- AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to a residential revaluation exemption

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The real property tax law is amended by adding a new
2	section 485-v to read as follows:
3	§ 485-v. Residential revaluation exemption. 1. Applicability. The
4	governing body of an assessing unit may, after a public hearing, adopt
5	the provisions of this section by local law in the first year of a full
6	value revaluation to provide a residential revaluation exemption. If the 7	governing body of an assessing unit passes a local law pursuant to this
8	subdivision, such exemption shall also apply in the same manner and to
9	the same extent to each village, county, special district or school
10	district that levies taxes on the assessment roll prepared by such
11	assessing unit. A village assessing unit, within an assessing unit that
12	has conducted a revaluation and that chooses to adopt that assessing
13	unit's latest final assessment roll is permitted to adopt the provisions
14	of this section within two years of its implementation.
15	2. Eligibility. (a) The assessors in each assessing unit that have 16	adopted the provisions of this section shall, in the first year in which

1	4. Granting of exemption. (a) Such exemption shall be granted only
2	upon application by the owner or owners of such real property on a form
3	prescribed by the commissioner. Such application shall be filed with the 4	assessor on or before the appropriate taxable status date for the
5	assessment roll upon which the revaluation is implemented.
6	(b) If the assessor is satisfied that the applicant is entitled to an
7	exemption pursuant to this section, he or she shall approve the applica-
8	tion and the taxable assessed value shall be reduced by the exemption,
9	as in this section provided commencing with the assessment roll prepared
10	after the taxable status date. The assessed value of any exemption
11	granted pursuant to this section shall be entered by the assessor on the 12	assessment roll with the amount of the exemption shown in a separate
13	column.
14	(c) In the event that the residential property granted an exemption
15	pursuant to this section transfers ownership or otherwise ceases to meet
16	the eligibility requirements of the exemption in subdivision two of this
17	section, the exemption granted pursuant to this section shall be discon-
18	tinued. Upon determining that an exemption granted pursuant to this
19	section should be discontinued, the assessor shall mail a notice so
20	stating to the owner or owners thereof at the time and in the manner
21	provided by section five hundred ten of this chapter.
22	§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
