- AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law and the judiciary law, in relation to enacting the "bail elimination act of 2019"; and to repeal certain provisions of the criminal procedure law and the insurance law relating to the posting of bail

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 the "bail elimination act of 2019".

3 § 2. Subdivisions 1, 2, 4, 5 and 6 of section 500.10 of the criminal 4 procedure law are amended and a new subdivision 3-a is added to read as 5 follows:

6 1. "Principal" means a defendant in a criminal action or proceeding, 7 or a person adjudged a material witness therein, or any other person so 8 involved therein that [he] the principal may by law be compelled to 9 appear before a court for the purpose of having such court exercise 10 control over [his] the principal's person to secure [his] the princi-11 pal's future attendance at the action or proceeding when required, and 12 who in fact either is before the court for such purpose or has been 13 before it and been subjected to such control.

14 2. "Release on own recognizance." A court releases a principal on 15 [his] the principal's own recognizance when, having acquired control 16 over [his] the principal's person, it permits [him] the principal to be 17 at liberty during the pendency of the criminal action or proceeding 18 involved upon condition that [he] the principal will appear thereat 19 whenever [his] the principal's attendance may be required and will at 2	processes of the court.

3	3-a. "Release under non-monetary conditions." A court releases a prin-
4	cipal under non-monetary conditions when, having acquired control over a
5	person, it permits the person to be at liberty during the pendency of 6	the criminal action under conditions set by the court, which shall be
7	the least restrictive that will reasonably assure the principal's
8	appearance in court. Such conditions may include, among others, that the 9	principal shall be in contact with a pretrial services agency serving
10	principals in that county; that the principal shall abide by specified
11	restrictions on travel that are reasonably related to an actual risk of 12	intentional flight from the jurisdiction; that the principal shall
13	refrain from possessing a firearm, destructive device or other dangerous
14	weapon; that the person be placed in pretrial supervision with a
15	pretrial services agency serving principals in that county. A principal
16	shall not be required to submit to mandatory drug testing as a condition
17	of release under non-monetary conditions.
18	4. "Commit to the custody of the sheriff." A court commits a principal
19	to the custody of the sheriff when, having acquired control over his
20	person, it orders that he be confined in the custody of the sheriff
21	[during the pendency of the criminal action or proceeding involved]
21 22	pending the outcome of a hearing as to whether the individual shall be
23	ordered into pretrial detention as specified in article five hundred
23 24	forty-five of this title.
24 25	5. "Securing order" means an order of a court [committing a principal to the custody of the sheriff, or fixing bail, or releasing him on his 26 27
	own recognizance] that either releases a principal on personal recognizance, or releases the principal under non-monetary conditions, all with

When a principal, whose future court attendance at a criminal action or proceeding is or may be required, initially comes under the control of a court, such court [must] shall, by a securing order, [either release him on his own recognisance, fix bail or commit him to the oustedy of the sheriff] release the principal pending trial on the principal's personal recognizance, unless the court finds on the record that release on recognizance will not reasonably assure the individual's court attendance. In such instances, the court will release the individual's court attendance. In such instances, the principal's court attendance alternative that will reasonably assure the principal's court attendance.</pre>

1 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, in cases where the people move for pretrial detention the court may 2 commit the defendant to the custody of the sheriff or issue a securing 3 4 order in accordance with article five hundred forty-five of this title. 5 3. When a securing order is revoked or otherwise terminated in the б course of an uncompleted action or proceeding but the principal's future 7 court attendance still is or may be required and [he] the principal is 8 still under the control of a court, a new securing order must be issued. 9 When the court revokes or otherwise terminates a [securing] any order 10 which committed the principal to the custody of the sheriff, the court shall give written notification to the sheriff of such revocation or 11 12 termination of [the securing] such order. 13 § 5. Section 510.20 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read 14 as follows: 15 510.20 § Application for [recognizance or bail; making and determi-16 nation thereof in general] a change in securing order based 17 on a material change of circumstances. 18 Upon any occasion when a court [is required to issue] has issued a 1. securing order with respect to a principal, [or at any time when a prin-19 20 cipal is confined in the custody of the sheriff as a result of a previ-21 ously issued securing order, he] the principal or the people may make an application for [recognizance or bail] a different securing order due to 22 a material change of circumstances. 23 24 Upon such application, the principal or the people must be 2. 25 accorded an opportunity to be heard and to contend that [an order of 26 recognizance or bail] a different securing order must or should issue[7 27 that the court should release him on his own recognizance rather than fix bail, and that if bail is fixed it should be in a suggested amount 28 and form] because, due to a material change in circumstances, the 29 30 current order is either too restrictive or not restrictive enough to 31 reasonably ensure a defendant's appearance in court. The court shall 32 select the least restrictive non-monetary condition or conditions that 33 will reasonably assure the principal's court attendance. 34 3. Where the people make an application for a different securing order 35 on the basis of a violation of an existing securing order, the court 36 shall consider the nature, willfulness, and seriousness of the violation 37 and shall select the least restrictive non-monetary condition or condi-38 tions that will reasonably assure the principal's court attendance. 39 4. When any principal who was previously issued an appearance ticket 40 pursuant to article one hundred fifty of this chapter initially comes 41 under the control of the court, appearing as required by the appearance 42 ticket, and whose future court attendance at a criminal action or 43 proceeding is or may be required, such court shall, by securing order, 44 release the principal pending trial on the principal's personal recogni-45 zance. 46 § 6. Section 510.30 of the criminal procedure law, subparagraph (v) of 47 paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 920 of the laws of 1982, subparagraph (vi) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as renumbered 48 by chapter 447 of the laws of 1977, subparagraph (vii) as added and 49 50 subparagraphs (viii) and (ix) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as renumbered by section 1 of part D of chapter 491 of the laws of 2012 and 51 52 subdivision 3 as added by chapter 788 of the laws of 1981, is amended to 53 read as follows: 54 § 510.30 Application for [recognizance or bail] securing order; rules of 55 law and criteria controlling determination.

