Prohibited creditor practices. No [principal] creditor, as 41 defined by this article, or his or her agent shall: 42 Simulate in any manner a law enforcement officer, or a represen-43 tative of any governmental agency of the state of New York or any of its 44 political subdivisions; or 45 2. Knowingly collect, attempt to collect, or assert a right to any 46 collection fee, attorney's fee, court cost or expense unless such 47 [changes] charges are justly due and legally chargeable against the 48 debtor; or 49 3. Disclose or threaten to disclose information affecting the debtor's 50 reputation for credit worthiness with knowledge or reason to know that 51 the information is false; or 52 4. Communicate or threaten to communicate the nature of a consumer 53 [claim] debt to the debtor's employer prior to obtaining final judgment The provisions of this subdivision shall not 54 against the debtor. 55 prohibit a [principal] creditor from communicating with the debtor's employer to execute a wage assignment agreement if the debtor has 1 2 consented to such an agreement; or 5. Disclose or threaten to disclose information concerning the exist-3 4 ence of a debt known to be disputed by the debtor without disclosing 5 that fact; or б б. Communicate with the debtor or any member of his or her family or 7 household at any time other than between the hours of 8:00 A.M. and 9:00 8 P.M. local time or with such frequency [or at such unusual hours] or in 9 such a manner as can reasonably be expected to abuse or harass the 10 debtor; or 11 7. Threaten any action which the [principal] creditor in the usual course of his or her business does not in fact take; or 12 13 Claim, or attempt or threaten to enforce a right with knowledge or 8. 14 reason to know that the right does not exist; or 15 9. Use a communication which simulates in any manner legal or judicial 16 process or which gives the appearance of being authorized, issued or 17 approved by a government, governmental agency, or attorney at law when 18 it is not; or 19 10. Remotely disable a vehicle using a payment assurance device 20 defined in paragraph sixty-a of subsection (a) of section 9-102 of the 21 uniform commercial code or by any other means in order to repossess a debtor's vehicle without first having given written notice of the possi-22 ble remote disabling of a vehicle in the method and timetable agreed 23 upon by the consumer and the creditor in the initial contract for 24 25 services. The notice shall be mailed by registered or certified mail to 26 the address at which the debtor will be residing on the expected date of 27 the remote disabling of the vehicle. The notice shall be postmarked no later than ten days prior to the date on which the [principal] creditor 28 29 or his or her agent obtains the right to remotely disable the vehicle; 30 or 31 11. If such [principal] creditor or agent sends more than fifty infor-32 mation subpoenas per month, fail to keep complete records concerning all 33 information subpoenas sent by such [principal] creditor or agent. Such records shall be maintained for five years. Contemporaneous records 34 35 shall be kept that set forth with specificity the grounds for such 36 [principal] creditor or agent's reasonable belief, which must be certi-37 fied and accompany each information subpoena pursuant to rule fifty-two 38 hundred twenty-four of the civil practice law and rules, that the party receiving the subpoena has in its possession information about the 39 debtor that will assist the creditor in collecting his or her judgement. 40 41 In addition to any other penalty that may be imposed, failure to main-42 tain records in accordance with this subdivision shall subject such 43 [principal] creditor or agent to a civil penalty of not more than fifty 44 dollars per subpoena, up to a maximum of five thousand dollars per 45 violation, in an action brought by the attorney general $[+ \text{ or }]_{\cdot}$ 46 § 601-a. Disclosure by [principal] creditors and/or debt collection 47 agencies. No [principal] creditors and/or debt collection agencies shall make any representation that a person is required to pay the debt of a 48 family member in a way that contravenes with the Fair Debt Collection 49 Practices Act (15 USC § 1692 et seq.). In addition, the [principal] 50 51 creditors and/or debt collection agencies shall not make any misrepre-52 sentation about the family member's obligation to pay such debts. 53 602. Creditor responsibilities. Every creditor or his or her agent S 54 shall send a notice to the last known address of the debtor advising the 55 debtor when his or her debt is being sold or transferred, prior to or 56 contemporaneous with the sale of the debt. A copy of this notice shall

1	be transmitted to the person, firm, organization or entity to whom the
2	creditor or his or her agent has agreed to sell or transfer the debt,
3	along with a copy of any notice in regard to the debt provided to the 4	creditor in accordance with paragraph (b) of subdivision seven of 5	section six hundred three of this article. A creditor shall provide a б	copy of such notice to any debt collection agency hired to collect such
7	debt.
