Introduced by Sen. RANZENHOFER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to the repayment of awards under the New York state math and science teaching incentive program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 5 of section 669-d of the education law, as amended by section 5 of part G of chapter 54 of the laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:

(b) a recipient has not taught in the field of math or science in a school located within New York state providing secondary education recognized by the board of regents or the university of the state of New York for five of the seven years after the completion of the degree program and receipt of initial certification, except that if a recipient teaches in the field of math or science in a school located within New York state providing secondary education recognized by the board of regents or the university of the state of New York for at least three of the seven years after the completion of the degree program and receipt of initial certification and thereafter loses their employment due to no fault of their own, and is unable to find other eligible employment within the seven year period, the amount of the award to be repaid, and interest thereon, shall be reduced to a prorated amount equal to five years less the number of years taught divided by five multiplied by the principal amount of the award, and interest shall be charged from the date of the loss of employment; or

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
