STATE OF NEW YORK

4176--A

2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

March 4, 2019

Introduced by Sen. HARCKHAM -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Environmental Conservation -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the environmental conservation law, in relation to requiring supermarkets to make excess food available to qualifying entities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Article 27 of the environmental conservation law is amended by adding a new title 30 to read as follows:

TITLE 30

EXCESS FOOD ACT

Section 27-3001. Legislative intent.

27-3003. Availability requirement.

27-3004. Construction.

27-3005. Enforcement.

§ 27-3001. Legislative intent.

An estimated fifty million Americans, including nearly sixteen million children, do not have sufficient food. An estimated 2.8 million New Yorkers face hunger and food insecurity. This legislation is designed to increase food donations to food banks and other providers who feed the needy while reducing food waste in solid waste landfills which create dangerous emissions.

§ 27-3002. Definitions.

As used in this title, the following terms shall mean:

1. "Excess food" means edible food that is not sold or used by a supermarket and is still safe to be consumed but is being disposed of by the supermarket due to labeling, appearance, surplus or other similar conditions. "Excess food" shall not include: unpackaged fresh meat.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [−] is old law to be omitted. LBD05200-06-9
1. Every supermarket shall from time to time make excess food available to qualifying entities.
2. No supermarket shall be required to make available a particular quantity or level of excess food or to transport or distribute any excess food.
3. A supermarket shall be deemed in compliance with this section if it in good faith arranges with a qualifying entity that has requested in writing to collect excess food from the supermarket for the collection of such excess food. A supermarket acting in compliance with this section shall have no liability for the food transferred in the absence of gross negligence or intentional misconduct.
4. A supermarket may impose reasonable restrictions as to the time and manner of collection by a qualifying entity so as not to interfere with its business operations.
5. A supermarket may, in accordance with any applicable laws, dispose of any excess food which is not picked up by a qualifying entity within a reasonable time.

Nothing in this title shall be construed to supersede any state or federal health laws or regulations regarding the handling of food.

A supermarket that does not meet the requirements of this title shall not be subject to the penalties specified in title twenty-seven of article seventy-one of this chapter.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed on or before such date.
