AN ACT to amend the executive law and the criminal procedure law, in relation to establishing the office of special investigation

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 70-b 2 to read as follows: 3 § 70-b. Office of special investigation. 1. There shall be estab-4 lished within the department of law an office of special investigation 5 which shall investigate and, if warranted, prosecute any alleged criminal offense or offenses committed by a person who is a police officer as б defined in subdivision thirty-four of section 1.20 of the criminal 7 8 procedure law, or a peace officer as defined in subdivision thirty-three 9 of section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law, concerning the death, or 10 the investigation of the death, of any person where such death resulted 11 from or potentially resulted from any encounter with such police officer 12 or peace officer, whether or not such person was in custody. The office 13 shall have the powers and duties specified in subdivisions two and eight 14 of section sixty-three of this article for purposes of this section, and 15 shall possess and exercise all the prosecutorial powers necessary to investigate and, if warranted, prosecute such offenses, provided, howev-16 er, that approval, direction or requirement of the governor as may 17 otherwise be required by such subdivisions shall not be required. The 18 19 jurisdiction of the office of special investigation shall displace and supersede in all ways the authority and jurisdiction of the county 20 21 district attorney for the investigation and prosecution of such 22 offenses. In any investigation and prosecution conducted pursuant to this section, the district attorney shall only exercise such powers and 23 24 perform such duties as designated to him or her by the office of special 25 investigation. The office of special investigation within the department

1	of law shall be headed by the deputy attorney general appointed by the
2	attorney general pursuant to subdivision three of this section.
3	2. (a) In any investigation and prosecution undertaken pursuant to
4	this section, the office of special investigation shall conduct a full,
5	reasoned, and independent investigation including, but not limited to:
6	(i) gathering and analyzing evidence; (ii) conducting witness inter-
7	views; and (iii) reviewing and commissioning any necessary investigative
8	and scientific reports, and reviewing audio and video recordings.
9	(b) In all matters pursuant to subdivision one of this section, the 10	deputy attorney general, appointed pursuant to subdivision three of this
11	section, may appear in person or by any assistant attorney general he or
12	she may designate before any court or grand jury in the state and exer-
13	cise all of the powers and perform all of the duties with respect to 14	such actions or proceedings which the district attorney would otherwise
15	be authorized or required to exercise or perform.
16	3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the attorney general
17	shall, without civil service examination, appoint and employ, fix his or
18	her compensation, and at his or her pleasure remove, a deputy attorney
19	general in charge of the office of special investigation. The attorney
20	general may, and without civil service examination, appoint and employ,
21	and at pleasure remove, such assistant deputies, investigators and other
22	persons as he or she deems necessary, determine their duties and fix
23	their compensation.
24	4. (a) Where an investigation or prosecution of the type described in 25	subdivision one of this section involves acts that appear to have been
26	engaged in by a police officer or peace officer employed by the state of
27	New York, the attorney general shall promptly apply to a superior court
28	in the county in which such acts allegedly occurred for the appointment
29	of an independent counsel to investigate and potentially prosecute such
30	matter. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, such court
31	shall thereupon appoint a qualified and experienced attorney at law,
32	capable of investigating and prosecuting such matter, not employed as a
33	district attorney, assistant district attorney or assistant attorney
34	general, and having no personal or professional conflicts of interest,
35	to act as an independent counsel with respect to such matter, at a
36	reasonable and appropriate hourly rate to be set by such court.
37	(b) The attorney general shall promptly notify the state comptroller,
38	the court and the public when such appointment has been made and
39	accepted by such attorney. Reasonable fees for attorneys and investi-
40	gation and litigation expenses shall be paid by the state to such
41	private counsel from time to time during the pendency of the investi-
42	gation and any prosecution and appeal, upon the audit and warrant of the 43	comptroller. Any dispute with respect to the payment of such fees and
44	expenses shall be resolved by the court upon motion or by way of a
45	special proceeding.
46	(c) In all matters pursuant to subdivision one of this section, the
47	independent counsel appointed pursuant to this subdivision shall possess
48	and exercise the powers and duties of the office of special investi-
49	gation pursuant to subdivisions one and two of this section, and may
50	appear in person or by any assistant independent counsel he or she may
51	designate before any court or grand jury in the state and exercise all
52	of the powers and perform all of the duties with respect to such actions
53	or proceedings which the district attorney would otherwise be authorized
54	or required to exercise or perform.
55	5. (a) With respect to any investigation pursuant to this section, the
56	office of special investigation or the independent counsel, as the case may be, shall, as a part of the duties under this section, prepare and 1 2 publicly release a report on all cases where: (i) the office or inde-3 pendent counsel, as the case may be, declines to present evidence to a 4 grand jury regarding the death of a person as described in subdivision 5 one of this section; or (ii) the grand jury declines to return an б indictment on any felony charges. 7 (b) The report shall include: (i) with respect to subparagraph (i) of 8 paragraph (a) of this subdivision, an explanation as to why such office 9 or independent counsel declined to present evidence to a grand jury; 10 (ii) with respect to subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, a report of the outcome of the grand jury proceedings and, to the 11 greatest extent possible, an explanation of that outcome; and (iii) any 12 13 recommendations for systemic or other reforms arising from the investi-14 gation. 6. Six months after this subdivision takes effect, and annually on 15 such date thereafter, the office of special investigation shall issue a 16 17 report, which shall be made available to the public and posted on the website of the department of law, which shall provide information on the 18 19 matters investigated by such office, and by independent counsel 20 appointed pursuant to subdivision four of this section, during such 21 reporting period. The information presented shall include, but not be limited to: the county and geographic location of each matter investi-22 gated; a description of the circumstances of each case; racial, ethnic, 23 age, gender and other demographic information concerning the persons 24 25 involved or alleged to be involved; information concerning whether a 26 criminal charge or charges were filed against any person involved or 27 alleged to be involved in such matter; the nature of such charges; and the status or, where applicable, outcome with respect to all such crimi-28 nal charges. Such report shall also include recommendations for any 29 30 systemic or other reforms recommended as a result of such investi-31 gations. 32 2. Subdivision 6 of section 190.25 of the criminal procedure law is 8 33 amended to read as follows: 6. (a) The legal advisors of the grand jury are the court and the 34 35 district attorney, and the grand jury may not seek or receive legal advice from any other source. Where necessary or appropriate, the court 36 or the district attorney, or both, must instruct the grand jury concern-37 ing the law with respect to its duties or any matter before it, and such 38 39 instructions must be recorded in the minutes. (b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subdivision, or any other 40 41 law to the contrary, in any proceeding before a grand jury that involves 42 the submission of a criminal charge or charges against a person or 43 persons for an act or acts that occurred at a time when such person was 44 police officer or peace officer, and that concern the death of any 45 person that resulted from or potentially resulted from any encounter 46 with such police officer or peace officer, the court, after consultation on the record with the prosecutor, shall instruct the grand jury as to 47 the criminal charge or charges to be submitted and the law applicable to 48 such charges and to the matters before such grand jury. Thereafter, any 49 questions, requests for exhibits, requests for readback of testimony or 50 51 other requests from the grand jury or a member thereof shall be provided 52 to the court, and addressed by the court after consultation on the 53 record with the prosecutor. 54 (c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision four of this

55 section, or any other law to the contrary, following final action by the 56 grand jury on the charge or charges submitted pursuant to paragraph (b)
