Introduced by Sen. BAILEY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the judiciary law, in relation to requiring the office of court administration to collect and maintain data on limited English proficient litigants in the state

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The judiciary law is amended by adding a new section 391 to 2 read as follows:

- § 391. Limited English proficient litigants' data. 1. For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:
- 5 (a) "primary language" means the dominant language an individual
  6 speaks in everyday situations, including but not limited to their home,
  7 work, school, and community environments;
- 8 (b) "limited English proficient (LEP) individual" means a participant 9 in a legal proceeding, whose limited ability to speak or understand the 10 English language, has created a communications barrier to understanding
  11 his or her legal rights or impairs his or her ability to participate
  12 fully in court programs or services;
- 13 (c) "language assistance services" means oral and written services
  14 needed to assist LEP individuals to communicate effectively with court
  15 personnel and to provide LEP individuals with meaningful access to, and 16 an equal opportunity to participate fully in, court programs or 17 services, so that LEP individuals are placed in the same position as 18 similarly situated persons for whom there is no such barrier; and
- 19 (d) "translation services" means interpreting the words used by the 20 judge, parties and relevant participants in a legal proceeding from 21 English into an LEP individual's primary language and interpreting the 22 words used by the LEP individual back to English.
- 23 2. The office of court administration shall collect and maintain data 24 on all limited English proficient individuals who are litigants in

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

courts within this state. At a minimum, the office of court administration shall collect and maintain data on the following:

- (a) the number of limited English proficient individuals who are litigants in courts within this state, disaggregated by court and county, and the primary language of such individuals;
- (b) the number of such limited English proficient individuals actually served, disaggregated by court and county, the type of language assistance services provided and the primary language of the individual served; and
- (c) the number of interpreter personnel employed by the courts, disaggregated by court and county and the language translated or interpreted by such personnel.
- 3. The office of court administration shall make the data required by 14 this section publicly available on its website, provided, however, that such data shall not include identifying information and nothing in this section shall be construed to permit the office of court administration to use, disseminate, or publish any identifying information including an individual's name, date of birth, social security number, docket number, or other unique identifier.
- 20 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 21 it shall have become a law; provided, however, that effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation 22 23 necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized and directed to be made and completed on or before such 25 effective date.
