23 are discoverable but in the judgment of a party good cause exists for 24 declining to disclose other parts, the discoverable parts shall be 25 disclosed and the disclosing party shall give notice in writing that 26 non-discoverable parts have been withheld.

27 6. Redactions permitted. Either party may redact social security 28 numbers and tax numbers from disclosures under this article.

29 § 245.25 Disclosure prior to guilty plea deadline.

30 1. Pre-indictment guilty pleas. Subject to subdivision two of this 31 section and section 245.70 of this article, upon a felony complaint, 32 where the prosecution has made a pre-indictment guilty plea offer 33 requiring a plea to a crime, the defendant may, upon timely request and 34 reasonable notice to the prosecution, inspect any available police or 35 other law enforcement agency report of a factual nature regarding the 36 arrest or investigation of the charges, and/or any designated and avail-37 able items or information that could be of material importance to the 38 decision on the guilty plea offer and would be discoverable prior to 39 trial under subdivision one of section 245.20 of this article. The pros-40 ecution shall disclose the requested and designated items or informa-41 tion, as well as any known information that tends to be exculpatory or 42 to support a defense to a charged offense, not less than three calendar 43 days prior to the expiration date of any guilty plea offer by the prose-44 cution or any deadline imposed by the court for acceptance of a negoti-45 ated guilty plea offer. If the prosecution does not comply with a prop-46 er request made pursuant to this subdivision, the court may take 47 appropriate action as necessary to address the non-compliance. The 48 inspection rights under this subdivision do not apply to items or infor-49 mation that are the subject of a protective order under section 245.70 50 of this article; but if such information tends to be exculpatory, the 51 court shall reconsider the protective order. The court may deny an 52 inspection under this subdivision when a reasonable person in the 53 defendant's position would not consider the requested and designated 54 item or information to be of material importance to the decision on the 55 guilty plea offer. A defendant may waive his or her rights under this

1 subdivision; but a guilty plea offer may not be conditioned on such 2 waiver.

3 2. Other guilty pleas. Upon an indictment, superior court information, 4 prosecutor's information, information, simplified information, or 5 misdemeanor complaint, where the prosecution has made a guilty plea 6 offer requiring a plea to a crime, the defendant may, upon timely 7 request and reasonable notice to the prosecution, inspect any available 8 police or other law enforcement agency report of a factual nature 9 regarding the arrest or investigation of the charges, and/or any desig-10 nated and available items or information that could be of material 11 importance to the decision on the guilty plea offer and would be discov-12 erable prior to trial under subdivision one of section 245.20 of this 13 article. The prosecution shall disclose the requested and designated 14 items or information, as well as any known information that tends to be 15 exculpatory or to support a defense to a charged offense, not less than 16 seven calendar days prior to the expiration date of any guilty plea 17 offer by the prosecution or any deadline imposed by the court for a 18 guilty plea. If the prosecution does not comply with a proper request 19 made pursuant to this subdivision, the court may take appropriate action 20 as necessary to address the non-compliance. The inspection rights under 21 this subdivision do not apply to items or information that are the 22 subject of a protective order under section 245.70 of this article; but 23 if such information tends to be exculpatory, the court shall reconsider 24 the protective order. The court may deny an inspection under this 25 subdivision when a reasonable person in the defendant's position would 26 not consider the requested and designated item or information to be of 27 material importance to the decision on the guilty plea offer. A defend-28 ant may waive his or her rights under this subdivision, but a guilty 29 plea offer may not be conditioned on such waiver.

30 § 245.30 Court orders for preservation, access or discovery.

31 1. Order to preserve evidence. At any time, a party may move for a 32 court order to any individual, agency or other entity in possession, 33 custody or control of items which relate to the subject matter of the 34 case or are otherwise relevant, requiring that such items be preserved 35 for a specified period of time. The court shall hear and rule upon such 36 motions expeditiously. The court may modify or vacate such an order 37 upon a showing that preservation of particular evidence will create 38 significant hardship, on condition that the probative value of that 39 evidence is preserved by a specified alternative means.

40 2. Order to grant access to premises. Without prejudice to its abili-41 ty to issue a subpoena pursuant to this chapter, after an accusatory 42 instrument has been filed, on application of the prosecution or the 43 defendant for access to an area or place relevant to the case in order 44 to inspect, photograph, or measure same, and upon notice to the property 45 owner with a right to be heard, the court may, upon a finding that such 46 would be material to the preparation of the case or helpful to the jury 47 in determining any material factual issue, enter an order authorizing 48 same on a date and time reasonable for the parties and those in 49 possession of the area or place, provided that law enforcement is not in 50 good faith engaged in a continued investigation of the area or place.
51 The court may in the alternative otherwise provide for the securing of 52 photographs or measurements of the area or place, particularly when 53 necessary to protect the privacy of those in possession of private prem-54 ises, or when necessary to preserve the safety and security of a place.
55 The court may also limit access and/or the distribution of photographs 56 or measurements to the parties or their counsel.

1 3. Discretionary discovery by order of the court. The court in its 2 discretion may, upon a showing by the defendant that the request is 3 reasonable and that the defendant is unable without undue hardship to 4 obtain the substantial equivalent by other means, order the prosecution, 5 or any individual, agency or other entity subject to the jurisdiction of 6 the court, to make available for disclosure to the defendant any materi-7 al or information which relates to the subject matter of the case and is 8 reasonably likely to be material. A motion under this subdivision must 9 be on notice to any person or entity affected by the order. The court 10 may, on its own, upon request of any person or entity affected by the 11 order, modify or vacate the order if compliance would be unreasonable or 12 will create significant hardship. The court may permit a party seeking 13 or opposing a discretionary order of discovery under this subdivision, 14 or another affected person or entity, to submit papers or testify on the 15 record ex parte or in camera. Any such papers and a transcript of such 16 testimony may be sealed and shall constitute a part of the record on 17 appeal.

18 § 245.35 Court ordered procedures to facilitate compliance.

19 To facilitate compliance with this article, and to reduce or stream-20 line litigation of any disputes about discovery, the court in its 21 discretion may issue an order:

22 1. Requiring that the prosecutor and counsel for the defendant dili-23 gently confer to attempt to reach an accommodation as to any dispute 24 concerning discovery prior to seeking a ruling from the court;

25 2. Requiring a discovery compliance conference at a specified time 26 prior to trial between the prosecutor, counsel for all defendants, and 27 the court or its staff;

28 3. Requiring the prosecution to file an additional certificate of 29 compliance that states that the prosecutor and/or an appropriate named 30 agent has made reasonable inquiries of all police officers and other 31 persons who have participated in investigating or evaluating the case 32 about the existence of any favorable evidence or information within 33 paragraph (k) of subdivision one of section 245.20 of this article, 34 including such evidence or information that was not reduced to writing 35 or otherwise memorialized or preserved as evidence, and has disclosed 36 any such information to the defendant; and/or 37 4. Requiring other measures or proceedings designed to carry into 38 effect the goals of this article.

39 § 245.40 Non-testimonial evidence from the defendant.

40 1. Availability. After the filing of an accusatory instrument, and 41 subject to constitutional limitations, the court may, upon motion of 42 the prosecution showing probable cause to believe the defendant has 43 committed the crime, a clear indication that relevant material evidence 44 will be found, and that the method used to secure such evidence is safe 45 and reliable, require a defendant to provide non-testimonial evidence, 46 including to:

47 (a) Appear in a lineup;

48 (b) Speak for identification by a witness or potential witness;

49 (c) Be fingerprinted;

50 (d) Pose for photographs not involving reenactment of an event;

51 (e) Permit the taking of samples of the defendant's blood, hair, and 52 other materials of the defendant's body that involves no unreasonable 53 intrusion thereof;

54 (f) Provide specimens of the defendant's handwriting; and

55 (g) Submit to a reasonable physical or medical inspection of the 56 defendant's body.

1 2. Limitations. This section shall not be construed to alter or in any 2 way affect the issuance of a similar court order, as may be authorized 3 by law, before the filing of an accusatory instrument, consistent with 4 such rights as the defendant may derive from the state constitution or 5 the United States constitution. This section shall not be construed to 6 alter or in any way affect the administration of a chemical test where 7 otherwise authorized. An order pursuant to this section may be denied, 8 limited or conditioned as provided in section 245.70 of this article.
9 § 245.45 DNA comparison order.

10 Where property in the prosecution's possession, custody, or control 11 consists of a deoxyribonucleic acid ("DNA") profile obtained from 12 probative biological material gathered in connection with the investi-13 gation of the crime, or the defendant, or the prosecution of the defend-14 ant, and the defendant establishes (a) that such profile complies with 15 federal bureau of investigation or state requirements, whichever are 16 applicable and as such requirements are applied to law enforcement agen-17 cies seeking a keyboard search or similar comparison, and (b) that the 18 data meets state DNA index system or national DNA index system criteria 19 as such criteria are applied to law enforcement agencies seeking such a 20 keyboard search or similar comparison, the court may, upon motion of a 21 defendant against whom an indictment, superior court information, 22 prosecutor's information, information, or simplified information is 23 pending, order an entity that has access to the combined DNA index
24 system or its successor system to compare such DNA profile against DNA 25 databanks by keyboard searches, or a similar method that does not 26 involve uploading, upon notice to both parties and the entity required 27 to perform the search, upon a showing by the defendant that such a 28 comparison is material to the presentation of his or her defense and 29 that the request is reasonable. For purposes of this section, a 30 "keyboard search" shall mean a search of a DNA profile against the 31 databank in which the profile that is searched is not uploaded to or 32 maintained in the databank.

33 § 245.50 Certificates of compliance.

34 1. By the prosecution. When the prosecution has provided the discovery 35 required by subdivision one of section 245.20 of this article, except 36 for any items or information that are the subject of an order pursuant 37 to section 245.70 of this article, it shall serve upon the defendant and 38 file with the court a certificate of compliance. The certificate of 39 compliance shall state that, after exercising due diligence and making 40 reasonable inquiries to ascertain the existence of material and infor-41 mation subject to discovery, the prosecutor has disclosed and made 42 available all known material and information subject to discovery. It 43 shall also identify the items provided. If additional discovery is 44 subsequently provided prior to trial pursuant to section 245.60 of this 45 article, a supplemental certificate shall be served upon the defendant 46 and filed with the court identifying the additional material and infor-47 mation provided. No adverse consequence to the prosecution or the prose-48 cutor shall result from the filing of a certificate of compliance in 49 good faith; but the court may grant a remedy or sanction for a discov-50 ery violation as provided in section 245.80 of this article.

51 2. By the defendant. When the defendant has provided all discovery 52 required by subdivision four of section 245.20 of this article, except 53 for any items or information that are the subject of an order pursuant 54 to section 245.70 of this article, counsel for the defendant shall serve 55 upon the prosecution and file with the court a certificate of compli-56 ance. The certificate shall state that, after exercising due diligence

1 and making reasonable inquiries to ascertain the existence of material 2 and information subject to discovery, counsel for the defendant has 3 disclosed and made available all known material and information subject 4 to discovery. It shall also identify the items provided. If additional 5 discovery is subsequently provided prior to trial pursuant to section 6 245.60 of this article, a supplemental certificate shall be served upon 7 the prosecution and filed with the court identifying the additional 8 material and information provided. No adverse consequence to the 9 defendant or counsel for the defendant shall result from the filing of a 10 certificate of compliance in good faith; but the court may grant a reme-11 dy or sanction for a discovery violation as provided in section 245.80 12 of this article.

13 § 245.55 Flow of information.

14 1. Sufficient communication for compliance. The district attorney and 15 the assistant responsible for the case, or, if the matter is not being 16 prosecuted by the district attorney, the prosecuting agency and its 17 assigned representative, shall endeavor to ensure that a flow of infor-18 mation is maintained between the police and other investigative person-19 nel and his or her office sufficient to place within his or her 20 possession or control all material and information pertinent to the 21 defendant and the offense or offenses charged, including, but not limit-22 ed to, any evidence or information discoverable under paragraph (k) of 23 subdivision one of section 245.20 of this article.

24 2. Provision of law enforcement agency files. Absent a court order or 25 clear security requirement, upon request by the prosecution, a New York 26 state law enforcement agency shall make available to the prosecution a 27 complete copy of its complete files related to the investigation of the 28 case or the prosecution of the defendant for compliance with this arti-29 cle.

30 3. 911 telephone call and police radio transmission electronic 31 recordings, police worn body camera recordings and other police 32 recordings. (a) Whenever an electronic recording of a 911 telephone 33 call or a police radio transmission or video or audio footage from a 34 police body-worn camera or other police recording was made or received 35 in connection with the investigation of an apparent criminal incident, 36 the arresting officer or lead detective shall expeditiously notify the 37 prosecution in writing upon the filing of an accusatory instrument of 38 the existence of all such known recordings. The prosecution shall expe-39 ditiously take whatever reasonable steps are necessary to ensure that 40 all known electronic recordings of 911 telephone calls, police radio 41 transmissions and video and audio footage and other police recordings 42 made or available in connection with the case are preserved throughout 43 the pendency of the case. Upon the defendant's timely request and desig-44 nation of a specific electronic recording of a 911 telephone call, the 45 prosecution shall also expeditiously take whatever reasonable steps are 46 necessary to ensure that it is preserved throughout the pendency of the 47 case.

48 (b) If the prosecution fails to disclose such an electronic recording 49 to the defendant pursuant to paragraph (e), (g) or (k) of subdivision 50 one of section 245.20 of this article due to a failure to comply with 51 this obligation by police officers or other law enforcement or prose-52 cution personnel, the court upon motion of the defendant shall impose an 53 appropriate remedy or sanction pursuant to section 245.80 of this arti-
54 cle.

55 § 245.60 Continuing duty to disclose.

1 If either the prosecution or the defendant subsequently learns of 2 additional material or information which it would have been under a duty 3 to disclose pursuant to any provisions of this article at the time of a 4 previous discovery obligation or discovery order, it shall expeditiously 5 notify the other party and disclose the additional material or informa-6 tion as required for initial discovery under this article. This 7 provision also requires expeditious disclosure by the prosecution of 8 material or information that became relevant to the case or discoverable 9 based upon reciprocal discovery received from the defendant pursuant to 10 subdivision four of section 245.20 of this article.

11 § 245.65 Work product.

12 This article does not authorize discovery by a party of those portions 13 of records, reports, correspondence, memoranda, or internal documents of 14 the adverse party which are only the legal research, opinions, theories 15 or conclusions of the adverse party or its attorney or the attorney's 16 agents, or of statements of a defendant, written or recorded or summa-17 rized in any writing or recording, made to the attorney for the defend-18 ant or the attorney's agents.

19 § 245.70 Protective orders.

20 1. Any discovery subject to protective order. Upon a showing of good 21 cause by either party, the court may at any time order that discovery or 22 inspection of any kind of material or information under this article be 23 denied, restricted, conditioned or deferred, or make such other order as 24 is appropriate. The court may impose as a condition on discovery to a 25 defendant that the material or information to be discovered be available 26 only to counsel for the defendant; or, alternatively, that counsel for 27 the defendant, and persons employed by the attorney or appointed by the 28 court to assist in the preparation of a defendant's case, may not 29 disclose physical copies of the discoverable documents to a defendant or 30 to anyone else, provided that the prosecution affords the defendant 31 access to inspect redacted copies of the discoverable documents at a 32 supervised location that provides regular and reasonable hours for such 33 access, such as a prosecutor's office, police station, facility of 34 detention, or court. The court may permit a party seeking or opposing a 35 protective order under this section, or another affected person, to 36 submit papers or testify on the record ex parte or in camera. Any such 37 papers and a transcript of such testimony may be sealed and shall 38 constitute a part of the record on appeal. This section does not alter 39 the allocation of the burden of proof with regard to matters at issue, 40 including privilege.

