Introduced by Sen. PARKER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities

AN ACT to amend the mental hygiene law, in relation to establishing peer crisis diversion homes

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The mental hygiene law is amended by adding a new section 31.34 to read as follows:

§ 31.34 Peer crisis diversion homes.

(a) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "commissioner" shall mean the commissioner of mental health;

(2) "crisis diversion services" shall mean services designed to provide a person who has behavioral health disorders and who is experiencing symptoms, a safe, supportive and affirming home-like, temporary residence where the person may begin the recovery process, understand the meaning of what the person is experiencing and regain equilibrium and the ability to relate effectively to other people. Crisis diversion services include peer support with an emphasis on relationship-building and personal choice;

(3) "peer support specialist" shall mean a person who has previously experienced urgent behavioral health needs and has recovered and who has successfully completed training that has been approved by the commissioner, qualifying that person to work with a resident;

(4) "resident" shall mean an adult who has experienced urgent behavioral health needs but does not require hospitalization and who voluntarily resides for a short term stay in a peer crisis diversion home;

(5) "peer crisis diversion home" shall mean a home-like environment that offers crisis diversion services by temporarily housing voluntary residents who engage in routine activities of daily living and learn about tools for recovery through experience and peer support. The

1 governing body of such home shall consist of current or former recipi-
2 ents of mental health services and shall control the decision making 3 processes of the organization, including control of all budget and 4 personnel management related to the peer crisis diversion home.

5 (b) The commissioner shall provide formal guidelines for training and 6 credentialing of a peer support specialist, provided that each peer 7 support specialist shall personally have experienced urgent behavioral 8 health needs and shall be certified as completing training in de-escala-
9 tion techniques, cultural competency, race relations, the recovery proc-10 ess, substance abuse, and avoidance of aggressive confrontation prior to 11 working at a peer crisis diversion home.

12 (c) The commissioner shall, within one year of the effective date of 13 this section, establish or contract for the establishment of no less 14 than six peer crisis diversion homes, three of which shall be in urban 15 settings and three of which shall be in rural communities. Such homes 16 shall be recipient-run homes and may be associated with comprehensive 17 psychiatric emergency programs established pursuant to section 31.27 of 18 this article.

19 (d) A peer crisis diversion home, as authorized by this section, shall 20 offer crisis diversion services that:

- 21 (1) serve residents regardless of income;
- 22 (2) are staffed twenty-four hours a day by two or more peer support 23 specialists;
- 24 (3) employ a licensed clinician full time and a psychiatric consultant 25 at least part time;
- 26 (4) include peer support in helping residents perform daily public 27 living skills and reentry into independent living;
- 28 (5) offer a mix of therapeutic services, including nontraditional 29 tools for wellness and traditional behavioral health services;
- 30 (6) accept a resident on a first-come, first-served basis for a tempo-
31 rary stay provided they have alternate long term housing options avail-32 able;
- 33 (7) use interpersonal relationship and connection to the community as 34 primary modalities of care;
- 35 (8) base length of stay on the psychological state of residents, 36 provided that such stay shall be short term with the understanding they 37 are able and willing to live in more independent settings and to resume 38 their desired roles in the community; and
- 39 (9) are a part of a system of care continuum in the community and 40 state aimed at diverting individuals experiencing behavioral health
41 crisis from more intensive hospital based care and treatment by provid-
42 ing peer support services in a home-like setting for short term, tempo-43 rary stays.

44 (e) As early as possible, a peer support specialist shall assist a 45 resident of a peer crisis home with accessing a service provider who may 46 coordinate care and otherwise provide support for such resident upon the 47 completion of such resident's stay at a peer crisis diversion home.

48 (f) Peer crisis diversion homes shall consult with community stake-49 holders, including those who use the behavioral health system and their 50 family members, providers of behavioral health services, whether tradi-
51 tional or alternative, advocates, and others with subject matter exper-
52 tise, as part of the planning and development of peer crisis diversion 53 homes.

54 (g) Peer crisis diversion homes shall participate in county and commu-
55 nity planning activities annually, and as needed, in order to partic-56 ipate in local community service planning processes to ensure, maintain,

1 improve or develop community services that demonstrate recovery
2 outcomes. These outcomes include, but are not limited to, quality of 3 life, socio-economic status, entitlement status, social networking,
4 coping skills and reduction in use of crisis services.

5 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