8	§ 603. Prohibited debt collection practices. It is an unconscionable
9	and deceptive trade practice for a debt collection agency to attempt to 10	collect a debt owed, due, or asserted to be owed or due except in 11	accordance with the following:
12	1. Acquisition of location information. Any debt collection agency
13	communicating with any person other than the consumer for the purpose of 14	acquiring location information about the consumer in order to collect a 15	debt shall:
16	(a) identify himself or herself, state that he or she is confirming or 17	correcting location information about the consumer, and, only if 18	expressly requested, identify his or her employer;
19	(b) not state or imply that such consumer owes any debt;
20	(c) not communicate with any such person more than once, unless
21	requested to do so by such person or unless the debt collection agency
22	reasonably believes that the earlier response of such person is errone-
23	ous or incomplete and that such person now has correct or complete
24	location information. For the purposes of this paragraph, the debt
25	collection agency need not count as a communication returned unopened
26	mail or a message left with a party other than the person the debt
27	collection agency is attempting to reach in order to acquire location
28	information about the consumer, as long as the message is limited to a
29	telephone number, the name of the debt collection agency and a request
30	that the recipient telephone the debt collection agency;
31	(d) not communicate by post card;
32	(e) not use any language or symbol on any envelope or in the contents
33	of any communication effected by the mails or telegram that indicates
34	that the debt collection agency is in the debt collection business or 35	that the communication relates to the collection of a debt, provided
36	that a debt collection agency may use its business name or the name of a
37	department within its organization as long as any name used does not 38	connote debt collection; and
39	(f) if the debt collection agency knows the consumer is represented by 40	an attorney with regard to the subject debt and if the debt collection
41	agency has knowledge of the attorney's name and address or can readily
42	ascertain such attorney's name and address, not communicate with any
43	person other than that attorney for the purpose of acquiring location
44	information about the consumer unless the attorney fails to provide the 45	consumer's location within a reasonable period of time after a request
46	for the consumer's location from the debt collection agency and:
47	(i) informs the debt collection agency that he or she is not author-
48	ized to accept process for the consumer, or
49	(ii) fails to respond to the debt collection agency's inquiry about
50	the attorney's authority to accept process within a reasonable period of 51	time after the inquiry.
52	2. Communication in connection with debt collection. (a) Without the
53	prior written consent of the consumer given directly to the debt
54	collection agency after the institution of debt collection procedures,
55	or without permission of a court of competent jurisdiction, a debt

1	collection agency shall not communicate with the consumer in connection
2	with the collection of any debt:
3	(i) orally, at any time other than between the hours of 8:00 A.M. and 4	9:00 P.M. local time or any unusual place known, or which should be 5	known, to be inconvenient to the consumer;
б	(ii) at the consumer's place of employment. If the debt collection
7	agency has received consent from the consumer to communicate with the 8	consumer at the consumer's place of employment, the debt collection
9	agency may communicate with the consumer, unless the debt collection
10	agency knows or has reason to know that the consumer's employer or 11	supervisor prohibits the consumer from receiving such a communication;
12	or
13	(iii) with excessive frequency. In the absence of knowledge of circum-
14	stances to the contrary, a debt collection agency shall assume that more
15	than twice during a seven-calendar-day period is excessively frequent.
16	In making its calculation, the debt collection agency need not include
17	any communication between a consumer and the debt collection agency
18	which is in response to an oral or written communication from the 19	consumer, or returned unopened mail, or a message left with a party
20	other than one who is responsible for the debt as long as the message is
21	limited to a telephone number, the name of the debt collection agency
22	and a request that one who is responsible for the debt telephone the 23	debt collection agency; or any communication which is required by law or 24	chosen from among alternatives of which one is required by law.
