- Introduced by Sens. KAPLAN, SANDERS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Commerce, Economic Development and Small Business -- recommitted to the Committee on Commerce, Economic Development and Small Business in accordance with Senate Rule 6, sec. 8 -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee
- AN ACT to amend the economic development law and the tax law, in relation to authorizing the creation of small business tax-deferred savings accounts

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The economic development law is amended by adding a new
2	section 138-a to read as follows:
3	§ 138-a. Small business tax-deferred savings accounts. 1. A "small
4	business taxpayer" or "small business" shall have the same meaning as
5	defined in section one hundred thirty-one of this article and shall meet
6	the requirements of paragraph (f) of subdivision one of section two
7	hundred ten of the tax law.
8	2. Any small business shall be authorized to establish and deposit
9	profits into a small business tax-deferred savings account.
10	3. The monies in such tax-deferred savings accounts may be deposited
11	or withdrawn tax free when they are expended for expansion of such small
12	business for the purpose of creating or preserving full time jobs.
13	4. For the purposes of this act, a qualifying purpose shall include
14	small business taxpayer expenditures that result in the creation or
15	retention of full-time jobs. In addition, working capital used for other
16	activities, deemed appropriate by the department, which will improve the
17	competitiveness and productivity of a small business and results in the
18	creation or retention of full-time jobs shall be considered a qualifying
19	business expenditure. Qualifying small business taxpayer expenditures
20	for the purpose of this section shall include, but not be limited to,

1	non construction and the construction of local dimensions and the construct
1	new construction, renovation or leasehold improvements, and the acquisi-
2	tion of land, buildings, machinery and equipment.
3	5. The monies on deposit in such tax-deferred savings accounts may not
4	exceed more than five thousand dollars in any taxable year.
5	6. On or before April first, and annually thereafter, the department,
6	in consultation with the department of taxation and finance, shall
7	report on the number of small business taxpayers utilizing this program,
8	the average aggregate amount on deposit, the qualifying expenses
9	claimed, any qualifying expenses deemed inappropriate and any other such data deemed necessary and appropriate by the department.
11	§ 2. Section 209 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision
12	13 to read as follows:
13	13. For any taxable year beginning on or after January first, two
14	thousand twenty-one, any small business, as such term is defined pursu-
15	ant to section one hundred thirty-eight-a of the economic development
16	law, shall be exempt from all state income taxes imposed pursuant to
17	this article for any deposit or withdrawal from a small business tax-de-
18	ferred savings account established pursuant to section one hundred thir-
19	ty-eight-a of the economic development law and used for the expansion of
20	such small business for the purpose of creating or preserving full time
21	jobs. If a small business taxpayer files for and receives an exemption
22	from the state income tax imposed under this section pursuant to the
23	provisions of this subdivision and the funds deposited or withdrawn, or
24	any portion thereof, are not expended for a qualifying purpose as set
25	forth in section one hundred thirty-eight-a of the economic development
26	law, then the amount of such exemption claimed by the small business
27	taxpayer shall be added back to the amount of state income liability tax
28	in the next succeeding taxable year or in the year in which the
29	exemption is disallowed.
30	§ 3. Subsection (c) of section 612 of the tax law is amended by adding
31	a new paragraph 43 to read as follows:
32	(43) Any deposit or withdrawal from a small business tax-deferred
33	savings account established pursuant to section one hundred thirty-
34	eight-a of the economic development law and used for the expansion of 35
	such small business for the purpose of creating or preserving full time
36	jobs. If a small business taxpayer files for and receives an exemption
37	from the state income tax imposed under this section pursuant to the
38	provisions of this paragraph and the funds deposited or withdrawn, or
39	any portion thereof, are not expended for a qualifying purpose as set
40	forth in section one hundred thirty-eight-a of the economic development
41	law, then the amount of such exemption claimed by the small business
42	taxpayer shall be added back to state income tax in the next succeeding
43	taxable year or in the year in which the exemption is disallowed.
44	§ 4. The department of taxation and finance, in consultation with the
45	department of economic development, shall review and analyze all statis-
46	tical data available for such purposes of determining the economic and
47	revenue impact associated with this act. Such data shall be included in
48	an annual report that shall also include, but not be limited to, the
49	number of small business taxpayers utilizing this program, the average
50	aggregate amount on deposit, the qualifying expenses claimed, any quali-
51	fying expenses deemed inappropriate and any other such data deemed
52	necessary and appropriate by the department. Such annual report shall be
53	posted on the websites of the department of taxation and finance and the
54	department of economic development, and transmitted to the governor, the
55	temporary president of the senate, the senate minority leader, the