41 2. Modification of time periods for discovery. Upon motion of a party 42 in an individual case, the court may alter the time periods for discov-43 ery imposed by this article upon a showing of good cause.

44 3. Prompt hearing. Upon request for a protective order, the court 45 shall conduct an appropriate hearing within three business days to 46 determine whether good cause has been shown and when practicable shall 47 render decision expeditiously. Any materials submitted and a transcript 48 of the proceeding may be sealed and shall constitute a part of the 49 record on appeal.

50 4. Showing of good cause. Good cause under this section includes but 51 is not limited to: constitutional rights or limitations; danger to the 52 integrity of physical evidence; an unreasonable risk of physical harm, 53 intimidation, economic reprisal, bribery or unjustified annoyance or 54 embarrassment to any person; an unreasonable risk of an adverse effect 55 upon the legitimate needs of law enforcement, including but not limited 56 to a continuing or related grand jury proceeding and the protection of 1 the confidentiality of informants; danger to any person stemming from 2 factors such as a defendant's gang affiliation, prior history of inter-3 fering with witnesses, or threats or intimidating actions directed at 4 potential witnesses; or other similar factors that also outweigh the 5 usefulness of the discovery.

6 5. Successor counsel or pro se defendant. In cases in which the attor-7 ney-client relationship is terminated prior to trial for any reason, 8 any material or information disclosed subject to a condition that it be 9 available only to counsel for the defendant, or limited in dissemination 10 by protective order or otherwise, shall be provided only to successor 11 counsel for the defendant under the same condition or conditions or be 12 returned to the prosecution, unless the court rules otherwise for good 13 cause shown or the prosecutor gives written consent. Any work product 14 derived from such material or information shall not be provided to the 15 defendant, unless the court rules otherwise or the prosecutor gives 16 written consent. If the defendant is acting as his or her own attorney, 17 the court may regulate the time, place and manner of access to any 18 discoverable material or information; and it may as appropriate appoint 19 persons to assist the defendant in the investigation or preparation of 20 the case. Upon motion or application of a defendant acting as his or her 21 own attorney, the court may at any time modify or vacate any condition 22 or restriction relating to access to discoverable material or informa-23 tion, for good cause shown.

24 6. Expedited review of adverse ruling. (a) A party that has unsucces-25 fully sought, or unsuccessfully opposed the granting of, a protective 26 order under this section relating to the name, address, contact informa-27 tion or statements of a person may obtain expedited review of that 28 ruling by an individual justice of the intermediate appellate court to 29 which an appeal from a judgment of conviction in the case would be 30 taken.

31 (b) Such review shall be sought within two business days of the 32 adverse or partially adverse ruling, by order to show cause filed with 33 the intermediate appellate court. The order to show cause shall in addi-34 tion be timely served on the lower court and on the opposing party, and 35 shall be accompanied by a sworn affirmation stating in good faith (i) 36 that the ruling affects substantial interests, and (ii) that diligent 37 efforts to reach an accommodation of the underlying discovery dispute 38 with opposing counsel failed or that no accommodation was feasible; 39 except that service on the opposing party, and a statement regarding 40 efforts to reach an accommodation, are unnecessary where the opposing 41 party was not made aware of the application for a protective order and 42 good cause exists for omitting service of the order to show cause on the 43 opposing party. The lower court's order subject to review shall be 44 stayed until the appellate justice renders decision.

45 (c) The assignment of the individual appellate justice, and the mode 46 of and procedure for the review, are determined by rules of the individ-47 ual appellate courts. The appellate justice may consider any relevant 48 and reliable information bearing on the issue, and may dispense with 49 written briefs other than supporting and opposing materials previously 50 submitted to the lower court. The appellate justice may dispense with 51 the issuance of a written opinion in rendering his or her decision, and 52 when practicable shall render decision expeditiously. Such review and 53 decision shall not affect the right of a defendant, in a subsequent 54 appeal from a judgment of conviction, to claim as error the ruling 55 reviewed.

1 7. Compliance with protective order. Any protective order issued under 2 this article is a mandate of the court for purposes of the offense of 3 criminal contempt in subdivision three of section 215.50 of the penal 4 law.

5 § 245.75 Waiver of discovery by defendant.

6 A defendant who does not seek discovery from the prosecution under 7 this article shall so notify the prosecution and the court at the 8 defendant's arraignment on an indictment, superior court information, 9 prosecutor's information, information, or simplified information, or 10 expeditiously thereafter but before receiving discovery from the prose-11 cution pursuant to subdivision one of section 245.20 of this article, 12 and the defendant need not provide discovery to the prosecution pursuant 13 to subdivision four of section 245.20 and section 245.60 of this arti-
14 cle. A waiver shall be in writing and signed by the defendant and coun-
15 sel for the defendant. Such a waiver does not alter or in any way 16 affect the procedures, obligations or rights set forth in sections 17 250.10, 250.20 and 250.30 of this title, or otherwise established or 18 required by law. The prosecution may not condition a guilty plea offer 19 on the defendant's execution of a waiver under this section.

20 § 245.80 Remedies or sanctions for non-compliance.

21 1. Need for remedy or sanction. (a) When material or information is 22 discoverable under this article but is disclosed belatedly, the court 23 shall impose an appropriate remedy or sanction if the party entitled to 24 disclosure shows that it was prejudiced. Regardless of a showing of 25 prejudice the party entitled to disclosure shall be given reasonable 26 time to prepare and respond to the new material.

27 (b) When material or information is discoverable under this article 28 but cannot be disclosed because it has been lost or destroyed, the court 29 shall impose an appropriate remedy or sanction if the party entitled to 30 disclosure shows that the lost or destroyed material may have contained 31 some information relevant to a contested issue. The appropriate remedy 32 or sanction is that which is proportionate to the potential ways in 33 which the lost or destroyed material reasonably could have been helpful 34 to the party entitled to disclosure.

35 2. Available remedies or sanctions. For failure to comply with any 36 discovery order imposed or issued pursuant to this article, the court 37 may make a further order for discovery, grant a continuance, order that 38 a hearing be reopened, order that a witness be called or recalled, 39 instruct the jury that it may draw an adverse inference regarding the 40 non-compliance, preclude or strike a witness's testimony or a portion of 41 a witness's testimony, admit or exclude evidence, order a mistrial, 42 order the dismissal of all or some of the charges, or make such other 43 order as it deems just under the circumstances; except that any sanction 44 against the defendant shall comport with the defendant's constitutional 45 right to present a defense, and precluding a defense witness from 46 testifying shall be permissible only upon a finding that the defendant's 47 failure to comply with the discovery obligation or order was willful 48 and motivated by a desire to obtain a tactical advantage.

49 3. Consequences of non-disclosure of statement of testifying prose-
50 cution witness. The failure of the prosecutor or any agent of the prose-51 cutor to disclose any written or recorded statement made by a prose-52 cution witness which relates to the subject matter of the witness's 53 testimony shall not constitute grounds for any court to order a new 54 pre-trial hearing or set aside a conviction, or reverse, modify or 55 vacate a judgment of conviction, in the absence of a showing by the 56 defendant that there is a reasonable possibility that the non-disclosure

1 materially contributed to the result of the trial or other proceeding; 2 provided, however, that nothing in this section shall affect or limit 3 any right the defendant may have to a reopened pre-trial hearing when 4 such statements were disclosed before the close of evidence at trial.
5 § 245.85 Admissibility of discovery.

6 The fact that a party has indicated during the discovery process an 7 intention to offer specified evidence or to call a specified witness is 8 not admissible in evidence or grounds for adverse comment at a hearing 9 or a trial.

10 § 3. Subdivision 3 of section 610.20 of the criminal procedure law is 11 amended and a new subdivision 4 is added to read as follows:

12 3. An attorney for a defendant in a criminal action or proceeding, as 13 an officer of a criminal court, may issue a subpoena of such court, 14 subscribed by himself, for the attendance in such court of any witness 15 whom the defendant is entitled to call in such action or proceeding. An 16 attorney for a defendant may not issue a subpoena duces tecum of the 17 court directed to any department, bureau or agency of the state or of a 18 political subdivision thereof, or to any officer or representative ther-19 eof, unless the subpoena is endorsed by the court and provides at least 20 three days for the production of the requested materials. In the case of 21 an emergency, the court may by order dispense with the three-day 22 production period. Such a subpoena duces tecum may be issued in behalf 23 of a defendant upon order of a court pursuant to the rules applicable to 24 civil cases as provided in section twenty-three hundred seven of the 25 civil practice law and rules.

26 4. The showing required to sustain any subpoena under this section is 27 that the testimony or evidence sought is reasonably likely to be rele-28 vant and material to the proceedings, and the subpoena is not overbroad 29 or unreasonably burdensome.

30 § 4. Section 65.20 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 31 505 of the laws of 1985, subdivision 2 as added, the opening paragraph 32 of subdivision 10 as amended and subdivisions 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 33 11, 12 and 13 as renumbered by chapter 548 of the laws of 2007, subdivi-34 sion 7 and paragraph (k) of subdivision 10 as amended by chapter 320 of 35 the laws of 2006 and subdivisions 11 and 12 as amended by chapter 455 of 36 the laws of 1991, is amended to read as follows:

37 § 65.20 Closed-circuit television; procedure for application and grounds 38 for determination.

39 1. Prior to the commencement of a criminal proceeding; other than a 40 grand jury proceeding, either party may apply to the court for an order 41 declaring that a child witness is vulnerable.

42 2. A child witness should be declared vulnerable when the court, in 43 accordance with the provisions of this section, determines by clear and 44 convincing evidence that the child witness would suffer serious mental 45 or emotional harm that would substantially impair the child witness' 46 ability to communicate with the finder of fact without the use of live, 47 two-way closed-circuit television.

48 3. A motion pursuant to subdivision one of this section must be made 49 in writing at least eight days before the commencement of trial or other 50 criminal proceeding upon reasonable notice to the other party and with 51 an opportunity to be heard.

52 4. The motion papers must state the basis for the motion and must 53 contain sworn allegations of fact which, if true, would support a deter-
54 mination by the court that the child witness is vulnerable. Such allega-55 tions may be based upon the personal knowledge of the deponent or upon

1 information and belief, provided that, in the latter event, the sources 2 of such information and the grounds for such belief are stated.

3 5. The answering papers may admit or deny any of the alleged facts and 4 may, in addition, contain sworn allegations of fact relevant to the 5 motion, including the rights of the defendant, the need to protect the 6 child witness and the integrity of the truth-finding function of the 7 trier of fact.

8 6. Unless all material facts alleged in support of the motion made 9 pursuant to subdivision one of this section are conceded, the court 10 shall, in addition to examining the papers and hearing oral argument, 11 conduct an appropriate hearing for the purpose of making findings of 12 fact essential to the determination of the motion. Except as provided in 13 subdivision [~~six~~] seven of this section, it may subpoena or call and 14 examine witnesses, who must either testify under oath or be permitted to 15 give unsworn testimony pursuant to subdivision two of section 60.20 and 16 must authorize the attorneys for the parties to do the same.

17 7. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the child witness who 18 is alleged to be vulnerable may not be compelled to testify at such 19 hearing or to submit to any psychological or psychiatric examination.
20 The failure of the child witness to testify at such hearing shall not be 21 a ground for denying a motion made pursuant to subdivision one of this 22 section. Prior statements made by the child witness relating to any 23 allegations of conduct constituting an offense defined in article one 24 hundred thirty of the penal law or incest as defined in section 255.25, 25 255.26 or 255.27 of such law or to any allegation of words or conduct 26 constituting an attempt to prevent, impede or deter the child witness 27 from cooperating in the investigation or prosecution of the offense 28 shall be admissible at such hearing, provided, however, that a declara-29 tion that a child witness is vulnerable may not be based solely upon 30 such prior statements.

31 8. (a) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of article forty-five of 32 the civil practice law and rules, any physician, psychologist, nurse or 33 social worker who has treated a child witness may testify at a hearing 34 conducted pursuant to subdivision [~~five~~] six of this section concerning 35 the treatment of such child witness as such treatment relates to the 36 issue presented at the hearing, provided that any otherwise applicable 37 statutory privileges concerning communications between the child witness 38 and such physician, psychologist, nurse or social worker in connection 39 with such treatment shall not be deemed waived by such testimony alone, 40 except to the limited extent of permitting the court alone to examine in 41 camera reports, records or documents, if any, prepared by such physi-42 cian, psychologist, nurse or social worker. If upon such examination the 43 court determines that such reports, records or documents, or any one or 44 portion thereof, contain information material and relevant to the issue 45 of whether the child witness is a vulnerable child witness, the court 46 shall disclose such information to both the attorney for the defendant 47 and the district attorney.

48 (b) At any time after a motion has been made pursuant to subdivision 49 one of this section, upon the demand of the other party the moving party 50 must furnish the demanding party with a copy of any and all of such 51 records, reports or other documents in the possession of such other 52 party and must, in addition, supply the court with a copy of all such 53 reports, records or other documents which are the subject of the demand.
54 At any time after a demand has been made pursuant to this paragraph, the 55 moving party may demand that property of the same kind or character in 56 possession of the party that originally made such demand be furnished to 1 the moving party and, if so furnished, be supplied, in addition, to the 2 court.

3 9. (a) Prior to the commencement of the hearing conducted pursuant to 4 subdivision [~~five~~] six of this section, the district attorney shall, 5 subject to a protective order, comply with the provisions of paragraph 6 (c) of subdivision one of section [~~240.45~~] 245.20 of this chapter as 7 they concern any witness whom the district attorney intends to call at 8 the hearing and the child witness.

9 (b) Before a defendant calls a witness at such hearing, he or she 10 must, subject to a protective order, comply with the provisions of 11 subdivision [~~two~~] four of section [~~240.45~~] 245.20 of this chapter as 12 they concern all the witnesses the defendant intends to call at such 13 hearing.

14 10. The court may consider, in determining whether there are factors 15 which would cause the child witness to suffer serious mental or 16 emotional harm, a finding that any one or more of the following circum-17 stances have been established by clear and convincing evidence:

18 (a) The manner of the commission of the offense of which the defendant 19 is accused was particularly heinous or was characterized by aggravating 20 circumstances.

21 (b) The child witness is particularly young or otherwise particularly 22 subject to psychological harm on account of a physical or mental condi-23 tion which existed before the alleged commission of the offense.

24 (c) At the time of the alleged offense, the defendant occupied a posi-25 tion of authority with respect to the child witness.

26 (d) The offense or offenses charged were part of an ongoing course of 27 conduct committed by the defendant against the child witness over an 28 extended period of time.

29 (e) A deadly weapon or dangerous instrument was allegedly used during 30 the commission of the crime.

31 (f) The defendant has inflicted serious physical injury upon the child 32 witness.

33 (g) A threat, express or implied, of physical violence to the child 34 witness or a third person if the child witness were to report the inci-35 dent to any person or communicate information to or cooperate with a 36 court, grand jury, prosecutor, police officer or peace officer concern-37 ing the incident has been made by or on behalf of the defendant.

38 (h) A threat, express or implied, of the incarceration of a parent or 39 guardian of the child witness, the removal of the child witness from the 40 family or the dissolution of the family of the child witness if the 41 child witness were to report the incident to any person or communicate 42 information to or cooperate with a court, grand jury, prosecutor, police 43 officer or peace officer concerning the incident has been made by or on 44 behalf of the defendant.

45 (i) A witness other than the child witness has received a threat of 46 physical violence directed at such witness or to a third person by or on 47 behalf of the defendant.

48 (j) The defendant, at the time of the inquiry, (i) is living in the 49 same household with the child witness, (ii) has ready access to the 50 child witness or (iii) is providing substantial financial support for 51 the child witness.

52 (k) The child witness has previously been the victim of an offense 53 defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law or incest as 54 defined in section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of such law.

(1) According to expert testimony, the child witness would be particularly ~~susceptible~~ susceptible to psychological harm if required to testify in open court or in the physical presence of the defendant.

11. Irrespective of whether a motion was made pursuant to subdivision one of this section, the court, at the request of either party or on its own motion, may decide that a child witness may be vulnerable based on its own observations that a child witness who has been called to testify at a criminal proceeding is suffering severe mental or emotional harm and therefore is physically or mentally unable to testify or to continue to testify in open court or in the physical presence of the defendant and that the use of live, two-way closed-circuit television is necessary to enable the child witness to testify. If the court so decides, it must conduct the same hearing that subdivision ~~five~~ six of this section requires when a motion is made pursuant to subdivision one of this section, and it must make findings of fact pursuant to subdivisions ~~nine~~ ten and ~~eleven~~ twelve of this section, before determining that the child witness is vulnerable.

12. In deciding whether a child witness is vulnerable, the court shall make findings of fact which reflect the causal relationship between the existence of any one or more of the factors set forth in subdivision ~~nine~~ ten of this section or other relevant factors which the court finds are established and the determination that the child witness is vulnerable. If the court is satisfied that the child witness is vulnerable and that, under the facts and circumstances of the particular case, the defendant's constitutional rights to an impartial jury or of confrontation will not be impaired, it may enter an order granting the application for the use of live, two-way closed-circuit television.

13. When the court has determined that a child witness is a vulnerable child witness, it shall make a specific finding as to whether placing the defendant and the child witness in the same room during the testimony of the child witness will contribute to the likelihood that the child witness will suffer severe mental or emotional harm. If the court finds that placing the defendant and the child witness in the same room during the testimony of the child witness will contribute to the likelihood that the child witness will suffer severe mental or emotional harm, the order entered pursuant to subdivision ~~eleven~~ twelve of this section shall direct that the defendant remain in the courtroom during the testimony of the vulnerable child witness.

5. Court ordered bill of particulars. Where a prosecutor has timely served a written refusal pursuant to subdivision four of this section and upon motion, made in writing, of a defendant, who has made a request for a bill of particulars and whose request has not been complied with in whole or in part, the court must, to the extent a protective order is not warranted, order the prosecutor to comply with the request if it is satisfied that the items of factual information requested are authorized to be included in a bill of particulars, and that such information is necessary to enable the defendant adequately to prepare or conduct his defense and, if the request was untimely, a finding of good cause for the delay. Where a prosecutor has not timely served a written refusal pursuant to subdivision four of this section the court must, unless it is satisfied that the people have shown good cause why such an order should not be issued, issue an order requiring the prosecutor to comply or providing for any other order authorized by ~~subdivision one of section 240.70~~ section 245.80 of this part.

§ 6. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 1 of section 255.10 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 763 of the laws of 1974, is amended to read as follows:

In an action in which either (a) material or information has been disclosed pursuant to paragraph (m) or (n) of subdivision one of section 245.20, (b) an eavesdropping warrant and application have been furnished pursuant to section 700.70, or (c) a notice of intention to introduce evidence has been served pursuant to section 710.30, such period shall be extended until forty-five days after the last date of such service. If the defendant is not represented by counsel and has requested an adjournment to obtain counsel or to have counsel assigned, such forty-five day period shall commence on the date counsel initially appears on defendant's behalf.

§ 340.30 Pre-trial discovery and notices of defenses.

The provisions of article two hundred [forty] forty-five, concerning pre-trial discovery by a defendant under indictment in a superior court, and article two hundred fifty, concerning pre-trial notice to the people by a defendant under indictment in a superior court who intends to advance a trial defense of mental disease or defect or of alibi, apply to a prosecution of an information in a local criminal court.

§ 9. Subdivision 14 of section 400.27 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 1 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as follows:

14. (a) At a reasonable time prior to the sentencing proceeding or a mental retardation hearing:

[~~(i)~~] the prosecutor shall, unless previously disclosed and subject to a protective order, make available to the defendant the statements and information specified in subdivision one of section [240.45] 245.20 of this part and make available for inspection, photographing, copying or testing the property specified in subdivision one of section [~~240.20, and~~

~~(ii) the defendant shall, unless previously disclosed and subject to a protective order, make available to the prosecution the statements and information specified in subdivision two of section 240.45 and make available for inspection, photographing, copying or testing, subject to constitutional limitations, the reports, documents and other property specified in subdivision one of section 240.30]~~ 245.20 of this part.

(b) Where a party refuses to make disclosure pursuant to this section, the provisions of section [~~240.35, subdivision one of section 240.40 and section 240.50]~~ 245.70, 245.75 and/or 245.80 of this part shall apply.

(c) If, after complying with the provisions of this section or an order pursuant thereto, a party finds either before or during a sentencing proceeding or mental retardation hearing, additional material subject to discovery or covered by court order, the party shall promptly make disclosure or apply for a protective order.

(d) If the court finds that a party has failed to comply with any of the provisions of this section, the court may ~~[enter]~~ employ any of the ~~[orders]~~ remedies or sanctions specified in subdivision one of section ~~[240.70]~~ 245.80 of this part.

The court shall deny or limit such a request upon a finding that such a request, if granted, would threaten the integrity or chain of custody of property or the integrity of the processes or functions of a laboratory conducting DNA testing, pose a risk of harm, intimidation, embarrassment, reprisal, or other substantially negative consequences to any person, undermine the proper functions of law enforcement including the confidentiality of informants, or on the basis of any other factor identified by the court in the interests of justice or public safety. The court shall further ensure that any property produced pursuant to this paragraph is subject to a protective order, where appropriate. The court shall deny any request made pursuant to this paragraph where:

§ 11. Subdivision 10 of section 450.10 of the penal law, as added by chapter 795 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:

10. Where there has been a failure to comply with the provisions of this section, and where the district attorney does not demonstrate to the satisfaction of the court that such failure has not caused the defendant prejudice, the court shall instruct the jury that it may consider such failure in determining the weight to be given such evidence and may also impose any other sanction set forth in subdivision one of section ~~[240.70]~~ 245.80 of the criminal procedure law; provided, however, that unless the defendant has convinced the court that such failure has caused him undue prejudice, the court shall not preclude the district attorney from introducing into evidence the property, photographs, photocopies, or other reproductions of the property or, where appropriate, testimony concerning its value and condition, where such evidence is otherwise properly authenticated and admissible under the rules of evidence. Failure to comply with any one or more of the provisions of this section shall not for that reason alone be grounds for dismissal of the accusatory instrument.

§ 12. Section 460.80 of the penal law, as added by chapter 516 of the laws of 1986, is amended to read as follows:

§ 460.80 Court ordered disclosure.

The court may issue

1 a protective order denying, limiting, conditioning, delaying or regulat-2 ing such discovery where a danger to the integrity of physical evidence 3 or a substantial risk of physical harm, intimidation, economic reprisal, 4 bribery or unjustified annoyance or embarrassment to any person or an 5 adverse effect upon the legitimate needs of law enforcement, including 6 the protection of the confidentiality of informants, or any other factor 7 or set of factors outweighs the usefulness of the discovery.

10 5. In addition to information required to be disclosed pursuant to 11 article two hundred [~~forty~~] forty-five of the criminal procedure law, 12 when forfeiture is sought pursuant to this article, and following the 13 defendant's arraignment on the special forfeiture information, the court 14 shall order discovery of any information not otherwise disclosed which 15 is material and reasonably necessary for preparation by the defendant 16 with respect to a forfeiture proceeding brought pursuant to this arti-
17 cle. Such material shall include those portions of the grand jury 18 minutes and such other information which pertain solely to the special 19 forfeiture information and shall not include information which pertains 20 to the criminal charges. Upon application of the prosecutor, the court 21 may issue a protective order pursuant to section [~~240.40~~] 245.70 of the 22 criminal procedure law with respect to any information required to be 23 disclosed pursuant to this subdivision.

§ 30.30 Speedy trial; time limitations.

1. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision three, a motion made pursuant to paragraph (e) of subdivision one of section 170.30 or paragraph (g) of subdivision one of section 210.20 must be granted where the people are not ready for trial within:

(a) six months of the commencement of a criminal action wherein a defendant is accused of one or more offenses, at least one of which is a felony;

(b) ninety days of the commencement of a criminal action wherein a defendant is accused of one or more offenses, at least one of which is a misdemeanor punishable by a sentence of imprisonment of more than three months and none of which is a felony;

(c) sixty days of the commencement of a criminal action wherein the defendant is accused of one or more offenses, at least one of which is a misdemeanor punishable by a sentence of imprisonment of not more than three months and none of which is a crime punishable by a sentence of imprisonment of more than three months;

2. ~~[Except as provided in subdivision three, where a defendant has been committed to the custody of the sheriff in a criminal action he must be released on bail or on his own recognizance, upon such conditions as may be just and reasonable, if the people are not ready for trial in that criminal action within:~~

~~(d) five days from the commencement of his commitment to the custody of the sheriff in a criminal action wherein the defendant is accused of one or more offenses, at least one of which is a violation and none of which is a crime.]~~

Whenever pursuant to this section a prosecutor states or otherwise provides notice that the people are ready for trial, the court may make inquiry on the record as to their actual readiness. If, after conducting its inquiry, the court determines that the people are not ready to proceed to trial, the prosecutor's statement or notice of readiness shall not be valid for purposes of this section. Any statement of trial readiness must be accompanied or preceded by a certification of good faith compliance with the disclosure requirements of article two hundred forty-five of this chapter. This subdivision shall not apply to cases where the defense has waived disclosure requirements. The defense shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard on the record concerning any such inquiry by the court, and concerning whether such disclosure requirements have been met.

2-a. Upon a misdemeanor complaint, a statement of readiness shall not be valid unless the prosecuting attorney certifies that all counts charged in the accusatory instrument meet the requirements of sections 100.15 and 100.40 and those counts not meeting the requirements of sections 100.15 and 100.40 have been dismissed.

3. (a) Subdivisions one and two do not apply to a criminal action wherein the defendant is accused of an offense defined in sections 125.10, 125.15, 125.20, 125.25, 125.26 and 125.27 of the penal law.

(b) A motion made pursuant to subdivisions one or two upon expiration of the specified period may be denied where the people are not ready for trial if the people were ready for trial prior to the expiration of the specified period and their present unreadiness is due to some exceptional fact or circumstance, including, but not limited to, the sudden unavailability of evidence material to the people's case, when the district attorney has exercised due diligence to obtain such evidence and there are reasonable grounds to believe that such evidence will become available in a reasonable period.

(c) A motion made pursuant to subdivision two shall not:

(i) apply to any defendant who is serving a term of imprisonment for another offense;

1 (ii) require the release from custody of any defendant who is also 2 being held in custody pending trial of another criminal charge as to 3 which the applicable period has not yet elapsed;

4 (iii) prevent the redetention of or otherwise apply to any defendant 5 who, after being released from custody pursuant to this section or 6 otherwise, is charged with another crime or violates the conditions on 7 which he has been released, by failing to appear at a judicial proceed-8 ing at which his presence is required or otherwise.

9 4. In computing the time within which the people must be ready for 10 trial pursuant to subdivisions one and two, the following periods must 11 be excluded:

12 (a) a reasonable period of delay resulting from other proceedings 13 concerning the defendant, including but not limited to: proceedings for 14 the determination of competency and the period during which defendant is 15 incompetent to stand trial; demand to produce; request for a bill of 16 particulars; pre-trial motions; appeals; trial of other charges; and the 17 period during which such matters are under consideration by the court; 18 or

19 (b) the period of delay resulting from a continuance granted by the 20 court at the request of, or with the consent of, the defendant or his or 21 her counsel. The court [~~must~~] may grant such a continuance only if it is 22 satisfied that postponement is in the interest of justice, taking into 23 account the public interest in the prompt dispositions of criminal 24 charges. A defendant without counsel must not be deemed to have 25 consented to a continuance unless he has been advised by the court of 26 his or her rights under these rules and the effect of his consent, which 27 must be done on the record in open court; or

28 (c) (i) the period of delay resulting from the absence or unavailabil-29 ity of the defendant. A defendant must be considered absent whenever his 30 location is unknown and he is attempting to avoid apprehension or prose-31 cution, or his location cannot be determined by due diligence. A defend-32 ant must be considered unavailable whenever his location is known but 33 his presence for trial cannot be obtained by due diligence; or

34 (ii) where the defendant has either escaped from custody or has failed 35 to appear when required after having previously been released on bail or 36 on his own recognizance, and provided the defendant is not in custody on 37 another matter, the period extending from the day the court issues a 38 bench warrant pursuant to section 530.70 because of the defendant's 39 failure to appear in court when required, to the day the defendant 40 subsequently appears in the court pursuant to a bench warrant or volun-41 tarily or otherwise; or

42 (d) a reasonable period of delay when the defendant is joined for 43 trial with a co-defendant as to whom the time for trial pursuant to this 44 section has not run and good cause is not shown for granting a sever-45 ance; or

46 (e) the period of delay resulting from detention of the defendant in 47 another jurisdiction provided the district attorney is aware of such 48 detention and has been diligent and has made reasonable efforts to 49 obtain the presence of the defendant for trial; or

50 (f) the period during which the defendant is without counsel through 51 no fault of the court; except when the defendant is proceeding as his 52 own attorney with the permission of the court; or 53 (g) other periods of delay occasioned by exceptional circumstances, 54 including but not limited to, the period of delay resulting from a 55 continuance granted at the request of a district attorney if (i) the 56 continuance is granted because of the unavailability of evidence materi-

1 al to the people's case, when the district attorney has exercised due 2 diligence to obtain such evidence and there are reasonable grounds to 3 believe that such evidence will become available in a reasonable period; 4 or (ii) the continuance is granted to allow the district attorney addi-5 tional time to prepare the people's case and additional time is justi-
6 fied by the exceptional circumstances of the case. Any such exclusion 7 when a statement of unreadiness has followed a statement of readiness 8 made by the people must be accompanied by supporting facts and approved 9 by the court. The court shall inquire on the record as to the reasons 10 for the people's unreadiness; or

11 (h) the period during which an action has been adjourned in contem-12 plation of dismissal pursuant to sections 170.55, 170.56 and 215.10 of 13 this chapter[-]; or

14 (i) [~~The~~] the period prior to the defendant's actual appearance for 15 arraignment in a situation in which the defendant has been directed to 16 appear by the district attorney pursuant to subdivision three of section 17 120.20 or subdivision three of section 210.10[-]; or 18 (j) the period during which a family offense is before a family court 19 until such time as an accusatory instrument or indictment is filed 20 against the defendant alleging a crime constituting a family offense, as 21 such term is defined in section 530.11 of this chapter.

22 5. At each court appearance date preceding the commencement of trial 23 in a criminal action, the court, whenever it is practicable to do so, 24 shall rule preliminarily on whether the adjournment period immediately 25 following such court appearance date is to be included or excluded for 26 the purposes of computing the time within which the people must be ready 27 for trial within the meaning of this section. The court's ruling shall 28 be noted in the court file.