25	(b) In order to collect a debt, and except as provided by subdivision
26	one of this section, without the prior written consent of the consumer
27	given directly to the debt collection agency after the institution of 28	debt collection procedures, or without the prior written consent of the 29	consumer's attorney or without the express permission of a court of 30	competent jurisdiction, or as reasonably necessary to effectuate a post
31	judgment judicial remedy, a debt collection agency may not communicate,
32	in connection with the collection of any debt, with any person other
33	than the consumer, his or her attorney, a consumer reporting agency if
34	otherwise permitted by law, the creditor, the attorney of the creditor,
35	or attorney of the debt collection agency.
36	(c) After institution of debt collection, a debt collection agency
37	shall not communicate with a consumer with respect to a debt if the 38	consumer has notified the debt collection agency in writing that the 39	consumer refuses to pay a debt or wishes the debt collection agency to 40	cease further communication with the consumer with respect to that debt,
41	except:
42	(i) to advise the consumer that the debt collection agency's further
43	efforts are being terminated;
44	(ii) to notify the consumer that the debt collection agency may invoke
45	specified remedies which are ordinarily invoked by such debt collection
46	agency;
47	(iii) where applicable, to notify the consumer that the debt
48	collection agency intends to invoke a specified remedy; or (iv) to respond to each subsequent communication from the consumer.
49 50
50 E 1	(d) For the purpose of this subdivision the term "consumer" includes
51 52	the consumer's parent (if the consumer is a minor), guardian, executor,
52 53	administrator, and spouse (unless the debt collection agency knows or has reason to know that the consumer is legally separated from or no
53 54	longer living with his or her spouse), or an individual authorized by
54 55	the consumer to make purchases against the account which is the subject
55 56	of the collection efforts. A request that the debt collection agency

1	cease further communication, provided for under this subdivision, if
2	made by the consumer's spouse or an individual authorized by the consum-
3	er to make purchases against the account, only affects the debt
4	collection agency's ability to communicate further with the person
5	making the request.
6	3. Harassment or abuse. A debt collection agency shall not harass,
7	oppress or abuse any person in connection with the collection of a debt.
8	Without limiting the general application of the foregoing, the following
9	conduct is prohibited:
10	(a) the use or threat of violence or other criminal means to harm the 11	physical person, reputation, or property of any person;
12	(b) the use of obscene or profane language or language the natural
13	consequence of which is to abuse the recipient of the communication;
14	(c) the advertisement for sale of any debt to coerce payment of the
15	debt;
16	(d) causing a telephone to ring or engaging any person in telephone
17	conversation repeatedly or continuously with intent to annoy, abuse, or 18	harass any person at the called number;
19	(e) the publication of a list of consumers who allegedly refuse to pay
20	debts, except to another employee of the debt collection agency's 21	employer or to a consumer reporting agency or to persons meeting the 22	requirements of 15 USC 1681a(f) or 15 USC 1681b(3); or
23	(f) except as provided by subdivision one of this section, the place-
24	ment of telephone calls without meaningful disclosure of the caller's
25	identity.
