

STATE OF NEW YORK

6000--A

2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

May 16, 2019

Introduced by Sens. RIVERA, CARLUCCI -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Health -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to definitions and conforming changes pertaining to anatomical gifts (Part A); to amend the public health law, in relation to changes in anatomical gift revocation and amendment; and to repeal certain provisions of such law relating thereto (Part B); to amend the public health law, in relation to uses and dispositions of anatomical gifts; and to repeal certain provisions of such law relating thereto (Part C); to amend the public health law, in relation to delivery of documents of gift (Part D); to amend the public health law, in relation to rights and duties of donees at death (Part E); to amend the public health law, in relation to interactions between advance directives and anatomical gifts (Part F); and to amend the public health law, in relation to prohibition of sales or purchase of human organs (Part G)

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative intent. The purpose of this legislation is to
2 incorporate the amended provisions of the Uniform Anatomical Gift Act
3 (UAGA) as drafted by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform
4 State Laws to enhance the organ donation process. The UAGA was enacted
5 in 1968 following the first successful heart transplant and was revised
6 in 1987 and 2006 to clarify consent rules and other processes. While New 7 York has made recent improvements to its organ donation registry and 8 processes, it still faces a severe organ shortage. It is estimated that 9 bringing New York's anatomical gift consent rules alone into agreement
10 with the UAGA would result in increased numbers of organ donors and 11 would save lives through transplantation. Provisions of this act should 12 not be construed to interfere with a potential donor's recorded intent

1 to make a whole body donation in instances where the potential donor's
2 body is suitable for such donation at death, nor does the gift of a
3 whole body preclude donation for transplant, unless such use is express-
4 ly refused by the donor or the authorizing party.

5 § 2. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "New 6 York Gift Act".

7 § 3. This act enacts into law changes to the anatomical gift process.
8 Each component is wholly contained within a Part identified as Parts A
9 through G. The effective date for each particular provision contained
10 within such Part is set forth in the last section of such Part. Any 11 provision in any section contained within a Part, including the effec-
12 tive date of the Part, which makes a reference to a section "of this 13 act", when used in connection with that particular component, shall be 14 deemed to mean and refer to the corresponding section of the Part in 15 which it is found. Sections four and five of this act set forth the 16 severability and the general effective dates of this act, respectively.

PART C

Section 1. Section 4302 of the public health law is REPEALED and a new section 4302 is added to read as follows:

§ 4302. Uses and dispositions of anatomical gifts. 1. All anatomical gifts made under this article may be made to the following persons named in the document of gift:

(a) a hospital; accredited medical school, dental school, college or university; organ procurement organization; non-transplant anatomic bank; or other appropriate person, for research or education;

(b) subject to the provisions of subdivision two of this section, an individual designated by the person making the anatomical gift if the individual is the recipient of that part; if an anatomical gift to an individual under this paragraph cannot be transplanted into the individual, the part passes in accordance with subdivision six of this section in the absence of an express, contrary indication by the authorizing party making the anatomical gift; or

(c) an eye bank or tissue bank.

2. If an anatomical gift of one or more specific parts or of all parts is made in a document of gift that does not name a person described in subdivision one of this section, but identifies the purpose for which an anatomical gift may be used, the following rules apply:

(a) If the part is an eye and the gift is for the purpose of transplantation or therapy, the gift passes to the appropriate eye bank.

(b) If the part is tissue and the gift is for the purpose of transplantation or therapy, the gift passes to the appropriate tissue bank.

(c) If the part is an organ and the gift is for the purpose of transplantation or therapy, the gift passes to the appropriate organ procurement organization as custodian of the organ.

(d) If the part is an organ, eye, or tissue and the gift is for the purpose of research or education, the gift passes to the appropriate procurement organization.

3. For the purposes of subdivision two of this section, if there is more than one purpose of an anatomical gift set forth in the document of gift but the purposes are not set forth in any priority, the gift must be used for transplantation or therapy, if suitable. If the gift cannot be used for transplantation or therapy, the gift may be used for research or education.

4. If an anatomical gift of one or more specific parts is made in a document of gift that does not name a person described in subdivision one of this section and does not identify the purpose of the gift, the gift may be used only for transplantation or therapy, and the gift passes in accordance with subdivision six of this section.

5. If a document of gift specifies only a general intent to make an anatomical gift by words such as "donor", "organ donor" or "body donor",

1 or by a symbol or statement of similar import, the gift may be used only
2 for transplantation or therapy, and the gift passes in accordance with
3 subdivision six of this section.

4 6. For purposes of subdivisions four, five and paragraph (b) of subdivi-
5 vision one of this section, the following rules apply:

6 (a) If the part is an eye, the gift passes to the appropriate eye
7 bank.

9 bank.

10 (c) If the part is an organ, the gift passes to the appropriate organ
11 procurement organization as custodian of the organ.

12 7. An anatomical gift of an organ for transplantation or therapy,
13 other than an anatomical gift under paragraph (b) of subdivision one of 14 this section, passes to the organ procurement organization as custodian
15 of the organ.

16 8. If a potential donor has been referred to a procurement organiza-
17 tion or tissue bank pursuant to state or federal law, and the procure-
18 ment organization has determined that the gift is medically unsuitable
19 for transplant, or to the extent that a non-transplant anatomical gift
20 may still be honored after a gift has been made pursuant to a supersed-
21 ing document of gift, then the procurement organization shall make 22 reasonable efforts to determine whether the donor has previously made a 23 gift of his or her body or parts for education or research, and the 24 procurement organization informed of such gift shall notify the non-
25 transplant anatomic bank of the gift consistent with the donor's intent.

