Introduced by Sen. SANDERS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Local Government

AN ACT to amend the municipal home rule law and the labor law, in relation to enacting the fair wage act, allowing localities to raise minimum wages by up to an additional thirty percent

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "fair wage 2 act".

3 § 2. Paragraph f of subdivision 1 of section 11 of the municipal home 4 rule law, as amended by chapter 476 of the laws of 2018, is amended to 5 read as follows:

6 f. Applies to or affects any provision of paragraph (c) of subdivision 7 one of section 8-100 of the election law, the labor law, except as 8 provided in subdivision two of section six hundred fifty-four of the 9 labor law, sections two, three and four of chapter one thousand eleven 10 of the laws of nineteen hundred sixty-eight, entitled "An act in 11 relation to the maximum hours of labor of certain municipal and fire
12 district firefighters and the holidays of firefighters and police offi-13 cers, repealing certain sections of the labor law relating thereto, and 14 to amend the municipal home rule law, in relation thereto," as amended, 15 the volunteer firefighters' benefit law, or the workers' compensation 16 law or changes any provision of the multiple residence law or the multi-17 ple dwelling law, except that in a city of one million persons or more,
18 the provisions of local law for the enforcement of the housing code 19 which is not less restrictive than the multiple dwelling law may be 20 applied in the enforcement of the multiple dwelling law.

21 § 3. Section 654 of the labor law, as added by chapter 619 of the laws
22 of 1960, is amended to read as follows:

23 § 654. Basis of changes in minimum wage. 1. In establishing minimum 24 wages and regulations for any occupation or occupations pursuant to the

1 provisions of the following sections of this article, the wage board and 2 the commissioner shall consider the amount sufficient to provide 3 adequate maintenance and to protect health and, in addition, the wage 4 board and the commissioner shall consider the value of the work or clas-
5 sification of work performed, and the wages paid in the state for work 6 of like or comparable character.

7 2. Counties, cities, towns, villages and public benefit corporations 8 are authorized to adopt minimum standards relating to wages, hours, or 9 other working conditions, or mechanisms for the enforcement thereof,
10 that are at least as favorable to employees as the minimum standards
11 applicable under this article, provided that any minimum wage enacted 12 pursuant to this authority for any classification of employees shall not 13 be more than thirty percent higher than the minimum wage established 14 pursuant to this article and article nineteen-A of this chapter. Any 15 such standards may also be enforced by the commissioner using any and 16 all enforcement methods permitted by this chapter for enforcement of 17 wage standards and payment.

18 § 4. Subdivision 1 of section 662 of the labor law, as amended by 19 chapter 564 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

20 1. Failure to pay minimum wage or overtime compensation. Any employer 21 or his or her agent, or the officer or agent of any corporation, part-22 nership, or limited liability company, who pays or agrees to pay to any 23 employee less than the wage applicable under this article, including any 24 minimum wage established by a county, city, town, village, or public 25 benefit corporation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon 26 conviction therefor shall be fined not less than five hundred nor more 27 than twenty thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than one year, 28 and, in the event that any second or subsequent offense occurs within 29 six years of the date of conviction for a prior offense, shall be guilty
30 of a felony for the second or subsequent offense, and upon conviction 31 therefor, shall be fined not less than five hundred nor more than twenty 32 thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than one year plus one day, 33 or punished by both such fine and imprisonment, for each such offense.
34 Each payment to any employee in any week of less than the wage applica-35 ble under this article shall constitute a separate offense.

36 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
