d. Nothing in this section shall be construed to disallow recordings or metadata from being used for disciplinary, hiring or other personnel decisions.

- e. Anyone who requests a recording or metadata, as specified in paragraph a of this subdivision and released pursuant to section eighty-seven of the public officers law, may also request any or all records of agencies as defined in subdivisions three and four of section eighty-six of the public officers law, necessary only to identify any officer in the recording or metadata.
- § 2. The opening paragraph of section 1-a of the civil rights law designated subdivision 1 and a new subdivision 2 is added to read as follows:
- 2. The term "recording", as used in this chapter, shall mean an original photographic record, disc, tape, audio or video cassette, wire, film, hard drive, flash drive, memory card or other data storage device or any other medium on which such sounds, images, or both sounds and images are or can be recorded or otherwise stored, or a copy or reproduction that duplicates in whole or in part the original.
- § 3. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 2 of section 89 of the public officers law, as amended by section 11 of part U of chapter 61 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:
- (c) Unless otherwise provided by this article, disclosure shall not be construed to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision:
 - i. when identifying details are deleted or redacted;
- when the person to whom a record pertains consents in writing to disclosure;
- 28 iii. when upon presenting reasonable proof of identity, a person seeks 29 access to records pertaining to him or her; or
 - iv. when a record or group of records relates to the right, title or interest in real property, or relates to the inventory, status or characteristics of real property, in which case disclosure and providing copies of such record or group of records shall not be deemed an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, provided that nothing herein shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of electronic contact information, such as an e-mail address or a social network username, that has been collected from a taxpayer under section one hundred four of the real property tax law.
- § 4. Paragraph (d) of subdivision 1 of section 160.50 of the criminal 40 procedure law, as amended by chapter 449 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:
- (d) such records shall be made available to the person accused or to such person's designated agent, and shall be made available to (i) a 44 prosecutor in any proceeding in which the accused has moved for an order pursuant to section 170.56 or 210.46 of this chapter, or (ii) a law enforcement agency upon ex parte motion in any superior court, or in any district court, city court or the criminal court of the city of New York provided that such court sealed the record, if such agency demonstrates to the satisfaction of the court that justice requires that such records 50 be made available to it, or (iii) any state or local officer or agency with responsibility for the issuance of licenses to possess guns, when the accused has made application for such a license, or (iv) the New York state department of corrections and community supervision when the 54 accused is on parole supervision as a result of conditional release or a 55 parole release granted by the New York state board of parole, and the 56 arrest which is the subject of the inquiry is one which occurred while
