AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to enacting the voter friendly ballot act; and to repeal section $7-108$ of such law relating to the form of ballots

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "voter friendly ballot act".
§ 2. Paragraph a of subdivision 3 of section $7-102$ of the election law, as added by chapter 371 of the laws of 1990 , is amended to read as follows:
a. In the event that a candidate in a primary election believes that the name of another candidate for the same office or position at such election is sufficiently similar to his or hers so as to cause confusion among the voters, such candidate may, not later than five days after the last day to file the certificates or petitions of designation, file with the board of elections with which such certificates or petitions of designation are filed, a request that such board determine that such a sufficient similarity exists.
§ 3. Section 7-104 of the election law, as amended by chapter 165 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:
§ 7-104. Ballots; form of [, voting machine]. 1. All ballots shall be printed and/or displayed in a format and arrangement, of such uniform size and style as will fit the ballot [frame], and shall be in as plain and clear a type or display as the space will reasonably permit, using only sans serif print fonts. Such type or display on the ballot shall satisfy all requirements and standards set forth pursuant to the federal Help America Vote Act.

2. The names of parties or independent bodies which contain more than fifteen letters may, whenever limitations of space so require, be printed on the ballot in an abbreviated form. In printing the names of candidates whose full names contain more than fifteen letters, only the surname must be printed in full. The officer or board charged with the duty of [preparing the ballots] certifying the candidates for such office shall request each such candidate to indicate, in writing, the shortened form in which, subject to this restriction, his or her name shall be printed. If no such indication is received from such candidate within the time specified in the request, such officer or board shall make the necessary determination.
3. (a) The party name or other designation [, and a designating lettex and numbex] shall be affixed to the name of each candidate, or, in case of presidential electors, to the names of the candidates for president and vice-president of such party.
(b) A column/row designating number may be affixed to the name of each candidate, or in the case of presidential electors, to the names of the candidates for president and vice-president of such party.
(c) The titles of offices may be arranged horizontally, with the names of candidates for an office and the space, slot or device for write-in [ballete] votes for such office arranged vertically under the title of the office, or the titles of offices may be arranged vertically, with the names of candidates for an office and the space, slot or device for write-in [ballets] votes for such office arranged horizontally opposite the title of the office.
[(e)] (d) Each office shall occupy as many columns or rows on the [maehine] ballot as the number of candidates to be elected to that office, except where candidate placements due to cross endorsements require additional columns or rows.
4. (a) The names of all candidates nominated by any party or independent body for an office shall always appear in the row or column containing generally the names of candidates nominated by such party or independent body for other offices except as hereinafter provided.
(b) When the same person has been nominated for an office to be filled at the election by more than one party, the voting machine shall be so adjusted that his or her name shall appear in each row or column containing generally the names of candidates for other offices nominated by any such party.
(c) If such candidate has also been nominated by one or more independent bodies, his or her name shall appear only in each row or column containing generally the names of candidates for other offices nominated by any such party and the name of each such independent body shall appear in one such row or column to be designated by the candidate in a writing filed with the officer or board charged with the duty of [providing ballets] certifying the candidates for such office, or if such person shall fail to so designate, the names of such independent bodies shall appear in such row or column as such officer or board shall determine.
(d) If any person shall be nominated for any office by one party and two or more independent bodies his or her name shall appear on the [woting machine] ballot twice; once in the row or column containing generally the names of candidates for other offices nominated by such party, and once in the row or column containing generally the names of candidates nominated by the independent body designated by such person in a writing filed with the officer or board charged with the duty of [providing ballots] certifying the candidates for such office and in connection with the name of such person in such row or column shall appear the name of each independent body nominating him or her or, if such person shall fail to so designate, the name of such candidate and the names of such independent bodies shall appear in such row or column as such officer or board shall determine.
(e) If any person is nominated for any office only by more than one independent bodies, his or her name shall appear but once upon the machine in one such row or column to be designated by the candidate in a writing filed with the officer or board charged with the duty of providing ballots, or if the candidate shall fail to so designate, in the place designated by the officer or board charged with the duty of [providing balleto] certifying the candidates for such office, and in connection with his or her name there shall appear the name of each independent body nominating him or her, but, where the capacity of the [maehine] ballot will permit, the name of such person shall not appear or be placed in a column or on a horizontal line with the names of persons nominated by a party for other offices.
5. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision four of this section, the name of a person who is nominated for the office of governor, or state senator, or member of assembly, shall appear on the ballot as many times as there are parties or independent bodies nominating him or her, and there shall be a separate voting [and registering deviee] position at each place in which such name shall appear.
6. If any type of machine used in any county or city contains any feature approved by the state board of elections, the use of which is neither required nor prohibited by the provisions of this chapter, the board of elections may, by resolution, require that one or more of such features shall be used in such county. Thereafter all machines of such type used in such county or city shall be operated in conformity with any such resolution. Any such resolution may thereafter be rescinded by such board and after being so rescinded may be re-adopted. Once re-adopted by any board of elections, such a resolution may not be rescinded again by such board.
7. The ballot shall have printed upon it in black ink for each party or independent row, at the head of the column or the beginning of the row containing the names of candidates, [the image of a olesed fiet with index finger extended pointing to the party or independent row. In the same space, in black letters as large as the spaee will permit, shall be printed] the name of the party or independent body [and at the right of the fiot and below the index fingex ohall be printed in blaek ink the emblem] and the designating [letters] letter of the row or column.
8. With respect to candidates for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor of a party or independent body, ballots shall be printed so that the names of such candidates for both offices shall appear in the same row or column, with the name of the candidate for governor appearing first and the ballot shall be so adjusted that both offices are voted for jointly and have but one designating [letter ox] number if such column/row designating numbers are utilized.
9. In those counties in which ballots are required by federal law, or otherwise, to be provided in a language other than English, there shall be versions of the ballot printed in English and in each of the additional languages required so that each version of the ballot shall contain English and no more than two other languages. The county board of elections in such counties shall instruct, in their poll worker training and materials, the procedures to be followed to ensure that each voter receives a ballot with the appropriate language as determined by the state board.
10. Each ballot shall contain instructions for marking the ballot. The instructions shall be printed in line lengths no wider than five inches. Ballot instructions may be printed on the front or back of the ballot or on a separate sheet or card. If such instructions are not printed on the front of the ballot, there shall be printed on the ballot, in the largest size type practicable, the following legend: "See instructions on the other side" or "See instructions (insert where instructions are found)", whichever is appropriate.
11. The offices appearing on all ballots shall be listed in the customary order.
12. If two or more candidates are nominated for the same office for different terms, the term for which each is nominated shall be printed as a part of the title of the office.
13. The text for ballot instructions shall be substantially as follows, so that it accurately reflects the ballot layout:

INSTRUCTIONS

Mark the (insert "oval" or "square") to the left of the name of your choice. (Provide illustration of correctly-marked voting position here.) To vote for a candidate whose name is not printed on the ballot, (insert "mark the oval (or square) to the left of 'write-in' and print the name clearly" or "print the name clearly in the box labeled 'write-in'"), staying within the box. Any mark or writing outside the spaces provided for voting may void the entire ballot. The number of choices is listed for each contest. Do not mark the ballot for more candidates than allowed. If you do, your vote in that contest will not count. If you make a mistake, or want to change your vote, ask a poll worker for a new ballot.
14. The state board of elections shall provide line drawing illustrations to supplement these instructions. At a minimum, an illustration of the correct way to mark the ballot shall be provided, but nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the board in providing additional illustrations.
15. When a question or proposal is included on the ballot, instructions substantially like the following shall be included:

Instructions for Voting on Questions and Proposals

To vote on a question or proposal, mark the (insert "oval" or "square") to the (insert "left", "above" or "below") of your choice. If you make a mistake, or want to change your vote, ask a poll worker for a new ballot.
16. When a question or proposal appears on the back of the ballot, there shall appear on the front of the ballot words or a symbol indicating that the voter should turn over the ballot.
17. The voting oval or square shall be to the left of the name of the candidate.
18. All text, including the name of each candidate as provided in subdivision three of this section, shall be printed using standard capitalization in accordance with instructions provided by the state board of elections and shall not be printed using all capital letters.
19. The ballot shall use one font or font family with enough variations for all text needs.
20. "Vote for one" or "Vote for up to ......" (the blank space to be filled with the number of persons to be nominated for the office or elected to the position), as applicable, shall be printed immediately below each office title appearing on the ballot.
21. No party emblems shall be printed on the ballot.
22. The names of candidates for the same office shall appear on the same page and in the same column or columns or row or rows of that page of a printed ballot, and may not be separated by a perforation.
23. All text, including the title of each office and the name of each candidate, shall be printed flush left and shall not be centered on the ballot or in any column or row appearing on the ballot; provided however, in a multi-column or multi-row contest, the title and number of allowable selections to be made for each such office may be centered.
24. If used, shading shall be used consistently, so as to differentiate instructions from ballot section dividers and contest information.
25. Above, below, or to the right of the name of each candidate, shall be printed, in less prominent type face than that in which the candidate's name is printed, the name of the political party or independent body by which the candidate was nominated or designated.
26. All paper ballots of the same kind for the same polling place shall be identical.
27. To the extent practicable, the ballot shall also comply with the following specifications:
(a) The instructions in subdivision ten of this section shall be printed in the upper left hand corner of the front of the ballot;
(b) The name of each candidate shall be printed using a font size of not less than nine points;
(c) When the instructions are contained on the ballot, there shall be a clear delineation between the ballot instructions and the first office or ballot question or proposal through the use of white space, illustration, shading, color, font size, or bold type.
§ 4. Section $7-106$ of the election law, the section heading and subdivisions 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 as amended and subdivisions 8, 9, 10 and 11 as renumbered by chapter 165 of the laws of 2010 , is amended to read as follows:

§ 8. Subdivisions 2, 3, 4 and 6 of section $7-116$ of the election law, subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 234 of the laws of 1976 , subdivision 3 as amended by chapter 9 of the laws of 1978 and the second undesignated paragraph of subdivision 6 as amended by chapter 121 of the laws of 1997, are amended to read as follows:
2. The officer or board who or which prepares the ballot shall determine the order in which shall appear, below the names of party candidates the nominations made only by independent bodies. Such officer or board also shall determine the order in which shall be printed[, in a section of such ballot] the names of two or more candidates nominated by one party or independent body, for an office to which two or more persons are to be elected; provided, however, that any such candidate may, by a writing filed with such board or officer not later than [ene week] three business days after the adjournment of the convention or one week after the primary election nominating him or her, or otherwise not later than two days after the filing of the petition or certificate nominating him or her, demand that such order be determined by lot, and in that case such order shall be so determined, upon two days notice by mail given by such board or officer to each candidate for such office. The state board of elections shall perform the duties required by this subdivision in all cases affecting nominations filed in its office.
3. The officer or board with whom or which are filed the designations for a public office or party position shall determine by lot, upon two days notice by mail given by such board or officer to each candidate for such office or position and to the committee, if any, named in the designating petition, the order in which shall be printed on the official primary ballot, under the title of the office or position, the names of candidates for public office, the names of candidates for a party position to which not more than one person is to be elected, and the groups of names of candidates for party position where two or more persons are to be elected thereto and any petition designates two or more persons therefor, provided, however, that whenever groups of names for more than one party position are designated by the same petition, the order in which they shall be printed on the official primary ballot shall be determined by a single lot. Candidates for delegate or delegates and alternate delegate or delegates to conventions designated by the same petition shall, for the purpose of this subdivision, be treated as one group. The names of candidates, if any, for a party position to which two or more persons are to be elected, who are designated by individual petitions and not in a group shall be printed [below] after such group or groups, in such order between themselves, as such officer or board shall determine by lot upon the notice specified in this subdivision. The names within a group of candidates designated for party position by one petition shall be printed in the same order in which they appear in the petition, unless they appear in a different order on different pages of the petition, in which case their order within the group shall be determined by such officer or board by lot upon the notice specified in this subdivision. Candidates for members of a state committee designated by a single petition shall, for the purposes of this subdivision, be treated as one group. However, the notice to a committee of the drawing need not be mailed to more than five members, if there be that many, and as to offices or party positions for which designating petitions are filed with the board of elections of the city of New York the notice shall be given to the committees only.
4. If a vacancy in a designation or nomination be filled after the making, in the manner provided in this section, of a determination of the order in which the names of candidates for the office or position are to be printed, to the extent practicable, the name of the candidate designated or nominated to fill such vacancy shall be printed in the place so determined for the original candidate.
6. [In the oity of New York, the ballet on the voting maehine for primary eleetions ohall eonform to the following additional provioione:

The names of the eandidates deoignated for oueh publie offiee-or party pooition in the primary of a paxty ohall be plaeed undex the title of the office or position in the alphabetical order of their surnames, in the first or lowest numbered assembly distriet and election distriet of any political unit or subdivision within a county. If candidates' surnames are identioal, their given or first name shall determine their oxder. Thereafter the names shall be rotated by eleetion dietriets by trancposing the firet named eandidate to the bottom-of the order at each suceeeding election distriet, so that each name shall appear first and in each other pooition in an equal number, ag neaxly ag poosible, of the election diotrieto and exeept, further, that where two or moxe eandidates are to be elected to the same party position, the names of eandidates for sueh a position which appear on the same designating petition shall be grouped together on the ballot in the order in which their names appear on the designating petition and the group rotated alphabetieally in relation to other groups or individual eandidates aeoording to the surname of the first person on the designating petition of sueh group. Groups of eandidates for delegate and altexnate delegate, and groups of eandidates for male and female delegate and male and female alternate delegate to the same eonvention designated on the same petition ohall be retated together alphabetieally in relation to other groups or individual eandidates aceording to the surname of the first person listed on sueh designating petition in the group of candidates for whichever of sueh delegate or alternate delegate positions will appear first on the roting machine. If the rules of a party oommittee provide for equal representation of the sexes among the membere of $a$ state committee eleoted from-each unit of representation, eleetions for male and female membero of ouch a eommittee from a oingle unit of representation ohall be eonducted as electiong for two different party positions. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, if the board of elections has assigned numbers to the eandidates for an offiee ox position because of identieal ox similax names among sueh eandidates, the names of sueh eandidates shall be plaeed undex the title of sueh office or position in the oxder of sueh numbers in sueh fixet or lowest numbered distriet, and the names shall not be rotated by eleetion distriet. Sueh names shall appear in the identieal order on eaeh ballet in each eleetion diotriet.

§ 15. Section 7-128 of the election law is amended to read as follows:
§ 7-128. Ballots; inspection of. 1. Each officer or board charged with the duty of providing official ballots for an election shall have sample ballots open to public inspection [five] fifty days, except in the case of extraordinary circumstances in which case on the earliest day practicable, before the election for which [they-were] the ballots have been prepared and the official ballots open to such inspection [four] fifty days, except in the case of extraordinary circumstances in which case on the earliest day practicable, before such election except that the sample and official ballots for a village election held at a different time from a general election shall be open to public inspection at least two days before such election. During the times within which the ballots are open for inspection, such officer or board shall deliver to each voter applying therefor a sample of the ballot which he or she is entitled to vote.
2. a. Each officer or board charged with the duty of preparing ballots to be used [on voting maehines] in any election shall give written notice, by first class mail, to all candidates, except candidates for member of the county committee, who are lawfully entitled to have their names appear thereon, of the time when, and the place where, they may inspect the [wing machines] ballots to be used for such election. The candidates or their designated representatives may appear at the time and place specified in such notice to inspect such [machines] ballots, provided, however, that the time so specified shall be [not less than two] no later than forty-six days [prior to the date of] before the election at which the ballots will be used.
b. A candidate, whose name appears on the ballot [for an election dictrict or his or her designated representative, may, in the presence of the election officer attending the [ machine] ballot, inspect the [ace of the machine] ballot to see that his or her ballot [label] position is in its proper place[, but at no time during the inspection shall the booth be elosed] or places.
3. Each officer or board charged with the duty of preparing ballots to be used with voting machines or systems in any election shall give written notice, by first class mail, to all candidates, except candidates for member of the county committee, who are lawfully entitled to have their names appear thereon, of the time when, and the place where, they may inspect the voting machines or systems to be used for such election. The candidates or their designated representatives may appear at the time and place specified in such notice to view the conduct of the logic and accuracy testing required to be performed on such voting machines or systems, provided however, that the time so specified shall be not less than twenty days prior to the date of the election.
§ 16. Section $7-130$ of the election law is amended to read as follows: § 7-130. Ballots; examination by voters and instruction in use of voting machines. One or more voting machines which shall contain the ballot labels, showing the [party emblems and] title of officers to be voted for, and which shall so far as practicable contain the names of the candidates to be voted for, shall be placed on public exhibition in some suitable place by the board of elections, in charge of competent instructors, for at least three days during the thirty days next preceding an election. No voting machine which is to be assigned for use in an election shall be used for such purpose after having been prepared and sealed for the election. During such public exhibition, the counting mechanism of the machine shall be concealed from view and the doors may be temporarily opened only when authorized by the board or official having charge and control of the election. Any voter shall be allowed to examine such machine, and upon request shall be instructed in its use.
§ 17. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to ballots to be used for elections occurring on or after the first day of July next succeeding the year in which it shall have become a law.