26	4. False or misleading representations. A debt collection agency shall 27	not make any false, deceptive, or misleading representation or means in 28	connection with the collection of any debt. Without limiting the general
29	application of the foregoing, the following conduct is prohibited:
30	(a) the false representation or implication that the debt collection
31	agency is vouched for, bonded by, or affiliated with the United States
32	or any state, including the use of any badge, uniform or facsimile ther-
33	eof;
34	(b) the false representation of:
35	(i) the character, amount, or legal status of any debt, or
36	(ii) any services rendered or compensation which may be lawfully
37	received by any debt collection agency for the collection of a debt;
38	(c) the false representation or implication that any individual is an
39	attorney or any communication is from an attorney;
40	(d) the representation or implication that nonpayment of any debt will
41	result in the arrest or imprisonment of any person or the seizure,
42	garnishment, attachment, or sale of any property or wages of any person
43	unless such action is lawful and the debt collection agency or creditor
44	intends to pursue such action;
45	(e) the threat to take any action that cannot legally be taken or that
46	is not intended to be taken;
47	(f) the false representation or implication that a sale, referral, or 48	other transfer of any interest in a debt shall cause the consumer to:
49	(i) lose any claim or defense to payment of the debt; or
50	(ii) become subject to any practice prohibited by this article;
51	(g) the false representation or implication made in order to disgrace
52	the consumer that the consumer committed any crime or other conduct;
53	(h) the false representation or implication that accounts have been
54	turned over to innocent purchasers for value;

(i) communicating or threatening to communicate to any person credit information which is known or which should be known to be false, including the failure to communicate a disputed debt's status as disputed;
(i) the false representation or implication that documents are legal process;
(k) the use of any false representation or deceptive means to collect or attempt to collect any debt or to obtain information concerning a consumer;
(1) the use or distribution of any written communication which simulates or is falsely represented to be a document authorized, issued, or approved by any court, official or agency of the United States, the state or any political subdivision thereof, or which creates a false impression as to its source, authorization, or approval;
(m) the false representation or implication that documents are not legal process forms and do not require action by the consumer; (n) the false representation or implication that a debt collection agency operates or is employed by a consumer reporting agency as defined by 15 USC 1681a(f);
(o) except as otherwise provided under subdivision one of this section and except for any communication which is required by law or chosen from among alternatives of which one is required by law, or any formal pleading in connection with any legal action, the failure to disclose clearly in all communications made to collect a debt or to obtain information about a consumer, that the debt collection agency is attempting to collect a debt and that any information obtained will be used for that purpose; or
(p) the use of any business, company, or organization name other than the true name of the debt collection agency's business, company, or organization.
5. Unfair practices. A debt collection agency shall not use any unfair or unconscionable means to collect or attempt to collect a debt. Without limitation of the foregoing, such prohibited conduct includes:
(a) the collection of any amount (including any interest, fee, charge, or expense incidental to the principal obligation) unless such amount is expressly authorized by the agreement creating the debt;
(b) the solicitation or use by a debt collection agency of any post-dated check or other postdated payment instrument for the purpose of threatening or instituting criminal prosecution;
(c) causing charges to be made to any person for communications by misrepresentation of true purpose of the communication. Such charges include collect telephone calls, telegram and wireless telephone fees;
(d) taking or threatening to take any nonjudicial action to effect dispossession or disablement of property if:
(i) there is no present right to possession of the property claimed as collateral;
(ii) there is no present intention to take possession of the property;
or
(iii) the property is exempt by law from such dispossession or disablement;
(e) communicating with a consumer regarding a debt by post card;
(f) using any language or symbol, other than the debt collection agency's address, on any envelope when communicating with a consumer by use of the mails or by telegram, or electronic communication copied to a third party except that a debt collection agency may use its business

1	name used does not indicate that he or she is in the business of debt
2	collection;
3	(g) communicating with a consumer regarding a debt without identifying
4	himself or herself and his or her employer or communicating in writing
5	with a consumer regarding a debt without identifying himself or herself
6	by name and address; or
7	(h) if any consumer owes multiple debts and makes any single payment
8	to any debt collection agency with respect to such debts, such debt
9	collection agency may not apply such payment to any debt which is 10	disputed by the consumer and, where applicable, shall apply such payment
11	in accordance with the consumer's directions.
12	6. Deceptive forms. It is unlawful for any person to design, compile 13	and furnish any form knowing that such form would be used to create the 14	false belief in a consumer that a person other than the creditor of such 15	consumer is participating in the collection of or in an attempt to 16	collect a debt such consumer allegedly owes such creditor, when in fact
17	such person is not so participating.