[1. Determinations of applications for recognizance or bail are not in 1 2 all cases discretionary but are subject to rules, prescribed in article five hundred thirty and other provisions of law relating to specific 3 kinds of criminal actions and proceedings, providing (a) that in some 4 5 circumstances such an application must as a matter of law be granted, б (b) that in others it must as a matter of law be denied and the princi-7 pal committed to or retained in the custody of the sheriff, and (c) that 8 in others the granting or denial thereof is a matter of judicial 9 discretion. 2. To the extent that the issuance of an order of recognizance or bail 10 11 and the terms thereof are matters of discretion rather than of law, an application is determined on the basis of the following factors and 12 13 criteria: 14 (a)] With respect to any principal, the court must consider the kind 15 and degree of control or restriction that is necessary to secure his 16 court attendance when required. In determining that matter, the court 17 must, on the basis of available information, consider and take into 18 account: [(i) The principal's character, reputation, habits and mental condi-19 20 tion; 21 (ii) His employment and financial resources; and 22 (iii) His family ties and the length of his residence if any in the community; and 23 24 (iv) His] 25 1. Information about the principal that is relevant to court appear-26 ance, including, but not limited to, the principal's activities, history 27 and community ties; 2. If the principal is a defendant, the charges facing the principal; 28 29 3. The principal's criminal record if any; [and 30 (v) His] 4. The principal's record of previous adjudication as a juve-31 nile delinquent, as retained pursuant to section 354.2 of the family 32 court act, or, of pending cases where fingerprints are retained pursuant 33 to section 306.1 of such act, or a youthful offender, if any; [and 34 (vi) His] 5. The principal's previous record if any in responding to 35 court appearances when required or with respect to intentional flight to 36 avoid criminal prosecution; [and 37 (vii)] 6. Where the principal is charged with a crime or crimes 38 against a member or members of the same family or household as that term is defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this title, the 39 40 following factors: 41 $\left[\frac{\Lambda}{\lambda}\right]$ (i) any violation by the principal of an order of protection 42 issued by any court for the protection of a member or members of the same family or household as that term is defined in subdivision one of 43 section 530.11 of this title, whether or not such order of protection is 44 45 currently in effect; and 46 [(B)] (ii) the principal's history of use or possession of a firearm; 47 [and 48 (viii) 7. If [he] the principal is a defendant, the weight of the 49 evidence against [him] the principal in the pending criminal action and 50 any other factor indicating probability or improbability of conviction; 51 or, in the case of an application for [bail or recognizance] a securing order pending appeal, the merit or lack of merit of the appeal; [and 52 53 (ix)] 8. If [he] the principal is a defendant, the sentence which may 54 be or has been imposed upon conviction[-55 (b) Where the principal is a defendant-appellant in a pending appeal 56 from a judgment of conviction, the court must also consider the likeli-

1	hood of ultimate reversal of the judgment. A determination that the
2	appeal is palpably without merit alone justifies, but does not require,
3	a denial of the application, regardless of any determination made with 4	respect to the factors specified in paragraph (a).
5	3. When bail or recognizance is ordered, the court shall inform the 6	principal, if he is a defendant charged with the commission of a felony,
7	that the release is conditional and that the court may revoke the order
8	of release and commit the principal to the custody of the sheriff in 9	accordance with the provisions of subdivision two of section 530.60 of 10	this chapter if he commits a subsequent felony while at liberty upon 11	such order.]; and
12^{-1}	9. If the principal is a defendant-appellant in a pending appeal from 13	a judgment of conviction, the court must also consider the likelihood of 14	ultimate reversal of the judgment. A determination that the appeal is 15	palpably without merit alone justifies, but does not require, a denial
16	of the application, regardless of any determination made with respect to 17	the factors specified in this paragraph.
18	§ 7. Section 510.40 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read
19	as follows:
20	§ 510.40 [Application for recognizance or bail; determination thereof,
20 21	form of securing order and execution thereof Notification
22	to principal by court of conditions of release and penal-
23	ties for violations of release.
23 24	1. [An application for recognizance or bail must be determined by a
24 25	Becuring order which either:
26	(a) Grants the application and releases the principal on his own
20 27	recognigance; or
28	(b) Grants the application and fixes bail; or
	(c) Denies the application and commits the principal to, or retains 29	him in, the custody of the sheriff.
30
31	2. Upon ordering that a principal be released on [his] the princi-
32	pal's own recognizance, or released under non-monetary conditions the 33 24	court must direct [him] the principal to appear in the criminal action
34	or proceeding involved whenever [his] the principal's attendance may be
35	required and to [render himself] be at all times amenable to the orders
36	and processes of the court. If the principal is a defendant, the court
37	shall also direct the defendant not to commit a crime while at liberty
38	upon the court's securing order. If such principal is in the custody of 39	the sheriff [or at liberty upon bail] at the time of the order, the 40	court must direct that [he] the principal be discharged from such custo-
41	dy [or, as the case may be, that his bail be exonerated].
42	[3. Upon the issuance of an order fixing bail, and upon the posting
43	thereof, the court must examine the bail to determine whether it
44	complies with the order. If it does, the court must, in the absence of 45	some factor or circumstance which in law requires or authorizes disap-
46	proval thereof, approve the bail and must issue a certificate of 47	release, authorizing the principal to be at liberty, and, if he is in 48	the sustedy of the sheriff at the time, directing the sheriff to
49	discharge him therefrom. If the bail fixed is not posted, or is not 50	approved after being posted, the court must order that the principal be
51	committed to the custody of the sheriff.]
52
	2. If the principal is released under non-monetary conditions, the 53	court shall, in the document authorizing the principal's release, notify 54	court shall, in the document authorizing the principal's release, notify the principal of:

2	cipal's conduct; and
3	(b) the consequences for violation of those conditions, which could
4	include revoking of the securing order, setting of a more restrictive
5	securing order, or, after the hearing as specified in article five
6	hundred forty-five of this title, pretrial detention.
7	3. The court shall notify all principals released under non-monetary
8	conditions and on recognizance of all court appearances in advance by 9	text message, telephone call, electronic mail, or first class mail.
10	\S 8. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding four new sections
11	510.42, 510.44, 510.46 and 510.48 to read as follows:
12	§ 510.42 Court appearance reminders.
13	The court shall notify all principals released on recognizance or 14	under non-monetary conditions of all court appearances by text message,
15	telephone call, electronic mail, or first class mail. The court may 16	partner with the certified pretrial services agency or agencies in that 17	county to provide such notifications.
18	§ 510.44 Pretrial service agencies.
19	The office of court administration shall certify a pretrial services
20	agency or agencies in each county to monitor principals released under 21	conditions of non-monetary release. Such agency or agencies shall be a
22	public entity under the supervision and control of a county or munici-
23	pality or a non-profit entity under contract to the county or munici-
24	pality. A county shall be authorized to enter in to a contract with 25	another county or municipality in the state to monitor principals
26	released under conditions of non-monetary release in its county but 27	shall not contract with any private entity for such purposes. Any crite-
28	ria, instrument, or tool used to determine a principal's eligibility for 29	non-monetary conditions or to determine the condition or conditions to 30	be monitored by a pretrial services agency shall be made available to 31	any person upon written or oral request. Pretrial service agencies shall 32	be prohibited from denying services to any principal released under 33	conditions of non-monetary release.
34	§ 510.46. Pretrial risk assessment tool.
35	1. No algorithmic pretrial risk assessment tool should be used for 36	decisions that may result in detention or electronic monitoring and may 37	only recommend release or release with conditions.
38	2. Any questionnaire, instrument or tool used with a principal in the 39	process of considering or determining the principal's possible release
40	on recognizance, release under non-monetary conditions or used with a 41	principal in the process of considering or determining a condition or 42	conditions of release or monitoring by a pretrial services agency, shall
43	be promptly made available to the principal and the principal's counsel
44	upon written request. Any such blank form questionnaire, instrument or 45	tool regularly used in the county for such purpose or a related purpose
46	shall be made available to any person promptly upon request.
47	3. Any such questionnaire, instrument or tool shall be:
48	(a) free from discriminatory and disparate impact on detention and
49	other outcomes based on age, race, creed, color, national origin, sexual
50	orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, mari-
51	tal status, disability, or any other constitutionally protected class,
52	regarding the use thereof; and
53	(b) empirically validated and regularly revalidated, with such vali-
54	dation and revalidation studies and all underlying data, except personal
55	identifying information for any defendant, publicly available upon
56	request.

