IN SENATE

May 10, 2019

Introduced by Sen. METZGER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Health

AN ACT to amend the public health law and the education law, in relation to authorizing emergency medical service personnel to provide basic first aid to cats and dogs under certain circumstances

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 3013 of the public health law is amended by adding 2 three new subdivisions 7, 8 and 9 to read as follows:

3 7. No certified first responder, emergency medical technician, or 4 advanced emergency medical technician acting in accordance with section 5 three thousand eighteen of this article, nor any ambulance service or advanced life support first response service of which such person is a б member or employee, who, in the course of responding to an emergency, 7 8 renders basic first aid to a dog or cat pursuant to such section, shall 9 have any civil liability or have any liability for violating article one 10 hundred thirty-five of the education law, for the provision of such 11 care, or any damages to or death of any dog or cat alleged to have 12 occurred by reason of an act or omission in rendering such medical 13 assistance in an emergency unless it is established that such injuries 14 were or such death was caused by gross negligence on the part of such 15 certified first responder, emergency medical technician or advanced 16 emergency medical technician.

8. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, any licensed veterinarian who provides off-site instruction, pursuant to section three thousand eighteen of this article, to any certified first responder, emergency medical technician or advanced emergency medical technician providing basic first aid to a dog or cat shall not be liable for damages for injuries or death alleged to have been sustained by any dog or cat as a result of such instruction unless it is established that