29 6. For purposes of this section, (a) where the defendant is to be 30 tried following the withdrawal of the plea of guilty or is to be retried 31 following a mistrial, an order for a new trial or an appeal or collat-32 eral attack, the criminal action and the commitment to the custody of 33 the sheriff, if any, must be deemed to have commenced on the date the 34 withdrawal of the plea of guilty or the date the order occasioning a 35 retrial becomes final;

36 (b) where a defendant has been served with an appearance ticket, the 37 criminal action must be deemed to have commenced on the date the defend-38 ant first appears in a local criminal court in response to the ticket;

39 (c) where a criminal action is commenced by the filing of a felony
40 complaint, and thereafter, in the course of the same criminal action
41 either the felony complaint is replaced with or converted to an informa-42 tion, prosecutor's information or misdemeanor complaint pursuant to 43 article [~~180~~] one hundred eighty or a prosecutor's information is filed 44 pursuant to section 190.70, the period applicable for the purposes of 45 subdivision one must be the period applicable to the charges in the new 46 accusatory instrument, calculated from the date of the filing of such 47 new accusatory instrument; provided, however, that when the aggregate of 48 such period and the period of time, excluding the periods provided in 49 subdivision [~~four~~] five, already elapsed from the date of the filing of 50 the felony complaint to the date of the filing of the new accusatory 51 instrument exceeds six months, the period applicable to the charges in 52 the felony complaint must remain applicable and continue as if the new 53 accusatory instrument had not been filed;

54 (d) where a criminal action is commenced by the filing of a felony
55 complaint, and thereafter, in the course of the same criminal action

tion, prosecutor's information or misdemeanor complaint pursuant to article [~~180~~] one hundred eighty or a prosecutor's information is filed pursuant to section 190.70, the period applicable for the purposes of subdivision two must be the period applicable to the charges in the new accusatory instrument, calculated from the date of the filing of such new accusatory instrument; provided, however, that when the aggregate of such period and the period of time, excluding the periods provided in subdivision [~~four~~] five, already elapsed from the date of the filing of the felony complaint to the date of the filing of the new accusatory instrument exceeds ninety days, the period applicable to the charges in the felony complaint must remain applicable and continue as if the new accusatory instrument had not been filed.

(e) where a count of an indictment is reduced to charge only a misdemeanor or petty offense and a reduced indictment or a prosecutor's information is filed pursuant to subdivisions one-a and six of section 210.20, the period applicable for the purposes of subdivision one of this section must be the period applicable to the charges in the new accusatory instrument, calculated from the date of the filing of such new accusatory instrument; provided, however, that when the aggregate of such period and the period of time, excluding the periods provided in subdivision [~~four~~] five of this section, already elapsed from the date of the filing of the indictment to the date of the filing of the new accusatory instrument exceeds six months, the period applicable to the charges in the indictment must remain applicable and continue as if the new accusatory instrument had not been filed;

(f) where a count of an indictment is reduced to charge only a misdemeanor or petty offense and a reduced indictment or a prosecutor's information is filed pursuant to subdivisions one-a and six of section 210.20, the period applicable for the purposes of subdivision two of this section must be the period applicable to the charges in the new accusatory instrument, calculated from the date of the filing of such new accusatory instrument; provided, however, that when the aggregate of such period and the period of time, excluding the periods provided in subdivision [~~four~~] five of this section, already elapsed from the date of the filing of the indictment to the date of the filing of the new accusatory instrument exceeds ninety days, the period applicable to the charges in the indictment must remain applicable and continue as if the new accusatory instrument had not been filed.

[~~6-~~] 7. The procedural rules prescribed in subdivisions one through seven of section 210.45 with respect to a motion to dismiss an indictment are also applicable to a motion made pursuant to subdivision two.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law.

§ 2. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or subpart of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or subpart thereof

1 directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have 2 been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of the legislature 3 that this act would have been enacted even if such invalid provisions 4 had not been included herein.

5 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately provided, however, that 6 the applicable effective date of Subparts A through C of this act shall 7 be as specifically set forth in the last section of such Subparts.

§ 89. General provisions relating to access to records; certain cases. The provisions of this section apply to access to all records, except as hereinafter specified:

1. (a) The committee on open government is continued and shall consist of the lieutenant governor or the delegate of such officer, the secretary of state or the delegate of such officer, whose office shall act as secretariat for the committee, the commissioner of the office of general services or the delegate of such officer, the director of the budget or the delegate of such officer, and seven other persons, none of whom shall hold any other state or local public office except the representative of local governments as set forth herein, to be appointed as follows: five by the governor, at least two of whom are or have been representatives of the news media, one of whom shall be a representative of local government who, at the time of appointment, is serving as a duly elected officer of a local government, one by the temporary president of the senate, and one by the speaker of the assembly. The persons appointed by the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly shall be appointed to serve, respectively, until the expiration of the terms of office of the temporary president and the speaker to which the temporary president and speaker were elected. The four persons presently serving by appointment of the governor for fixed terms shall continue to serve until the expiration of their respective terms. Thereafter, their respective successors shall be appointed for terms of four years. The member representing local government shall be appointed for a term of four years, so long as such member shall remain a duly elected officer of a local government. The committee shall hold no less than two meetings annually, but may meet at any time. The members of the committee shall be entitled to reimbursement for actual expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties.

(b) The committee shall:

i. furnish to any agency and to each house of the state legislature advisory guidelines, opinions or other appropriate information regarding this article;

ii. furnish to any person advisory opinions or other appropriate information regarding this article;

iii. promulgate rules and regulations with respect to the implementation of subdivision one and paragraph (c) of subdivision three of section eighty-seven of this article;

iv. request from any agency and from either house of the state legislature such assistance, services and information as will enable the committee to effectively carry out its powers and duties;

v. develop a form, which shall be made available on the internet, that may be used by the public to request a record; and

vi. report on its activities and findings regarding this article and article seven of this chapter, including recommendations for changes in the law, to the governor and the legislature annually, on or before December fifteenth.

2. (a) The committee on [~~public access to records~~] open government may promulgate guidelines regarding deletion of identifying details or withholding of records otherwise available under this article to prevent unwarranted invasions of personal privacy. In the absence of such guidelines, an agency and the respective house of state legislature may delete identifying details when it makes records available.

(b) An unwarranted invasion of personal privacy includes, but shall not be limited to:

i. disclosure of employment, medical or credit histories or personal references of applicants for employment;

ii. disclosure of items involving the medical or personal records of a client or patient in a medical facility;

iii. sale or release of lists of names and addresses if such lists would be used for solicitation or fund-raising purposes;

iv. disclosure of information of a personal nature when disclosure would result in economic or personal hardship to the subject party and such information is not relevant to the work of the agency or respective house of the state legislature requesting or maintaining it;

v. disclosure of information of a personal nature reported in confidence to an agency or to the state legislature and not relevant to the ordinary work of such agency or the state legislature;

vi. information of a personal nature contained in a workers' compensation record, except as provided by section one hundred ten-a of the workers' compensation law; [~~or~~]

vii. disclosure of electronic contact information, such as an e-mail address or a social network username, that has been collected from a taxpayer under section one hundred four of the real property tax law; or viii. disclosure of communications of a personal nature between legislators and their constituents.

(c) Unless otherwise provided by this article, disclosure shall not be construed to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision:

i. when identifying details are deleted;

ii. when the person to whom a record pertains consents in writing to disclosure;

iii. when upon presenting reasonable proof of identity, a person seeks access to records pertaining to him or her; or

iv. when a record or group of records relates to the right, title or interest in real property, or relates to the inventory, status or characteristics of real property, in which case disclosure and providing copies of such record or group of records shall not be deemed an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, provided that nothing herein shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of electronic contact information, such as an e-mail address or a social network username, that has been collected from a taxpayer under section one hundred four of the real property tax law.

2-a. Nothing in this article shall permit disclosure which constitutes an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy as defined in subdivision two of this section if such disclosure is prohibited under section ninety-six of this chapter.

3. (a) Each entity subject to the provisions of this article, within five business days of the receipt of a written request for a record reasonably described, shall make such record available to the person requesting it, deny such request in writing or furnish a written acknowledgement of the receipt of such request and a statement of the approximate date, which shall be reasonable under the circumstances of

1 the request, when such request will be granted or denied, including, 2 where appropriate, a statement that access to the record will be deter-
3 mined in accordance with subdivision five of this section. [~~And~~] Neither 4 an agency nor the state legislature shall [~~not~~] deny a request on the 5 basis that the request is voluminous or that locating or reviewing the 6 requested records or providing the requested copies is burdensome 7 because the agency or respective house of the state legislature lacks 8 sufficient staffing or on any other basis if the agency or respective 9 house of the state legislature may engage an outside professional 10 service to provide copying, programming or other services required to 11 provide the copy, the costs of which the agency may recover pursuant to 12 paragraph (c) of subdivision one of section eighty-seven of this arti-
13 cle. An agency or respective house of the state legislature may require 14 a person requesting lists of names and addresses to provide a written 15 certification that such person will not use such lists of names and 16 addresses for solicitation or fund-raising purposes and will not sell, 17 give or otherwise make available such lists of names and addresses to 18 any other person for the purpose of allowing that person to use such 19 lists of names and addresses for solicitation or fund-raising purposes.
20 If an agency or respective house of the state legislature determines to 21 grant a request in whole or in part, and if circumstances prevent 22 disclosure to the person requesting the record or records within twenty 23 business days from the date of the acknowledgement of the receipt of the 24 request, the agency or respective house of the state legislature shall 25 state, in writing, both the reason for the inability to grant the 26 request within twenty business days and a date certain within a reason-27 able period, depending on the circumstances, when the request will be 28 granted in whole or in part. Upon payment of, or offer to pay, the fee 29 prescribed therefor, the entity shall provide a copy of such record and 30 certify to the correctness of such copy if so requested, or as the case 31 may be, shall certify that it does not have possession of such record or 32 that such record cannot be found after diligent search. Nothing in this 33 article shall be construed to require any entity to prepare any record 34 not possessed or maintained by such entity except the records specified 35 in subdivision three of section eighty-seven [~~and subdivision three of~~ 36 ~~section eighty-eight~~] of this article. When an agency or the respective 37 house of the state legislature has the ability to retrieve or extract a 38 record or data maintained in a computer storage system with reasonable 39 effort, it shall be required to do so. When doing so requires less 40 employee time than engaging in manual retrieval or redactions from non-41 electronic records, the agency and respective house of the state legis-42 lature shall be required to retrieve or extract such record or data 43 electronically. Any programming necessary to retrieve a record main-44 tained in a computer storage system and to transfer that record to the 45 medium requested by a person or to allow the transferred record to be 46 read or printed shall not be deemed to be the preparation or creation of 47 a new record.

48 (b) All entities shall, provided such entity has reasonable means 49 available, accept requests for records submitted in the form of elec-50 tronic mail and shall respond to such requests by electronic mail, using 51 forms, to the extent practicable, consistent with the form or forms 52 developed by the committee on open government pursuant to subdivision 53 one of this section and provided that the written requests do not seek a 54 response in some other form.

(c) Each state agency, as defined in subdivision five of this section, that maintains a website shall ensure its website provides for the online submission of a request for records pursuant to this article.

4. (a) Except as provided in subdivision five of this section, any person denied access to a record may within thirty days appeal in writing such denial to the head, chief executive or governing body of the entity, or the person therefor designated by such head, chief executive, or governing body, who shall within ten business days of the receipt of such appeal fully explain in writing to the person requesting the record the reasons for further denial, or provide access to the record sought. In addition, each agency or the respective house of the state legislature shall immediately forward to the committee on open government a copy of such appeal when received by the agency or such house and the ensuing determination thereon. Failure by an agency or respective house of the state legislature to conform to the provisions of subdivision three of this section shall constitute a denial.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision five of this section, a person denied access to a record in an appeal determination under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subdivision may bring a proceeding for review of such denial pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules. In the event that access to any record is denied pursuant to the provisions of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of this article, the agency or respective house of the state legislature involved shall have the burden of proving that such record falls within the provisions of such subdivision two. Failure by an agency or respective house of the state legislature to conform to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall constitute a denial.

(c) The court in such a proceeding: (i) may assess, against such agency involved, reasonable attorney's fees and other litigation costs reasonably incurred by such person in any case under the provisions of this section in which such person has substantially prevailed, and when the agency failed to respond to a request or appeal within the statutory time; and (ii) shall assess, against such agency involved, reasonable attorney's fees and other litigation costs reasonably incurred by such person in any case under the provisions of this section in which such person has substantially prevailed and the court finds that the agency had no reasonable basis for denying access.

(d) (i) Appeal to the appellate division of the supreme court must be made in accordance with subdivision (a) of section fifty-five hundred thirteen of the civil practice law and rules.

(ii) An appeal from an agency or respective house of the state legislature taken from an order of the court requiring disclosure of any of all records sought:

(A) shall be given preference;

(B) shall be brought on for argument on such terms and conditions as the presiding justice may direct, upon application of any party to the proceedings; and

(C) shall be deemed abandoned if the agency or respective house of the state legislature fails to serve and file a record and brief within sixty days after the date of service upon the petitioner of the notice of appeal, unless consent to further extension is given by all parties, or unless further extension is granted by the court upon such terms as may be just and upon good cause shown.

5. (a) (1) A person acting pursuant to law or regulation who, subsequent to the effective date of this subdivision, submits any information to any state agency or to the respective house of the state legislature

1 may, at the time of submission, request that the agency or such house 2 provisionally except such information from disclosure under paragraph 3 (d) of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of this article. Where 4 the request itself contains information which if disclosed would defeat 5 the purpose for which the exception is sought, such information shall 6 also be provisionally excepted from disclosure.

7 (1-a) A person or entity who submits or otherwise makes available any 8 records to any agency or a house of the state legislature, may, at any 9 time, identify those records or portions thereof that may contain crit-10 ical infrastructure information, and request that the agency or house of 11 the state legislature that maintains such records except such informa-12 tion from disclosure under subdivision two of section eighty-seven of 13 this article. Where the request itself contains information which if 14 disclosed would defeat the purpose for which the exception is sought, 15 such information shall also be provisionally excepted from disclosure.

16 (2) The request for an exception shall be in writing, shall specif-17 ically identify which portions of the record are the subject of the 18 request for exception and shall state the reasons why the information 19 should be provisionally excepted from disclosure. Any such request for 20 an exception shall be effective for a five-year period from the agency's 21 or respective house of the state legislature's receipt thereof.
22 Provided, however, that not less than sixty days prior to the expiration 23 of the then current term of the exception request, the submitter may 24 apply to the agency or respective house of the state legislature for a 25 two-year extension of its exception request. Upon timely receipt of a 26 request for an extension of an exception request, an agency or respec-
27 tive house of the state legislature may either (A) perform a cursory 28 review of the application and grant the extension should it find any 29 justification for such determination, or (B) commence the procedure set 30 forth in paragraph (b) of this subdivision to make a final determination 31 granting or terminating such exception.

32 (3) Information submitted as provided in subparagraphs one and one-a 33 of this paragraph shall be provisionally excepted from disclosure and be 34 maintained apart by the agency and the respective house of the state 35 legislature from all other records until the expiration of the submit-36 ter's exception request or fifteen days after the entitlement to such 37 exception has been finally determined or such further time as ordered by 38 a court of competent jurisdiction.

