Introduced by Sens. HOYLMAN, SERRANO -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Housing, Construction and Community Development

AN ACT to amend the multiple residence law and the multiple dwelling law, in relation to the correction of habitability-impairing conditions by the tenant

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The multiple residence law is amended by adding a new section 305-b to read as follows:

§ 305-b. Right of tenant to offset payments for habitability-impairing conditions; certain cases. 1. Any tenant acting alone or together with other tenants of a multiple dwelling wherein there exists one or more habitability-impairing conditions due to the owner's failure to maintain the premises, may contract and pay for the correction of such condition in accordance with the provisions of this section. Any payment so made shall be deductible from rent providing the following provisions have been substantially complied with by the tenant or someone acting on his or her behalf:

a. The landlord or his or her agent was given at least seven days written notice that action would be taken under this section if corrective measures were not rendered.

b. Reasonable efforts were made to have the condition remedied by the landlord's usual tradesman, if known to the tenant.

c. Repair of the condition was made by a tradesman regularly engaged in the appropriate trade at a reasonable price.

d. The contractor provided a written statement containing the following:

(1) The name of the person or persons who requested the services; and

(2) The date, time of and premises at which repairs were made; and

(3) The cost of labor and materials; and

1 (4) A certification that the services were necessary; and

2 (5) The amounts and from whom any payments were received.

3 e. After rendition of services, the landlord was sent by the tenant a 4 copy of the bill from the contractor and a statement of the amounts to 5 be deducted from the tenant's or tenants' rent for the month.

6 f. A tenant shall not be required to comply with the provisions of 7 paragraph a or b of this subdivision unless the owner has continuously 8 kept posted in a conspicuous place at the premises a notice containing 9 his or her name, address and telephone number or that of his or her 10 agent and the name, address and telephone number of the supplier of such 11 services to the premises.

12 2. The department charged with the enforcement of laws, ordinances and 13 regulations in relation to multiple dwellings shall:

14 a. Maintain and, to the extent practicable, update at least bi-weekly
15 an index reflecting the range of applicable wage rates of such services
16 within the jurisdiction of the department during the last two week peri-17 od for which statistics are available;

18 b. Maintain and keep current and available a list of contractors which 19 have agreed to make such repairs in the circumstances, and to render 20 such assistance as is otherwise required hereby to enable tenants to 21 obtain the benefits, contemplated by this section; and 22 c. Receive and compile complaints from tenants who were unable to 23 persuade their landlords to take corrective measures for habitability-24 impairing conditions and were therefore forced to resort to the 25 provisions of this section.

26 3. The payment for such services at a price within the range of pric-27 es permitted by paragraph c of subdivision one of this section shall be 28 conclusively presumed to have been a reasonable price.

29 4. The introduction into evidence in any action or proceeding of any 30 statement rendered in compliance with the provisions of paragraph d of 31 subdivision one of this section shall be presumptive of the facts stated 32 therein. Sufficient foundation for the allowance into evidence of such 33 statement shall consist in the oral testimony of any person named as a
34 payer of all or part of the amount indicated thereon relating the facts 35 and circumstances in which the statement was rendered.

36 5. Any tenant who has in good faith secured and paid for such services 37 otherwise in conformance with the provisions of this section and against 38 whom an action or proceeding to recover possession of the premises for 39 nonpayment of rent or any other action or proceeding attributable at 40 least in part to the tenant seeking or taking a deduction from rent as 41 allowed by this section shall, in addition to any other amounts, be 42 entitled to recover reasonable costs and attorney's fees against an 43 owner bringing such action or proceeding.

44 6. No owner or agent shall be entitled to recover any amounts in 45 damages from any contractor who attempts in good faith and acts reason-46 ably to carry out the intendment of this section except damages arising 47 out of gross negligence.

48 7. The remedy provided in this section shall not be exclusive and a 49 court may provide such other relief as may be just and proper in the 50 circumstances. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or 51 deny any existing constitutional, statutory, administrative or common 52 law right of a tenant to contract and pay for such services for the 53 multiple dwelling in which he or she resides or to pay for the cost of 54 any other goods and services for such multiple dwelling. This section 55 shall not be construed to preclude any defense, counterclaim or cause of

1 action that may otherwise exist with respect to an owner's failure to 2 provide heat or any other service.

