IN SENATE

March 15, 2019

Introduced by Sen. MARTINEZ -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Domestic Animal Welfare

AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to code red and blue alerts for companion animals during extreme weather; and to repeal certain provisions of such law relating to the confinement of animals in vehicles

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 353-d of the agriculture and markets law is 2 REPEALED and a new section 353-d is added to read as follows:

3 § 353-d. Code red and blue alerts for companion animals during extreme
4 weather events. 1. For purposes of this section the following terms
5 shall have the following meanings:

6 (a) "Extreme weather" shall mean:

7 (i) when temperatures will reach twenty-five degrees Fahrenheit or 8 lower without precipitation or thirty-two degrees Fahrenheit or lower 9 with precipitation;

10 (ii) the National Weather Service wind-chill temperature will be zero
11 degrees Fahrenheit or less for a period of two hours or more;

12 (iii) the heat index is forecast to reach ninety-five degrees Fahren-13 heit to ninety-nine degrees Fahrenheit for at least two consecutive 14 days; or

15 (iv) the temperatures will reach one hundred degrees Fahrenheit to one 16 hundred four degrees Fahrenheit for any length of time.

17 (b) "Companion animal" shall have the same meaning as defined in 18 section three hundred fifty of this chapter.

19 (c) "Companion animal guardian" means an individual who currently has 20 physical custody over a companion animal.

21 2. (a) The department shall issue code red or code blue alerts through 22 a public service announcement whenever there is an extreme weather
23 condition. Such public service announcement shall include, but shall not

1 be limited to, the geographical region affected by the extreme weather 2 condition and a statement that all companion animals should be brought 3 indoors.

4 (b) A code blue alert shall be issued whenever an extreme weather 5 event as defined in subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (a) of 6 subdivision one of this section occurs and a code red alert shall be 7 issued whenever an extreme weather event as defined in subparagraphs
8 (iii) and (iv) of paragraph (a) of subdivision one of this section 9 occurs.

10 3. (a) No owner or guardian of a companion animal shall leave such 11 animal or animals (i) outside during a code red or code blue alert; or 12 (ii) inside of a vehicle without proper ventilation or other protection 13 from extreme weather events where such confinement in a vehicle places 14 the companion animal in imminent danger of death or serious physical 15 injury due to exposure to such extreme weather event during a code red 16 or code blue alert.

17 (b) Animal control officers, dog control officers, police officers, 18 peace officers, and peace officers acting as agents of a duly incorpo-19 rated humane society shall issue warnings to owners or guardians of 20 companion animals who have violated the provisions of paragraph (a) of 21 this subdivision. If the companion animal owner or guardian does not 22 comply with such warning such animal control officer, dog control offi-
23 cer, police officer, peace officer, or peace officer acting as an agent 24 of a duly incorporated humane society shall seize the companion animal.

25 4. Where the owner or guardian of a companion animal cannot be prompt-26 ly located, such animal control officer, dog control officer, police 27 officer, peace officer, or peace officer acting as an agent of a duly 28 incorporated humane society may take necessary steps to remove the 29 animal from the property or vehicle.

30 5. Animal control officers, dog control officers, police officers, 31 peace officers, or peace officers acting as an agent of a duly incorpo-
32 rated humane society removing an animal or animals from a property or a 33 vehicle pursuant to subdivision four of this section shall place a writ-34 ten notice on the door of such property or on or in the vehicle, bearing 35 the name of the officer or agent, and the department or agency and 36 address where the animal or animals will be taken.

37 6. An animal or animals removed from a property or vehicle pursuant to 38 this section shall, after receipt of any necessary emergency veterinary 39 treatment, be delivered to the duly incorporated humane society or soci-
40 ety for the prevention of cruelty to animals, or designated agent there-41 of, in the jurisdiction where the animal or animals were seized.

42 7. Any person who knowingly, or after a warning, violates the 43 provisions of subdivision three of this section shall be guilty of a 44 violation, punishable by a fine of up to one thousand dollars for a 45 first offense, and a fine of up to two thousand dollars for a second and 46 subsequent offenses.

47 8. Officers and agents shall not be held criminally or civilly liable 48 for actions taken reasonably and in good faith in carrying out the 49 provisions of this section.

50 9. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to affect any 51 other protections afforded to companion animals under any other 52 provisions of this article.

53 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