§ 510.48. Electronic monitoring. 1 When it is shown pursuant to subdivision one of this section that no 2 other realistic non-monetary condition or set of non-monetary conditions 3 4 will suffice to reasonably assure the principal's return to court, the 5 principal's location may be monitored with an approved electronic moniб toring device, in accordance with this section. A principal shall not be 7 required to pay for any part of the cost of release on non-monetary 8 conditions. 9 1. Electronic monitoring of a principal's location may be ordered only 10 if the court finds, after notice, an opportunity to be heard and an 11 individualized determination that is not based on a risk assessment tool and that is explained on the record or in writing, that the defendant 12 13 gualifies for electronic monitoring in accordance with subdivision twen-14 ty-one of section 500.10 of this title, and no other realistic non-mone-15 tary condition or set of non-monetary conditions will suffice to reason-16 ably assure a principal's return to court. 17 (a) the specific method of electronic monitoring of the principal's location must be approved by the court. It must be the least restrictive 18 19 procedure and method that will reasonably assure the principal's return 20 to court, and unobtrusive to the greatest extent practicable. 21 (b) electronic monitoring of the location of a principal may be 22 conducted only by a public entity under the supervision and control of a county or municipality or a non-profit entity under contract to the 23 county, municipality or the state. A county or municipality shall be 24 authorized to enter into a contract with another county or municipality 25 26 in the state to monitor principals under non-monetary conditions of 27 release in its county, but counties, municipalities and the state shall 28 not contract with any private for-profit entity for such purposes. 29 (c) electronic monitoring of a principal location may be for a maximum 30 period of sixty days, and may be renewed for such period, after notice, 31 an opportunity to be heard and a de novo, individualized determination 32 in accordance with this subdivision, which shall be explained on the 33 record or in writing. A defendant subject to electronic location monitoring under this subdivision shall be considered held or confined in 34 custody for purposes of section 180.80 of this chapter and shall be 35 36 considered committed to the custody of the sheriff for purposes of 37 sections 170.70 and 30.30 of this chapter, as applicable. 38 2. Electronic monitoring orders shall be limited to individuals who 39 stand charged in the case before the court or a pending case that is an 40 offense that is a class A felony defined in the penal law or a felony enumerated in section 70.02 of the penal law. 41 42 8 9. Section 510.50 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read 43 as follows: 44 § 510.50 Enforcement of securing order. 45 When the attendance of a principal confined in the custody of the 46 sheriff or pursuant to a pretrial detention order is required at the criminal action or proceeding at a particular time and place, the court 47 may compel such attendance by directing the sheriff to produce him or 48 her at such time and place. If the principal is at liberty on [his] the 49 50 principal's own recognizance [or on bail, his] or non-monetary condi-51 tions the principal's attendance may be achieved or compelled by various 52 methods, including notification and the issuance of a bench warrant, 53 prescribed by law in provisions governing such matters with respect to 54 the particular kind of action or proceeding involved. Prior to issuing a 55 bench warrant, the court must provide the principal forty-eight hours advance notice that he or she is required to appear in court in order to 1 2 give the principal the opportunity to appear voluntarily. § 10. Article 520 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED. 3 4 § 11. The article heading of article 530 of the criminal procedure law 5 is amended to read as follows: б SECURING ORDERS [OF RECOCNIZANCE 7 OR BAIL] WITH RESPECT TO DEFENDANTS IN CRIMINAL 8 ACTIONS AND PROCEEDINGS -- WHEN AND BY WHAT COURTS 9 AUTHORIZED 10 12. Section 530.10 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read § 11 as follows: § 530.10 [Order of recognizance or bail] Securing order; in general. 12 13 Under circumstances prescribed in this article, a court, upon applica-14 tion of a defendant charged with or convicted of an offense, is required 15 [or authorized to order bail or recognizance] to issue a securing order 16 for the release or prospective release of such defendant during the 17 pendency of either: 1. A criminal action based upon such charge; or 18 19 2. An appeal taken by the defendant from a judgment of conviction or a 20 sentence or from an order of an intermediate appellate court affirming 21 or modifying a judgment of conviction or a sentence. 22 13. Subdivision 4 of section 530.11 of the criminal procedure law, S as added by chapter 186 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as 23 24 follows: 25 4. When a person is arrested for an alleged family offense or an 26 alleged violation of an order of protection or temporary order of 27 protection or arrested pursuant to a warrant issued by the supreme or family court, and the supreme or family court, as applicable, is not in 28 29 session, such person shall be brought before a local criminal court in 30 the county of arrest or in the county in which such warrant is return-31 able pursuant to article one hundred twenty of this chapter. Such local 32 criminal court may issue any order authorized under subdivision eleven 33 of section 530.12 of this article, section one hundred fifty-four-d or 34 one hundred fifty-five of the family court act or subdivision three-b of 35 section two hundred forty or subdivision two-a of section two hundred 36 fifty-two of the domestic relations law, in addition to discharging 37 other arraignment responsibilities as set forth in this chapter. In 38 making such order, the local criminal court shall consider the [bail 39 recommendation] securing order, if any, made by the supreme or family court as indicated on the warrant or certificate of warrant. Unless the 40 41 petitioner or complainant requests otherwise, the court, in addition to 42 scheduling further criminal proceedings, if any, regarding such alleged 43 family offense or violation allegation, shall make such matter return-44 able in the supreme or family court, as applicable, on the next day such 45 court is in session. 46 § 14. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 8 of section 530.13 of the criminal 47 procedure law, as added by chapter 388 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows: 48 (a) revoke [an order of recognizance or bail] a securing order and 49 50 commit the defendant to custody; or 51 § 15. The opening paragraph of subdivision 1 of section 530.13 of the 52 criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 137 of the laws of 2007, 53 is amended to read as follows: 54 When any criminal action is pending, and the court has not issued a 55 temporary order of protection pursuant to section 530.12 of this arti-56 cle, the court, in addition to the other powers conferred upon it by this chapter, may for good cause shown issue a temporary order of 1 protection in conjunction with any securing order [committing the 2 defendant to the sustedy of the sheriff or as a condition of a pre-trial 3 4 release, or as a condition of release on bail or an adjournment in 5 contemplation of dismissal]. In addition to any other conditions, such б an order may require that the defendant: 7 § 16. Subdivisions 9 and 11 of section 530.12 of the criminal proce-8 dure law, subdivision 9 as amended by section 81 of subpart B of part C 9 of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, subdivision 11 as amended by chapter 10 498 of the laws of 1993, the opening paragraph of subdivision 11 as amended by chapter 597 of the laws of 1998, paragraph (a) of subdivision 11 as amended by chapter 222 of the laws of 1994 and paragraph (d) of 12 11 13 subdivision 11 as amended by chapter 644 of the laws of 1996, are 14 amended to read as follows: 15 9. If no warrant, order or temporary order of protection has been 16 issued by the court, and an act alleged to be a family offense as 17 defined in section 530.11 of this [chapter] article is the basis of the arrest, the magistrate shall permit the complainant to file a petition, 18 information or accusatory instrument and for reasonable cause shown, 19 20 shall thereupon hold such respondent or defendant, [admit to, fix or 21 accept bail, establish a securing order or parole him or her for hearing before the family court or appropriate criminal court as the 22 complainant shall choose in accordance with the provisions of section 23 24 530.11 of this [chapter] article. 25 11. If a defendant is brought before the court for failure to obey any 26 lawful order issued under this section, or an order of protection issued 27 by a court of competent jurisdiction in another state, territorial or tribal jurisdiction, and if, after hearing, the court is satisfied by 28 29 competent proof that the defendant has willfully failed to obey any such 30 order, the court may: 31 (a) revoke [an order of recognizance or revoke an order of bail 32 order forfeiture of such bail] a securing order and commit the defendant 33 to custody; or 34 (b) restore the case to the calendar when there has been an adjourn-35 ment in contemplation of dismissal and commit the defendant to custody; 36 or 37 (c) revoke a conditional discharge in accordance with section 410.70 38 of this chapter and impose probation supervision or impose a sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the penal law based on the original 39 40 conviction; or 41 (d) revoke probation in accordance with section 410.70 of this chapter 42 and impose a sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the penal law 43 based on the original conviction. In addition, if the act which consti-44 tutes the violation of the order of protection or temporary order of 45 protection is a crime or a violation the defendant may be charged with 46 and tried for that crime or violation. 47 § 17. Section 530.20 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 531 of the laws of 1975, subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of 48 subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 218 of the laws of 1979, is amended 49 50 to read as follows: 51 § 530.20 [Order of recognizance or bail;] Securing order by local crimi-52 nal court when action is pending therein. 53 1. When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, such 54 court, upon application of a defendant, [must or may order recognizance 55 or bail as follows:

