AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to inmate telephone services at local correctional facilities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The correction law is amended by adding a new section 623-a 2 to read as follows:

§ 623-a. Inmate telephone services at local correctional facilities. 1. Telephone services contracts for inmates in local correctional facilities shall be subject to the procurement provisions as set forth in 6 article five-A of the general municipal law provided, however, that when determining the best value of such telephone service, the lowest quali-8 fied bidder in accordance with the safety requirements of the local correctional facility shall be emphasized.

9 10 2. The sheriff of such local correctional facility shall make avail-11 able either a prepaid or collect call system, or a combination thereof, 12 for telephone service. Under the prepaid system, funds may be deposited 13 into an account in order to pay for station-to-station calls, provided that nothing in this subdivision shall require the sheriff to provide or 14 15 administer a prepaid system. Under a collect call system, call recipi-16 ents shall be billed for the cost of an accepted telephone call initi-17 ated by an inmate. Under such collect call system, the provider of 18 inmate telephone service, as an additional means of payment, shall permit the recipient of inmate calls to establish an account with such 19 provider in order to deposit funds to pay for such collect calls in 21 advance.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

 3. The commission, in consultation with local correctional facilities, shall establish rules and regulations or procedures to ensure that any inmate phone call system established by this section provides reasonable security measures to preserve the safety and security of each correctional facility, all staff and all persons outside a facility who may receive inmate phone calls.

- 4. Pursuant to rules and regulations established by the department and the commission, a local correctional facility may request to participate in a contract procured by the department pursuant to subdivision one of section six hundred twenty-three of this article. A copy of such request shall be provided to the commission. The cost and administration of telephone services secured pursuant to this subdivision shall be borne by the local correctional facility.
- § 2. Section 623 of the correction law is amended by adding a new subdivision 5 to read as follows:
- 5. Upon application by a local correctional facility pursuant to subdivision eighteen of section forty-five of this chapter, the department may include such local correctional facility under a contract it procures to receive inmate telephone services pursuant to subdivision one of this section provided that such inclusion has no fiscal impact on, or requires continuing administration by, the department.
- 22 § 3. Section 45 of the correction law is amended by adding a new 23 subdivision 18 to read as follows:
 - 18. Promulgate rules and regulations, in consultation with the department, for inmate telephone services provided in local correctional facilities and to assure that such telephone services contracts are subject to the procurement provisions as set forth in article five-A of the general municipal law and that when determining the best value of such telephone service, the lowest possible cost to the telephone user shall be emphasized. Such rules and regulations shall also provide for application by a local correctional facility to participate in the following inmate telephone services contract that shall be secured by the department for state correctional facilities provided that the cost and administration of the services applied for shall be borne by the local correctional facility.
- § 4. This act shall take effect April 1, 2021 and shall apply to contracts for inmate telephone services issued, renewed, modified, altered or amended on or after such effective date and any new or renewal contract for inmate telephone services entered into prior to April 1, 2020 shall not run past March 31, 2021.