18	7. Validation of debts. The following validation procedures shall be 19	followed by debt collection agencies:
20	(a) Within five days after the initial communication with a consumer
21	in connection with the collection of any debt, a debt collection agency
22	shall, unless the following information is contained in the initial 23	communication or the consumer has paid the debt, send the consumer a
24	clear written notice titled "debtor's rights", which shall contain:
25	(i) the delineated amounts of the original debt, any interest and 26	penalties accrued, and the total debt due at the time of the notice,
27	(ii) the name, address and telephone number of the creditor to whom 28	the debt is owed, or such creditor's agent, and the name, address and 29	telephone number of the original creditor, if different from the current
30	debt collection agency,
31	(iii) the date the debt was deemed in default,
32	(iv) a statement that unless the consumer, within thirty days after 33	receipt of the notice, disputes the validity of the debt, or any portion
34	thereof, the debt will be assumed valid by the debt collection agency,
35	and
36	(v) a statement that, if the consumer notifies the debt collection
37	agency in writing within the thirty-day period at the address designated
38	by the debt collection agency in the notice, that the debt, or any 39	portion thereof is disputed, the debt collection agency will obtain
40	verification of the debt against the consumer and a copy of such verifi-
41	cation will be mailed to the consumer by the debt collection agency.
42	(b) If the consumer notifies the debt collection agency in writing
43	within the thirty-day period described in paragraph (a) of this subdivi-
44	sion that the debt, or any portion thereof is disputed, or if notice of 45	such dispute is given to the debt collection agency in accordance with 46	this article, the debt collection agency shall not attempt to collect
47	the amount in dispute until the debt collection agency obtains and mails
48	to the consumer verification of the debt. A debt collection agency that
49	receives such written notice shall provide a copy thereof to the owner
50	of the debt.
51	(c) The debt collection agency shall maintain for one year from the 52	date the debtor's rights notice was mailed, documentation of the date
53	such notice was mailed, the date the response, if any, was received and 54 any action taken following such response.

1 (d) The failure of a consumer to dispute the validity of a debt under 2 this section shall not be construed by any court as an admission of 3 liability by the consumer. 4 (e) The sending or delivery of any form or notice which does not 5 relate to debt collection and is expressly required by the Internal б Revenue Code of 1986, title V of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, or any 7 provision of federal or state law relating to notice of data security breach or privacy, or any regulation prescribed under any such provision 8 9 of law, shall not be treated as an initial communication in connection 10 with debt collection for purposes of this section. 11 (f) If the consumer notifies the debt collection agency in writing after the thirty-day period described in paragraph (a) of this subdivi-12 sion that the debt, or any portion thereof is disputed, the debt 13 14 collection agency shall obtain verification of the debt, and mail such verification to the consumer. The debt collection agency may continue to 15 16 attempt to collect the amount in dispute. 17 § 603-a. Selling or transferring of debts. Every debt purchaser or his or her agent shall send a notice to the last known address of the debtor 18 19 advising the debtor when the debt purchaser sells or transfers the debt, 20 prior to or contemporaneous with the sale of the debt. A copy of such 21 notice shall be transmitted to the person, firm, organization or entity to whom the debt purchaser or his or her agent has agreed to sell or 22 transfer the debt along with a copy of any notice in regard to the debt 23 24 provided to the debt purchaser in accordance with paragraph (b) of 25 subdivision seven of section six hundred three of this article. A debt 26 purchaser shall provide a copy of such notice to any debt collection 27 agency hired to collect such debt. 28 § 603-b. Private right of action. 1. Notwithstanding any right of 29 action granted to any governmental body pursuant to this article, any 30 person who has been injured by reason of violation of this article may 31 bring an action against any person or persons, to enjoin such unlawful 32 act, and to recover an amount equal to (a) any actual damage sustained 33 by such person as a result of such failure, and (b) such additional damages as the court may allow but not exceeding two thousand five 34 35 hundred dollars, and reasonable attorneys' fees. 36 2. Intent. A debt collection agency may not be held liable in any 37 action brought under this article, absent actual damage to the consumer, if the debt collection agency shows by a preponderance of evidence that 38 the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error 39 notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adopted to 40 41 avoid any such error. 42 3. Limitations. An action to enforce any liability created by this 43 article may be brought in any other court of competent jurisdiction, within two years from the date on which the violation occurs. 44 45 § [602.] 603-c. Violations and penalties. 1. Except as otherwise 46 provided by law, any person who [shall violate] violates the terms of this article [shall be] is guilty of a misdemeanor, and each such 47 48 violation shall be deemed a separate offense. 49 2.
