1 victim; the name of the employee or volunteer against whom the allegation was made; and a listing of the specific allegations of child abuse in an educational setting. Such written report shall be upon a form as prescribed in section eleven hundred thirty-two of this article, and shall be personally delivered to the school district superintendent employed by the school district where the child abuse occurred or, for a school other than a school district or public school, the school administrator employed by the school where the child abuse occurred.

- § 2. Subdivision 3 of section 1132 of the education law, as added by a chapter of the laws of 2018, amending the education law relating to child abuse in an educational setting, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 7372-B and A. 8485-B, is amended to read as follows:
- 3. All persons employed on or after July first, two thousand nineteen 14 by a school, other than a school district or public school, in titles equivalent to a teacher or administrator as defined in the regulations 16 of the commissioner, and any school bus driver employed by a school or 17 any person or entity that contracts with a school to provide transportation services to children shall be required to complete two hours of 19 coursework or training regarding the identification and reporting of 20 child abuse and maltreatment. The coursework or training shall be 21 obtained from an institution or provider that has been approved by the department to provide such coursework or training. The coursework or 22 training shall include information regarding the physical and behavioral 23 24 indicators of child abuse and maltreatment and the statutory reporting requirements set out in sections four hundred thirteen through four hundred twenty of the social services law, including but not limited to, 27 when and how a report must be made, what other actions the reporter is mandated or authorized to take, the legal protections afforded repor-28 ters, and the consequences for failing to report. Each employee in such 30 titles shall provide the school administrator of the school with 31 documentation showing that he or she completed the required training. In 32 addition, each school bus driver shall provide such school or contracting person or entity with documentation showing that he or she completed the required training. The department shall be authorized to request 34 such records on a periodic basis and may publish a list of any persons or schools who are not in compliance with this subdivision on website.
  - Section 1134 of the education law, as added by a chapter of the laws of 2018, amending the education law relating to child abuse in an educational setting, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 7372-B and A. 8485-B, is amended to read as follows:
  - § 1134. Reporting to the vulnerable persons' central register and the statewide central register of child abuse and maltreatment. Where a person employed by a school is required to report an incident of child abuse in an educational setting to the vulnerable persons' central register pursuant to article eleven of the social services law or the statewide central register of child abuse and maltreatment pursuant to article six of the social services law and he or she reports such incident thereto, such person shall have been deemed to have complied with the reporting requirements of this article.
- 51 § 4. This act shall take effect on the same date and in the same 52 manner as a chapter of the laws of 2018, amending the education law relating to child abuse in an educational setting, as proposed in legis-54 lative bills numbers S. 7372-B and A. 8485-B, takes effect.
