IN SENATE

January 30, 2019

Introduced by Sen. STAVISKY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to the request by parents for translated documents for students with disabilities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 4403 of the education law is amended by adding a new subdivision 22 to read as follows:

22. To provide any parent or person in parental relation with a student with a disability as defined pursuant to subdivision one of section forty-four hundred one of this article, all evaluations, individualized education programs, and related documents necessary to the implementation of such individualized education programs, translated into their primary language at the request of such parent, or person in parental relation, to the extent feasible. Such parent or person in parental relation must complete and submit a form to the department, provided by the department, which shall release such documents in compliance with applicable state and federal privacy laws for the purposes of translations. Such forms shall be issued by the department and made available to schools upon request and published on the department's website. Translation of documents shall not impede the implementation of a student's individualized education program or other services. No school district shall be liable for the failure of the department to provide an accurate translation.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
