Introduced by Sen. LANZA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to vacating convictions for offenses resulting from sex trafficking, labor trafficking and compelling prostitution

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Legislative intent. The purpose of this legislation is to strengthen protection for the victims of sex trafficking, labor traf-2 ficking, compelling prostitution and trafficking in persons, who are convicted of a range of offenses as a result of that trafficking or compelling. New York's landmark law offering the vacating of convictions for prostitution-related offenses that were a result of this trafficking has been the model for laws in more than half of the states. However, several states wisely offer this relief to victims who may be compelled 9 to participate in other offenses as well. This legislation would follow 10 that example. Granting relief under this provision has always been based 11 on consideration of the circumstances and the interest of justice; this 12 legislation reiterates that.

§ 2. Paragraph (i) of subdivision 1 of section 440.10 of the criminal 14 procedure law, as amended by chapter 368 of the laws of 2015, the opening paragraph as amended by chapter 189 of the laws of 2018, is amended 16 to read as follows:
