Introduced by Sen. GOUNARDES -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Civil Service and Pensions

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to deductions of benefits of certain retired members

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 396-a 2 to read as follows:

3 § 396-a. Deductions from benefits of certain retired members. 1.
4 Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an electing employee who is 5 retired from the optional retirement system shall have the right, at any 6 time after such electing employee's retirement, to execute and file a
7 deduction authorization card with the designated insurer or insurers
8 upon audit and warrant of the comptroller for employees of the state 9 university and by the appropriate fiscal officer for employees of an 10 electing employer authorizing the deduction from such electing employ-11 ee's retirement allowance of membership dues and such electing employ-12 ee's share of the cost for employee organization-sponsored benefit plans 13 and the payment thereof to a retiree organization of which the electing 14 employee is then a member and which is then affiliated with either an 15 employee organization certified or recognized as the collective bargain-16 ing representative of all employees in the negotiating unit of which the 17 electing employee was a part prior to his or her retirement or with an 18 employee organization with which such employee organization is then 19 affiliated. The designated insurer or insurers upon audit and warrant of 20 the comptroller for employees of the state university and by the appro-
21 priate fiscal officer for employees of an electing employer shall there-22 after deduct from the retirement allowance of such electing employee the 23 amount of membership dues and such amounts required to be paid by such 24 electing employee for such authorized employee organization-sponsored 25 benefit plans, and shall transmit the sum so deducted to said retiree

1 organization. Such authorization shall continue in effect until revoked
2 in writing by such electing employee. For purposes of this section, the 3 term "employee organization-sponsored benefit plans" shall include any 4 and all insurance plans and/or other benefit plans sponsored by such 5 retiree organization whether provided by (a) a not-for-profit corpo-
6 ration licensed under article forty-three of the insurance law; (b) any 7 insurance company authorized to do business in this state; (c) a health 8 maintenance organization issued a certificate of authority pursuant to 9 article forty-four of the public health law; or (d) a self-insurance
10 arrangement, welfare fund or benefit fund.

11 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a retired elected 12 employee shall have the right, at any time after his or her retirement, 13 to execute and file a deduction authorization card with the designated 14 insurer or insurers upon audit and warrant of the comptroller for 15 employees of the state university and by the appropriate fiscal officer
16 for employees of an electing employer authorizing the payment of volun-
17 tary contributions to the political committee, as defined in subdivision
18 one of section 14-100 of the election law, of such electing employee's 19 employee organization, provided such organization is certified or recog-20 nized pursuant to article fourteen of the civil service law as the 21 representative of all employees in the negotiating unit in which such 22 retired electing employee was then employed. Such authorization shall 23 continue in effect until revoked in writing by such electing employee.
24 The designated insurer or insurers upon audit and warrant of the comp-
25 troller for employees of the state university and by the appropriate 26 fiscal officer for employees of an electing employer shall determine the 27 cost of administering deductions for voluntary contributions to the 28 political committee and the cost incurred for administering such 29 contributions shall be paid from the funds of the political committee.

30 § 2. The education law is amended by adding a new section 6257 to read 31 as follows:

32 § 6257. Deductions from benefits of certain retired members. 1.
33 Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a member who is retired from 34 the board of higher education optional retirement program shall have the 35 right, at any time after such member's retirement, to execute and file a
36 deduction authorization card with the designated insurer or insurers
37 upon audit and warrant of the comptroller authorizing the deduction from 38 such member's retirement allowance of membership dues and such member's 39 share of the cost for employee organization-sponsored benefit plans and 40 the payment thereof to a retiree organization of which the member is 41 then a member and which is then affiliated with either an employee
42 organization certified or recognized as the collective bargaining repre-
43 sentative of all employees in the negotiating unit of which the member 44 was a part prior to his or her retirement or with an employee organiza-
45 tion with which such employee organization is then affiliated. The 46 designated insurer or insurers upon audit and warrant of the comptroller 47 shall thereafter deduct from the retirement allowance of such member the 48 amount of membership dues and such amounts required to be paid by such 49 member for such authorized employee organization-sponsored benefit
50 plans, and shall transmit the sum so deducted to said retiree organiza-
51 tion. Such authorization shall continue in effect until revoked in writ-
52 ing by such member. For purposes of this section, the term "employee 53 organization-sponsored benefit plans" shall include any and all insur-
54 ance plans and/or other benefit plans sponsored by such retiree organ-
55 ization whether provided by (a) a not-for-profit corporation licensed 56 under article forty-three of the insurance law; (b) any insurance compa-

1 ny authorized to do business in this state; (c) a health maintenance
2 organization issued a certificate of authority pursuant to article
3 forty-four of the public health law; or (d) a self-insurance arrange-4 ment, welfare fund or benefit fund.

5 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a retired member shall 6 have the right, at any time after his or her retirement, to execute and 7 file a deduction authorization card with the designated insurer or 8 insurers upon audit and warrant of the comptroller authorizing the 9 payment of voluntary contributions to the political committee, as 10 defined in subdivision one of section 14-100 of the election law, of 11 such member's employee organization, provided such organization is 12 certified or recognized pursuant to article fourteen of the civil 13 service law as the representative of all employees in the negotiating
14 unit in which such retired member was then employed. Such authorization 15 shall continue in effect until revoked in writing by such member. The 16 designated insurer or insurers upon audit and warrant of the comptroller
17 shall determine the cost of administering deductions for voluntary 18 contributions to the political committee and the cost incurred for 19 administering such contributions shall be paid from the funds of the 20 political committee.

21 § 3. This act shall take effect one year after it shall have become a 22 law.
