Introduced by Sen. FELDER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Cities

AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring a police officer to be present at schools within the city of New York during instructional hours

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 10-179 to read as follows:

§ 10-179 School safety measures. The police commissioner of the city shall assign a police officer at least one hour prior to the commencement of instructional hours at every school, public and/or private, within the city of New York. Such police officer shall remain on site at such school during instructional hours and for a minimum one hour post instructional hours unless, in the discretion of the mayor of the city or the police commissioner of the city, a state of emergency exists requiring redeployment of a police officer during the required hours set forth in this section.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
