4 be the policy of the legislature to prevent sexual harassment among the

7 The provisions of this section apply to the employment conditions of 8 each house.

2 tion retained by the house or jointly by both houses;

3 (e) provisions clarifying that members, managers and supervisory who 4 become aware of conduct that violates the sexual harassment policy are

6 wish to make a complaint or asks that the information be kept confiden-7 tial; and

8 (f) a requirement that the house or the houses jointly retain outside 9 counsel or organizations, which will be responsible for investigation 10 and reports of findings, conclusions and recommendations for additional 11 action based on complaints of sexual harassment.

12 3. The policy shall define "employee" for the purposes of this section 13 to include, but not be limited to, interns, temporary employees, and 14 individuals employed pursuant to a fellowship solely for the purposes of 15 rights and remedies due to an incident of sexual harassment.

16 4. Such policy statement shall be widely distributed by providing it 17 to all employees, including it in new employee orientation materials and 18 publicizing it in internal employee publications and on their public

20 her receipt of such policy statement.

21 5. The policy adopted by each house shall provide that upon receipt of 35 tration as the case may be will have the authority to make the final 36 determination of appropriate sanction, if any is warranted, after 37 considering the investigation report and any other evidence brought to 38 his or her attention. If the secretary of the senate or director of 39 assembly administration determines that the policy was not violated or 40 that there is insufficient evidence to make such a finding, the 41 complainant may appeal to the speaker of the assembly or temporary pres-

42 ident of the senate in each respective house.

43 6. The independent officer designated in each house shall be required 44 to investigate all complaints against members and issue a report summa-45 rizing findings and recommendation, including any referral to the 46 respective standing committee on ethics in each house of the legisla-
47 ture, or law enforcement as may be necessary and appropriate, to remedy
48 any discriminatory conduct found in such report. The independent officer 49 shall provide an initial determination of the validity of an allegation
50 of sexual harassment within sixty days of a complaint and a recommenda-
51 tion of action within thirty days after the conclusion of the investi-
52 gation and initial determination.

53 7. The outside counsel or organizations retained pursuant to paragraph 54 (f) of subdivision two of this section shall not be subject to termi-

13 of this section, and every year thereafter; and 15 ees by the appointing authority, an additional one hour every year.

16     9. The provisions of this section shall be deemed to be in compliance 17 with section two hundred one-g of the labor law.
