(b) If any party, or a person who at the time that an action for medical malpractice is commenced or thereafter is an officer, director, member, employee or agent of a party or otherwise under the party's 3 control, intentionally destroys, mutilates or significantly alters any medical record, the party or person shall be subject to a civil penalty of not less than one thousand dollars for each such act. In addition, any person who has been injured because of such intentional destruction, mutilation or significant alteration of a medical record may bring an action against the party and/or person responsible therefor to recover damages if such destruction of evidence made it impossible or signif-10 icantly impeded the plaintiff's ability to prove his or her claim. The 11 12 court may award reasonable attorney's fees to a prevailing plaintiff.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to any 14 intentional destruction, mutilation or significant alteration of a 15 medical record occurring on or after such date.
