AN ACT to amend the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to penalties for owners of property who fail to file a proper or timely rent registration statement

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The opening paragraph of paragraph 1 of subdivision a of section 12 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974 constituting the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, as amended by chapter 116 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

5 Subject to the conditions and limitations of this paragraph, any owner 6 of housing accommodations in a city having a population of less than one 7 million or a town or village as to which an emergency has been declared pursuant to section three, who, upon complaint of a tenant or of the state division of housing and community renewal, is found by the state 9 10 division of housing and community renewal, after a reasonable opportu-11 nity to be heard, to have collected an overcharge above the rent author-12 ized for a housing accommodation subject to this act shall be liable to 13 the tenant for a penalty equal to three times the amount of such overcharge. [$\frac{In \ no \ event \ shall \ such}{A}$] \underline{A} treble damage penalty \underline{shall} be 14 assessed against an owner based solely on said owner's failure to file a 15 proper or timely initial or annual rent registration statement. If the 16 owner establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that the overcharge 17 18 was neither willful nor attributable to his negligence, the state divi-19 sion of housing and community renewal shall establish the penalty as the 20 amount of the overcharge plus interest at the rate of interest payable 21 on a judgment pursuant to section five thousand four of the civil prac-22 tice law and rules. (i) Except as to complaints filed pursuant to clause

(ii) of this paragraph, the legal regulated rent for purposes of determining an overcharge, shall be deemed to be the rent indicated in the 3 most recent annual registration statement filed [four years prior to the 4 most regent registration statement, (or, if more regently filed, the 5 initial registration statement)], plus in each case any subsequent lawful increases and adjustments. [Where the amount of rent set forth in 6 the annual rent registration statement filed four years prior to the 7 8 most recent registration statement is not challenged within four years of its filing, neither such rent nor service of any registration shall 9 be subject to challenge at any time thereafter. [(ii) As to complaints 10 11 filed within ninety days of the initial registration of a housing accommodation, the legal regulated rent for purposes of determining an over-12 13 charge shall be deemed to be the rent charged on the date four years 14 prior to the date of the initial registration of the housing accommodation (or, if the housing accommodation was subject to this act for 15 16 less than four years, the initial legal regulated rent) plus in each 17 case, any lawful increases and adjustments. Where the rent charged on 18 the date four years prior to the date of the initial registration of the accommodation cannot be established, such rent shall be established by 19 20 the division. [Where the amount of rent set forth in the annual rent 21 registration statement filed four years prior to the most recent registration statement is not challenged within four years of its filing, 22 neither such rent nor service of any registration shall be subject to 23 challenge at any time thereafter. [(iii) Failure to file an annual rent 24 25 registration statement, shall result in a fine of two thousand dollars, 26 per unregistered housing accommodation made payable to the state divi-27 sion of housing and community renewal.

§ 2. The opening paragraph of subdivision a of section 26-516 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by chapter 116 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

30 31 Subject to the conditions and limitations of this subdivision, any 32 owner of housing accommodations who, upon complaint of a tenant, or of 33 the state division of housing and community renewal, is found by the 34 state division of housing and community renewal, after a reasonable 35 opportunity to be heard, to have collected an overcharge above the rent 36 authorized for a housing accommodation subject to this chapter shall be 37 liable to the tenant for a penalty equal to three times the amount of 38 such overcharge. [In no event shall such] A treble damage penalty shall be assessed against an owner based solely on said owner's failure to 39 file a timely or proper initial or annual rent registration statement. 40 41 the owner establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that the 42 overcharge was not willful, the state division of housing and community 43 renewal shall establish the penalty as the amount of the overcharge plus 44 interest. (i) Except as to complaints filed pursuant to clause (ii) of 45 this paragraph, the legal regulated rent for purposes of determining an 46 overcharge, shall be the rent indicated in the most recent annual regis-47 tration statement filed [four years prior to the most recent registra-48 tion statement, (or, if more recently filed, the initial registration statement)
]_ plus in each case any subsequent lawful increases and 49 adjustments. [Where the amount of rent set forth in the annual rent 50 registration statement filed four years prior to the most recent regis-51 tration statement is not challenged within four years of its filing, 52 53 neither such rent nor service of any registration shall be subject to 54 challenge at any time thereafter. [(ii) As to complaints filed within 55 ninety days of the initial registration of a housing accommodation, the 56 legal regulated rent shall be deemed to be the rent charged on the date four years prior to the date of the initial registration of the housing accommodation (or, if the housing accommodation was subject to this chapter for less than four years, the initial legal regulated rent) plus in each case, any lawful increases and adjustments. Where the rent charged on the date four years prior to the date of the initial registration of the accommodation cannot be established, such rent shall be established by the division. (iii) Failure to file an annual rent registration statement, shall result in a fine of two thousand dollars, per unregistered housing accommodation made payable to the state division of housing and community renewal.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that the amendments to the opening paragraph of paragraph 1 of subdivision a of section 12 of section 4 of the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four made by section one of this act shall expire on the same date as such act expires and shall not affect the expiration of such act as provided in section 17 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974, and that the amendments to the opening paragraph of subdivision a of section 26-516 of chapter 4 of title 26 of the administrative code of the city of New York made by section two of this act shall expire on the same date as such law expires and shall not affect the expiration of such law as provided under section 26-520 of such law.