39 (b) [~~On the~~] During the effective period of an exception request under 40 this subdivision, on the initiative of the agency or either house of the 41 state legislature at any time, or upon the request of any person for a 42 record excepted from disclosure pursuant to this subdivision, the agency 43 or respective house of the state legislature shall:

44 (1) inform the person who requested the exception of the agency's or 45 such house's intention to determine whether such exception should be 46 granted or continued;

47 (2) permit the person who requested the exception, within ten business 48 days of receipt of notification from the agency or respective house of 49 the state legislature, to submit a written statement of the necessity 50 for the granting or continuation of such exception;

51 (3) within seven business days of receipt of such written statement, 52 or within seven business days of the expiration of the period prescribed 53 for submission of such statement, issue a written determination grant-54 ing, continuing or terminating such exception and stating the reasons 55 therefor; copies of such determination shall be served upon the person,

1 if any, requesting the record, the person who requested the exception, 2 and the committee on [~~public access to records~~] open government.

3 (c) A denial of an exception from disclosure under paragraph (b) of 4 this subdivision may be appealed by the person submitting the informa-5 tion and a denial of access to the record may be appealed by the person 6 requesting the record in accordance with this subdivision:

7 (1) Within seven business days of receipt of written notice denying 8 the request, the person may file a written appeal from the determination 9 of the agency or the respective house of the state legislature with the 10 head of the agency or respective house of the state legislature, the 11 chief executive officer or governing body or their designated represen-12 tatives.

13 (2) The appeal shall be determined within ten business days of the 14 receipt of the appeal. Written notice of the determination shall be 15 served upon the person, if any, requesting the record, the person who 16 requested the exception and the committee on [~~public access to records~~] 17 open government. The notice shall contain a statement of the reasons for 18 the determination.

19 (d) A proceeding to review an adverse determination pursuant to para-20 graph (c) of this subdivision may be commenced pursuant to article 21 seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules. Such proceeding, when 22 brought by a person seeking an exception from disclosure pursuant to 23 this subdivision, must be commenced within fifteen days of the service 24 of the written notice containing the adverse determination provided for 25 in subparagraph two of paragraph (c) of this subdivision. The proceeding 26 shall be given preference and shall be brought on for argument on such 27 terms and conditions as the presiding justice may direct, not to exceed 28 forty-five days. Appeal to the appellate division of the supreme court 29 must be made in accordance with law, and must be filed within fifteen 30 days after service by a party upon the appellant of a copy of the judg-31 ment or order appealed from and written notice of its entry. An appeal 32 taken from an order of the court requiring disclosure shall be given 33 preference and shall be brought on for argument on such terms and condi-34 tions as the presiding justice may direct, not to exceed sixty days.
35 This action shall be deemed abandoned when the party requesting an 36 exclusion from disclosure fails to serve and file a record and brief 37 within thirty days after the date of the notice of appeal. Failure by 38 the party requesting an exclusion from disclosure to serve and file a 39 record and brief within the allotted time shall result in the dismissal 40 of the appeal.

41 (e) The person requesting an exception from disclosure pursuant to 42 this subdivision shall in all proceedings have the burden of proving 43 entitlement to the exception.

44 (f) Where the agency or the respective house of the state legislature 45 denies access to a record pursuant to paragraph [~~(d)-of~~] (b) of this 46 subdivision in conjunction with subdivision two of section eighty-seven 47 of this article, the agency or respective house of the state legislature 48 shall have the burden of proving that the record falls within the 49 provisions of such exception.

50 (g) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to deny any person 51 access, pursuant to the remaining provisions of this article, to any 52 record or part excepted from disclosure upon the express written consent 53 of the person who had requested the exception.

54 (h) As used in this subdivision the term "agency" or "state agency" 55 means only a state department, board, bureau, division, council or 1 office and any public corporation the majority of whose members are 2 appointed by the governor.

3 (i) As used in this subdivision the term "state legislature" means the 4 legislature as defined in subdivision two of section eighty-six of this 5 article.

6 6. Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit or abridge any 7 otherwise available right of access at law or in equity of any party to 8 records.

9 7. Nothing in this article shall require the disclosure of the home 10 address of an officer or employee, former officer or employee, or of a 11 retiree of a public employees' retirement system; nor shall anything in 12 this article require the disclosure of the name or home address of a 13 beneficiary of a public employees' retirement system or of an applicant 14 for appointment to public employment; provided however, that nothing in 15 this subdivision shall limit or abridge the right of an employee organ-16 ization, certified or recognized for any collective negotiating unit of 17 an employer pursuant to article fourteen of the civil service law, to 18 obtain the name or home address of any officer, employee or retiree of 19 such employer, if such name or home address is otherwise available under 20 this article.

21 8. Any person who, with intent to prevent the public inspection of a 22 record pursuant to this article, willfully conceals or destroys any such 23 record shall be guilty of a violation.

24 9. When records maintained electronically include items of information 25 that would be available under this article, as well as items of informa-26 tion that may be withheld, an agency or respective house of the state 27 legislature in designing its information retrieval methods, whenever 28 practicable and reasonable, shall do so in a manner that permits the 29 segregation and retrieval of available items in order to provide maximum 30 public access.

31 § 5. Subdivisions (t) and (u) of section 105 of the civil practice law 32 and rules, subdivision (u) as relettered by chapter 100 of the laws of

PART II

Section 1. This Part enacts into law major components of legislation that remove unnecessary barriers to reentry of people with criminal histories into society. This Part removes mandatory bars on licensing and employment for people with criminal convictions in the categories enumerated therein and replace them with individualized review processes using the factors set out in article 23-A of the correction law. This Part removes mandatory drivers license suspension for non-driving drug offenses. This Part prohibits disclosure of mugshots and arrest information by amending the freedom of information law. This Part also amends provisions of law to enact into law major components of legislation to prevent the use in a civil context, of past arrest information that did not result in a conviction because no disposition has been reported, or the case has been adjourned in contemplation of dismissal, or because arrest and arraignment charges were not followed by a corresponding conviction on those charges. This information would still be able to be seen and used by law enforcement and in criminal proceedings. Finally, this Part establishes compassionate parole for incarcerated individuals over the age of 55 who have incapacitating medical conditions exacerbated by age. Each component is wholly contained within a Subpart identified as Subparts A through P. Any provision in any section contained within a Subpart, including the effective date of the Subpart, which makes reference to a section "of this act", when used in connection with that particular component, shall be deemed to mean and refer to the corresponding section of the Subpart in which it is found. Section three of this Part sets forth the general effective date of this Part.

(iii) that such games of bingo are to be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this article and in accordance with the rules and regulations of the commission[~~, and~~];

(iv) that the proceeds thereof are to be disposed of as provided by this article[~~, and if the governing body is satisfied~~];

(v) that no commission, salary, compensation, reward or recompense [~~what-so-ever~~] whatsoever will be paid or given to any person holding, operating or conducting or assisting in the holding, operation and conduct of any such games of bingo except as in this article otherwise provided; and

(vi) that no prize will be offered and given in excess of the sum or value of five thousand dollars in any single game of bingo and that the aggregate of all prizes offered and given in all of such games of bingo conducted on a single occasion[~~7~~] under said license shall not exceed the sum or value of fifteen thousand dollars, then the municipality shall issue a license to the applicant for the conduct of bingo upon payment of a license fee of eighteen dollars and seventy-five cents for each bingo occasion[~~, provided, however, that~~].

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this paragraph, the governing body shall refuse to issue a license to an applicant seeking to conduct bingo in premises of a licensed commercial lessor where such governing body determines that the premises presently owned or occupied by such applicant are in every respect adequate and suitable for conducting bingo games.

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

SUBPART F

Section 1. Paragraphs 3 and 4 of subsection (d) of section 2108 of the insurance law are REPEALED, and paragraph 5 is renumbered paragraph 3.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

SUBPART G

Section 1. Section 440-a of the real property law, as amended by chapter 81 of the laws of 1995, the first undesignated paragraph as amended by section 23 of part LL of chapter 56 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

§ 440-a. License required for real estate brokers and salesmen. No person, co-partnership, limited liability company or corporation shall engage in or follow the business or occupation of, or hold himself or itself out or act temporarily or otherwise as a real estate broker or real estate salesman in this state without first procuring a license

1 therefor as provided in this article. No person shall be entitled to a 2 license as a real estate broker under this article, either as an indi-3 vidual or as a member of a co-partnership, or as a member or manager of 4 a limited liability company or as an officer of a corporation, unless he 5 or she is twenty years of age or over, a citizen of the United States or 6 an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence in the United States.
7 No person shall be entitled to a license as a real estate salesman under 8 this article unless he or she is over the age of eighteen years. No 9 person shall be entitled to a license as a real estate broker or real 10 estate salesman under this article who has been convicted in this state 11 or elsewhere of a [~~felony, of a sex offense, as defined in subdivision~~ 12 ~~two of section one hundred sixty-eight-a of the correction law or any~~ 13 ~~offense committed outside of this state which would constitute a sex~~ 14 ~~offense, or a sexually violent offense, as defined in subdivision three~~ 15 ~~of section one hundred sixty-eight-a of the correction law or any~~ 16 ~~offense committed outside this state which would constitute a sexually~~ 17 ~~violent offense, and who has not subsequent to such conviction received~~ 18 ~~executive pardon therefor or a certificate of relief from disabilities~~ 19 ~~or a certificate of good conduct pursuant to article twenty-three of the~~ 20 ~~correction law, to remove the disability under this section because of~~ 21 ~~such conviction]~~ crime, unless the secretary makes a finding in conform-22 ance with all applicable statutory requirements, including those 23 contained in article twenty-three-A of the correction law, that such 24 convictions do not constitute a bar to licensure. No person shall be 25 entitled to a license as a real estate broker or real estate salesman 26 under this article who does not meet the requirements of section 3-503 27 of the general obligations law.

28 Notwithstanding [~~the above~~] anything to the contrary in this section, 29 tenant associations[~~7~~] and not-for-profit corporations authorized in 30 writing by the commissioner of the department of the city of New York 31 charged with enforcement of the housing maintenance code of such city to 32 manage residential property owned by such city or appointed by a court 33 of competent jurisdiction to manage residential property owned by such 34 city shall be exempt from the licensing provisions of this section with 35 respect to the properties so managed.

36 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

37 SUBPART H

38 Section 1. Subdivision 5 of section 336-f of the social services law, 39 as added by section 148 of part B of chapter 436 of the laws of 1997, is 40 amended to read as follows:

41 5. The social services district shall require every private or not-42 for-profit employer that intends to hire one or more work activity 43 participants to certify to the district [~~that~~] whether such employer has 44 [~~not~~], in the past five years, been convicted of a felony or a misdemea-45 nor the underlying basis of which involved workplace safety and health 46 or labor standards. Such employer shall also certify as to all 47 violations issued by the department of labor within the past five years.
48 The social services official in the district in which the participant is 49 placed shall determine whether there is a pattern of convictions or 50 violations sufficient to render the potential employer ineligible.
51 Employers who submit false information under this section shall be 52 subject to criminal prosecution for filing a false instrument.

53 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

1 SUBPART I

2 Section 1. Subdivision 9 of section 394 of the vehicle and traffic 3 law, as separately renumbered by chapters 300 and 464 of the laws of 4 1960, is amended to read as follows:

5 9. Employees. [~~No licensee shall knowingly employ, in connection with~~ 6 ~~a driving school in any capacity whatsoever, any person who has been~~ 7 ~~convicted of a felony, or of any crime involving violence, dishonesty,~~
8 ~~deceit, indecency, degeneracy or moral turpitude~~] A licensee may not 9 employ, in connection with a driving school in any capacity whatsoever, 10 a person who has been convicted of a crime, if, after considering the 11 factors set forth in article twenty-three-A of the correction law, the 12 licensee determines that there is a direct relationship between the 13 conviction and employment in the driving school, or that employment 14 would constitute an unreasonable risk to property or to the safety of 15 students, customers, or employees of the driving school, or to the 16 general public.

17 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

18 SUBPART J

19 Section 1. Legislative findings. This Subpart will remove an overbroad 20 mandatory suspension of drivers' licenses for six months for people 21 convicted of state and federal drug crimes, that is unnecessary to 22 protect the safety of New York roads, as the vehicle and traffic law has 23 other provisions to suspend licenses when drug use has impaired safe 24 driving. The mandatory suspension, and the fees associated with lifting 25 it, interferes with the ability of people convicted of drug crimes to 26 work, attend treatment and otherwise live productive lives, all of which 27 are necessary for their rehabilitation. At any given time, about 8,000 28 New Yorkers have their licenses suspended because of non-driving related 29 drug convictions. This mandatory suspension was instituted in response 30 to federal law requiring states to either suspend the licenses of people 31 convicted of drug offenses, or pass a resolution expressing opposition 32 to the bill, or lose eight percent of federal highway funding. Concur-33 rent with this bill, Resolution ____ is being presented to the legisla-34 ture for their action; the Resolution contains the required statement of 35 opposition to mandatory suspension of driver's licenses for people 36 convicted of drug crimes in order for New York's federal funding for 37 highways to be maintained. By passing the Resolution and removing the 38 mandatory suspension, New York will join 40 other states who have taken 39 this action.

40 § 2. Subparagraphs (v), (vi) and (vii) of paragraph b of subdivision 2 41 of section 510 of the vehicle and traffic law are REPEALED.

42 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

43 SUBPART K

44 Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature finds that law 45 enforcement booking information and photographs, otherwise known as 46 "mugshots," are published on the internet and other public platforms 47 with impunity. An individual's mugshot is displayed publicly even if the 48 arrest does not lead to a conviction, or the conviction is later 49 expunged, sealed, or pardoned. This practice presents an unacceptable 50 invasion of the individual's personal privacy. While there is a well-es-51 tablished Constitutional right for the press and the public to publish

1 government records which are in the public domain or that have been 2 lawfully accessed, arrest and booking information have not been found by 3 courts to have the same public right of access as criminal court 4 proceedings or court filings. Therefore, each state can set access to 5 this information through its Freedom of Information laws. The federal 6 government has already limited access to booking photographs through 7 privacy formulations in its Freedom of Information Act, and the legisla-8 ture hereby declares that New York will follow the same principle to 9 protect its residents from this unwarranted invasion of personal priva-10 cy, absent a specific law enforcement purpose, such as disclosure of a 11 photograph to alert victims or witnesses to come forward to aid in a 12 criminal investigation.

13 § 2. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 89 of the public offi-
14 cers law, as amended by section 11 of part U of chapter 61 of the laws 15 of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

16 (b) An unwarranted invasion of personal privacy includes, but shall 17 not be limited to:

18 i. disclosure of employment, medical or credit histories or personal 19 references of applicants for employment;

20 ii. disclosure of items involving the medical or personal records of a 21 client or patient in a medical facility;

22 iii. sale or release of lists of names and addresses if such lists 23 would be used for solicitation or fund-raising purposes;

24 iv. disclosure of information of a personal nature when disclosure 25 would result in economic or personal hardship to the subject party and 26 such information is not relevant to the work of the agency requesting or 27 maintaining it;

28 v. disclosure of information of a personal nature reported in confi-29 dence to an agency and not relevant to the ordinary work of such agency;

30 vi. information of a personal nature contained in a workers' compen-31 sation record, except as provided by section one hundred ten-a of the 32 workers' compensation law; ~~or~~

33 vii. disclosure of electronic contact information, such as an e-mail 34 address or a social network username, that has been collected from a 35 taxpayer under section one hundred four of the real property tax law; or 36 viii. disclosure of law enforcement booking information about an indi-37 vidual, including booking photographs, unless public release of such 38 information will serve a specific law enforcement purpose and disclosure 39 is not precluded by any state or federal laws.

40 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

42 Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 845-c 43 to read as follows:

44 § 845-c. Criminal history record searches; undisposed cases. 1. When, 45 pursuant to statute or the regulations of the division, the division 46 conducts a search of its criminal history records and returns a report 47 thereon, all references to undisposed cases contained in such criminal 48 history record shall be excluded from such report.

