§ 3. Section 260.10 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 447 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

§ 260.10 Endangering the welfare of a child in the second degree.

A person is guilty of endangering the welfare of a child in the second degree when:

1. He or she knowingly acts in a manner likely to be injurious to the physical, mental or moral welfare of a child less than seventeen years old or directs or authorizes such child to engage in an occupation involving a substantial risk of danger to his or her life or health; or

2. Being a parent, guardian or other person legally charged with the care or custody of a child less than eighteen years old, he or she fails or refuses to exercise reasonable diligence in the control of such child to prevent him or her from becoming an "abused child," a "neglected child," a "juvenile delinquent" or a "person in need of supervision," as those terms are defined in articles ten, three and seven of the family court act[~~+~~]; or

3. He or she employs, uses or exhibits a child less than sixteen years old, or being the parent, guardian, employer or other person legally charged with the care or custody of such a child, he or she consents to allowing or refuses to restrain, such child from engaging in begging, or receiving or soliciting alms in any manner or under any pretense, or in any mendicant occupation, or in gathering or picking rags, or collecting cigar stumps, or collecting bones or other refuse from markets or streets, or peddling.

4. A person is not guilty of the provisions of this section when he or she engages in the conduct described in subdivision one of section 260.00 of this article: (a) with the intent to wholly abandon the child by relinquishing responsibility for and right to the care and custody of such child; (b) with the intent that the child be safe from physical injury and cared for in an appropriate manner; (c) the child is left with an appropriate person, or in a suitable location and the person who leaves the child promptly notifies an appropriate person of the child's location; and (d) the child is not more than thirty days old.

Endangering the welfare of a child in the second degree is a class A misdemeanor.

§ 4. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 260.10-a to read as follows:

§ 260.10-a Endangering the welfare of a child in the first degree.

A person is guilty of endangering the welfare of a child in the first degree when he or she commits the crime of endangering the welfare of a child in the second degree as defined in section 260.10 of this article, and:

1. Has been convicted of such offense or a violation of this section within the previous five years; or

2. Knowingly solicits, requests, commands, importunes or attempts to cause another person to engage in endangering the welfare of a child in the second degree.

Endangering the welfare of a child in the first degree is a class E felony.

§ 5. Section 260.11 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 89 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:

§ 260.11 Endangering the welfare of a child; corroboration.

A person shall not be convicted of endangering the welfare of a child in the second degree or endangering the welfare of a child in the first degree, or of an attempt to commit the same, upon the testimony of a victim who is incapable of consent because of mental defect or mental

1 incapacity as to conduct that constitutes an offense or an attempt to
2 commit an offense referred to in section 130.16, without additional
3 evidence sufficient pursuant to section 130.16 to sustain a conviction
4 of an offense referred to in section 130.16, or of an attempt to commit
5 the same.

6 § 6. Section 260.15 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 447 of the 7 laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

8 § 260.15 Endangering the welfare of a child; defense.

9 In any prosecution for endangering the welfare of a child in the 10 second degree, pursuant to section 260.10 of this article, or endanger-
11 ing the welfare of a child in the first degree, pursuant to section
12 260.10-a of this article, based upon an alleged failure or refusal to 13 provide proper medical care or treatment to an ill child, it is an 14 affirmative defense that the defendant (a) is a parent, guardian or 15 other person legally charged with the care or custody of such child; and 16 (b) is a member or adherent of an organized church or religious group
17 the tenets of which prescribe prayer as the principal treatment for 18 illness; and (c) treated or caused such ill child to be treated in 19 accordance with such tenets.

20 § 7. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 4 of section 509-cc of the vehicle 21 and traffic law, as amended by chapter 368 of the laws of 2015, is 22 amended to read as follows:

23 (c) The offenses referred to in subparagraph (i) of paragraph (b) of 24 subdivision one and subparagraph (i) of paragraph (c) of subdivision two 25 of this section that result in disqualification for a period of five 26 years shall include a conviction under sections 100.10, 105.13, 115.05,
