Introduced by Sen. BAILEY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Corporations, Authorities and Commissions

AN ACT to amend the New York state urban development corporation act and the economic development law, in relation to the creation of micro-business worker cooperatives upon transfer of ownership

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 16-m of section 1 of chapter 174 2 of the laws of 1968, constituting the New York state urban development corporation act, is amended by adding a new paragraph (o) to read as follows:

- (o) Assistance to eligible entities pursuant to article five-A of the cooperative corporations law to provide financing in the form of loans, loan quarantees, and interest subsidy grants to subsidize loans from federally chartered instrumentalities and state and private lending institutions to facilitate the creation of worker cooperatives that 10 promote continuation of existing micro-businesses either as a part of a preexisting business succession of ownership plan or as alternative 12 option if a business is being offered for sale or transfer by the 13 current owner or the heirs or estate of a deceased owner. For the 14 purposes of this section, a micro-business shall be defined as a business with five or less full-time or full-time equivalent employees. All 16 eligible entities shall be required to submit a business plan with their application requesting assistance.
- 18 § 2. The opening paragraph of section 104-a of the economic develop-19 ment law, as added by chapter 788 of the laws of 1983, is amended to 20 read as follows:
- 21 With respect to employee ownership assistance loans provided for in 22 subtitle six of title eight of article eight of the public authorities 2.3 law and paragraph (o) of subdivision one of section sixteen-m of section
