IN SENATE

February 27, 2019

Introduced by Sen. BIAGGI -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Insurance

AN ACT to amend the insurance law and the public health law, in relation to making actuarially appropriate reductions in health insurance premiums in return for an enrollee's or insured's participation in a qualified wellness program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. Section 3231 of the insurance law, as added by chapter 501
2	of the laws of 1992, is amended by adding a new subsection (c-1) to read
3	as follows:
4	(c-1) Subject to the approval of the superintendent, an insurer or
5	health maintenance organization issuing an individual or group health
б	insurance policy pursuant to this section may provide for an actuarially
7	appropriate reduction in premium rates or other benefits or enhancements
8	approved by the superintendent to encourage an enrollee's or insured's
9	active participation in a qualified wellness program. A qualified well-
10	ness program can be a risk management system that identifies at-risk
11	populations or any other systematic program or course of medical conduct
12	which helps to promote physical and mental fitness, health and well-be-
13	ing, helps to prevent or mitigate the conditions of acute or chronic
14	sickness, disease or pain, or which minimizes adverse health conse-
15	quences due to lifestyle. Such a wellness program may have some or all
16	of the following elements to advance the physical health and mental
17	well-being of its participants:
18	(1) an education program to increase the awareness of and dissem-
19	ination of information about pursuing healthier lifestyles, and which
20	warns about risks of pursuing environmental or behavioral activities
21	that are detrimental to human health. In addition, information on the

2	tension, diabetes, asthma, obesity or other adverse health afflictions;
3	(2) a program that encourages behavioral practices that either encour-
4	age healthy living activities or discourage unhealthy living activities.
5	Such activities or practices may include wellness programs, as provided
б	under section three thousand two hundred thirty-nine of this article;
7	and
8	(3) the monitoring of the progress of each covered person to track his
9	or her adherence to such wellness program and to provide assistance and
10	moral support to such covered person to assist him or her to attain the
11	goals of the covered person's wellness program.
$12^{11}$	Such wellness program shall demonstrate actuarially that it encourages
13	the general good health and well-being of the covered population. The
$14^{13}$	insurer or health maintenance organization shall not require specific
15	outcomes as a result of an enrollee's or insured's adherence to the
16	approved wellness program.
17	§ 2. Subsections (a), (b) and (c) of section 3239 of the insurance
18	law, subsection (a) as added by chapter 592 of the laws of 2008, and
19	subsections (b) and (c) as amended by chapter 180 of the laws of 2016,
20	are amended to read as follows:
21	(a) An insurer licensed to write accident and health insurance, a
22	corporation organized pursuant to article forty-three of this chapter, a
23	health maintenance organization certified pursuant to article forty-four
24	of the public health law and a municipal cooperative health benefits
25	plan may establish a wellness program in conjunction with its issuance
26	of a group accident and health insurance policy or group subscriber
27	contract. A "wellness program" is a program designed to promote health
28	and prevent disease that may contain rewards and incentives for partic-
29	ipation. Participation in the wellness program shall be available to 30	similarly-situated members of the group and shall be voluntary on the 31	part of the member. The specific terms of the wellness program shall be
32	set forth in the policy or contract, or in a separate document provided
33	to insureds and members which shall be consistent with the provisions of
34	this section.
35	(b) A wellness program may include, but is not limited to, the follow-
36	ing programs or services:
37	(1) the use of a health risk assessment tool;
38	(2) a smoking cessation program;
39	(3) a weight management program;
40	(4) a stress and/or hypertension management program;
41	(5) a worker injury prevention program;
42	(6) a nutrition education program;
43	(7) health or fitness incentive programs;
44	(8) a coordinated weight management, nutrition, stress management and
45	physical fitness program to combat the high incidence of adult and
46	childhood obesity, asthma and other chronic respiratory conditions;
47	(9) a substance or alcohol abuse cessation program; [and]
48	(10) a program to manage and cope with chronic pain $[-]_{i}$
49	(11) assistance, financial or otherwise, provided to an employer for
50	health promotion and disease prevention; and
51	(12) incentives for insureds or members to access preventive services,
52	such as mammography screening.
53	(c)(1) A wellness program may use rewards and incentives for partic-
53 54	ipation provided that where the group health insurance policy or 54 55	subscriber contract is required to be community-rated, the rewards and
55 56	incentives shall not include a discounted premium rate or a rebate or
50	incentives shart not include a disconned premium rate of a repate of refund of premium, except as provided in section three thousand two hundred thirty-one of this article, or section four thousand two hundred thirty-five, four thousand three hundred seventeen or four thousand three hundred twenty-six of this chapter, or section forty-four hundred five of the public health law. (2) Permissible rewards and incentives may include: (A) full or partial reimbursement of the cost of participating in smoking cessation, weight management, stress and/or hypertension, worker injury prevention, nutrition education, substance or alcohol abuse cessation, or chronic pain management and coping programs; (B) full or partial reimbursement of the cost of membership in a health club or fitness center; (C) the waiver or reduction of copayments, coinsurance and deductibles for preventive services covered under the group policy or subscriber contract; (D) monetary rewards in the form of gift cards or gift certificates, so long as the recipient of the reward is encouraged to use the reward for a product or a service that promotes good health, such as healthy cook books, over the counter vitamins or exercise equipment; (E) full or partial reimbursement of the cost of participating in a stress management program or activity; and (F) full or partial reimbursement of the cost of participating in a health or fitness program. (3) Where the reward involves a group member's meeting a specified standard based on a health condition, the wellness program must meet the requirements of 45 CFR Part 146. (4) A reward or incentive which involves a discounted premium rate or a rebate or refund of premium shall be based on actuarial demonstration that the wellness program can reasonably be expected to result in the overall good health and well being of the group as provided in section three thousand two hundred thirty-one of this article, sections four thousand two hundred thirty-five, four thousand three hundred seventeen and four thousand three hundred twenty-six of this chapter, and section forty-four hundred five of the public health law. § 3. Subsection (h) of section 4235 of the insurance law is amended by adding a new paragraph 5 to read as follows: (5) Each insurer doing business in this state, when filing with the superintendent its schedules of premium rates, rules and classification of risks for use in connection with the issuance of its policies of group accident, group health or group accident and health insurance, may provide for an actuarially appropriate reduction in premium rates or other benefits or enhancements approved by the superintendent to encour-

