AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to minimum wage reimbursement credit

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 38 of the tax law, as added by section 1 of part EE
2 of chapter 59 of the laws of 2013, is renumbered section 44 and subdivi-
3 sions (b) and (c) are amended to read as follows:

4 (b) An eligible employer is a corporation (including a New York S 5 corporation), a sole proprietorship, a limited liability company or a 6 partnership. An eligible employee is an individual who is (i) employed
7 by an eligible employer in New York state, (ii) paid at the minimum wage 8 rate as defined in article nineteen of the labor law during the taxable 9 year by the eligible employer, (iii) between the ages of sixteen and 10 nineteen during the period in which he or she is paid at such minimum 11 wage rate by the eligible employer, and (iv) a student during the period 12 in which he or she is paid at such minimum wage rate by the taxpayer.

13 For taxable years beginning on and after January first, two thousand 14 nineteen, an eligible employee is an individual who is (i) employed by 15 an eligible employer in New York state, (ii) paid at a rate that does 16 not exceed the minimum wage rate as defined in article nineteen of the 17 labor law plus fifty cents during the taxable year by the eligible 18 employer, (iii) between the ages of sixteen and nineteen during the 19 period in which he or she is paid at such rate that does not exceed such 20 minimum wage rate plus fifty cents by the eligible employer, and (iv) a 21 student during the period in which he or she is paid at such rate that 22 does not exceed such minimum wage rate plus fifty cents by the taxpayer.

23 (c) For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thou-
24 sand fourteen and before January first, two thousand fifteen, the amount

1 of the credit allowed under this section shall be equal to the product
2 of the total number of hours worked during the taxable year by eligible 3 employees for which they were paid at the minimum wage rate as defined 4 in article nineteen of the labor law and [~~seventy-five~~] seventy-five 5 cents. For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thou-
6 sand fifteen and before January first, two thousand sixteen, the amount
7 of the credit allowed under this section shall be equal to the product
8 of the total number of hours during the taxable year worked by eligible 9 employees for which they were paid at such minimum wage rate and one 10 dollar and thirty-one cents. For taxable years beginning on or after 11 January first, two thousand sixteen and before January first, two thou-12 sand nineteen, the amount of the credit allowed under this section shall 13 be equal to the product of the total number of hours during the taxable 14 year worked by eligible employees for which they were paid at such mini-15 mum wage rate and one dollar and thirty-five cents. For taxable years
16 beginning on or after January first, two thousand nineteen and before 17 January first, two thousand twenty-two, the amount of the credit allowed 18 under this section shall be equal to the product of the total number of 19 hours during the taxable year worked by eligible employees for which 20 they were paid at a rate that does not exceed such minimum wage rate
21 plus fifty cents and one dollar and thirty-five cents. Provided, howev-22 er, if the federal minimum wage established by federal law pursuant to 23 29 U.S.C. section 206 or its successors is increased above eighty-five 24 percent of the minimum wage in article nineteen of the labor law, the 25 dollar amounts in this subdivision shall be reduced to the difference 26 between the minimum wage in article nineteen of the labor law and the 27 federal minimum wage. Such reduction would take effect on the date that 28 employers are required to pay such federal minimum wage.

29 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to taxable 30 years beginning on and after January 1, 2019.