3 8. Any agreement by a tenant of a dwelling waiving or modifying his or 4 her rights as set forth in this section shall be void as contrary to 5 public policy.

6 9. The provisions of this section shall be liberally construed so as 7 to give effect to the purposes set forth in this section.

8 10. Nothing contained in this section and no payment made pursuant to 9 this section shall be deemed to discharge the liability of a renter with 10 an interest in real property pursuant to subdivision two of section 11 three hundred four of the real property tax law from taxes levied on 12 such interest.

13 § 2. The multiple dwelling law is amended by adding a new section 14 302-d to read as follows:

15 § 302-d. Right of tenant to offset payments for habitability-impairing 16 conditions; certain cases. 1. Any tenant acting alone or together with 17 other tenants of a multiple dwelling wherein there exists one or more 18 habitability-impairing conditions due to the owner's failure to maintain
19 the premises, may contract and pay for the correction of such condition
20 in accordance with the provisions of this section. Any payment so made 21 shall be deductible from rent providing the following provisions have 22 been substantially complied with by the tenant or someone acting on his 23 or her behalf:

24 a. Reasonable efforts were made to contact the owner or his or her 25 agent in writing to inform the owner of such condition.

26 b. Reasonable efforts were made to have the condition remedied by the 27 landlord's usual tradesman, if known to the tenant.

28 c. Repair of the condition was made by a tradesman regularly engaged 29 in the appropriate trade at a reasonable price.

30 d. The contractor provided a written statement containing the follow-31 ing:

32 (1) The name of the person or persons who requested the services; and

36 (5) The amounts and from whom any payments were received.

37 e. A tenant shall not be required to comply with the provisions of 38 paragraph a or b of this subdivision unless the owner has continuously 39 kept posted in a conspicuous place at the premises a notice containing 40 his or her name, address and telephone number or that of his or her 41 agent and the name, address and telephone number of the supplier of such 42 services to the premises.

43 2. The department charged with the enforcement of laws, ordinances and 44 regulations in relation to multiple dwellings shall:

46 an index reflecting the range of applicable wage rates of such services
47 within the jurisdiction of the department during the last two week peri-48 od for which statistics are available; and

49 b. Maintain and keep current and available a list of contractors which
51 such assistance as is otherwise required hereby to enable tenants to 52 obtain the benefits, contemplated by this section.

53 3. The payment for such services at a price within the range of pric-
54 es permitted by paragraph c of subdivision one of this section shall be 55 conclusively presumed to have been a reasonable price.

1 4. The introduction into evidence in any action or proceeding of any 2 statement rendered in compliance with the provisions of paragraph d of 3 subdivision one of this section shall be presumptive of the facts stated 4 therein. Sufficient foundation for the allowance into evidence of such 5 statement shall consist in the oral testimony of any person named as a
6 payer of all or part of the amount indicated thereon relating the facts
7 and circumstances in which the statement was rendered.

8 5. Any tenant who has in good faith secured and paid for such services
9 otherwise in conformance with the provisions of this section and against 10 whom an action or proceeding to recover possession of the premises for 11 nonpayment of rent or any other action or proceeding attributable at 12 least in part to the tenant seeking or taking a deduction from rent as 13 allowed by this section shall, in addition to any other amounts, be 14 entitled to recover reasonable costs and attorney's fees against an 15 owner bringing such action or proceeding.

16 6. No owner or agent shall be entitled to recover any amounts in 17 damages from any contractor who attempts in good faith and acts reason-
18 ably to carry out the intendment of this section except damages arising 19 out of gross negligence.

20 7. The remedy provided in this section shall not be exclusive and a 21 court may provide such other relief as may be just and proper in the 22 circumstances. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or
24 law right of a tenant to contract and pay for such services for the
26 any other goods and services for such multiple dwelling. This section 27 shall not be construed to preclude any defense, counterclaim or cause of 28 action that may otherwise exist with respect to an owner's failure to 29 provide heat or any other service.

30 8. Any agreement by a tenant of a dwelling waiving or modifying his or 31 her rights as set forth in this section shall be void as contrary to 32 public policy.

33 9. The provisions of this section shall be liberally construed so as 34 to give effect to the purposes set forth in this section.

36 this section shall be deemed to discharge the liability of a renter with 37 an interest in real property pursuant to subdivision two of section 38 three hundred four of the real property tax law from taxes levied on 39 such interest.

40 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