43 age an enrollee's or insured's active participation in a qualified wellness program. A qualified wellness program can be a risk management 44 45 system that identifies at-risk populations or any other systematic 46 program or course of medical conduct which helps to promote physical and 47 mental fitness, health and well-being, helps to prevent or mitigate the 48 conditions of acute or chronic sickness, disease or pain, or which minimizes adverse health consequences due to lifestyle. Such a wellness 49 50 program may have some or all of the following elements to advance the 51 physical health and mental well-being of its participants: 52 (A) an education program to increase the awareness of and dissemination of information about pursuing healthier lifestyles, and which 53 54 warns about risks of pursuing environmental or behavioral activities

55 that are detrimental to human health. In addition, information on the 56 availability of health screening tests to assist in the early identifi-

2	tension, diabetes, asthma, obesity or other adverse health afflictions;
3	(B) a program that encourages behavioral practices that either encour-
4	age healthy living activities or discourage unhealthy living activities.
5	Such activities or practices may include wellness programs, as provided
6	under section three thousand two hundred thirty-nine of this chapter;
7	(C) the monitoring of the progress of each covered person to track his
8	or her adherence to such wellness program and to provide assistance and
9	moral support to such covered person to assist him or her to attain the
10	goals of the covered person's wellness program.
11	Such wellness program shall demonstrate actuarially that it encourages
12	the general good health and well-being of the covered population. The
13	insurer or health maintenance organization shall not require specific
$14^{-1}$	outcomes as a result of an enrollee's or insured's adherence to the
15	approved wellness program.
16	§ 4. Section 4317 of the insurance law is amended by adding a new
17	subsection (c-1) to read as follows:
18	(c-1) Subject to the approval of the superintendent, an insurer or
19	health maintenance organization issuing an individual or group health
20	insurance contract pursuant to this section may provide for an actuari-
21	ally appropriate reduction in premium rates or other benefits or
22	enhancements approved by the superintendent to encourage an enrollee's
23	or insured's active participation in a qualified wellness program. A
24	qualified wellness program can be a risk management system that identi-
25	fies at-risk populations or any other systematic program or course of
26	medical conduct which helps to promote physical and mental fitness,
27	health and well-being, helps to prevent or mitigate the conditions of 28	acute or chronic sickness, disease or pain, or which minimizes adverse
29	health consequences due to lifestyle. Such a wellness program may have 30	some or all of the following elements to advance the physical health and
31	mental well-being of its participants:
32	(1) an education program to increase the awareness of and dissem-
33	ination of information about pursuing healthier lifestyles, and which
34	warns about risks of pursuing environmental or behavioral activities
35	that are detrimental to human health. In addition, information on the
36	availability of health screening tests to assist in the early identifi-
37 37	cation and treatment of diseases such as cancer, heart disease, hyper-
38	tension, diabetes, asthma, obesity or other adverse health afflictions;
	(2) a program that encourages behavioral practices that either encour-
39
40	age healthy living activities or discourage unhealthy living activities.
41	Such activities or practices may include wellness programs, as provided
42	under section three thousand two hundred thirty-nine of this chapter;
43	and
44	(3) the monitoring of the progress of each covered person to track his
45	or her adherence to such wellness program and to provide assistance and
46	moral support to such covered person to assist him or her to attain the
47	goals of the covered person's wellness program.
48	Such wellness program shall demonstrate actuarially that it encourages
49	the general good health and well-being of the covered population. The
50	insurer or health maintenance organization shall not require specific
51	outcomes as a result of an enrollee's or insured's adherence to the
52	approved wellness program.

1	(2) a program that encourages behavioral practices that either encour-
2	age healthy living activities or discourage unhealthy living activities.
3	Such activities or practices may include wellness programs, as provided
4	under section three thousand two hundred thirty-nine of the insurance
5	law; and
б	(3) the monitoring of the progress of each covered person to track his
7	or her adherence to such wellness program and to provide assistance and
8	moral support to such covered person to assist him or her to attain the
9	goals of the covered person's wellness program.
10	Such wellness program shall demonstrate actuarially that it encourages
11	the general good health and well-being of the covered population. The
12	health maintenance organization shall not require specific outcomes as a 13	result of an enrollee's adherence to the approved wellness program;