1 1. When the defendant is charged, by information, simplified informa-2 tion, prosecutor's information or misdemeanor complaint, with an offense or offenses of less than felony grade only, the court must order recog-3 4 nizance or bail. 5 2. When the defendant is charged, by felony complaint, with a felony, б the court may, in its discretion, order recognizance or bail except as 7 otherwise provided in this subdivision: (a) A sity court, a town court or a village court may not order recog-8 9 nigance or bail when (i) the defendant is charged with a class A felony, or (ii) it appears that the defendant has two previous felony 10 convictions; 11 (b) shall, by a securing order, release the defendant pending trial 12 13 on the defendant's personal recognizance, unless the court finds on the 14 record that release on recognizance will not reasonably assure the defendant's court attendance. In such instances, the court will release 15 16 the defendant under non-monetary conditions, selecting the least restrictive alternative that will reasonably assure the defendant's 17 court attendance. The court will support its choice of alternative on 18 the record. The defendant shall not be required to pay for any part of 19 20 the cost of release under non-monetary conditions. 21 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, 22 in cases where the people move for pretrial detention, the court may commit the defendant to the custody of the sheriff or issue a securing 23 order in accordance with article five hundred forty-five of this title. 24 25 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one or two of this 26 section, in cases where the defendant is charged by felony complaint 27 with a felony and either is charged with a class A felony, or it appears that the defendant has two previous felony convictions within the mean-28 ing of subdivision one of section 70.08 or 70.10 of the penal law; the 29 30 court, a city court, town court or a village court shall commit the 31 defendant to the custody of the sheriff for the county or superior court 32 to make a determination about a securing order within three days. 4. No local criminal court may order [recognizance or bail] a securing 33 order with respect to a defendant charged with a felony unless and 34 35 until[+ 36 (i) The district attorney has been heard in the matter or, after know-37 ledge or notice of the application and reasonable opportunity to be 38 heard, has failed to appear at the proceeding or has otherwise waived 39 his right to do so; and 40 (ii) The court [has], and counsel for the defense, have been furnished with a report of the division of criminal justice services 41 42 concerning the defendant's criminal record if any or with a police department report with respect to the defendant's prior arrest and 43 conviction record, if any. If neither report is available, the court, with the consent of the district attorney, may dispense with this 44 45 46 requirement; provided, however, that in an emergency, including but not 47 limited to a substantial impairment in the ability of such division or 48 police department to timely furnish such report, such consent shall not be required if, for reasons stated on the record, the court deems it 49 50 unnecessary. [When the court has been furnished with any such report or record, it shall furnish a copy thereof to counsel for the defendant or, 51 if the defendant is not represented by counsel, to the defendant.] 52 53 § 18. The section heading and subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 530.30 54 of the criminal procedure law, subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 762 55 of the laws of 1971, are amended to read as follows:

1 [Order of recognizance or bail;] Securing order by superior court judge when action is pending in local criminal court. 2 3 When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, 1. 4 [other than one consisting of a superior court judge sitting as such,] a 5 judge of a superior court holding a term thereof in the county, upon б application of a defendant, and within one working day, may order 7 [recognizance or bail] a securing order when such local criminal court: 8 (a) Lacks authority to issue such an order, pursuant to [paragraph (a) of subdivision [two] four of section 530.20 of this article; or 9 10 (b) Has denied an application for recognizance [or bail]; or 11 Has [fixed bail which is excessive] improperly granted a request (C) 12 for a pretrial detention hearing; or 13 (d) Has set a securing order of release under non-monetary conditions 14 which are more restrictive than necessary to reasonably ensure court attendance. In such case, such superior court judge may vacate the order 15 16 of such local criminal court and release the defendant on [his own] 17 recognizance [or fix bail in a legger amount or in a legg burdengome form] or under release with conditions, whichever is the least restric-18 tive alternative that will reasonably assure defendant's appearance in 19 20 court. The court will support its choice of alternative on the record.

21 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, 22 when the defendant is charged with a felony in a local criminal court, a superior court judge may not [order recognizance or bail] issue a secur-23 ing order unless and until the district attorney has had an opportunity 24 25 to be heard in the matter and such judge has been furnished with a 26 report as described in [subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of] subdivi-27 sion [two] four of section 530.20 of this article.

28 § 19. Section 530.40 of the criminal procedure law, subdivision 3 as amended by chapter 264 of the laws of 2003 and subdivision 4 as amended 29 30 by chapter 762 of the laws of 1971, is amended to read as follows:

31 § 530.40 [Order of recognizance or bail;] Securing order by superior 32 court when action is pending therein.

33 When a criminal action is pending in a superior court, such court, 34 upon application of a defendant, [must or may order recognizance or 35 bail shall issue a securing order as follows:

36 1. [When the defendant is charged with an offense or offenses of less 37 than felony grade only, the court must order recognizance or bail.

2. When the defendant is charged with a felony, the court may, in its 38 discretion, order recognizance or bail. In any such case in which an 39 indictment (a) has resulted from an order of a local criminal court 40 holding the defendant for the action of the grand jury, or (b) was filed 41 at a time when a felony complaint charging the same conduct was pending 42 in a local criminal court, and in which such local criminal court or a 43 superior court judge has issued an order of recognizance or bail which 44 45 is still effective, the superior court's order may be in the form of a 46 direction continuing the effectiveness of the previous order.] Release 47 the defendant pending trail on the defendant's personal recognizance, unless the court finds on the record that release on recognizance will 48 not reasonably assure the defendant's court attendance. In such 49 instances, the court will release the defendant under non-monetary 50 51 conditions, selecting the least restrictive alternative that will reasonably assure the defendant's court attendance. The court will 52 53 support its choice of alternative on the record. The defendant shall not 54 be required to pay for any part of the cost of release under non-mone-

