Introduced by Sen. ROBACH -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Local Government

AN ACT to amend the general municipal law, in relation to salary increases for heads of police departments of municipalities, districts or authorities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The general municipal law is amended by adding a new 2 section 207-m to read as follows:

3 § 207-m. Salary increases for heads of police departments of munici-
4 palities, districts or authorities. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of 5 any general, special or local law or administrative code to the contra-6 ry, and except in police departments which employ five hundred seventy-7 five or more permanent sworn police personnel, whenever the base salary 8 or other compensation of the permanent full-time police officer who is a 9 member of a negotiating unit and who is the highest ranking subordinate 10 to the head of the police department in such unit, is increased, the 11 salary, as defined in subdivision two of this section, of the permanent 12 full-time head of the police department shall be increased by at least 13 the same dollar amount of the base salary increase received by such next 14 subordinate police officer, and the other compensation, as defined in 15 subdivision two of this section, of the permanent full-time head of the 16 police department shall be increased to the same extent and with the 17 same conditions as the other compensation received by the next subordi-18 nate police officer in the event that such subordinate officer's other 19 compensation is increased. The provisions of this section shall not 20 apply to any head of a police department who is a member of a collective 21 negotiating unit established pursuant to article fourteen of the civil 22 service law.

23 2. For the purposes of this section, salary shall mean fixed periodic 24 compensation payable by an employer to or for the account of the employee for personal services rendered by such employee; other compensation shall mean all other forms of benefits which are credited to employees as a term of employment, which shall specifically include, but not be limited to, employer contribution to or payments of insurance or welfare benefits and employer contributions to pension or annuity funds. Overtime, holiday and shift differential pay shall not be considered as salary or other compensation unless by resolution, ordinance, special or local law the municipality, district or authority elects to include these items of compensation within the employment benefit package of the permanent full-time head of the police department.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
