28 be commenced within said [~~forty-five~~] ten days.

29 (b) Notwithstanding that such written notice is received within said 30 [~~forty-five~~] ten days, the notice of revocation shall be given effect

52 custody of the child shall not be superior to those of the adoptive 53 parents but that a hearing will be required before a judge pursuant to

56 the best interests of the child will be served by: (A) returning custody

1 of the child to the parent; or (B) by continuing the adoption proceeding 2 commenced by the adoptive parents; or (C) by disposition other than 3 adoption by the adoptive parents; or (D) by placement of the child with

53 agency, and no person may or shall request, accept or receive any 54 compensation or thing of value, directly or indirectly, in connection 55 with the placing out or adoption of a child or for assisting a birth 56 parent, relative or guardian of a child in arranging for the placement

1 of the child for the purpose of adoption; and no person may or shall pay 2 or give to any person or to any agency, association, corporation, insti-

8 to any adoptive placement activity involving a child born in New York 9 state or brought into this state or involving a New York resident seek-

11 This subdivision shall not be construed to prevent the payment of 12 salaries or other compensation by an authorized agency to the officers 13 or employees thereof; nor shall it be construed to prevent the payment 14 by a person with whom a child has been placed out of reasonable and 15 actual medical fees or hospital charges for services rendered in 16 connection with the birth of such child or of other necessary expenses 17 incurred by the birth mother in connection with or as a result of her

21 rendered the services or to the birth mother of the child, or to prevent 22 the receipt of such payment by such physician, nurse, hospital or birth
23 mother. This subdivision shall not be construed to prevent the payment 24 by an adoptive parent, as defined in section one hundred nine of the 25 domestic relations law, of the birth mother's reasonable and actual 26 expenses for housing, maternity clothing, clothing for the child and 27 transportation for a reasonable period not to exceed ~~[sixty]~~ one hundred 28 eighty days prior to the birth and the later of thirty days after the 29 birth or thirty days after the parental consent to the adoption, unless

32 periods stated in this sentence; provided, however, that any such 33 payments made to the birth mother shall not exceed ten thousand dollars.

34 This subdivision shall not be construed to prevent the payment by an 35 adoptive parent, as defined in section one hundred nine of the domestic 36 relations law, of reasonable and actual legal fees charged for consulta-37 tion and legal advice, preparation of papers and representation and 38 other legal services rendered in connection with an adoption proceeding

43 attorney or law firm shall serve as the attorney for, or provide any 44 legal services to, both an authorized agency and adoptive parent or both 45 an authorized agency and birth parent where the authorized agency
46 provides adoption services to such birth parent or adoptive parent, 47 where the authorized agency provides foster care for the child, or where 48 the authorized agency is directly or indirectly involved in the placing 49 out of such child for adoption.