55 tary conditions.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, 1 in cases where the people move for pretrial detention, the court may 2 commit the defendant to the custody of the sheriff or issue a securing 3 order in accordance with article five hundred forty-five of this title. 4 5 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision [two] one of this б section, a superior court may not [order recognizance or bail] issue a securing order, or permit a defendant to remain at liberty pursuant to 7 8 an existing order, after [he] the defendant has been convicted of 9 either: (a) a class A felony or (b) any class B or class C felony defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed or 10 attempted to be committed by a person eighteen years of age or older 11 against a person less than eighteen years of age. In either case the 12 13 court must commit or remand the defendant to the custody of the sheriff. 14 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision [two] one of this 15 section, a superior court may not [order recognizance or bail] issue a 16 securing order when the defendant is charged with a felony unless and until the district attorney has had an opportunity to be heard in the 17 matter and such court [has] and counsel for the defense have been 18 furnished with a report as described in [subparagraph (ii) of paragraph 19 (b) of subdivision [two] four of section 530.20 of this article. 20 21 § 20. Subdivision 1 of section 530.45 of the criminal procedure law, 22 as amended by chapter 264 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows: 23 24 1. When the defendant is at liberty in the course of a criminal action 25 as a result of a prior [order of recognizance or bail] securing order 26 and the court revokes such order [and then either fixes no bail or fixes bail in a greater amount or in a more burdensome form than was previous-27 ly fixed and remands or commits defendant to the custody of the sheriff, 28 a judge designated in subdivision two, upon application of the defendant 29 30 following conviction of an offense other than a class A felony or a class B or class C felony offense defined in article one hundred thirty 31 32 of the penal law committed or attempted to be committed by a person eighteen years of age or older against a person less than eighteen years 33 of age, and before sentencing, may issue a securing order and either 34 release defendant on his own recognizance, or fix bail, or fix bail in a 35 36 lesser amount or], such court may issue a more restrictive securing 37 order in a less [burdensome] restrictive form than fixed by the court in 38 which the conviction was entered. § 21. Section 530.60 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED. 39 40 § 22. Title P of the criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new 41 article 545 to read as follows: 42 ARTICLE 545--PRETRIAL DETENTION Section 545.10 Pretrial detention; when ordered. 43 44 545.20 Eligibility for a pretrial detention hearing. 45 545.30 Pretrial detention hearing. 46 545.40 Order for pretrial detention. 47 545.50 Review of detention orders. 48 545.60 Length of detention for defendant held under a pretrial 49 detention order. § 545.10 Pretrial detention; when ordered. 50 51 A county or superior court may order, before trial, the detention of a defendant if the people seek detention of the defendant under section 52 53 545.20 of this article, and, after a hearing pursuant to section 545.30 54 of this article, the court finds clear and convincing evidence that the defendant poses a high risk of intentional flight for the purpose of 55 56 evading criminal prosecution and that no conditions or combination of conditions in the community will reasonably assure the defendant's 1 return to court. There shall be a rebuttable presumption, that some 2 condition or conditions in the community will reasonably contain a high 3 4 risk of flight. That presumption may only be overcome by clear and convincing evidence. 5 б § 545.20 Eligibility for a pretrial detention hearing. 1. The people may make a motion seeking pretrial detention of a 7 8 defendant at any time, except that where the people did not so move when 9 the defendant initially came under control of the court, the people must 10 show a change of circumstances or that information exists that was not known to the people when the defendant initially came under control of 11 the court. The people may seek the pretrial detention of a defendant: 12 (a) charged with a class A felony except for class A felonies 13 14 contained in article two hundred twenty of the penal law; (b) charged with a class B or C violent felony under subdivision (a) 15 16 or (b) of section 70.02 of the penal law where there is an allegation that the defendant, with intent to cause serious physical injury to 17 another person, either caused such injury to such person or to a third 18 19 person, or attempted to cause such injury to such person or to a third 20 person; 21 (c) charged with a class B or C violent felony under subdivision (a) or (b) of section 70.02 of the penal law for the offenses found in arti-22 cle one hundred thirty of the penal law; 23 (d) charged with a felony terrorism offense under section 490.10, 24 490.15, 490.30, 490.35, 490.37, 490.40, 490.45, 490.47, 490.50 or 490.55 25 26 of the penal law; 27 (e) charged with an offense where, if convicted, the defendant would be subject to a sentence under section 70.08 of the penal law; 28 29 (f) charged with offenses involving witness intimidation under section 30 215.15, 215.16, or 215.17 of the penal law; or 31 (q) who has willfully and persistently failed to appear in court in 32 the instant case. 33 2. If, upon such motion by the people, the court finds that the people have shown a likelihood of success on their motion for pretrial 34 35 detention, the court may order a hearing pursuant to section 545.30 of this article. Upon ordering a hearing pursuant to section 545.30 of this 36 article, the court shall either commit the defendant to the custody of 37 the sheriff or issue a securing order. The court will support its 38 choice of alternative on the record. If the defendant is at liberty, the 39 court may issue a warrant and have the defendant brought into custody of 40 41 the sheriff, except that, before a bench warrant may be issued, the 42 court must provide the defendant forty-eight hours advanced notice that 43 he or she is required to appear in court in order to give them the 44 opportunity to appear voluntarily. 45 § 545.30 Pretrial detention hearing. 46 1. A hearing shall be held within two working days of the court order-47 ing a pretrial detention hearing. At the hearing, the defendant shall 48 have the right to be represented by counsel, and, if financially unable to obtain counsel, to have counsel assigned. The defendant shall be 49 afforded an opportunity to testify, to present witnesses, to cross-exa-50 51 mine witnesses who appear at the hearing, and to present information by 52 proffer or otherwise. 53 2. Prior to the hearing, the prosecution shall disclose to the defend-54 ant, and permit the defendant to discover, inspect, copy or photograph all statements or reports that relate to the prosecution's pretrial 55 56 detention motion that are in the possession, custody or control of the

1	prosecution, or persons under the prosecution's direction and control,
2	including:
3	(a) The complaint and supporting documents;
4	(b) Police reports;
5	(c) All statements, written or recorded or summarized in any writing
б	or recording, and the substance of all oral statements, made by the 7	defendant or a co-defendant;
8	(d) All statements, written or recorded or summarized in any writing
9	or recording, made by persons whom the prosecutor knows to have evidence
10	or information that relate to the subject matter of the case;
11	(e) All statements or reports upon which the prosecution relies in the 12	hearing; and
13	(f) All facts, evidence, and information favorable to the defendant,
14	including but not limited to information that tends to negate the 15	defendant's guilt or that tends to mitigate the defendant's culpability
16	as to a charged offense, or that tends to support a potential defense
17	thereto, or that tends to support a motion to suppress evidence on 18	constitutional or statutory grounds, or that would tend to reduce the 19	punishment of the defendant, or that is relevant to a witness's credi-
20	bility, without regard to the materiality of the information.
21	3. In hearings in cases for which there is no indictment, the people
22	shall establish probable cause that the eligible defendant committed the 23	charged offense. The people must establish by clear and convincing
24	evidence that the defendant poses a high risk of intentional flight for 24 25	the purpose of evading criminal prosecution and that no condition or 26	combination of conditions in the community will reasonably assure the 20 27	defendant's return to court. The prosecution must present competent,
28	reliable evidence and may not rely on hearsay evidence to satisfy its 20 29	burden.
30	4. In determining whether the defendant presents a high risk of inten-
31	tional flight for the purpose of evading criminal prosecution and wheth-
32	er no condition or combination of conditions in the community will 33	reasonably assure the defendant's return to court, the court may take
34	into account the following information:

