AN ACT to amend the court of claims act and the tax law, in relation to claims for unjust conviction; to amend the education law, in relation to establishing wrongful conviction recovery scholarships; and to amend the civil service law, in relation to allowing additional credits for the wrongfully convicted

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "wrongful conviction recovery act".

3 § 2. Section 8-b of the court of claims act, as added by chapter 1009 4 of the laws of 1984, subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 210 of the laws 5 of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

§ 8-b. Claims for unjust conviction [and imprisonment]. 1. The legis-6 lature finds and declares that innocent persons who have been wrongly 7 8 convicted of crimes [and subsequently imprisoned] have been frustrated 9 in seeking legal redress due to a variety of substantive and technical 10 obstacles in the law and that such persons should have an available avenue of redress over and above the existing tort remedies to seek 11 compensation for damages. The legislature intends by enactment of the 12 provisions of this section that those innocent persons who can demon-13 strate by [elear and convincing] a preponderance of the evidence that 14 they were unjustly convicted [and imprisoned] be able to recover damages 15 16 against the state. In light of the substantial burden of proof that must 17 be carried by such persons, it is the intent of the legislature that the 18 court, in exercising its discretion as permitted by law regarding the 19 weight and admissibility of evidence submitted pursuant to this section, 20 shall, in the interest of justice, give due consideration to difficulties of proof caused by the passage of time, the death or unavailability 1 2 of witnesses, the destruction of evidence or other factors not caused by 3 such persons or those acting on their behalf. 2. Any person convicted [and subsequently imprisoned] for one or more 4 5 felonies or misdemeanors against the state which he or she did not б commit may, under the conditions hereinafter provided, present a claim 7 for damages against the state. In scheduling court appearances and 8 filing deadlines, the court shall give docket priority at each stage of 9 the proceeding to such claims for damages under this subdivision where 10 the claimant asserts proof of innocence through DNA evidence. Any 11 adjournments granted in the course of such a proceeding should be for as 12 short a time as is practicable. 13 3. In order to present the claim for unjust conviction [and imprison-14 ment], claimant must establish by documentary evidence that: 15 (a) he or she has been convicted of one or more felonies or misdemeanors against the state [and subsequently sentenced to a term of 16 impri sonment, and has served all or any part of the sentence]; and 17 (b) (i) he or she has been pardoned upon the ground of innocence of 18 19 the crime or crimes for which he or she was sentenced and which are the 20 grounds for the complaint; or (ii) his or her judgment of conviction was 21 reversed or vacated, and the accusatory instrument dismissed or, if a new trial was ordered, either he or she was found not guilty at the new 22 trial or he or she was not retried and the accusatory instrument dismissed; provided that the [judgement] judgment of conviction was 23 24 25 reversed or vacated, and the accusatory instrument was dismissed, on any 26 the following grounds: (A) [paragraph (a), (b), (c), (c) or (g) of] of 27 subdivision one of section 440.10 of the criminal procedure law; or (B) [subdivision one (where based upon grounds set forth in item (A) hereof, 28 two, three (where the count dismissed was the sole basis for the impri-29 sonment complained of) or five of section 470.20 of the criminal proce-30 31 dure law; or (C) comparable provisions of the former code of criminal 32 procedure or subsequent law; or (D) the statute, or application thereof, 33 on which the accusatory instrument was based violated the constitution of the United States or the state of New York; and 34 35 (c) his or her claim is not time-barred by the provisions of subdivi-36 sion seven of this section. 37 The claim shall state facts in sufficient detail to permit the 4. 38 court to find that claimant is likely to succeed at trial in proving that (a) he or she did not commit any of the acts charged in the accusa-39 tory instrument or his or her acts or omissions charged in the accusato-40 41 ry instrument did not constitute a felony or misdemeanor against the 42 state, and (b) he or she did not by his or her own conduct cause or 43 bring about his or her conviction. The claim shall be verified by the claimant. If the court finds after reading the claim that claimant is 44 45 not likely to succeed at trial, it shall dismiss the claim, either on 46 its own motion or on the motion of the state. 