S. 3893 2

7. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, information provided to a licensing agent or the department by a person in furtherance of such person's obtaining a license, permit, stamp, button or tag issued pursuant to this title, shall not be disclosed or released outside of the department, provided that this subdivision shall not prohibit the department from sharing such information with: law enforcement personnel; or state or federal entities engaged in child support enforcement as authorized and required by state or federal law or regulation. The department shall establish procedures to ensure that such information is protected from disclosure outside of the department, as provided in this subdivision.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
