AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to establishing a child sex abuse survivor hotline for past childhood sexual offense reporting

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature hereby finds that it 2 is in the public interest to collect data about the extent of instances 3 of past childhood sexual abuse which may have been unreported to appro-4 priate authorities at the time the abuse occurred or is still within the 5 existing statutory timeframe for criminal prosecution or the filing of a 6 civil claim. The consequences to victims from such past childhood sexual 7 abuse are often repressed for many years and can be devastating to the 8 victims and to society as a whole. Many incidents of abuse are also 9 unreported to enforcement authorities due to a fear of retaliation or 10 reprisal. In order to help determine the extent of this prior abuse, aid 11 in efforts to prosecute past childhood sexual abuse offenses and estab-
12 lish associated claims which may still be viable for legal action, aid 13 efforts to prevent future childhood sexual abuse, and help determine the 14 appropriate means of providing compensation for damages incurred by the 15 victims of past abuse, the legislature finds that the establishment of a 16 voluntary reporting program (a child sex abuse survivor hotline) for 17 incidents of past childhood sexual abuse is in the public interest.

18 § 2. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 837-t to 19 read as follows:

20 § 837-t. Child sex abuse survivor hotline for past childhood sexual 21 offense reporting. 1. The division of criminal justice services shall 22 maintain a toll free child sex abuse hotline for victims to report and 23 provide documentation of prior incidents of sexual abuse they have expe-24 rienced which occurred before the victim's eighteenth birthday and which

23 shall also report any incidents of abuse when the victim is less than 24 eighteen years of age at the time of reporting or when such abuse may be 25 ongoing to the office of children and family services and shall coordi-
26 nate with the office to have such allegations investigated in a timely 27 manner pursuant to title six of article six of the social services law.
28 The division shall also retain and make available information on appro-29 priate advocacy groups and counseling organizations and mechanisms for 30 victim services and compensation which are available to the alleged 31 victim.

33 alleged victim shall remain confidential and may only be made available:

51 ment, or repeal of any rules and regulations necessary to implement the 52 provisions of this act on its effective date, are authorized to be 53 completed on or before such date.