47 5. In order to obtain a judgment in his or her favor, claimant must 48 prove by [elear and convincing] a preponderance of the evidence that: 49 (a) he or she has been convicted of one or more felonies or misdemea-50 nors against the state [and subsequently sentenced to a term of impri-51 sonment, and has served all or any part of the sentence]; and 52 (b) (i) he or she has been pardoned upon the ground of innocence of 53 the crime or crimes for which he or she was sentenced and which are the grounds for the complaint; or (ii) his or her judgment of conviction was 54 reversed or vacated, and the accusatory instrument dismissed or, if a 55 56 new trial was ordered, either he or she was found not guilty at the new trial or he or she was not retried and the accusatory instrument 1 dismissed; provided that the [judgement] judgment of conviction was 2 3 reversed or vacated, and the accusatory instrument was dismissed, on any 4 of the following grounds: (A) [paragraph (a), (b), (c), (e) or (g) of] 5 subdivision one of section 440.10 of the criminal procedure law; or (B) б [subdivision one (where based upon grounds set forth in item (A) hereof 7 two, three (where the count dismissed was the sole basis for the impri-8 sonment complained of) or five of section 470.20 of the criminal proce-9 dure law; or (C) comparable provisions of the former code of criminal 10 procedure or subsequent law; or (D) the statute, or application thereof, on which the accusatory instrument was based violated the constitution 11 of the United States or the state of New York; and 12 13 (c) he or she did not commit any of the acts [sharged in the accusato-14 ry instrument or his acts or omissions charged in the accusatory instru-15 ment] or omissions for which he or she was convicted or his or her acts 16 or omissions did not constitute a felony or misdemeanor against the 17 state; and (d) he or she did not by his or her own conduct cause or bring about 18 19 his or her conviction. 20 6. If the court finds that the claimant is entitled to a judgment, it 21 shall award damages in such sum of money as the court determines will fairly and reasonably compensate him or her, provided, if the claimant 22 was incarcerated, such sum shall not be less than an award calculated at 23 a rate of one million dollars per year during which the claimant was 24 25 incarcerated and was not under sentence for a separate crime. The court 26 may also award reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in the claimant's 27 defense at trial, including any post-trial motions or appeals, in the 28 process of vacating or reversing his or her criminal conviction, and in 29 the pursuit of a claim under this section. 30 7. Any person claiming compensation under this section based on a 31 pardon that was granted before the effective date of this section or the 32 dismissal of an accusatory instrument that occurred before the effective 33 date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand nineteen that amended this section shall file his or her claim within two years after [the] 34 35 such effective date [of this section]. Any person claiming compensation 36 under this section based on a pardon that was granted on or after the 37 effective date of this section or the dismissal of an accusatory instrument that occurred on or after the effective date of the chapter of the 38 laws of two thousand nineteen that amended this section shall file his 39 or her claim within [two] three years after the pardon or dismissal. 40 41 Subsection (c) of section 612 of the tax law is amended by S 3. 42 adding a new paragraph 43 to read as follows: 43 (43) The amount of any damage award amounts received pursuant to section eight-b of the court of claims act and not excludable from 44 45 federal adjusted gross income. 46 § 4. In 30 the event a student does not incur room or board charges at the institu-31 tion, "non-tuition cost of attendance" shall mean an allowance for room and board as determined by the president and approved by the director of 32 33 the budget. In determining allowances pursuant to this subparagraph, the president may take into consideration the allowances provided for in the 34 35 Pell grant program. 36 (c) In no event shall the combination of all student financial aid 37 received by a student exceed a recipient's total cost of attendance at 38 the institution being attended. 39 3. credit granted by this section, such successful claimant may elect, 2 prior to permanent original appointment, to relinquish the additional 3 4 credit theretofore granted to him or her and accept the lower position 5 on such eligible list to which he or she would otherwise have been entiб tled; provided, however, that such election shall thereafter be irrevocable. Such election shall be in writing and signed by the successful 7 8 claimant, and transmitted to the department or the appropriate municipal 9 civil service commission. 10 5. Roster.