26 9. If an anatomical gift does not pass pursuant to subdivisions one,
27 two, three, four, five, six or seven of this section or the decedent's
28 body or part is not used for transplantation, therapy, research, or 29 education, custody of the body or part passes to the person under obli-
30 gation to dispose of the body or part.

31 10. A person may not accept an anatomical gift if the person knows
32 that the gift was not effectively made under section forty-three hundred 33 one or forty-three hundred five of this article or if the person knows
34 that the decedent made a refusal under section forty-three hundred one
35 of this article that was not revoked. For purposes of this subdivision, 36 if a person knows that an anatomical gift was made on a document of 37 gift, the person is deemed to know of any amendment or revocation of the 38 gift or any refusal to make an anatomical gift on the same document of 39 gift.

40 11. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of subdivision one 41 of this section, nothing in this section affects the allocation of 42 organs for transplantation or therapy.

43 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 44 it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amend-
45 ment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implemen-
46 tation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

PART E

Section 1. Subdivisions 1, 3 and 4 of section 4306 of the public health law, subdivisions 1 and 3 as added by chapter 466 of the laws of 1970, and subdivision 4 as added by chapter 589 of the laws of 1990, are amended to read as follows:

1. The donee may accept or reject the gift. If the donee accepts a gift of the entire body, he or she may, subject to the terms of the gift, authorize embalming and the use of the body in funeral services. If the gift is of a part of the body, the donee upon the death of the donor and prior to embalming, may cause the part to be removed without unnecessary mutilation. After removal of the part, custody of the remainder of the body vests in the surviving spouse, next of kin, or other persons under obligation to dispose of the body.

3. (a) A person who acts in good faith in accord with the terms of this article or with the anatomical gift laws of another [~~state~~] jurisdiction is not liable for damages in any civil action or subject to prosecution in any criminal proceeding for his or her act.

(b) A person who documents the making, amending or revoking of an anatomical gift, acting reasonably and in good faith in accordance with this article, may accept an anatomical gift under this article made by a person who represents that he or she is entitled to consent to the donation.

(c) An entity under section forty-three hundred two or forty-three hundred ten of this article or a health care professional, or an agent or employee thereof, who or which documents, records, recovers, procures, obtains, or utilizes an organ or tissue in reasonable and good faith reliance on information provided to or contained in the New York state donate life registry shall not be liable in any civil or criminal action or proceeding for action based on such reliance.

4. [~~At the time of acceptance of the gift, when it is known that the donation will be used for other than transplantation purposes, the donee if requested by the donor or the donor's next of kin shall advise the donor or the donor's next of kin of the body parts to be utilized, the uses to which the body parts may be put, whether body parts may be transferred to other facilities or institutions and plans for the ultimate disposition of all body parts if the donor has not specified the ultimate disposition.~~] Any employee or agent of a federally designated organ procurement organization, eye bank or tissue bank acting pursuant to this article shall be held to the same standard of confidentiality as that imposed on employees of a hospital.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply only to acts occurring on or after such effective date. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed on or before such effective date.

PART F

Section 1. The public health law is amended by adding a new section 4306-a to read as follows:

§ 4306-a. Advanced directives and health care proxies. 1. If a patient in a hospital has a declaration or advance health care directive or proxy document pursuant to article twenty-nine-C of this chapter, and terms of the declaration, directive or proxy document concerning life-sustaining treatment are in conflict with the express or implied terms of a potential anatomical gift with regard to the administration of measures necessary to ensure the medical suitability of a part for transplantation or therapy, the prospective donor's attending physician and the prospective donor shall confer to resolve the conflict.

2. If such prospective donor is incapable of resolving the conflict, and the patient in such declaration, directive, or proxy document did not expressly reject being a donor, then the health care proxy acting under the prospective donor's declaration, directive, or proxy or, if none, a surrogate authorized to make health care decisions on behalf of the patient, in accordance with the provisions of article twenty-nine-CC of this chapter, shall act for the patient to resolve the conflict.

3. Such conflict must be resolved expeditiously. Information relevant to the resolution of the conflict may be obtained from the appropriate procurement organization and any other person authorized to make an anatomical gift for the prospective donor described in subdivision two of section forty-three hundred one of this article. Before resolution of the conflict, measures necessary to ensure the medical suitability of the part may not be withheld or withdrawn from the patient if withholding or withdrawing the measures is not contraindicated by appropriate end-of-life care.

§ 2. The public health law is amended by adding a new section 4306-b to read as follows:

§ 4306-b. Withdrawal of life-sustaining treatment. This section applies in cases where a prospective donor who has made an anatomical gift or whose donation status has not been ascertained is in a hospital. The hospital shall not withdraw any measures that are necessary to maintain the medical suitability of the part until the procurement organization has had the opportunity to advise the applicable persons as set forth in section forty-three hundred one of this article of the option to make an anatomical gift, has documented or acted upon that decision, or has ascertained that the individual expressed a contrary intent. The procurement organization shall act expeditiously with respect to its responsibilities under this section.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed on or before such effective date.

5 by the donor of a human organ in connection with the donation of the 6 organ or human paired organ donation. Any person who violates this
7 section shall be guilty of a class E felony.

8 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

9 § 4. Severability. If any provision of this act, or any application of 10 any provision of this act, is held to be invalid, or to violate or be 11 inconsistent with any federal law or regulation, that shall not affect 12 the validity or effectiveness of any other provision of this act, or of 13 any other application of any provision of this act, which can be given 14 effect without that provision or application; and to that end, the 15 provisions and applications of this act are severable.
