AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to violations of certain notice requirements; and to amend the real property tax law, in relation to prohibiting landlords from including incorrect information relating to rent decontrol in certain leases and renewals thereof pertaining to units subject to the Affordable New York Housing Program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The real property law is amended by adding a new section 235-i to read as follows:

§ 235-i. Willful violations of certain notice requirements. A landlord or any person acting on behalf of the landlord who willfully includes information he or she knows to be misleading or incorrect information in any notice provided pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (f) of subdivision two of section four hundred twenty-one-a of the real property tax law is guilty of a violation punishable by a fine of one thousand dollars.

§ 2. Subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (f) of subdivision 2 of section 421-a of the real property tax law, as amended by chapter 289 of the laws of 1985, is amended to read as follows:

(ii) with respect to units which become subject to the provisions of this section after the effective date of this subparagraph, such tax benefit period as provided in the opening paragraph of this paragraph or applicable law or act shall have expired and either each lease and renewal thereof for such unit for the tenant in residence at the time of such decontrol has included a notice in at least twelve point type informing such tenant that the unit shall become subject to such decon-