49 2. For purposes of this section, "undisposed case" shall mean a crimi-50 nal action or proceeding identified in the division's criminal history 51 record repository, for which there is no record of an unexecuted warrant 52 of arrest, superior court warrant of arrest, or bench warrant, and for 53 which there is no record of conviction or imposition of sentence or 54 other final disposition, other than the issuance of an apparently unexe-

1 cuted warrant, has been recorded and with respect to which no entry has 2 been made in the division's criminal history records for a period of at 3 least five years preceding the issuance of such report. When a criminal 4 action in the division's criminal history record repository becomes an 5 undisposed case pursuant to this section, the division shall notify the 6 district attorney in the county which has jurisdiction. If the district 7 attorney notifies the division that such case is pending and should not 8 meet the definition of an undisposed case, the case shall not be 9 excluded from such report.

10 3. The provisions of subdivision one of this section shall not apply 11 to criminal history record information: (a) provided by the division to 12 qualified agencies pursuant to subdivision six of section eight hundred 13 thirty-seven of this article, or to federal or state law enforcement 14 agencies, for criminal justice purposes; (b) prepared solely for a bona 15 fide research purpose; or (c) prepared for the internal record keeping 16 or case management purposes of the division.

17 § 2. Subdivision 2 of section 212 of the judiciary law is amended by 18 adding a new paragraph (x) to read as follows:

19 (x) Take such actions and adopt such measures as may be necessary to 20 ensure that no written or electronic report of a criminal history record 21 search conducted by the office of court administration, other than a 22 search conducted solely for the internal recordkeeping or case manage-23 ment purposes of the judiciary or for a bona fide research purpose, 24 contains information relating to an undisposed case. For purposes of 25 this paragraph, "undisposed case" shall mean a criminal action or 26 proceeding, or an arrest incident, appearing in the criminal history 27 records of the office of court administration for which no conviction, 28 imposition of sentence, order of removal or other final disposition, 29 other than the issuance of an apparently unexecuted warrant, has been 30 recorded and with respect to which no entry has been made in such 31 records for a period of at least five years preceding the issuance of 32 such report. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall be deemed to 33 permit or require the release, disclosure or other dissemination by the 34 office of court administration of criminal history record information 35 that has been sealed in accordance with law.

36 § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 37 it shall have become a law and shall apply to searches of criminal 38 history records conducted on or after such date. Prior to such effective 39 date, the division of criminal justice services, in consultation with 40 the state administrator of the unified court system as well as any other 41 public or private agency, shall undertake such measures as may be neces-42 sary and appropriate to update its criminal history records with respect 43 to criminal cases and arrest incidents for which no final disposition 44 has been reported.

45 SUBPART M

46 Section 1. The commissioner of the division of criminal justice 47 services is authorized to direct that records of any action or proceed-48 ing terminated in favor of the accused, as defined by section 160.50 of 49 the criminal procedure law, on or after September 1, 1976 and before 50 November 1, 1991 maintained by the division of criminal justice services 51 be sealed in the manner provided for by section 160.50 of the criminal 52 procedure law. The commissioner of the division of criminal justice 53 services is further authorized to direct that records of any action or 54 proceeding terminated by a conviction for a traffic infraction or a violation, other than a violation of loitering as described in paragraph (d) or (e) of subdivision 1 of section 160.50 of the criminal procedure law or the violation of operating a motor vehicle while ability impaired as described in subdivision one of section 1192 of the vehicle and traffic law on or after September 1, 1980 and before November 1, 1991 maintained by the division of criminal justice services be sealed in the manner provided for by section 160.55 of the criminal procedure law.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law.

SUBPART N

Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 845-d to read as follows:

§ 845-d. Criminal record searches; arrest charges without corresponding convictions or violations. 1. When, pursuant to statute or the regulations of the division, the division conducts a search of its criminal history records and returns a report thereon, in arrest cycles that result in at least one conviction or violation, all arrest and arraignment charges in that cycle that do not result in a corresponding conviction shall be excluded from such report.

2. For purposes of this section, "corresponding conviction" shall mean a conviction or violation charge that matches one or more of the arrest or arraignment charges.

3. The provisions of subdivision one of this section shall not apply to criminal history records: (a) provided by the division to qualified agencies pursuant to subdivision six of section eight hundred thirty-seven of this article, or to federal or state law enforcement agencies, for criminal justice purposes; (b) prepared solely for a bona fide research purpose; or (c) prepared for the internal record keeping or case management purposes of the division.

§ 2. Subdivision 2 of section 212 of the judiciary law is amended by adding a new paragraph (y) to read as follows:

(y) Take such actions and adopt such measures as may be necessary to ensure that no written or electronic report of a criminal history record search conducted by the office of court administration that contains an arrest cycle and a criminal conviction or violation resulting from that arrest, other than a search conducted for the internal recordkeeping or case management purposes of the judiciary, or produced to the court, the people, and defense counsel in a criminal proceeding, or for a bona fide research purpose, contains information relating to arrest and arraignment charges that do not result in a corresponding conviction. For purposes of this section, "corresponding conviction" shall mean a conviction or violation charge that matches one or more of the arrest or arraignment charges.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

SUBPART O

Section 1. This Subpart amends the human rights law to specify that considering arrests that are followed by an order adjourning the criminal action in contemplation of dismissal, which adjournments are not convictions or admissions of guilt under section 170.55 of the criminal procedure law, is an unlawful discriminatory practice for civil purposes. This Subpart amends the human rights law to clarify as well that adjourning the criminal action in contemplation of dismissal is not

1 a pending arrest for purposes of this Subpart, unless the case has been 2 restored to the calendar. This Subpart also amends the same section of 3 the law to add housing and volunteer positions to employment and licens-4 ing to the civil purposes for which past arrest information that did not 5 result in a conviction or violation can be used.

6 § 2. Subdivision 16 of section 296 of the executive law, as amended by 7 section 48-a of part WWW of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended
8 to read as follows:

9 16. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice, unless specif-10 ically required or permitted by statute, for any person, agency, bureau, 11 corporation or association, including the state and any political subdi-12 vision thereof, to make any inquiry about, whether in any form of appli-13 cation or otherwise, or to act upon adversely to the individual 14 involved, any arrest or criminal accusation of such individual not then 15 pending against that individual which was followed by a termination of 16 that criminal action or proceeding in favor of such individual, as 17 defined in subdivision two of section 160.50 of the criminal procedure 18 law, or by an order adjourning the criminal action in contemplation of 19 dismissal, pursuant to section 170.55, 170.56, 210.46, 210.47, or 215.10 20 of the criminal procedure law, or by a youthful offender adjudication, 21 as defined in subdivision one of section 720.35 of the criminal proce-22 dure law, or by a conviction for a violation sealed pursuant to section 23 160.55 of the criminal procedure law or by a conviction which is sealed 24 pursuant to section 160.59 or 160.58 of the criminal procedure law, in 25 connection with the licensing, housing, employment, including volunteer 26 positions, or providing of credit or insurance to such individual; 27 provided, further, that no person shall be required to divulge informa-28 tion pertaining to any arrest or criminal accusation of such individual 29 not then pending against that individual which was followed by a termi-30 nation of that criminal action or proceeding in favor of such individ-31 ual, as defined in subdivision two of section 160.50 of the criminal 32 procedure law, or by an order adjourning the criminal action in contem-33 plation of dismissal, pursuant to section 170.55 or 170.56 of the crimi-34 nal procedure law, or by a youthful offender adjudication, as defined in 35 subdivision one of section 720.35 of the criminal procedure law, or by a 36 conviction for a violation sealed pursuant to section 160.55 of the 37 criminal procedure law, or by a conviction which is sealed pursuant to 38 section 160.58 or 160.59 of the criminal procedure law. The provisions 39 of this subdivision shall not apply to the licensing activities of 40 governmental bodies in relation to the regulation of guns, firearms and 41 other deadly weapons or in relation to an application for employment as 42 a police officer or peace officer as those terms are defined in subdivi-43 sions thirty-three and thirty-four of section 1.20 of the criminal 44 procedure law; provided further that the provisions of this subdivision 45 shall not apply to an application for employment or membership in any 46 law enforcement agency with respect to any arrest or criminal accusation 47 which was followed by a youthful offender adjudication, as defined in 48 subdivision one of section 720.35 of the criminal procedure law, or by a 49 conviction for a violation sealed pursuant to section 160.55 of the 50 criminal procedure law, or by a conviction which is sealed pursuant to 51 section 160.58 or 160.59 of the criminal procedure law. For purposes of 52 this subdivision, an action which has been adjourned in contemplation of 53 dismissal, pursuant to section 170.55 or 170.56 of the criminal proce-54 dure law, shall not be considered a pending action, unless the case has 55 been restored to the calendar.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law.

SUBPART P

Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 259-t to read as follows:

§ 259-t. Release on compassionate parole for inmates who are affected by an age-related debility. 1. (a) The board shall have the power to release on compassionate parole any inmate who is at least fifty-five years of age, serving an indeterminate or determinate sentence of imprisonment who, pursuant to subdivision two of this section, has been certified to be suffering from a chronic or serious condition, disease, syndrome, or infirmity, exacerbated by age, that has rendered the inmate so physically or cognitively debilitated or incapacitated that the ability to provide self-care within the environment of a correctional facility is substantially diminished, provided, however, that no inmate serving a sentence imposed upon a conviction for murder in the first degree, aggravated murder or an attempt or conspiracy to commit murder in the first degree or aggravated murder or a sentence of life without parole shall be eligible for such release, and provided further that no inmate shall be eligible for such release unless in the case of an indeterminate sentence he or she has served at least one-half of the minimum period of the sentence and in the case of a determinate sentence he or she has served at least one-half of the term of his or her determinate sentence. Solely for the purpose of determining compassionate parole eligibility pursuant to this section, such one-half of the minimum period of the indeterminate sentence and one-half of the term of the determinate sentence shall not be credited with any time served under the jurisdiction of the department prior to the commencement of such sentence pursuant to the opening paragraph of subdivision one of section 70.30 of the penal law or subdivision two-a of section 70.30 of the penal law, except to the extent authorized by subdivision three of section 70.30 of the penal law.

(b) Such release shall be granted only after the board considers whether, in light of the inmate's condition, there is a reasonable probability that the inmate, if released, will live and remain at liberty without violating the law, and that such release is not incompatible with the welfare of society and will not so deprecate the seriousness of the crime as to undermine respect for the law, and shall be subject to the limits and conditions specified in subdivision four of this section. In making this determination, the board shall consider: (i) the factors described in subdivision two of section two hundred fifty-nine-i of this article; (ii) the nature of the inmate's conditions, diseases, syndromes or infirmities and the level of care; (iii) the amount of time the inmate must serve before becoming eligible for release pursuant to section two hundred fifty-nine-i of this article; (iv) the current age of the inmate and his or her age at the time of the crime; and (v) any other relevant factor.

(c) The board shall afford notice to the sentencing court, the district attorney, the attorney for the inmate and, where necessary pursuant to subdivision two of section two hundred fifty-nine-i of this article, the crime victim, that the inmate is being considered for release pursuant to this section and the parties receiving notice shall have thirty days to comment on the release of the inmate. Release on

1 compassionate parole shall not be granted until the expiration of the 2 comment period provided for in this paragraph.

3 2. (a) The commissioner, on the commissioner's own initiative or at 4 the request of an inmate, or an inmate's spouse, relative or attorney, 5 may, in the exercise of the commissioner's discretion, direct that an 6 investigation be undertaken to determine whether an assessment should be 7 made of an inmate who appears to be suffering from chronic or serious 8 conditions, diseases, syndromes or infirmities, exacerbated by advanced 9 age that has rendered the inmate so physically or cognitively debili-10 tated or incapacitated that the ability to provide self-care within the 11 environment of a correctional facility is substantially diminished. Any 12 such medical assessment shall be made by a physician licensed to prac-13 tice medicine in this state pursuant to section sixty-five hundred twen-14 ty-four of the education law. Such physician shall either be employed by 15 the department, shall render professional services at the request of the 16 department, or shall be employed by a hospital or medical facility used 17 by the department for the medical treatment of inmates. The assessment 18 shall be reported to the commissioner by way of the deputy commissioner 19 for health services or the chief medical officer of the facility and 20 shall include but shall not be limited to a description of the condi-21 tions, diseases or syndromes suffered by the inmate, a prognosis 22 concerning the likelihood that the inmate will not recover from such 23 conditions, diseases or syndromes, a description of the inmate's phys-24 ical or cognitive incapacity which shall include a prediction respecting 25 the likely duration of the incapacity, and a statement by the physician 26 of whether the inmate is so debilitated or incapacitated as to be 27 severely restricted in his or her ability to self-ambulate or to perform 28 significant activities of daily living. This assessment also shall 29 include a recommendation of the type and level of services and level of 30 care the inmate would require if granted compassionate parole and a 31 recommendation for the types of settings in which the services and 32 treatment should be given.

33 (b) The commissioner, or the commissioner's designee, shall review the 34 assessment and may certify that the inmate is suffering from a chronic 35 or serious condition, disease, syndrome or infirmity, exacerbated by 36 age, that has rendered the inmate so physically or cognitively debili-37 tated or incapacitated that the ability to provide self-care within the 38 environment of a correctional facility is substantially diminished. If 39 the commissioner does not so certify then the inmate shall not be 40 referred to the board for consideration for release on compassionate 41 parole. If the commissioner does so certify, then the commissioner 42 shall, within seven working days of receipt of such assessment, refer 43 the inmate to the board for consideration for release on compassionate 44 parole. However, an inmate will not be referred to the board of parole 45 with diseases, conditions, syndromes or infirmities that pre-existed 46 incarceration unless certified by a physician that such diseases, condi-47 tions, syndromes or infirmities, have progressed to render the inmate so 48 physically or cognitively debilitated or incapacitated that the ability 49 to provide self-care within the environment of a correctional facility 50 is substantially diminished.

51 3. Any certification by the commissioner or the commissioner's desig-52 nee pursuant to this section shall be deemed a judicial function and 53 shall not be reviewable if done in accordance with law.

54 4. (a) Once an inmate is released on compassionate parole, that 55 releasee will then be supervised by the department pursuant to paragraph

1 (b) of subdivision two of section two hundred fifty-nine-i of this arti-
2 cle.

3 (b) The board may require as a condition of release on compassionate 4 parole that the releasee agree to remain under the care of a physician 5 while on compassionate parole and in a hospital established pursuant to 6 article twenty-eight of the public health law, nursing home established 7 pursuant to article twenty-eight-a of the public health law, a hospice 8 established pursuant to article forty of the public health law or any 9 other placement, including a residence with family or others, that can 10 provide appropriate medical and other necessary compassionate care as 11 recommended by the medical assessment required by subdivision two of 12 this section. For those who are released pursuant to this subdivision, a 13 discharge plan shall be completed and state that the availability of the 14 placement has been confirmed, and by whom. Notwithstanding any other 15 provision of law, when an inmate who qualifies for release under this 16 section is cognitively incapable of signing the requisite documentation 17 to effectuate the discharge plan and, after a diligent search no person 18 has been identified who could otherwise be appointed as the inmate's 19 guardian by a court of competent jurisdiction, then, solely for the 20 purpose of implementing the discharge plan, the facility health services 21 director at the facility where the inmate is currently incarcerated 22 shall be lawfully empowered to act as the inmate's guardian for the 23 purpose of effectuating the discharge.

24 (c) Where appropriate, the board shall require as a condition of 26 at reduced supervision ratios.

27 5. A denial of release on compassionate parole shall not preclude the 28 inmate from reapplying for compassionate parole or otherwise affect an 29 inmate's eligibility for any other form of release provided for by law.

