AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to prohibiting discrimination against religious attire

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 10 of section 296 of the executive law, as amended by chapter 539 of the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:

(a) It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for any employer, 5 or an employee or agent thereof, to impose upon a person as a condition obtaining or retaining employment, including opportunities for promotion, advancement or transfers, any terms or conditions that would require such person to violate or forego a sincerely held practice of 9 his or her religion, including but not limited to the observance of any 10 particular day or days or any portion thereof as a sabbath or other holy 11 day in accordance with the requirements of his or her religion or the wearing of any attire, clothing, or facial hair in accordance with the 13 requirements of his or her religion, unless, after engaging in a bona 14 fide effort, the employer demonstrates that it is unable to reasonably accommodate the employee's or prospective employee's sincerely held religious observance or practice without undue hardship on the conduct 16 of the employer's business. Notwithstanding any other provision of law 17 the contrary, an employee shall not be entitled to premium wages or 18 19 premium benefits for work performed during hours to which such premium 20 wages or premium benefits would ordinarily be applicable, if the employ-21 ee is working during such hours only as an accommodation to his or her 22 sincerely held religious requirements. Nothing in this paragraph or 23 paragraph (b) of this subdivision shall alter or abridge the rights
