AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to enacting the "STAR credit bill of rights" and establishing the office of STAR ombudsman

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "STAR credit bill of rights".

2 § 2. Subclauses (I), (II) and (III) of clause (i) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph 10 of subsection (eee) of section 606 of the tax law, as amended by section 2 of part TT of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, are amended to read as follows:

3 (I) If the school district tax roll is filed with the commissioner on 4 or before July first, the determination of eligibility shall be made by 5 July fifteenth, or as soon thereafter as is practicable, and the advance 6 payment shall be issued by July thirtieth, or as soon thereafter as is 7 practicable. For each residential taxpayer in such school district that 8 the commissioner determines to be ineligible for a reason other than 9 failing to meet the income and residency requirements for such credit, 10 the commissioner shall notify, in writing, such taxpayer of his or her 11 ineligibility. Such notice mailed to residential taxpayers who are inel-12 igible for the credit allowed pursuant to this subsection because the 13 primary residence of such a taxpayer received a STAR exemption for the 14 associated fiscal year as set forth in clause (i) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph one of this subsection shall include information on how to switch to the credit program. Such notice shall be mailed to the residential taxpayer and postmarked no later than three days before the date set forth in this subclause. Such notice along with an appeal form and a list of all supporting documentation that may be required for such appeal shall be mailed to a residential taxpayer found ineligible for any other reason and postmarked no later than three days before the date set forth in this subclause.

(II) If the school district tax roll is filed with the commissioner after July first and on or before September first, the determination of eligibility shall be made by September fifteenth, or as soon thereafter as is practicable, and the advance payment shall be issued by September thirtieth, or as soon thereafter as is practicable. For each residential taxpayer in such school district that the commissioner determines to be ineligible for a reason other than failing to meet the income and residency requirements for such credit, the commissioner shall notify, in writing, such taxpayer of his or her ineligibility. Such notice mailed to residential taxpayers who are ineligible for the credit allowed pursuant to this subsection because the primary residence of such a taxpayer received a STAR exemption for the associated fiscal year as set forth in clause (i) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph one of this subsection shall include information on how to switch to the credit program. Such notice shall be mailed to the residential taxpayer and postmarked no later than three days before the date set forth in this subclause. Such notice along with an appeal form and a list of all supporting documentation that may be required for such appeal shall be mailed to a residential taxpayer found ineligible for any other reason and postmarked no later than three days before the date set forth in this subclause.

(III) If the school district tax roll is filed with the commissioner after September first, the determination of eligibility shall be made by the fifteenth day after such filing, or as soon thereafter as is practicable, and the advance payment shall be issued by the thirtieth day after such filing, or as soon thereafter as is practicable. For each residential taxpayer in such school district that the commissioner determines to be ineligible for a reason other than failing to meet the income and residency requirements for such credit, the commissioner shall notify, in writing, such taxpayer of his or her ineligibility. Such notice mailed to residential taxpayers who are ineligible for the credit allowed pursuant to this subsection because the primary residence of such a taxpayer received a STAR exemption for the associated fiscal year as set forth in clause (i) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph one of this subsection shall include information on how to switch to the credit program. Such notice shall be mailed to the residential taxpayer and postmarked no later than three days before the date set forth in this subclause. Such notice along with an appeal form and a list of all supporting documentation that may be required for such appeal shall be mailed to a residential taxpayer found ineligible for any other reason and postmarked no later than three days before the date set forth in this subclause.

§ 3. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph 10 of subsection (eee) of section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new clause (iii) to read as follows:

(iii) Any residential taxpayer who receives a notice of ineligibility pursuant to subclause (I), (II) or (III) of clause (i) of this subparagraph may appeal the determination made by the commissioner that he or

1 she is ineligible to receive such credit. Such appeal shall be in writ-
2 ing, mailed to the commissioner and postmarked no later than thirty days
3 after such taxpayer receives such notice of ineligibility. Such appeal 4 shall be made in a form to be determined by the commissioner, and may 5 include any supporting documentation the residential taxpayer deems 6 appropriate. Upon receipt of an appeal, the commissioner shall have 7 fifteen days to make a final determination regarding the residential 8 taxpayer's eligibility. Such taxpayer shall be notified of the final 9 determination by the commissioner within three days after such final 10 determination is made. For those residential taxpayers whom the commis-11 sioner has determined to be eligible for such credit pursuant to such 12 appeal, the commissioner shall advance a payment in the amount specified 13 in paragraph three, four or six of this subsection, whichever is appli-14 cable. Such payment after appeal shall be subject to interest at the 15 rate prescribed by subparagraph (A) of paragraph two of subsection (j) 16 of section six hundred ninety-seven of this article.

17 § 4. Subsection (eee) of section 606 of the tax law is amended by 18 adding a new paragraph 14 to read as follows:

19 (14) (A) There is hereby established in the department the office of 20 STAR ombudsman. The commissioner shall appoint the director of the 21 office of STAR ombudsman. The director shall report to the commissioner.
22 Persons employed by the office of the ombudsman to act as "ombudsmen"
23 shall be attorneys or shall have expertise in the areas of tax and real 24 estate tax, as evidenced by experience in the field, or by academic 25 background, the level and sufficiency of which shall be determined by 26 the director.

27 (B) The office of STAR ombudsman shall have the following duties:

28 (i) to confirm to taxpayers, receipt of taxpayer inquiries or other 29 communications regarding the credit allowed pursuant to this subsection 30 within twenty-four hours of when such inquiry or communication was 31 received by the department;

32 (ii) to respond to taxpayer inquiries made regarding delays in the 33 processing of advance payments or determinations of eligibility pursuant 34 to this subsection;

35 (iii) to confirm to taxpayers that a department employee is working on 36 his or her inquiry or case regarding the credit allowed pursuant to this 37 subsection; and

38 (iv) to establish a tracking system and utilize case numbers for 39 taxpayer inquiries and cases regarding the credit allowed pursuant to 40 this subsection. Such tracking system shall be made available to the 41 public via the department's website.

42 § 5. This act shall take effect July 1, 2019. Effective immediately, 43 the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation neces-44 sary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are 45 authorized to be made and completed on or before such date.