30 6. To the extent that any provision of this section requires disclo-31 sure of medical information for the purpose of processing an application 32 or making a decision, regarding release on compassionate parole or for 33 the purpose of appropriately supervising a person released on compas-

36 this section shall be controlling.

37 7. The commissioner and the chair of the board shall be authorized to 38 promulgate rules and regulations for their respective agencies to imple-

54 the custody of the department and the reasons for return.

55 § 2. This act shall take effect April 1, 2019.

§ 2. Severability clause. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of the legislature that this act would have been enacted even if such invalid provisions had not been included herein.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately provided, however, that the applicable effective date of Subparts A through P of this act shall be as specifically set forth in the last section of such Subparts.

20 of the laws of 1963, is amended to read as follows:

21 § 57. Continuous recruitment for certain positions. Notwithstanding 22 any other provisions of this chapter or any other law, the civil service 23 department or a municipal commission may establish a continuing eligible 24 list for any class of positions for which it finds [~~inadequate numbers~~ 25 ~~of well-qualified persons available for recruitment~~] such lists appro-26 priate. Names of eligibles shall be inserted in such list from time to 27 time as applicants are tested and found qualified in examinations held 28 at such intervals as may be prescribed by the civil service department 29 or municipal commission having jurisdiction. Such successive examina-30 tions shall, so far as practicable, be constructed and rated so as to be 31 equivalent tests of the merit and fitness of candidates. The name of any 32 candidate who passes any such examination and who is otherwise qualified 33 shall be placed on the continuing eligible list in the rank correspond-34 ing to his final rating on such examination. The period of eligibility 35 of successful candidates for certification and appointment from such 36 continuing eligible list, as a result of any such examination, shall be 37 fixed by the civil service department or municipal commission but, 38 except as a list may reach an announced terminal date, such period shall 39 not be less than one year; nor shall such period of eligibility exceed 40 four years. Subject to such conditions and limitations as the civil 47 such additional credit, the eligible list shall be deemed to be estab-48 lished on the date on which his name is added thereto.

49 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

8 opportunity as employees in the competitive class to take promotion 9 examinations [~~if such examinations are to be held in conjunction with~~ 10 ~~open competitive examinations~~].

11 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

12 PART NN

13 Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 121 of the civil 14 service law, as added by chapter 790 of the laws of 1958, is amended to 15 read as follows:

16 (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subdivi-17 sion, the annual salary of any position, compensable on an annual basis, 18 which is classified or reclassified, or which is allocated or reallo-

20 not be reduced for the then [~~permanent~~] incumbent by reason of any 21 provision of this article [~~so long as such position is held by the then~~ 22 ~~permanent incumbent~~].

23 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

24 PART OO

25 Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 70.15 of the penal law, as amended 26 by chapter 291 of the laws of 1993, is amended to read as follows:

27 1. Class A misdemeanor. A sentence of imprisonment for a class A 28 misdemeanor shall be a definite sentence. When such a sentence is 29 imposed the term shall be fixed by the court, and shall not exceed [~~one~~ 30 ~~year~~] three hundred sixty-four days; provided, however, that a sentence 31 of imprisonment imposed upon a conviction of criminal possession of a 32 weapon in the fourth degree as defined in subdivision one of section 33 265.01 must be for a period of no less than [~~one year~~] three hundred 34 sixty-four days when the conviction was the result of a plea of guilty 35 entered in satisfaction of an indictment or any count thereof charging 36 the defendant with the class D violent felony offense of criminal 37 possession of a weapon in the third degree as defined in subdivision 38 four of section 265.02, except that the court may impose any other 39 sentence authorized by law upon a person who has not been previously 40 convicted in the five years immediately preceding the commission of the 41 offense for a felony or a class A misdemeanor defined in this chapter, 42 if the court having regard to the nature and circumstances of the crime 43 and to the history and character of the defendant, finds on the record 44 that such sentence would be unduly harsh and that the alternative 45 sentence would be consistent with public safety and does not deprecate 46 the seriousness of the crime.

47 § 2. Section 70.15 of the penal law is amended by adding a new subdivi-48 sion 1-a to read as follows:

49 1-a. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, whenever the 2 after the effective date of this subdivision, for a misdemeanor 3 conviction in this state, such phrase shall mean, be interpreted and be 4 applied as three hundred sixty-four days.

5 (b) The amendatory provisions of this subdivision are ameliorative and 6 shall apply to all persons who are sentenced before, on or after the 7 effective date of this subdivision, for a crime committed before, on or 8 after the effective date of this subdivision.

9 (c) Any sentence for a misdemeanor conviction imposed prior to the 10 effective date of this subdivision that is a definite sentence of impri-11 sonment of one year, or three hundred sixty-five days, shall, by opera-12 tion of law, be changed to, mean and be interpreted and applied as a 13 sentence of three hundred sixty-four days. In addition to any other 14 right of a person to obtain a record of a proceeding against him or her, 15 a person so sentenced prior to the effective date of this subdivision 16 shall be entitled to obtain, from the criminal court or the clerk there-17 of, a certificate of conviction, as described in subdivision one of 18 section 60.60 of the criminal procedure law, setting forth such sentence 19 as the sentence specified in this paragraph.

20 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

21 PART PP

22 Section 1. The opening paragraph and paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of 23 section 1311 of the civil practice law and rules, the opening paragraph 24 as amended by chapter 655 of the laws of 1990 and paragraph (a) as added 25 by chapter 669 of the laws of 1984, are amended to read as follows:

26 A civil action may be commenced by the appropriate claiming authority 27 against a criminal defendant to recover the property which constitutes 28 the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, an instru-29 mentality of a crime or the real property instrumentality of a crime [~~or~~ 30 ~~to recover a money judgment in an amount equivalent in value to the~~ 31 ~~property which constitutes the proceeds of a crime, the substituted~~ 32 ~~proceeds of a crime, an instrumentality of a crime, or the real property~~
33 ~~instrumentality of a crime~~]. A civil action may be commenced against a 34 non-criminal defendant to recover the property which constitutes the 35 proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, an instrumen-36 tality of a crime, or the real property instrumentality of a crime 37 provided, however, that a judgment of forfeiture predicated upon clause
38 (A) of subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (b) of subdivision three [~~hereof~~ 39 of this section] shall be limited to the amount of the proceeds of the 40 crime. Any action under this article must be commenced within five years 41 of the commission of the crime and shall be civil, remedial, and in 42 personam in nature and shall not be deemed to be a penalty or criminal 43 forfeiture for any purpose. Except as otherwise specially provided by 44 statute, the proceedings under this article shall be governed by this 45 chapter. An action under this article is not a criminal proceeding and 46 may not be deemed to be a previous prosecution under article forty of 47 the criminal procedure law.

48 (a) Actions relating to post-conviction forfeiture crimes. An action 49 relating to a post-conviction forfeiture crime must be grounded upon a 50 conviction of a felony defined in subdivision five of section one thou-51 sand three hundred ten of this article[~~, or upon criminal activity aris-~~ 52 ~~ing from a common scheme or plan of which such a conviction is a part,~~] 53 or upon a count of an indictment or information alleging a felony which 54 was dismissed at the time of a plea of guilty to a felony in satisfaction of such count. A court may not grant forfeiture until such conviction has occurred. However, an action may be commenced, and a court may grant a provisional remedy provided under this article, prior to such conviction having occurred. An action under this paragraph must be dismissed at any time after sixty days of the commencement of the action unless the conviction upon which the action is grounded has occurred, or an indictment or information upon which the asserted conviction is to be based is pending in a superior court. An action under this paragraph shall be stayed during the pendency of a criminal action which is related to it; provided, however, that such stay shall not prevent the granting or continuance of any provisional remedy provided under this article or any other provisions of law.

§ 2. The civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new section 1311-b to read as follows:

§ 1311-b. Money judgment. If a claiming authority obtains a forfeiture judgment against a defendant for the proceeds, substituted proceeds, instrumentality of a crime or real property instrumentality of a crime, but is unable to locate all or part of any such property, the claiming authority may apply to the court for a money judgment against the defendant in the amount of the value of the forfeited property that cannot be located. The defendant shall have the right to challenge the valuation of any property that is the basis for such an application. The claiming authority shall have the burden of establishing the value of the property under this section by a preponderance of the evidence.

§ 3. Subdivisions 1, 3 and 4 of section 1312 of the civil practice law and rules, subdivision 1 as added by chapter 669 of the laws of 1984, subdivision 3 as amended and subdivision 4 as added by chapter 655 of the laws of 1990, are amended to read as follows:

1. The provisional remedies of attachment, injunction, receivership and notice of pendency provided for herein, shall be available in all actions to recover property [~~or for a money judgment~~] under this article.

3. A court may grant an application for a provisional remedy when it determines that: (a) there is a substantial probability that the claiming authority will be able to demonstrate at trial that the property is the proceeds, substituted proceeds, instrumentality of the crime or real property instrumentality of the crime, that the claiming authority will prevail on the issue of forfeiture, and that failure to enter the order may result in the property being destroyed, removed from the jurisdiction of the court, or otherwise be unavailable for forfeiture; (b) the need to preserve the availability of the property through the entry of the requested order outweighs the hardship on any party against whom the order may operate; and (c) in an action relating to real property, that entry of the requested order will not substantially diminish, impair, or terminate the lawful property interest in such real property of any person or persons other than the defendant or defendants.

4. Upon motion of any party against whom a provisional remedy granted pursuant to this article is in effect, the court may issue an order modifying or vacating such provisional remedy if necessary to permit the moving party to obtain funds for the payment of reasonable living expenses, other costs or expenses related to the maintenance, operation, or preservation of property which is the subject of any such provisional remedy or reasonable and bona fide attorneys' fees and expenses for the representation of the defendant in the forfeiture proceeding or in a related criminal matter relating thereto, payment for which is not otherwise available from assets of the defendant which are not subject

1 to such provisional remedy. Any such motion shall be supported by an 2 affidavit establishing the unavailability of other assets of the moving 3 party which are not the subject of such provisional remedy for payment 4 of such expenses or fees. That funds sought to be released under this 5 subdivision are alleged to be the proceeds, substituted proceeds, 6 instrumentality of a crime or real property instrumentality of a crime 7 shall not be a factor for the court in considering and determining a 8 motion made pursuant to this subdivision.

9 § 4. The opening paragraph of subdivision 2 of section 1349 of the 10 civil practice law and rules, as added by chapter 655 of the laws of 11 1990, is amended to read as follows:

12 If any other provision of law expressly governs the manner of disposi-13 tion of property subject to the judgment or order of forfeiture, that 14 provision of law shall be controlling, with the exception that, notwith-15 standing the provisions of any other law, all forfeited monies and 16 proceeds from forfeited property shall be deposited into and disbursed 17 from an asset forfeiture escrow fund established pursuant to section 18 six-v of the general municipal law, which shall govern the maintenance 19 of such monies and proceeds from forfeited property. Upon application 20 by a claiming agent for reimbursement of moneys directly expended by a 21 claiming agent in the underlying criminal investigation for the purchase 22 of contraband which were converted into a non-monetary form or which 23 have not been otherwise recovered, the court shall direct such 24 reimbursement from money forfeited pursuant to this article. Upon appli-25 cation of the claiming agent, the court may direct that any vehicles, 26 vessels or aircraft forfeited pursuant to this article be retained by 27 the claiming agent for law enforcement purposes, unless the court deter-28 mines that such property is subject to a perfected lien, in which case 29 the court may not direct that the property be retained unless all such 30 liens on the property to be retained have been satisfied or pursuant to 31 the court's order will be satisfied. In the absence of an application by 32 the claiming agent, the claiming authority may apply to the court to 33 retain such property for law enforcement purposes. Upon such applica-34 tion, the court may direct that such property be retained by the claim-35 ing authority for law enforcement purposes, unless the court determines 36 that such property is subject to a perfected lien. If not so retained, 37 the judgment or order shall direct the claiming authority to sell the 38 property in accordance with article fifty-one of this chapter, and that 581-203. Proceeding for judgment of parentage of a child born pursuant to a gestational carrier arrangement.

581-204. Judgment of parentage for intended parents who are spouses.

581-205. Jurisdiction.

§ 581-201. Judgment of parentage. (a) A civil proceeding may be maintained to adjudicate the parentage of a child under the circumstances set forth in this article. This proceeding is governed by the civil practice law and rules.

1 (b) A judgment of parentage may be issued prior to birth but shall not 2 become effective until the birth of the child.

3 (c) A judgment of parentage shall be issued by the court upon the 4 petition of (1) a child, or (2) a parent or a presumed parent, or (3) a 5 participant, or (4) the support/enforcement agency or other governmental 6 agency authorized by other law, or (5) a representative authorized by 7 law to act for an individual who would otherwise be entitled to maintain 8 a proceeding but who is deceased, incapacitated, or a minor, in order to 9 legally establish the child-parent relationship of either a child born 10 through assisted reproduction under part three of this article or a 11 child born pursuant to a gestational carrier arrangement under part four 12 of this article.

13 § 581-202. Proceeding for judgment of parentage of a child born 14 through assisted reproduction. (a) A proceeding for a judgment of 15 parentage may be commenced:

16 (1) if the intended parent resides in New York state, in the county
17 where the intended parent resides any time after pregnancy is achieved 18 or in the county where the child was born or resides; or

19 (2) if the intended parent and child do not reside in New York state, 20 up to ninety days after the birth of the child in the county where the 21 child was born.

22 (b) The petition for a judgment of parentage must be verified and 23 include the following:

24 (1) a statement that the intended parent has been a resident of the 25 state for at least ninety days or if the intended parent is not a New 26 York state resident, that the child was born in the state; and 27 (2) a statement from the gestating parent that the gestating parent 28 became pregnant as a result of the donation of the gamete or embryo and 29 a representation of non-access during the time of conception; and 30 (3) a statement that the non-gestating intended parent consented to 31 assisted reproduction pursuant to section 581-304 of this article; and 32 (4) proof of donor's donative intent.

33 (c) The following shall be deemed sufficient proof of a donor's dona-34 tive intent for purposes of this section:

35 (1) in the case of an anonymous donor or where gametes or embryos have 36 previously been relinquished to a gamete or embryo storage facility, a 37 statement from the gamete or embryo storage facility with custody of the 38 gametes or embryos that the donor does not retain any parental or 39 proprietary interest in the gametes or embryos; or 40 (2) in the case of a donation from a known donor, a record from the 41 gamete or embryo donor acknowledging the donation and confirming that 42 the donor has no parental or proprietary interest in the gametes or 43 embryos. The record shall be signed by the gamete or embryo donor:

44 i. before a notary public, or

45 ii. before two witnesses who are not the intended parents, or 46 iii. before the health care provider, who supervised the donation.

47 (3) In the absence of a record pursuant to paragraph two of this 48 subdivision, notice shall be given to the donor at least twenty days 49 prior to the proceeding by delivery of a copy of the petition and 50 notice. Upon a showing to the court, by affidavit or otherwise, on or 51 before the date of the proceeding or within such further time as the 52 court may allow, that personal service cannot be effected at the donor's 53 last known address with reasonable effort, notice may be given, without 54 prior court order therefore, at least twenty days prior to the proceed-55 ing by registered or certified mail directed to the donor's last known

1 address. Notice by publication shall not be required to be given to a 2 donor entitled to notice pursuant to the provisions of this section.

3 (4) Notwithstanding the above, where sperm is provided under the 4 supervision of a health care provider to someone other than the sperm 5 provider's intimate partner or spouse without a record of the sperm 6 provider's intent to parent, the sperm provider is presumed to be a 7 Donor and notice is not required.