9	by the people or by the defendant, at any time before final disposition,
10	if the court finds either a change of circumstances or that information
11	exists that was not known to the people or to the defendant at the time
12	of the hearing, that has a material bearing on the issue of whether 13	defendant presents a high risk of intentional flight for the purpose of 14	evading criminal prosecution, and whether no condition or combination of

38	sheriff in a criminal action wherein the defendant is accused of one or 39	more offenses, at least one of which is a misdemeanor punishable by a
40	sentence of imprisonment of not more than three months and none of which
41	is a crime punishable by a sentence of imprisonment of more than three 42	months; or

47	2. The time within which a defendant must be brought to trial for the 48	purposes of paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision one of this section
49	may be extended upon a showing of exceptional circumstances, but by no more than two periods of up to twenty days each in a criminal action

3	(a) any period from the filing of the notice of appeal to the issuance
4	of the mandate in an interlocutory appeal;
5	(b) any period attributable to any examination to determine the б	defendant's sanity or lack thereof or his or her mental or physical
7	competency to stand trial;
8	(c) any period attributable to the inability of the defendant to 9	participate in the defendant's defense because of mental incompetency or 10	physical incapacity; and
11	(d) any period in which the defendant is otherwise unavailable for 12	trial.
13	3. If the defendant has not been brought to trial within the applica-
14	ble time period established by this subdivision, the defendant shall be

Section 150.30 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED. 10 § 26. Subdivision 1 of section 150.40 of the criminal procedure law is 11 amended to read as follows: 1. An appearance ticket must be made returnable at a date as soon as 12 13 possible, but in no event later than twenty days from the date of issu-14 ance. The appearance ticket shall be made returnable in a local criminal 15 court designated in section 100.55 of this title as one with which an 16 information for the offense in question may be filed. 17 27. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section S 150.80 to read as follows: 18 19 § 150.80 Court appearance reminders. 20 1. A police officer or other public servant who has issued and served 21 an appearance ticket must, within twenty-four hours of issuance, file or cause to be filed with the local criminal court the appearance ticket 22 and any contact information made available pursuant to subdivision three 23 of section 150.10 of this article. 24 25 2. Upon receipt of the appearance ticket and any contact information 26 made available pursuant to subdivision three of section 150.10 of this 27 article, the local criminal court shall issue a court appearance reminder and notify the arrestee of their court appearances by text message, 28 telephone call, electronic mail, or first class mail. The local criminal 29 30 court may partner with a certified pretrial services agency or agencies 31 in that county to provide such notification and shall include a copy of 32 the appearance ticket. 33 3. A local criminal court is not required to issue a court appearance reminder if the appearance ticket requires the arrestee's appearance 34 within seventy-two hours of its issuance, or no contact information has 35 36 been provided. 37 § 28. Article 68 of the insurance law is REPEALED. 38 § 29. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 9 of section 216.05 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 258 of the laws of 2015, is amended 39 40 to read as follows: 41 (a) If at any time during the defendant's participation in the judi-42 cial diversion program, the court has reasonable grounds to believe that 43 the defendant has violated a release condition or has failed to appear before the court as requested, the court shall direct the defendant to 44 45 appear or issue a bench warrant to a police officer or an appropriate 46 peace officer directing him or her to take the defendant into custody and bring the defendant before the court without unnecessary delay; 47 provided, however, that under no circumstances shall a defendant who 48 requires treatment for opioid abuse or dependence be deemed to have 49 violated a release condition on the basis of his or her participation in 50 medically prescribed drug treatments under the care of a health care 51 professional licensed or certified under title eight of the education 52 53 law, acting within his or her lawful scope of practice. The provisions 54 of [subdivision one of] section [530.60] 545.50 of this chapter relating to [revocation of recognizance or bail] issuance of securing orders 55 56 shall apply to such proceedings under this subdivision.

1	§ 30. Subdivision 2 of section 620.40 of the criminal procedure law is
2	amended to read as follows:
3	2. If the proceeding is adjourned at the prospective witness'
4	instance, for the purpose of obtaining counsel or otherwise, the court
5	must order him to appear upon the adjourned date. The court may further
6	[fix bail] impose non-monetary conditions to secure his appearance upon
7	such date or until the proceeding is completed [and, upon default there-
8	of, may commit him to the custody of the sheriff for such period].
9	§ 31. Subdivisions 2 and 3 of section 620.50 of the criminal procedure
10	law are amended to read as follows:
11	2. If the court is satisfied after such hearing that there is reason-
12	able cause to believe that the prospective witness (a) possesses infor-
13	mation material to the pending action or proceeding, and (b) will not be 14	amenable or respond to a subpoena at a time when his attendance will be
