3
4 4. Use of state and county eligible lists, as the source of new hires, 5 by municipal commissions. A municipal commission, in the absence of an

1 section seventeen of this [~~chapter~~] title. Such municipal commission may 2 certify such names for appointment to a position under its jurisdiction 3 in the same manner as certifications are made from the eligible lists of 4 such commission. If the state civil service department, county civil 5 service commission or county personnel officer, upon the request of such 6 commission, has certified an appropriate eligible list to fill a partic-7 ular position, such list shall continue to be used until superseded by 8 an eligible list established by such municipal commission for such posi-
9 tion, or until such list expires or is exhausted or is otherwise termi-10 nated.

11 4-c. Alternate lists for police departments. Police departments where 12 a list pursuant to subdivision four of this section does not adequately 13 represent minority populations and the existing police department's 14 ethnic, racial or women composition deviates from the community upon 15 which they serve by twenty-five percent or more, a municipal commission 16 may use alternate lists, including but not limited to the county list, 17 for the filling of vacancies by both resident and non-resident minority 18 group members, as defined by section three hundred ten of the executive 19 law, and women in order to achieve diversity in the workforce. Alternate 20 lists created by police departments in surrounding municipalities shall 21 be provided and police departments shall hire from such alternate lists 22 until such police department's ethnic, racial or women composition no 23 longer deviates from the community upon which they serve by twenty-five 24 percent or more, upon which time the municipal commission shall be 25 required to use its own eligible list. Police departments shall hire 26 candidates from alternate lists based on merit and fitness, further the 27 rule of three shall apply.

28 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