8 (d) Where a petition for parentage demonstrates the consent of the 9 intended parent to assisted reproduction, the donative intent of the 10 gamete or embryo donor and that the pregnancy resulted from the 11 donation, the court shall issue a judgment of parentage:

12 (1) declaring, that upon the birth of the child, the intended parent 13 is the only legal parent of the child; and 14 (2) ordering the intended parent to assume sole responsibility for the 15 maintenance and support of the child immediately upon the birth of the 16 child; and

17 (3) ordering that upon the birth of the child, a copy of the judgment
18 of parentage be served on the (i) department of health or New York city 19 department of mental health and hygiene, or (ii) registrar of births in 20 the hospital where the child is born and directing that the hospital 21 report the parentage of the child to the appropriate department of 22 health in conformity with the court order. If an original birth certif-23 icate has already issued, the court shall issue an order directing the 24 appropriate department of health to amend the birth certificate in an 25 expedited manner and seal the previously issued birth certificate.

26 § 581-203. Proceeding for judgment of parentage of a child born pursu-27 ant to a gestational carrier arrangement. (a) The proceeding may be 28 commenced at any time after the gestational agreement has been executed 29 by all of the parties. Any party to the gestational agreement not join-30 ing in the petition must be served with notice of the proceeding. Fail-31 ure to respond to the notice shall be considered a default and no 32 further notice shall be required.

33 (b) The petition for a judgment of parentage must be verified and 34 include the following:

35 (1) A statement that the gestational carrier or the intended parent 36 has been a resident of the state for at least ninety days at the time 37 the gestational agreement was executed; and

38 (2) A certification from the attorneys representing the petitioners 39 that the parties are eligible to participate in the gestational carrier 40 arrangement as required by section 581-404 of this article and that the 41 gestational agreement contains the required terms under section 581-405 42 of this article; and

43 (3) A statement that the parties entered into the gestational agree-44 ment knowingly and voluntarily.

45 (c) Where a petition satisfies subdivision (b) of this section, the 46 court shall issue a judgment of parentage, without additional 47 proceedings or documentation:

48 (1) Declaring, that upon the birth of a child born during the term of 49 the gestational agreement, the intended parent is the legal parent of 50 the child; and

51 (2) Declaring, that upon the birth of a child born during the term of 52 the gestational agreement, the gestational carrier, and the gestational 53 carrier's spouse, if any, is not the legal parent of the child; and

54 (3) Ordering the gestational carrier and the gestational carrier's 55 spouse, if any, to transfer the child to the intended parent if this has 56 not already occurred; and

(4) Ordering the intended parent to assume sole responsibility for the maintenance and support of the child immediately upon the birth of the child; and

(5) Ordering that when the child is born, a copy of the judgment of parentage be served on the (i) department of health or New York city department of mental health and hygiene, or (ii) registrar of births in the hospital where the child is born and directing that the hospital report the parentage of the child to the appropriate department of health in conformity with the court order. If an original birth certificate has already issued, the court shall issue an order directing the appropriate department of health to amend the birth certificate in an expedited manner and seal the previously issued birth certificate.

(d) In the event the certification required by paragraph two of subdivision (b) of this section cannot be made because of a technical or non-substantial deviation from the requirements of sections 581-404 or 581-405 of this article; the court may nevertheless enforce the agreement and issue an order of parentage if the court determines the agreement is in substantial compliance with the requirements of sections 581-404 and 581-405 of this article.

(e) The agreement of the intended parent to pay reasonable compensation to the gestational carrier in excess of reasonable medical and ancillary costs shall not be a bar to the issuance of a judgment of parentage.

§ 581-204. Judgment of parentage for intended parents who are spouses. Notwithstanding or without limitation on presumptions of parentage that apply, a judgment of parentage may be obtained under this part by intended parents who are each other's spouse.

§ 581-205. Jurisdiction. Proceedings pursuant to this article may be instituted in the supreme, family or surrogate's court.

PART 3

CHILD OF ASSISTED REPRODUCTION

Section 581-301. Scope of article.

581-302. Status of donor.

581-303. Parentage of child of assisted reproduction.

581-304. Consent to assisted reproduction.

581-305. Limitation on spouses' dispute of parentage of child of assisted reproduction.

581-306. Effect of embryo disposition agreement between intended parents which transfers custody and control to one intended parent.

581-307. Effect of death of intended parent.

§ 581-301. Scope of article. This article does not apply to the birth of a child conceived by means of sexual intercourse.

§ 581-302. Status of donor. A donor is not a parent of a child conceived by means of assisted reproduction.

§ 581-303. Parentage of child of assisted reproduction. (a) An individual who provides gametes for assisted reproduction with the intent to be a parent of the child and consents to assisted reproduction with the consent of the gestating parent as provided in section 581-304 of this part, is a parent of the resulting child for all legal purposes.

(b) Upon application by any participant, the court shall issue a judgment of parentage to any participant who is a parent pursuant to this act.

§ 581-304. Consent to assisted reproduction. (a) Where the intended parent who gives birth to a child by means of assisted reproduction is a

1 spouse, the consent of both spouses to the assisted reproduction is 2 presumed and neither spouse may challenge the parentage of the child, 3 except as provided in section 581-305 of this part.

4 (b) Where the intended parent who gives birth to a child by means of 5 assisted reproduction is not a spouse, the consent to the assisted 6 reproduction must be in a record in such a manner as to indicate the 7 mutual agreement of the intended parents to conceive and parent a child 8 together.

9 (c) The absence of a record described in subdivision (b) of this 10 section shall not preclude a finding that such consent existed if the 11 court finds by clear and convincing evidence that at the time of the 12 assisted reproduction the intended parents agreed to conceive and parent 13 the child together.

14 § 581-305. Limitation on spouses' dispute of parentage of child of 15 assisted reproduction. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 16 (b) of this section, neither spouse may challenge the presumption of 17 parentage of the child unless:

18 (1) Within two years after learning of the birth of the child a 19 proceeding is commenced to adjudicate parentage; and 20 (2) The court finds by clear and convincing evidence that either 21 spouse did not consent for the non-gestating spouse to be a parent of 22 the child.

23 (b) A proceeding for a judgment of parentage may be maintained at any 24 time if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that:

25 (1) The spouse did not consent to assisted reproduction by the indi-26 vidual who gave birth; and

27 (2) The spouse and the individual who gave birth have not cohabited 28 since the spouse knew or had reason to know of the pregnancy; and 29 (3) The spouse never openly held out the child as his or her own.

30 (c) The limitation provided in this section applies to a spousal 31 relationship that has been declared invalid after assisted reproduction 32 or artificial insemination.

33 § 581-306. Effect of embryo disposition agreement between intended 34 parents which transfers custody and control to one intended parent. (a) 35 An embryo disposition agreement between intended parents with joint 36 custody and control of an embryo shall be binding under the following 37 circumstances:

38 (1) it is in writing;

39 (2) each intended parent had the advice of counsel prior to its 40 execution; and

41 (3) where the intended parents are married, transfer of custody and 42 control occurs only upon divorce.

43 (b) The intended parent who transfers custody and control of the 44 embryo is not a parent of any child born from the embryo unless the 45 agreement states that he or she consents to be a parent.

46 (c) If the intended parent transferring custody and control consents 47 to be a parent, he or she may withdraw his or her consent to be a parent 48 upon notice to the embryo storage facility and to the other intended 49 parent prior to transfer of the embryo. If he or she timely withdraws 50 consent to parent he or she is not a parent for any purpose including 51 support obligations but the embryo transfer may still proceed.

52 (d) An embryo disposition agreement or advance directive that is not 53 in compliance with subdivision (a) of this section may still be found to 54 be enforceable by the court after balancing the respective interests of 55 the parties except that under no circumstances may the intended parent 56 who divested him or herself of custody and control be declared to be a parent for any purpose without his or her consent. The parent awarded custody and control of the embryos shall, in this instance, be declared to be the only parent of the child.

§ 581-307. Effect of death of intended parent. If an individual who consented in a record to be a parent by assisted reproduction dies before the transfer of eggs, sperm, or embryos, the deceased individual is not a parent of the resulting child unless the deceased individual consented in a signed record that if assisted reproduction were to occur after death, the deceased individual would be a parent of the child, provided that the record complies with the estates, powers and trusts law.

16 or adult spouses together, or any two adults who are intimate partners 17 together, except the spouse of the intended parent is not required to be 19 or obligations to the child where the intended parent and his or her 20 spouse:

21 (i) are living separate and apart pursuant to a decree or judgment of 22 separation or pursuant to a written agreement of separation subscribed 23 by the parties thereto and acknowledged or proved in the form required 24 to entitle a deed to be recorded; or

25 (ii) have been living separate and apart for at least three years 26 prior to execution of the gestational agreement.

27 § 581-405. Requirements of gestational agreement. (a) A gestational

46 and

47 (4) It shall be executed by intended parents meeting the eligibility 48 requirements of subdivision (b) of section 581-404 of this part; and

49 (5) The gestational carrier and the gestational carrier's spouse if

53 (6) If the gestational agreement provides for the payment of compen-54 sation to the gestational carrier, the compensation shall have been 55 placed in escrow with an independent escrow agent prior to the gesta-56 tional carrier's commencement of any medical procedure other than 1 medical evaluations necessary to determine the gestational carrier's 2 eligibility; and

3 (7) The agreement must include information disclosing how the intended 4 parents will cover the medical expenses of the surrogate and the child.
5 If health care coverage is used to cover the medical expenses, the 6 disclosure shall include a review of the health care policy provisions 7 related to coverage for surrogate pregnancy, including any possible 8 liability of the surrogate, third-party liability liens or other insur-9 ance coverage, and any notice requirements that could affect coverage or 10 liability of the surrogate.

11 (8) The gestational agreement must include the following terms:

12 (i) As to the gestational carrier and the gestational carrier's 13 spouse, if any:

14 (A) the agreement of the gestational carrier to undergo embryo trans-15 fer and attempt to carry and give birth to the child; and 16 (B) the agreement of the gestational carrier and the gestational 17 carrier's spouse, if any, to surrender custody of all resulting children 18 to the intended parent immediately upon the birth; and 19 (C) the right of the gestational carrier to utilize the services of a 20 health care practitioner of the gestational carrier's choosing, to 21 provide her care during the pregnancy; and 22 (ii) As to the intended parent:

23 (A) the agreement to accept custody of all resulting children imme-24 diately upon birth regardless of number, gender, or mental or physical 25 condition; and

26 (B) the agreement to assume sole responsibility for the support of the 27 child immediately upon the child's birth; and 28 (C) the agreement that the rights and obligations of the intended 29 parent under the gestational agreement are not assignable.

30 § 581-406. Termination of gestational agreement. After the execution 31 of a gestational agreement but before the gestational carrier becomes 32 pregnant by means of assisted reproduction, the gestational carrier, the 33 gestational carrier's spouse, if any, or any intended parent may termi-34 nate the gestational agreement by giving notice of termination in a 35 record to all other parties. Upon proper termination of the gestational 36 agreement the parties are released from all obligations recited in the 37 agreement except that the intended parent remains responsible for all 38 expenses that are reimbursable under the agreement which have been 39 incurred by the gestational carrier through the date of termination.
40 Unless the agreement provides otherwise, the gestational carrier is 41 entitled to keep all payments she has received and obtain all payments

50 carrier's spouse's consent to the agreement shall not be required, and 51 the gestational carrier's spouse shall not be the presumed parent of the 52 resulting child.

53 § 581-408. Failure to obtain a judgment of parentage. Where an 54 intended parent or the gestational carrier fails to obtain a judgment of 55 parentage pursuant to section 581-203 of this article, either because 56 the gestational agreement does not meet the requirements of this article

1 or there was no gestational agreement, the parentage of a child will be 2 determined based on the best interests of the child taking into account 3 genetics and the intent of the parties. An intended parent's absence of 4 genetic connection to the child is not a sufficient basis to deny that 5 individual a judgment of legal parentage.

6 § 581-409. Dispute as to gestational agreement. (a) Any dispute which 7 is related to a gestational agreement other than disputes as to parent-8 age shall be resolved by the supreme court, which shall determine the 9 respective rights and obligations of the parties. If a gestational 10 agreement does not meet the requirements of this article, except as set 11 forth in subdivision (d) of section 581-203 of part two of this article 12 the agreement is not enforceable.

13 (b) Except as expressly provided in the gestational agreement, the 14 intended parent and the gestational carrier shall be entitled to all 15 remedies available at law or equity in any dispute related to the gesta-16 tional agreement.

17 (c) There shall be no specific performance remedy available for a 18 breach by the gestational carrier of a gestational agreement term that 19 requires the gestational carrier to be impregnated or to terminate the 20 pregnancy or to reduce the number of fetuses or embryos the gestational 21 carrier is carrying.

22 § 581-410. Inspection of records. The proceedings, records, and iden-23 tities of the individual parties to a gestational agreement under this 24 article shall be sealed except upon the petition of the parties to the 25 gestational agreement or the child born as a result of the gestational 26 carrier arrangement.

27 § 581-411. Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction. Subject to the juris-28 ditional standards of section seventy-six of the domestic relations 29 law, the court conducting a proceeding under this article has exclusive, 30 continuing jurisdiction of all matters arising out of the gestational 31 agreement until a child born to the gestational carrier during the peri-32 od governed by the agreement attains the age of one hundred eighty days.

35 Section 581-501. Reimbursement.

36 581-502. Compensation.

37 § 581-501. Reimbursement. (a) A donor who has entered into a valid 38 agreement to be a donor, may receive reimbursement from an intended 39 parent for economic losses incurred in connection with the donation 40 which result from the retrieval or storage of gametes or embryos.

41 (b) Premiums paid for insurance against economic losses directly 42 resulting from the retrieval or storage of gametes or embryos for 43 donation may be reimbursed.

44 § 581-502. Compensation. (a) Compensation may be paid to a donor or 45 gestational carrier based on services rendered, expenses and or medical 46 risks that have been or will be incurred, time, and inconvenience. Under 47 no circumstances may compensation be paid to purchase gametes or embryos 48 or to pay for the relinquishment of a parental interest in a child.

49 (b) The compensation, if any, paid to a donor or gestational carrier 50 must be reasonable and negotiated in good faith between the parties, and 51 said payments to a gestational carrier shall not exceed the duration of 52 the pregnancy and recuperative period of up to eight weeks after the 53 birth of the child.

54 (c) Compensation may not be conditioned upon the purported quality or 55 genome-related traits of the gametes or embryos.

(d) Compensation may not be conditioned on actual genotypic or phenotypic characteristics of the donor or of the child.

Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 63-e to read as follows:

§ 63-e. Office of special investigation. There is established within the department of law an office of special investigation. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the office shall investigate any case in which the death of an unarmed civilian is caused by a police officer during the performance of his or her duties. Proceedings of the office under this section shall be conducted by the deputy attorney general for special investigation, who may appear in person or by his or her deputy or assistant before any court or grand jury and exercise all of the powers and perform all of the duties with respect to such actions or proceedings which the district attorney would otherwise be authorized or required to exercise or perform. Where an investigation required under this section involves the state police, the attorney general shall appoint an independent special prosecutor to conduct such investigation. In all proceedings of the office under this section, all expenses incurred by the attorney general, including the salary or other compensation of all deputies employed, shall be charged as provided for under subdivision two of section sixty-three of this article.

§ 2. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 837-t to read as follows:

§ 837-t. Use of force reporting. The chief of every police department, each county sheriff, and the superintendent of state police shall

1 report, to the division in a form and manner as defined by the division,
