Introduced by Sen. SEWARD -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Investigations and Government Operations

AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to authorizing the county of Chenango to establish hotel and motel taxes

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 1202-ff to 2 read as follows:

3 § 1202-ff. Hotel or motel taxes in Chenango county. (1) Notwithstand-4 ing any other provisions of law to the contrary, the county of Chenango is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt and amend local laws imposing in such county a tax, in addition to any other tax authorized and imposed pursuant to this article such as the county legislature has or 8 would have the power and authority to impose upon persons occupying hotel or motel rooms in such county. For the purposes of this section, 10 the term "hotel" or "motel" shall mean and include any facility providing lodging on an overnight basis and shall include those facilities 11 designated and commonly known as "bed and breakfast" and "tourist" 12 13 facilities.

The rates of such tax shall not exceed four percent of the per diem 15 rental rate for each room, provided however, that such tax shall not be applicable to a permanent resident of a hotel or motel. For the 16 purposes of this section the term "permanent resident" shall mean a person occupying any room or rooms in a hotel or motel for at least 18 19 thirty consecutive days.

1 (3) Such local laws may provide that any tax imposed shall be paid by 2 the person liable therefor to the owner of the hotel or motel room occu-3 pied or to the person entitled to be paid the rent or charge for the 4 hotel or motel room occupied for and on account of the county of Chenan-5 go imposing the tax and that such owner or person entitled to be paid 6 the rent or charge shall be liable for the collection and payment of the 7 tax; and that such owner or person entitled to be paid the rent or 8 charge shall have the same right in respect to collecting the tax from 9 the person occupying the hotel or motel room, or in respect to nonpay-10 ment of the tax by the person occupying the hotel or motel room, as if 11 the tax were a part of the rent or charge and payable at the same time as the rent or charge; provided, however, that the county treasurer or 12 other fiscal officers of the county, specified in such local law, shall 13 14 be joined as a party in any action or proceeding brought to collect the tax by the owner or by the person entitled to be paid the rent or 15 16

- (4) Such local laws may provide for the filing of returns and the payment of the tax on a monthly basis or on the basis of any longer or shorter period of time.
- (5) This section shall not authorize the imposition of such tax upon any transaction, by or with any of the following in accordance with section twelve hundred thirty of this article:
- a. The state of New York, or any public corporation (including a public corporation created pursuant to agreement or compact with another state or the Dominion of Canada), improvement district or other political subdivision of the state;
- b. The United States of America, insofar as it is immune from taxation;
- c. Any corporation or association, or trust, or community chest, fund or foundation organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual and no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation; provided, however, that nothing in this paragraph shall include an organization operated for the primary purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit, whether or not all of its profits are payable to one or more organizations described in this paragraph.
- (6) Any final determination of the amount of any tax payable pursuant to this section shall be reviewable for error, illegality or unconstitutionality or any other reason whatsoever by a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules if application therefor is made to the supreme court within thirty days after the giving of the notice of such final determination, provided, however, that any such proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules shall not be instituted unless:
- a. The amount of any tax sought to be reviewed, with such interest and penalties thereon as may be provided for by local law or regulation shall be first deposited and there is filed an undertaking, issued by a surety company authorized to transact business in this state and approved by the superintendent of financial services of this state as to solvency and responsibility, in such amount as a justice of the supreme 54 court shall approve to the effect that if such proceeding be dismissed or the tax confirmed the petitioner will pay all costs and charges which may accrue in the prosecution of such proceeding; or b. At the option of the petitioner such undertaking may be in a sum sufficient to cover the taxes, interests and penalties stated in such determination plus the costs and charges which may accrue against it in the prosecution of the proceeding, in which event the petitioner shall not be required to pay such taxes, interest or penalties as a condition precedent to the application.

- (7) Where any tax imposed pursuant to this section shall have been erroneously, illegally or unconstitutionally collected and application for the refund thereof duly made to the proper fiscal officer or officers, and such officer or officers shall have made a determination denying such refund, such determination shall be reviewable by a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules, provided, however, that such proceeding is instituted within thirty days after the giving of the notice of such denial, that a final determination of tax due was not previously made, and that an undertaking is filed with the proper fiscal officer or officers in such amount and with such sureties as a justice of the supreme court shall approve to the effect that if such proceeding be dismissed or the tax confirmed, the petitioner will pay all costs and charges which may accrue in the prosecution of such proceeding.
- (8) Except in the case of a wilfully false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the tax, no assessment of additional tax shall be made after the expiration of more than three years from the date of the filing of a return, provided, however, that where no return has been filed as provided by law the tax may be assessed at any time.
- (9) All revenues resulting from the imposition of the tax under the local laws shall be paid into the treasury of the county of Chenango and shall be credited to and deposited in the general fund of the county, thereafter to be allocated for the promotion of tourism development, economic development, and other directly related and supporting activities.
  - (10) If any provision of this section or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held invalid, the remainder of this section and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.
- (11) Each enactment of such local law may provide for the imposition of a hotel or motel tax for a period of time no longer than three years from the effective date of its enactment. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the adoption and enactment of local laws, pursuant to the provisions of this section, upon the expiration of any other local law adopted pursuant to this section.
  - § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
